Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a moderate breeze at 2 PM. raised a sail on board stated hours at 6 PM. spoke the Bark Ann Maria [illegible] of Sperm oil bound on this ground [illegible] employed through the day in boiling [illegible] with light breeze through the night Lat [illegible] Long [illegible]

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with the a light breze. at 12 M. cable broke on account of the mizzen mast giving and [illegible] light breze the crew were commencing boiling. at 6 PM finished boiling. at 8 PM. loosed the mainsail and set it. midle and latter part much the same. strong breze through the night. Lat [illegible] Long [illegible]

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a strong breze. on the [illegible] struck the trades. the Carpenter employed through the day in making the hatches. all sail set stearing S W by S by compass. middle and latter much the same. Lat 10.30 Long [illegible]

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a strong breze. and frequent squalls all sail set stearing to the nortard and westward. a part of the crew employed in fresh[illegible] on shaping gear. midle and latter part much the same. Lat 10.10 Long 81.27

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a moderate breze all sail set stearing the first part W. at 8 PM. shifted sail the stearing sail the wind about two points of the nortard quarter. 15 44 1917

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a light breze employed the fore part of the day in braking out between decks in order to stow the sperm oil. at 1½ past 8 PM raised 4 sperm whales four points on the starboard bow. four miles distant. and at 9 PM. about eight miles distant. [illegible] between two and four. lowered at four boats and chased until twelve but did not strike any. at a night left four boats. the carpenter employed in making the bowsprit. Lat 10.11 Long 85.9

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a light breze. all hands employed through the day in stowing down the oil and making room between decks middle and latter part much the same. Lat 10.24 Long [illegible]

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a light breze all sail set stearing to the nortard and westward. lowering sails on each side at 8 PM. at 12 M. at 10 PM. at midnight commenced to blow middle part much the same nothing worth of note through the remainder of this day. Lat 10.27 Long [illegible]

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a light breze all sail set stearing W by S employed through the day in scrubbing decks middle and latter part much the same. saw no [illegible] this day. Lat 9.4 Long 90.8

Sunrise this twenty four hours commenced with a