Cruising off Cape Race 1861

Saturday June 15th

Foggy weather & a fresh breeze from S.E. & S.S.E. so turn I see S.S.E. on different tacks so E. & S.E. & S.E. & E.
min. & I put clear the ofing breeze with on different tacks & so wear

Sunday 16th

Begins with a fine breeze from N.W. Steering E.S.E.
& a Ship working in 2 Bow Shoals Lat 64 25 Log 17 Mar
Mid & I put the Lorne Spoke the Bark Fanny 540 Sperm
2 wi whale See the Lorne off Cape Race Lat 64 26

Monday 17th

Begins with a fine breeze from N.W. & fine weather Steering S.E. & S.S.E. min & I put the Lorne Steering off the southward I put a fresh breeze from N.W. & moving the E.S.E. by compass 2 points to Easthy Variation Lat at 6 P.M. 63 38

Tuesday 18th

Begins with a fresh breeze from N.W. & foggy weather at 6 P.M. made the Ice again bearing by the wind & the N.W. p.
with the main yard a hard thick fog. Mid & I put clear & fine weather S.S.E. Steering off the S.E. & S.E. & E. & the wind the S.E. See 3 sails Lat at 6 P.M. 63 21

Wednesday 19th

Begins with moderate breezes from N.W. & E. with fine weather with the Lorne in tack & Spoke the Ship Magnolia 2 seasons 200 Sperm & Barbadoes & German with her Mid & I put light winds & fine weather See 4 sails Lat 64 [illegible]

Thursday 20th

Light winds & fine weather at 4 P.M. Lowered for a Bow head without success did not See fire after we lowered Gamed with the Ocean Queen & Capt Dickerson Mid & I put calms & clear weather Lat 64 22

Friday 21st

Begins with Light winds from S.E. & fine weather Steering N.E. & E. See 5 sails, Mid put to Lorne & towing to the eastward
I put fresh gales from E.N.E. & E. & E. with a fog

Cruising off the Grand Bank 1861

Saturday June 22nd

Begins with a fresh gale from E.N.E. & E. & E. thick fog & to the southward Mid put the Lorne Lat 64 put more moderate & a Bankers going quickly
N.E. & E. & so with thick weather See 4 sail

Sunday 23d

Begins with strong breezes & thick weather with an fresh tacks wind S.E. Mid & I put the Lorne

Monday 24th

Strong breezes from S.E. & south & cloudy wea Steering Lat 64 55 Log 17 Mar and Mid the Lorne I put moderate breezes from S.E. & thick weather

Tuesday 25th

Begins with Light winds & fine south Lorne off Cape Bearing Lorne & sails Lorne a Bankers going quick to the Eastward did not Lorne Mid put the Lorne & I put clear at 7 A.M. saw Bank Lorne a 64 Boats in chase struck & put him along side at 10. so I sail made the falls & commence cutting Lat 64 25 Cape Race in sight distant 30 miles

Wednesday 26

Begins with a fresh breeze from E.S.E. & thick weather 104 finishing cutting & clean up set the watch & C. Mid & better part fog & rain at daylight & light airs to work

Thursday 27th

Fresh breezes from S.E. & thick weather Spoke the Ship Hero Lorne 30 months 2000 bbls Steering N.E. & E. & with had employed in hailing Mid fresh foggy steering N.E. & E. thick clear South Lorne 5 sails Lat 64-57.

Friday 28th

Begins with Light winds & fine weather off Cape Bearing Lorne put to Lorne finishing hailing steering E.S.E.

Saturday 29th

Light airs & calms finishing stowing down Lorne & hailing Lat at 6 P.M. Lorne calms, & C. Mid put to Lorne I put a fine breeze from N.E. with fine weather Lat at 6 P.M. Lorne not the mark,