Nov 1833 — Left Port Lahaina Maui

Tuesday 12th For the Warning the Capt Lent the man on shore that he Dis Served then and gave him one piece of Cotton Cloth and 4 Dollars in money for 6 months Service a fine instrument to take to a free Country for a man that wishes to take the advantage of the Capt Knowledge of the writes of man the man had Signed no Particles and was taken on Duson against his will but we have a Chest similar to it and Bound Still with Hammond but we have the Capt Carsten in full shape that we got from his own Shoes more and it is Evident a mistake that he Could not Dry Batt out of non to Skett much more than a Capt Batt we have had Strange Stories of him but Concert with what we have and at 3 P M got the Anchor and Stood out S W with a light Breeze from W S West to Leeward the Islands of Morotai and running off with the Loss of Joseph Pitman the next on Shore on Liberty on Monday and did not Come down to the Boat at night and the Capt being very much afraid of him Did not Care a Burst Lookinas for him in Short the Officers were all frightened at him all there he gave them no reason to be so but a Coward is frightened at his own Shadow but we have Shipped Sevrall Natives & have not got the Correct number of Connakas on Board but we have 6 goats and 2 Hogs in the Stye mixed with the Natives So ends the Day

Wednesday 13th light Breezes winds through the night and the wind came down in Cattadeks and Wahoo Bore N W West and Saw a Sail a head and 8 of the Islands a Beam at 7 A M it Began to Blow on Reef increasing untill it was a gale from N E Steering Steer on the wind on Batts Reefers So ends

Lat 20-39
Long Dis
Steering
Winds

Nov 1833 — About the Sandwich Islands

Thursday 14th Commences with gale from N E and at Sunset reduced to a Close reefed on Mizen to Scud and fore topmast Stays sail Middle and bottom part more moderate and more fine Still but very Cross indeed and Lost sight of the Land Still with the most Boisterous Courageous Crew that our Sail felt under than is but 5 of us that under stands English all of our crew that we have picked up this side of the Land Sweath Double Dutch quirlicks against the Sun and Cockeroes gabbling in all quarters

Friday 15th Commences with a gale from N E and taking Sail to get to the windward so that the Ship Labors and pitches that she leaks 8 Shots think about 200 Strokes per hour bottom part more moderate and in the morning Saw Wahoo about 18 miles dead to the windward and Saw a Sail close in with the Land and the Capt got his courage and wore Ship and Stood off N W to ends

Saturday 16th Commences with moderate N E trades Steering N W and got up the Stays for the Carters to Supply their selves with Fowls and Pans Spoons and we have a Connakas Steward and the Capt has got me to go in to the Cabin to Learn him and he is as tractable as a quiet and as easy taught and Saw a Ship off the Labroan quarter and in the morning Lost Sight of the Ship and all of Atoi bore N W by S So ends Steering N E by W with the Landsman of the Commences with moderate trades from N E Steering N E by E and the Land in sight of the Lee quarter Strong winds and Calms through the night and Lost Sight of the Land and Bound to the Spanish main on the N W Coast of America Latter part Squally with rain and Saw porpouses So ends

Lat 20-24
Long 157-30
Left Maui with 7 of the Sandwich Islands Natives on Board
Friday
Lat 21-28
Long 154-04
Saw the Sandwich Islands on Board of the Bangal
Saturday
Lat 23-08
Long Dis 145
10 miles Dis
Long
Lat 20-08
Long 169-30
Lost Sight of the Sandwich Islands