923 On board of the Ship Padmore of Fairhaven William Gerrell Master

Remarks on Tuesday April 25th 1837

this 24 hours begins with light winds from the W & S & having squalls of rain at 1 PM took the larboard boats which we long side got dinner & commenced cutting in the whales at 7 PM got both the boats in & hit the heads long of long side & stowed & watches for the night the starboard & waist boat got stove light by middle & latter part of the day rough weather & squally at 8 PM called all hands & close reefed the main topsail & commenced taking in the whales heads were dish & took them to the leward at 11 got them both in & cut up part of the bunks got ready to stoke our oil down the four hatchway this day ends squally weather & rough

Lat in by Dr 28. 00 South

924 Remarks on Wednesday April 26th 1837

this 24 hours begins with strong winds from the Eastward rugged & squally weather all hands employed in stowing down oil in the four hatchways at 5 PM got 7 pipes & left a short cask on deck cleared up the decks & stowed short watches for the night heading to the S & W under short sail middle & & rainy by squalls & ruff weather at 5 & 8 PM latter part of the day squally called all hands & commenced boiling heavy & cutting blubber this day ends with ruff weather & squally all hands employed in boiling

Lat in by Dr 28. 26 South

925 Remarks on Thursday April 27th 1837

this 24 hours begins with strong winds from the Eastward & rugged weather & squally heading to the South under short reef main topsail & reef fore sail all hands employed in boiling heavy at 5 PM hit the watch the larboard watch below at 7 PM came on to rain thick & squally weather put out the fire & washed down the works at 12 called the larboard watch out latter part of the day strong winds & rugged weather with hazy clouds at 2 & 8 PM cease of fire & commenced boiling, this day ends with strong winds & hazy clouds boiling water below

Lat in by Obs 27. 24 South

926 Remarks on Friday April 28th 1837

this 24 hours begins with strong winds & hazy clouds heading to the South by the wind water in boiling all hands finished boiling the heavy at 8 PM commenced boiling light strong winds rugged & squally weather all hands employed heading to the S & E under short sail bends this day

Lat in by Dr 27. 58 South

927 Pursuing Between Sunday Island & Pongaterboo

Remarks on Saturday April 29th 1837 Dream G Pratt

this 24 hours begins with strong winds from the W & N & squally & some rain by squalls heading to the S & E under short sail all hands employed at 10 PM finished boiling, & secured the oil & washed off the decks & stowed short watches for the night middle part rainy the W & N & cloudy weather at & short reef fore sail latter part strong winds from E & E & cloudy in evening close

Lat in by Obs

928 Remarks on Sunday April 30th 1837

this 24 hours begins with strong winds from the E & E & rugged weather heading NE under short sail employed in washing down at 8 PM down hatches the fore sail & fore topsail & hoisted to the wind & at 12 fore & hinder middle & latter part of this day fresh gales & clear weather

Lat in by Obs 27. 24 South

929 Remarks on Monday May 1st 1837

this 24 hours begins with fresh gales from the W & S & clear weather heading to the W & N at 8 PM cleared the fore & hind topsail gaves from the dish & stowed the main topsail over at 12 began to moderate latter part more moderate gales & clear weather large clouds on with hazy clouds

Lat in by Obs 28. 3 South

930 Remarks on Tuesday May 2d 1837

this 24 hours begins with moderate gales from the South & W large swell on heading to the N & E some clouds & the wind hauled to the S & E & the weather thickened up for rain middle & latter part of the day moderate weather at 6 & 8 PM made sail at 7 commenced hoisting the oil out the blubber room to washer in breaks out the after hole to stow down the oil tank up all the provisions this day ends with fine weather & a large swell on from S & E to the wind & steering to the W & E

Lat in by Obs 28. 25 South