LOCAL NEWS.

Sudden Death.

Wednesday morning last Mr. William Janvier, who has been attending Court as a Petit Juryman, while sitting in the court room listening to a case being tried before the Court, was attacked with paralysis. Drs. Whaland and Perkins were soon in attendance and he was borne to the grand jury room and from thence to the residence of Wm. N. E. Wickes, Esq. The attack baffled all efforts of the medical gentlemen, and he expired about four o'clock that afternoon. The sad occurrence has been a great shock to our community, Mr. Janvier appearing in excellent health and remarking to a gentleman who rode in with him that morning, that he never felt better.

Mr. Janvier was an educated gentleman, of decided literary tastes and President of the Board of County School Commissioners; a lawyer by profession and represented the county in the last Constitutional Convention.

Orphans' Court.

Present Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Thursday.—Howard Meeks, adm'r, returned an inventory of the personal estate of Martha Meeks. Wm. W. Stephens, adm'r of Thos. H. Stephens, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased. Wm. Bolton, guardian to Jno. L. Jester, returned his final guardian account. The release of Garrett Foxwell and Catharine E. A. Foxwell to R. J. Lusby was filed; also, the release of Jno. L. Jester to Wm. Bolton. On application, ordered that Wm. J. Porter, adm'r of John A. Porter, deliver to the daughter of said deceased certain articles claimed by her. A petition was received from C. T. Westcott, Esq., asking action with reference to the ownership of certain bees appraised and sold for $121, as a part of the personal estate of C. A. A. Stanley, dec'd, and claimed by Mrs. Caroline V. Stanley. The court ordered one-half interest in said bees to Mrs. C. V. Stanley, and the remainder to the estate of C. A. A. Stanley.

Tuesday, April 25.—Wm. J. Porter, adm'r of John A. Porter, returned a list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased. C. T. Westcott and J. R. Leaverton, admr's of Curtis Cordray, returned an additional administration account and distribution. On application, C. T. Westcott and J. R. Leaverton, admr's, Curtis Cordray, rec'd an order authorizing the correction of certain names, erroneously stated in first distribution.

Court Proceedings.

The following cases have occupied the Court since our last report:

Henry James & Co., claimants, vs. W. P. Francis and Sol. Wright, trading as Francis & Wright—being a claim for property attached. Verdict of the jury, under the direction of the Court, for Francis & Wright for property attached.

Michael Houan vs. J. H. T. Jackson—Capias case on attachment. Tried before the Court. Hynson for plaintiff, Pearce and Blackiston for defence. Judgment for defendant for costs.

Robert Taylor vs. John Stephens—Action to recover the amount of a due bill. Judgment of non pros. Tried before the Court, Pearce for plaintiff, Slay for defendant.

W. E. Goldsborough, Esq., a member of the Baltimore City Bar, was, on motion of J. A. Pearce, admitted.

State vs. Wm. Simmons—Indictment for stealing a pocket book containing $130, the property of W. R. Coleman. Tried before a jury. H. W. Vickers for State, Pearce for prisoner. Verdict guilty, with a recommendation to the mercy of the Court.

Parsons & Co. vs. P. H. Moore, W. T. Burgess and W. H. Deshane—Suit to recover rent. Baker and Vickers for plaintiff, Hynson for defence. Sub curia.

The Grand Jury made the following Report, and recommended the following parties for license to sell spirituous liquors:

To the Hon. Circuit Court for Kent County:—The Grand Jury beg leave to report that they have in their official capacity visited the Jail and found evidence in its cleanliness, of much care and consideration for the comfort and health of the prisoners. They beg leave, in this connection, to call the attention of the Court to the case of Bob. Starling, an insane negro, in the hope that they may be able to make some more suitable provision for him.

They further report that upon an investigation of the facts connected with the late escape of five prisoners from the jail, they feel justified in saying that all due diligence and precaution appear to have been used by the Sheriff and his assistant to have prevented such an occurrence. The appliances used by him seem to be of the most approved kinds; but in our opinion the construction of the jail is very inadequate to the proper security of the prisoners and to the safety of the keepers.

All of which is respectfully submitted.
W. S. WALKER, Foreman,
April 24, 1876.

The following named parties were recommended for liquor licenses:

Teachers' County Association.

The Associaiion of the Public School Teachers of the county assembled at the school room in Chestertown, on Monday last. At ten o'clock the President called the meeting to order, and prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. H. Hutchin, followed by singing by the Association. The roll was called, when the following teachers only were found absent: Messrs. Pigeon and Hopkins, and Misses Younger, Kate Taylor, Simpers and Jump.

