Sunset Bay July 29. 1857

sent four boats in to the land saw nothing but whitesacks. at night furled in ~~sail~~ sails the day. the Fleetwood anchored the same time

Jul 30

Both this day commenced with a strong breeze and rain. and continued so through the day. all hands below with the exception of two men on deck at a time. at night cleared up. nothing worthy of notice throughout the day.

Jul 31st this 24 hours commenced with a moderate breeze. in the morning lowered four boats two of them went up to Pinnacle point. and the other two up around the bay. but saw no whales. got back to the ship about ½ past 11 PM.

Sat Aug 1st these 24 hours commence with a light breeze. at 4 AM. let the Ship Par have 9 Mt ~~open~~ sheet. at 11 AM. hove up and moored in West bay. at ½ past 3 PM. anchored fast breeze gave her a long scope of chain. one Ship in all anchor in ~~bay~~ here. (the Lancaster & Bedford nothing this season.

Sunday this day commenced with a light breeze at 5 AM. lowered two boats and sent them up to the head of the bay. saw several whales but did not strike. nothing worthy of notice through the day. one sail in sight. ship laying at anchor

Monday this day commenced with a moderate breeze. at 3 AM called all hands got breakfast and cleared away four boats. saw several whales but they showed no chance to strike. so ends this day with a light wind. ship laying at anchor

West Bay. Aug 4th Ochotsk Sea Aug 6

Tuesday 4th these 24 hours nothing ~~occurred~~ worthy of notice occurred all day fast saw no whales ship laying to anchor

Wed this day commenced with a calm at ½ past 3 AM. lowered away four boats. undecided all day but saw nothing. at 5 AM. the Capt take his boat and went up to fish town and stop all night. so ends the day. with a light breeze. and the ship at anchor

Thursday this 24 commenced with a light breeze. the crew part employed in bracing out the main hatch and empty water casks. at ½ 11 cleared away four boats and tackle in a raft of cask and filled them. ~~and~~ put them along side and then made fast and spliced main brace (which is the second time this voyage) and then hoisted them in. so ends this day. the ship laying at anchor

Fri 7 this day commenced with strong breeze. at 2 AM. called all hands and stowed down the water pinched blowing down at 6 AM. at 8 AM. commenced heave short and made anchor. light breeze throughout day. starting to the southward and westward so ends

Sat 8th this day commenced with a light breeze. sail set working to the southward and westward. the part light wind and fog. so ends

Sunday 9th this 24 commenced with a light breeze saw several humbacks in the fore part of the day. middle and latter part much the same with fog. a hurricane appears to prevail fore and aft