THERE IS NO USE

"Witing for something to turn up,"

And we have at last decided to turn it up. The protracted warm spell has materially interfered with the CLOTHING BUSINESS of Baltimore. Hundreds of Thousands of Dollars worth, which seasonable weather would have sold, remains on Shelf and Counter. It is usual in most business houses to make reductions after the season of demand is over. We have decided to take time by the forelock and make those reductions NOW. Hence our entire stock has been marked Down, Down, DOWN to an after-holiday basis. We will positively stick at no reasonable sacrifice that will turn our great stock into speedy cash.

To Advertisers and Correspondents

Advertisements and Communications should be received at this office by Wednesday's mail. The Transcript is issued on Friday but printed on Thursday, and we go to press before Thursday's mail arrives. Any thing received by Thursday's mail, must, consequently, lie over until the next issue.

Repaired.

The school house at Fairlee or Belair, which was damaged by fire on the Wednesday before Christmas, has been repaired.

Of Patrons of Husbandry in the county, and benevolent organizations, will please report the officers elected for the year.

Monday Night

Our section was visited with the heaviest fall of snow for at least a dozen years, averaging from ten to fifteen inches, and on a solid sheet of ice, making the sleighing as good as possible.

Snow Bound.

The Kent county train was engaged all of Tuesday and Wednesday, butting the snow in the cuts between Chestertown and Worton station. We are completely snowed in, and but for the telegraph might as well be in a walled town beseiged.

We learn that the Queen Anne's train got stuck in a snow-drift, about sixteen miles above Centreville, last Tuesday, and still remained there all day Wednesday.

The Catholic Fair

Closed on New Year's night, and was quite a success. The following are the names of those who won the principal prizes:

New Year.

We wish all of our readers a happy New Year, and desire to say that we have entered upon eighteen hundred and seventy-seven with the purpose to make the Transcript more interesting than during the past year. The subscription price of our paper, if paid at the time of subscribing and strictly in advance, is only one dollar, and we feel a fresh hope that we can so increase the interest that a large circulation, larger than ordinary county papers, will result. As a medium of communicating with the citizens of the county the Transcript offers advantages which have sometimes been overlooked. The Transcript is not the organ of any individual or any party or sect, and we think it should commend itself for this reason to the public. We propose to make the Local Department the feature of the paper, and will ask our friends to aid us by communicating items of news.

The Cold

In our section has been continuous since it set in. We have had but one or two days since the ground was first covered with sleet that the ice has softened the least. Several times the thermometer has marked below ten: on Thursday morning last it went as low as seven.

Zimmerman's

LAMP EXTINGUISHER.—We are using one of these extinguishers in our office and would not willingly do without it. The thing is so simple and yet so effectual that it constantly surprises. They can be attached to any burner and at small cost. The burner and extinguisher attached, are now on the market, and can be found at S. F. Smith's, Chestertown. Added to the convenience of this little attachment, it is also ornamental, and must diminish the danger of using coal oil. It is only a question of time, but the extinguisher and the Professor's lamp must also be largely used.

Watch Night.

Watch night services were held at the M. E. Church, beginning at 10 o'clock P. M. A large audience listened to a sermon by the Pastor, Rev. W. H. Hatchin, from the text, "Brethren, the time is short," after which a prayer meeting was held, followed by an experience meeting, and afterward a short consecration service. The entire meeting was attended with evidences of spiritual interest which deepened as the minutes passed. Just at midnight, while the congregation was engaged in silent prayer and consecration, the Church bell tolled slowly the passing hour. After a brief pause a glad peal rung out a welcome to the New Year, and the announcement of his coming to the listening watchers.

Christmas Tree.

The Sunday School of the Methodist Episcopal Church held its usual Christmas gathering in the Lecture Room of the Church, on Thursday night, Dec'r. 28th. The trees—there were two of them—were decorated and laden with the offerings for the children, the room was brilliantly lighted, the organ sounded its best, and the children with their friends laughed and talked and sung, while two hours passed swiftly and joyously away. Then came the distribution of the presents, after which every body went home delighted.

A pleasant and impressive feature of the occasion was the presentation of a large, hand-omely framed, beautiful chromo, "Beatrice," by the Pastor on behalf of the school, to the organist, Miss Bella Bordley, as an acknowledgment of her services and also as a token of the regard in which she is held by her associates.

Sale of the Kent Railroad.

George B. Westcott, George W. T. Perkins and George Vickers, Esqrs., give notice through the Kent News, of the public sale of The Kent County Railroad on the fifteenth day of February next, to enforce the first lien and mortgage.

The citizens of our county generally are pleased to learn that a sale of this road is to be effected, hoping that it will result in a more substantial and improved running condition.

The present method of running the road requires a day's journey to reach here from Baltimore or Philadelphia, and must certainly deter all who are not obliged to undergo the trial: and indeed there is no actual certainty when you will arrive at either end. We do not wish to be understood as censuring the lessee, who appears to be doing the very best under the circumstances, we only state the facts. We all hope that a sale will result in an improved condition of affairs.

The Christmas Tree.

Prepared for the children of the Episcopal Sunday School on New Year's night, though not so costly as some heretofore, was pronounced as pretty, if not prettier, than former ones. The children, some sixty in number, notwithstanding the storm, (there is nothing like a Christmas tree or festival to bring children out,) marched from the Church to the Sunday School room, singing the hymn from the Children's Hymnal, commencing—

Our Christmas tree is decked once more,
In joy we meet around;
It tells of brighter things in store;
Let songs of praise resound.

The Christmas tree is an ever-green;
It blooms when frost and snow are seen;
The Christmas tree is forever bright,
It shines with ever lasting light.

The tree was brilliantly lighted, and loaded with the gifts for the children, which were dispensed by one of the youths dressed up as Santa Claus. After the gifts were all distributed, refreshments were liberally dispensed, and all went home as merry as only children can be.

Two goose-bone prophets hit the weather to a dot last month. How about January?

Feed the Birds.

The editor of the Middletown Transcript calls attention to the necessity of feeding the birds while the ground is thus covered, in the following article:—Our attention was called to the starving condition, at present, of birds in the country around Middletown, and we adopt this method of urging upon farmers, sportsmen, and all others who have the desire and opportunity, the necessity of feeding them until this snow leaves the ground and the sleet leaves the weeds. Partridges are so nearly starved that they can scarcely walk, while flying is out of the question, and they are thus pounced upon by negroes and killed by the dozen. Mr. Dr. Gibbs was visited, on Thursday, by at least forty partridges, and they were dined as sumptuously as their weak condition would permit. We also call attention to the sparrows in Middletown, whose constant endeavors to obtain something to live on the past week have attracted our attention. Feed the birds and thus keep them from dying.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP AN IRON TONIC

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
