LOCAL NEWS.

Orphans' Court.

Present Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Letters of Administration on the personal estate of Perry Chambers, were granted unto Perry Chambers, who filed his bond, with Thomas H. Lee and Jas. Chambers, as sureties, in the penalty of four thousand dollars. T. W. Russell and James W. Chapman were appointed to appraise the estate. The usual notice to creditors was ordered.

Henry T. Jump and James S. Harris returned their report of the annual value of the real estate of George H. Clark and Joseph S. Clark, minors.

R. J. Lusby, admr. of John M. Hudson, returned his fifth administration account and fourth and final dividend.

Saulsbury Sparklin, admr. of William B. Sparklin, returned his first administration account.

Judges of Election.

The County Commissioners, on Tuesday last, made the following appointments of Judges of Election:

First District.—Richard C. Johnson, William Cacy, R. E. Knighton.

Second.—Jacob Highley, N. W. Comegys, J. Frank Wilson.

Third—J. T. Skirven, Dr. Saml. Beck, Alexander R. Parks.

Fourth.—John R. Gray, Wm. S. Walker, Levi Fiddis.

Fifth.—Benjamin F. Beck, Owen Connelly, William W. Coleman.

Fully Vindicated.

Rev. Walter R. Graham has been fully vindicated of the charges made against his character some months ago by John Bounds, in the Circuit Court for Wicomico county. Mr. Graham sued Bounds for slander, but (we learn) by an agreement between counsel the claim for damages was not to be pressed provided Bounds would state in open Court that the charges were false, and also pay the costs of the suit, which he did. So the matter ended, Mr. Graham only desiring a full vindication of his character.

Death of an old Colored Citizen.

We omitted to mention in our last issue the death of Perry Chambers, on the 22d ultimo, one of the old colored citizens of our town, aged about seventy-eight. Perry was in some respects, for his opportunities, a remarkable man. He was a local preacher in the African M. E. Church, and we have heard that Ignatius Cooper, D. D., declared that he always went to hear Perry preach when he had the opportunity. He was once complimented on the floor of a Democratic Maryland House of Delegates for his polished manners.

The Campaign Club.

The Tilden and Hendricks Campaign Club of the Fourth District, held its regular weekly meeting in the Town Hall in this place, Tuesday evening, Dr. F. Worrell presiding in the absence of the Chairman, Sewell Hepbron, Esq'r. The attendance was quite large, and a number of new names were added to the roll of members.

After the transaction of the regular business, JAMES A. PEARCE, ESQ., in response to numerous calls, ascended the platform and delivered a most excellent and instructive address, in the course of which, in temperate but earnest terms, he reviewed the evils which originated with the accession of the Republican party to power, and which since, from year to year have increased by the corrupt management of its unscrupulous leaders, until our free institutions are in imminent danger of being utterly destroyed; that in such a party it was impossible to inaugurate reform; and conclusively showed that the only hope for the safety of the country lay in the election of Tilden and Hendricks, and the restoration of the democratic party again to the control of the affairs of the nation. The address elicited marked attention, and at its close the Club tendered Mr. Pearce a vote of thanks.

U. A. C. Garrett was appointed Janitor and Thos. V. Simpson sergeant-at-arms. An address may be expected next Tuesday night.

☞ Mr. Charles Francis Adams's reference to the fact that Blaine came within twenty-five votes of getting the Cincinnati nomination, was a telling incident of the Republican party. Think of a political convention of men pretending to be seeking reform and desiring the reformation of their own corrupt party, which went about the work by thus setting the seal of the approval of so great a number of them on a legislator who sold his influence as Speaker for railroad bonds, and in his own handwriting convicted himself of the venality! And Hayes now begs Blaine to help him in Ohio, putting him first among his advocates! If Hayes is elected this Blaine will be the controlling mind of the Administration. We fancy the people are not going to allow so disgraceful a state of things to come to pass.—N. Y. Sun.

THE EUROPEAN WAR CLOUD.

Gen. Tchernayeff was right in his advice to the Servian Government to continue the war. It is evident from the course of the great powers that however badly the Servians may be defeated the Turks will not be permitted to reap any advantage from their victories—will not even be allowed to dictate terms of peace. That prerogative of the conqueror has been assumed by the powers who signed the treaty of Paris. It is they who will make the stipulations with regard to the future condition of the revolted provinces, and the Porte will either have to accede to them or incur the danger of Russian interference in a more active and hostile form. Every hour's delay will enlarge the Russian demands, make them more pressing, and peace more remote. Upon the nature and extent of these demands Russia and Austria even now are at issue, and from the tone of the journals of the two nations there is evidently a serious disagreement between their respective governments which may involve other governments in the quarrel. The difficulty seems to be to understand what position Germany will occupy in relation to the other powers on the questions at issue. The press of the German empire is largely anti-Russian, but it does not follow that the policy of the government will be colored by the same feeling. Nevertheless, if Austria is as firm in opposing the propositions of Russia as she is alleged to be, it is because she is sure of outside support—perhaps from England; perhaps from England, France and Italy combined. A few weeks will tell. By that time either peace negotiations will be well advanced or there will be imminent danger of a general European war.

