LOVERS OF CHITTERLINGS are "in clover" just now.

The Essay

Delivered before the Teachers' Association of Kent county, by Mrs. Mary E. B. Stephens, at its session in Chestertown on the 20th of November, will be found on our first page to-day.

Winter

Was up to time this year, commencing promptly, and shaking his snowy locks quite vigorously the very first day of December, and making a good start for a rigorous season. But it's too soon, just yet, to begin prophecying.

A Large Public Sale

Of valuable stock, implements, &c., will take place at the residence of Mrs. A. M. Hurtt, near Galena, next Wednesday, December 6th. The sale will be conducted by Cornelius J. Scott, Esq'r. See advertisement in another column.

A Fine Pen of Hogs.

Josias Ringgold, Jr., Esq., slaughtered the best pen of hogs we have heard of, so far, this season, and it is hardly probable that they will be surpassed. The killing consisted of eighteen hogs, and averaged 283 pounds each.

Arm Broken.

Harry, an interesting little son of Mr. Levi Fiddis of this town, Thursday afternoon, the 23d ult., whilst at play fell and broke his left arm between the elbow and wrist. Dr. T. S. Holton reduced the fracture, and the little fellow is out again as lively as ever.

The State Association

Of Public School Commissioners of Maryland met in Baltimore city on Tuesday last, at the State Normal School building. Delegates were present from all the counties in the State except Anne Arundel, Charles, Somerset, St. Mary's, and Baltimore city.

Blind Tom,

The world-renowned pianist, gave a concert at the Town Hall last Wednesday night. His musical powers are truly wonderful and beyond description; only those who witness them can have any adequate conception of his astonishing imitative gifts. The Hall was packed, and numbers came who were unable to gain admittance.

The Average

Thanksgiving day sportsman, heresabouts, usually returns home late in the afternoon, tired out, be-draggled, briar-torn and foot-sore: next morning, instead of arising refreshed and with energies renewed by a day's relaxation from toil, he finds himself feeling very much like a chewed calf-rope. His game foots up as about as follows:

Partridges, rabbits, squirrels,	000
Sum total,	000

Sickness among the Children.

We have learned recently, of a number of cases of measles among children of our town, all of which, however, readily yielded to proper treatment, and occasioned very little concern. But there is at present a case of that most to be dreaded of all diseases to children—the scarlet fever—in our midst: the little sufferer is said to be doing quite well, with all the indications in favor of a speedy recovery. It is to be hoped that the disease will not spread.

Look Out

For poultry thieves.—Saturday afternoon, just before dusk, some dishonest lover of goose stole a very fine 10-pounder from a goods-box in front of J. H. Simpers & Bro's., where it was exposed for sale. A bold theft, indeed, as numbers of persons were passing along the street at the time. Poultry is so low and plentiful just now, that it seems to us the thief valued his liberty very lightly—risking a year or two at hard work and confinement in the penitentiary for the unlawful possession of a goose which he could have purchased for one dollar.

Hog Killing.

Last Monday was general hog killing day in Chestertown, though there are quite a number, including some of the heaviest, yet to be slaughtered. We heard one party say his pork cost him fully ten dollars per hundred. Not a very economical procedure, we think all will admit, in view of the fact that as good pork can be had for about three dollars less per hundred. But the pork of most town hog-raisers costs more than ten cents per pound, to say nothing of the time consumed and trouble occasioned in attending to them.

Pork.

Some few lots, we learn, were offered in our market this week, but did not find ready takers at the low price of six dollars per hundred pounds. Last week a farmer endeavored to engage a choice small lot, to be delivered this week, at seven dollars per hundred, but could not find a purchaser. The fact is, but very few indeed, of our citizens, put up their pork, preferring to get supplied from the butchers when they desire fresh meat, sausage, etc., and looking to the grocers for their bacon and lard. Farmers who have a surplus of pork can do much better, we think, by putting it up and selling the bacon and lard next summer. Hams and lard in our market, all through the summer and fall, command fully 18 cents per pound. But by contrasting the price of pork at this season, and the prospective selling rates of bacon and lard next year, (taking the last few years as a criterion), both sellers and buyers will be able to make a calculation, on the score of economy, these hard times, and govern themselves accordingly.

Thanksgiving Day

Was observed in Chestertown by the closing of stores and a pretty general suspension of business. There was service in the forenoon at the Protestant Episcopal and Methodist Episcopal Churches. Congregations, as usual on such occasions, rather slim. That portion of the Thanksgiving Proclamation of his Excellency the Governor of Maryland, reading, "and do most earnestly recommend to "the people of this State that laying aside "their usual occupations, they assemble "on that day at their customary places of "worship, and, bowing down before Him "who is 'our refuge and strength,' im-"plore His aid and guidance in further-"ing the prosperity of our common coun-"try," must, we are charitably compelled to conclude, have been overlooked by a large number of our citizens.

Rev. J. B. Jones at night preached a sermon on Odd Fellowship, before Amicable Lodge, in the Methodist Protestant Church. The discourse was excellent, and the attendance good.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the facts that it not only entirely extirpates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP (AN IRON TONIC)

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.