The proceedings of the last meeting were read and approved.

Miss S. E. Heighe was appointed a member of the Literary Committee from the second district, and also Essayist for the next meeting.

The following questions were selected for discussion at the next regular meeting:

1st.—What incentives may be properly used to induce a greater zeal in study?

2d.—How may attention during class recitation be best secured?

A committee appointed at the last meeting reported a revised constitution which after amendments was adopted, and ordered to be printed in sheets for distribution among the members, and that a tax be levied to pay for printing the same.

The following questions were then discussed:

What efforts can this Association use, and what means can the Teachers of the county avail themselves of to insure a larger attendance in the Public Schools?

To what extent should parental influence affect the schools?

What is the proper use and function of the Verb?

Should the philosophy of Arithmetic be taught with the practice?

The first question was amended so as to read "a more regular attendance," and referred to Messrs. Tonkin, Janvier and Melvin as a committee to report at the next meeting.

Miss M. F. Taggart read the regular Essay, her subject being SYMPATHY.

At half-past twelve the regular business was suspended to hear the address of Prof. Harley of the Centreville Academy. Mr. Harley spoke very earnestly, taking for his subject "Hints about Teaching Principles and Facts." A vote of thanks was tendered Prof. Harley, and a copy of his remarks requested for filing among the papers of the Association.

The following resolutions were offered and laid over until the next meeting:

Resolved, That the Association take means to secure a subscription of four dollars from each public school in the county to create a fund to be given as rewards to schools making the most progress—said fund to be distributed in the following manner: To the school making the most general progress 50 per ct. of the amount raised; to the second best 30; and to the third best 20 per ct.: one half of the reward to be given to the Teacher, and the other half to the school, to be used for the purchase of necessary school apparatus. No school to compete for the prize until its proportion of the fund is paid in, which will be required to be done by September 1, 1876. The decision as to which school has made the most progress to be determined by the County Examiner.

On motion it was resolved, That the practice of making appointments to discuss the different questions be discontinued; and that the President shall call upon the different members present without reference to any order, which would suggest to the members when their names are to be called. And that it it the sense of this Association, that it is the duty of each Teacher to study every question assigned for discussion and to arrange ideas in a condensed form for statement, and to respond promptly when called upon. And that no question shall be selected for discussion except such as relate directly to school room work. Nor shall there be more than two questions for any one meeting. And further, that no member shall speak longer than fifteen minutes, nor more than once on the same question, except by unanimous consent.

NURSERY STOCK.
Apple, Pear, Peach and Cherry Trees and Small Fruit Plants by the 100, 1,000 or 10,000.
I HAVE for Spring planting, the most extensive and choicest assortment of Fruit Trees and Plants I have ever before offered to planters.
APPLE TREES.
The growers of this valuable and profitable fruit in Md. generally have been sadly disappointed, in getting trees from the North, as winter varieties there, when planted here, mature their fruit too early in the fall to keep through the winter with us. For this reason, and to secure reliable winter keeping apples, I grew my Apple Nursery on my farm in Va., three hundred miles South of here. I have a choice selection which cannot fail to give satisfaction. I have largely of a variety called Smith's Horse, (not the old Horse apple). The fruit can be picked nearly as early as the Early Harvest, and being double its size, sells readily at from $5 to $7 per bbl.
PEACH TREES.
Almost all my Peach Trees were budded from bearing trees, grown on my own and two adjoining farms, the buds being taken from the trees while the fruit was on them; leaving no doubt in my mind, that my stock is true to name.
I have not a long list of varieties; have budded chiefly, of late, most approved canning sorts, including three (3) very valuable new varieties for canning, very popular in Delaware, ripening with and after Smock.
I also have a large stock of Early Beatrice. I fruited this variety last summer. Several of my friends in Kent saw the fruit, and can testify that it was fully 10 days earlier than Hale's; a high-colored, showy, firm peach. I think it well worthy extensive cultivation.
PEAR TREES.
I have secured a large stock of Standard and Dwarf Pear Trees, from a reliable source in New York; and can furnish, in quantities, of the most approved varieties. No better Pear Trees can be grown anywhere than in New York.
CHERRY TREES.
I have but few varieties of this fruit, and the planter wants but few for profit.
SMALL FRUIT PLANTS.
I have a large supply on hand. I recommend but few varieties. My extensive experience as a fruit-grower, enables me to judge of the merits of the many kinds in the market. I have rejected two thirds of them, as not worthy of cultivation.
☞ Catalogues mailed on application.