☞ A SAMPLE REPUBLICAN TICKET IN LOUISIANA.—If any intelligent Northern man were to come to the parish of St. James, we care not how pronounced a republican he may be, to-day, and see the kind of men who have been placed in nomination on a republican ticket for members of the General Assembly, he would shudder at the thought of such men sitting in a legislative body as the representatives of 20,000 people who pay taxes upon $3,000,000 worth of property, at the rate of about 3 per cent. per annum. Not one of the candidates for legislative honors owns a dollar's worth of real estate; not one of them could frame a law or draw up a resolution properly; they are all young and inexperienced, and lacking every qualification necessary to make trusty and efficient law makers.—St. James Sentinel.

THE ARMY AND THE INDIANS.—In addition to the other horrors of the mismanaged Indian war it is now stated that the soldiers were actually driven, by want of supplies and hunger, to eat horseflesh. The men, it is said, are unprovided with shelter, clothing and equipments. Inasmuch as the officers, as a rule, are believed to make provision for contingent circumstances, the War Department and the President must be held responsible for these consequences. It is thought that if troops had been withdrawn from the South, where they are not needed, and an ample and well supplied force sent to the Indian country, we should never have heard of the massacre of Custer and his brave companions.

THE VIRGINIA COLORED VOTE.

The democratic union of colored people in Richmond has become a formidable organization, as shown by correspondence lately published in THE SUN from Richmond. It has three hundred members, and auxiliary unions in the principal Virginia towns, and fine speakers and agents to organize sub-unions. The headquarters at Richmond are always open and well supplied with newspapers and political documents. The faithful efforts which Virginia has made to educate her colored population seem to have had a different effect from that proposed by its republican advocates. The colored people have learned to read and write to some purpose. They are particularly well informed on the subject of the Freedmen's Bank, and make a specialty of disseminating its record throughout the State.—Balto. Sun.

ACCOMAC ON THE TURF.—Sadie Bell, the winner of the Republic purse at the trotting races in Philadelphia last week, is described as a pretty little chestnut filly, four years old, and is owned by J. C. McConnell, of Pungoteague, Accomac county, Va. She might appropriately be styled a Pungoteague pony, and in point of size, at least, might be considered a near relation of her Chingoteague neighbors. She was sired by Oden Bell, a well-known Accomac stallion. Although she has hitherto had no official record, it is stated that she has made a half mile trial in 1.06. At Philadelphia she beat her five competitors easily, the best three in five, in 2.34.

Ayer's

Cherry Pectoral.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Among the great discoveries of modern science, few are of more real value to mankind than this effectual remedy for all diseases of the Throat and Lungs. A wide trial of its virtues throughout this and other countries, has shown that it does surely and effectually control them. The testimony of our best citizens, of all classes, establishes the fact, that CHERRY PECTORAL will and does relieve and cure the afflicting disorders of the Throat and Lungs beyond any other medicine. The most dangerous affections of the Pulmonary Organs yield to its power; and cases of Consumption, cured by this preparation, are publicly known, so remarkable as hardly to be believed, were they not proven beyond dispute. As a remedy it is adequate; on which the public may rely for full protection. By curing Coughs, the forerunners of more serious disease, it saves unnumbered lives, and an amount of suffering not to be computed. It challenges trial, and convinces the most sceptical. Every family should keep it on hand as a protection against the early and unperceived attack of Pulmonary Affections, which are easily met at first, but which become incurable, and too often fatal, if neglected. Tender lungs need this defence; and it is unwise to be without it. As a safeguard to children, amid the distressing diseases which beset the Throat and Chest of Childhood, CHERRY PECTORAL is invaluable; for, by its timely use, multitudes are rescued from premature graves, and saved to the love and affection centred on them. It acts speedily and surely against ordinary colds, securing sound and health-restoring sleep. No one will suffer troublesome Influenza and painful Bronchitis, when they know how easily they can be cured.

Originally the product of long, laborious, and successful chemical investigation, no cost or pains is spared in making every bottle in the utmost possible perfection. It may be confidently relied upon as possessing all the virtues it has ever exhibited, and capable of producing cures as memorable as the greatest it has ever effected.

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protoxide Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the Blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damaged and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
