THE FALL OF BAKER.

Mr. Wm. Baker was elected to the City Council as a reformer. He had been a man of good reputation, but in an evil hour he became an ally of the American, and adopted its ideas of reform; and so he went on reforming things until he has landed in jail on a charge of forgery.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

ALFRED S. HURLOCK ET AL,
VERSUS
ABRAHAM LAING.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY—IN EQUITY.
April Term, 1876.

THE OBJECT OF THE BILL in the above entitled case is to procure a decree for the sale of certain Real Estate, with the improvements thereon, particularly described in the proceedings hereunder.

The Bill states that a certain Annie Hurlock, formerly Annie L. Stephens, Annie G. Stephens and Olivia V. Laing, formerly Olivia V. Stephens, are seized in fee as tenants in common, of a certain Lot of Land situated in Galena, containing half an acre, more or less, formerly occupied by one Thomas K. Stevens, now deceased.

The Bill further states that Abraham Laing, the husband of the said Olivia V. Laing, some time in the year 1875, left the State of Maryland and abandoned his said Olivia V., his wife, and has not been heard from since he left the State of Maryland in the said year 1875. That the parties entitled to said estate desire to sell the same, but that they are not competent to make said sale by reason of the incapacity of the said Olivia V. Laing to make a legal conveyance of her undivided interest in said estate without the concurrence of her said absent husband, and that such sale can only be made by a Trustee to be appointed by a Court of Equity.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper printed in Kent county, once each of four successive weeks before the fourth day of July next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in this Court, in person or by Solicitor, on or before the fourth day of October next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

To My Friends and Patrons.

I AM desirous of enlarging and improving my business, and also am owing some bills of already too long standing, which I want to pay, as it is exceedingly unpleasant to be dunned, and consequently I need every dollar due me. This notice, therefore, is to urge prompt payment upon the part of those indebted. If it is not convenient for you to let me have money, give me your note on short time, and that will enable me to be better prepared to accommodate you in the future.

I most positively insist upon an immediate settlement, either by note or cash, of all outstanding accounts, and those indebted will find it to their interest as well as mine to respond to this notice at once.

Respectfully, JOHN N. DODD.
