Thursday March the 26th 1845

Part part fine weather but a heavy sea running from the S at sunrise wind hauled to the S and increased still holding on the whale he seemed to blast at 11 A.M. past from him to leeward at 2 P.M. more round heading to the W. Larboard tacks on board top mast stay sail Spencer and reef stay sail.

Monday the 31st

Wind S W tumbling to under short sail with Larboard tack on board nothing in sight

Tuesday the 1st

Wind hauled to the S of last night about as much of it at 6 A.M. wind round heading S by W Starboard tacks on board

Wednesday the 2d

Weather rather better but nothing in sight of any consequence

Thursday the 3d

Quiet good whaling weather but they are not in sight some porpuses &c

Friday the 4th

All these 24 hours fine weather but rather thick impt smoky at 8 P.M. saw a whale about 2 miles off but did not lower for him it being night the next morning.

Saturday March the 29th

First part fine weather wind last hundred W gathers sail took in sail at sun one hour

Sunday the 30th

Strong gales from the W bringing too under short sail with [illegible] on board some a sail off the lee quarter but where is whaler

Tuesday April the 1st 1845

This day light wind fine weather but not very good seeing this latter part rain nothing in sight of any consequence so ends the day

Wednesday the 2d

First part light wind from the W standing with the wind at 8 saw a whale lowered the boat but without success latter part strong breezes, rain & took in sail as usual so ends the day

Thursday the 3d

All this day strong gales from the W bringing under short sail saw whales but did not lower the boats a heavy sea running from the W &c

Monday the 7th

Strong gales from the S W first part bringing to under short sail at 8 P.M. spoke a sail standing N E by E so ends the day