Ship Triton of New Bedford in the South Pacific capt George White master 1855

H	course	wind	Tuesday Feb 20 th
2			This day commences with fair
4		N	clear weather all sail ship boating
6			along the shore Middle and
8			Latter part fine weather at 10
10			30 M saw the island of Rooka
12		NW	Lat by Ob 39 00 S
2
4
6
8
10		NNW
12

H	course	wind	Wednesday Feb 21 th
2
4		NNW	first part fine clear weather
6			with a light breeze all sail boat
8			the main sail at sunrise saw the
10			island Rooka bearing NW dist 10
12		W	miles Middle and Latter part
2			weather the same at 7 PM
4			left white went on shore in the
6			starboard boat
8
10
12

H	course	wind	Thursday Feb 22 th
2
4		NW	first part light airs ship
6			lying off and on at noon stashing
8			boat on shore at 7 PM came
10			aboard with 10 ℔s of Potatoes
12		NW	Middle and Latter part weather
2			the same Noon Boat ashore
4			getting of Potatoes
6
8
10		NW
12

H	course	wind	Friday Feb 23 th
2			First part fine clear weather ship
4		NW	lying off and on Rooka got of 40 ℔s
6			potatoes 700 joints then men sent
8			away the Black smith Farrier W
10			Pike and a sponger of Naive unknown
12		W SE	Middle part the same Latter part
2			strong breeze spoke the ship mary
4			of New Bedford 4 months out 50 ℔s
6			sperm
8
10		SW SE
12

H	course	wind	Saturday Feb 24 th
2
4		E NE	First part strong breeze ship
6			double reefed top sails at sun set
8			saw the island of Rooka bearing
10			SW E dist 20 miles Middle and
12		SW NE	Latter parts weather the same
2			210 Obs
4
6
8
10		E SE
12

H	course	wind	Sunday Feb 25 th
2
4		SE	First part strong breeze ship
6			bearing up for the island of Rooka
8			at 6 PM capt White broke to
10			see if they had caught the men that
12		WNW S	been away from us continued at 7
2			with best find any thing Middle
4			and Latter parts strong breeze
6			ship under double reefed top sail
8			282 Obs
10		WNW S
12			