South Atlantic &c

Wednesday April 5th

Fine Breeze from Eastward & Pleasant weather Crew imployed Working in the Rigen &c Saw one Sail to the Eastward & bid N.N.W. at daylight Passed Steering South & latter part all hands taring Rigen

Latt 10°55' South
Long 30°34 West

Thursday April 6th

Light Winds about East, Cloudy rain in Squalls & with all Sail out Water logged in the Rigen taring down one sail to the East latter part Weather winds the Same Saw 2 sail fitting Rigen &c

Latt 9°14 South
Long 30-02 West

Friday April 7th

Fine Weather & a pleasant Breze from ward, Crew busy fitting Rigen, Saw latter part Saw 3 Sail Winds & weather about the Same as the first fitting Rigen

Latt 7-00 South
Long 29-53 West

Bark Tumaline

Saturday

Light winds & Pleasant Crew

Course S.E. and E.

4 P.M. W.N.W. fine & Pleasant

Part Pleasant breze

Saw several Sails 2

Which

All at Large

Sunday April 9th

Plesant breze & fine weather

E with all Sail set Saw several heading South & 2 heading North

We have the pleasure of Carving

Crew Imployed with the Rigen &c

through the Night Steering N by E

course N.N.W. Saw gram passes

Latt 8 35

Latt 30 41

Monday April 10th

Fresh breges from Eastward

Course N.N.W. Saw Gram passes Middle & latter

Parts squally Winds variable at daylight saw

Black fish going quick to S.E.

& taring down Rigen

Latt 2 [illegible]

Long 32 [illegible]

Tuesday April 11th

Variable bredges and rain

N.N.W. all Sail out Fitting

Between Squalls &c Pining through the Night & latter part Squalls Crew imp

Scraping Spars &c Winds E.N.E.

Latt 00 35 South

Long 33-30 West