January Thursday 4 begins from N E by E heading N by the wind under all sale at 6 P M took in foresteysgaff and sale gaff topsale at sunset took in the main topgallant sale double reefed the topsale took in fore and spanker and hauled up the mainsale squaly all night last part moderate breases at 12 A M wore heading E so ends

January Fryday 5 begins ~~with~~ fine with the wind from N N E heading E at 8 at sunset struck 2 pawpasses saved took in the light sales double reefed the topsails took in fore and spanker hauled up the corses middle part rainy and squaly furled the corses and foretopsale ~~but~~ and wore round heading to the S and at midnight set the foretopsale wore ship heading N E strong winds so ends

January Saturday 6 begins squaly with rainy breases from N N E heading N at set the foresale and main spanker at sunset furled the foretopsale and wore ship heading W by S middle part squaly and at 8 A M made sale set the fore top sale mainsale fore and spanker I hauled them up wore ship heading to the N and E so ends

Sunday January 7 begins squaly with strong breases from N heading E N E by the wind under double reefed topsale wore ship hauled up and spanker middle part squaly last part the same with variable winds wore ship heading to the north and E so ends

Monday January 8 begins squaly with variable winds heading to the N and E at sunset took in the main sale and fore topsale and hauled up the foresale at 7 set the foresale again middle part squaly at 8 wore ship heading N N E by the wind at day light made all sale at 11 took in foretopgalantsales so ends

Tuesday January 9 begins squaly with strong breases at sunset took in fore gallantsales fore and spanker and furled the fore topsale and double reefed the main at wore ship heading N by E last part made all sale packed ship heading N. N W at 10 A M took in the topgalantsales so ends