The Temperance Pledge

No more does the sparkling glass invite
It hath no charms for me
The spell that bound me with delight
Is broken and I am free

2

It lured me from my happy home
It filled my heart with woe
It forced me o'er the seas to roam
A wanderer to and fro,

3

No more shall I the goblet drain
On land or on the deep
My word is given and not in vain
The Pledge – the Pledge to keep

4

To you my philanthropic friends
Who held the pledge to me
My thanks and I lay I now do send
In gratitude to thee
