The regular annual meeting of Public School Commissioners will be held at the State Normal School on Tuesday, November 19th, at 12 o'clock. Several matters of moment are likely to come before the Association.

The Mass Meeting.

Don't forget the Mass Meeting to be held on the Court House Green tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon. Able and experienced speakers will cetainly be present, and a rare oratorical treat may be expected. Let every Democrats and Conservative, who can possibly do so, be present.

Speaking at the Club.

The Tilden and Hendricks Club of the fourth district at its regular meeting last Tuesday night at the Town Hall in this place, was, after the usual order of business, entertained for a short time by James M. Vickers, Esq., in a very good and well delivered address.

Speaking may be expected next Tuesday night, to which all are invited. We hope there will be a full turn out.

U. S. Supervisors of Election.

The following supervisors of the election, November 7, have been selected by Chief Supervisor Bond, the first named in each district being a Republican and the second named a Democrat, for Kent county:

First District—William D. Merritt, Walter J. Griffith.
Second—Robert Conley, R. J. Boulden.
Third—Alexander R. Parks, George T. Williams.
Fourth—Henry M. Thomas, John W. Loud.
Fifth—Wm. H. Hamilton, Owen Connolly.

The Teachers' Association

Of the Fifth District, met at Edesville, October 21st.

The secretary's office being vacant, Miss Sophie A. Taggart was appointed to fill the vacancy till the next election of officers.

Miss Comegys gave notice of her intention to propose an amendment to the constitution at the next meeting.

The following are the subjects for discussion at the next meeting:

1st. Whether or not it is best for children to prepare their lessons at home?

2d. What part and how much of the science of language do teachers teach without a book?

The Association adjourned to meet at Edesville the third Saturday in November.

SOPHIE A. TAGGART, Sec'y.

THE BATTLE GROUND.

In spite of all that the Republicans can do by bayonets and bribery in the South, and by brazen falsehoods on the stump and a hopeless cause fund in the North, it is certain that Hayes will be defeated unless he can carry either New York or one other State of Connecticut, New Jersey and Delaware. We think it is as sure to go for Tilden in November as Kentucky is. This fact, therefore, makes New York, Connecticut, and New Jersey the battle ground for the remaining two weeks of the campaign.

The friends of Hayes and corruption will struggle desperately to capture New York and the two adjoining States. It is a case of life and death to their cause, and they will fight with the energy of despair. Nevertheless, we are confident that the supporters of Tilden and Reform will put forth such energy during the coming two weeks as to make sure of the fifty electoral votes of those States, thus saving the country from another term of Grantism, won by false professions and pretences.—New York Sun.

SCRIBNER FOR NOVEMBER.

Scribner for November begins the thirteenth volume of that magazine and opens with a fully illustrated article on Hartford, by Mr. Charles H. Clark, of the "Hartford Courant," under the title of "The Charter Oak City." Here are depicted Col. Colt's beautiful estate at Armsmear: the residences of Mark Twain and Charles Dudley Warner; the famous Charter Oak itself; Dr. Bushnell, Yung Wing and General Hawley; the Insurance Building and many other subjects of general interest. In this number Charles Barnard's articles on Co-operation in Great Britain are begun—with a paper on "A Scottish Loaf Factory."—Mrs. Herrick's very carefully illustrated microscopic papers are also here begun—the first being entitled "The Beginnings of Life." Mr. Clarence Cook continues his talks about furniture; the illustrations are of fire-places, settees, chairs, etc Mr. C. F. Thwing gives us the result of his investigations in regard to the expenses of an education at the principal colleges,—including cost of board, etc. D. G. Mitchell (Ik Marvel) writes about some of the features of the great Exhibition. There is an illustrated paper on Rome: a short story by James T. McKay, a writer well known to the readers of this magazine; a short story by Mrs. Burnett, whose serial "That Lass o' Lowrie's" is continued. Mr. Hale's story draws toward its close. There are poems by Thomas Bailey Aldrich, George Parsons Lathrop, and others. In the departments at the end of the magazine, such various subjects are discussed as Country Homes, American Art, Politics, the Jews, the proper treatment of infants, "Daniel Deronda," a new photographic process, etc. "Bric-a-Brac" contains among other things, the ballad of the Fair Isolinda, by Hugh Howard; and The Old Hostler's Experience, by Irwin Russell.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP (AN IRON TONIC)

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an ailment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
