We learn that a protracted meeting will commence at the Methodist Protestant Church in this place, next Sunday night.

A Religious Revival

Is in progress at the Methodist Episcopal Church this week. The meeting commenced Sunday night, when a number of penitents presented themselves at the altar. Considerable interest is manifested, and the present outlook is hopeful for an unusual revival.

We take pleasure in calling attention to the BALTIMORE SUN. Every thing worthy of note or record in the State of Maryland and the adjacent States will be found in its columns from day to day, in a compact and readable form. Public questions are fairly and impartially discussed, and its special correspondence covers the most prominent points in the Union. We consider the Sun a first-class newspaper, and do not hesitate to say that if confined to one paper after our local journal, we should rely upon the Baltimore Sun.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

QUEEN ANNE'S ITEMS.

From the Observer.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.—Unity Lodge No. 108, I. O. O. F. of Church Hill, has elected the following officers for the ensuing term: John Taylor, Noble Grand; William L. Reed, Vice-Grand; John T. Tucker, Secretary; William E. Temple, Treasurer; Joseph Guest, Representative to the Grand Lodge; and David H. Crane, William H. Smith and William E. Temple, Trustees.

ELECTION OF DIRECTORS.—The stockholders of the Centreville bank last Tuesday elected the following directors for the ensuing year: William McKenney, John B. Brown, James B. Palmer, W. [illegible] Roe[illegible]ad, J. Hersey Hall, Richard T. [illegible], Jas. Bordley, Judge Carmichael, [illegible] Joseph H. Clark and Wm. H. [illegible] Hall, Dr. [illegible] Young, is doing a very fine business, and its stock cannot be purchased at par, some stockholders asking as high as 20 per cent. advance for it. Mr. McKenney is the President of the board and Mr. John B. Brown Vice-President.

HOT NEWMAN.

When Parson Newman returned from his tour round the world he brought in his personal baggage a cask of old Scotch whiskey of peculiar excellence. There was more of it than he could consume, so he bartered it with the proprietor of Willard's for thirty gallons of sherry, a barkeeper indiscreetly let the secret out, and "Hot Newman" is the favorite drink at the capital o' cold nights.—New York World.

THE CASE OF BENNETT'S SURGEON.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—Judge Donohue has decided that Dr. Phelps is justified under the statute in refusing to answer the grand jury's question on the May and Bennett duel, but also that Judge Gildersleeve is justified in committing for contempt, as he did not avail himself of the technicality to the effect that his answers might criminate him. Dr. Phelps and his counsel appeared to-day before Judge Gildersleeve, and application was made for his discharge. Dr. Phelps pledged himself to appear before the grand jury to-morrow morning, and Judge Gildersleeve, deeming that sufficient, discharged him on his own recognizance.

PRESIDENT GRANT, whatever else may be said against him, cannot be successfully charged with a failure to take care of his kinsfolk. The instances in which he has placed them in lucrative Federal positions have been very numerous. Only last week he appointed one of his relatives, Col. G. W. Patton, United States marshal of West Virginia, and a day or two ago he sent in to the Senate for confirmation the name of his brother-in-law Alexander Sharp, now United States marshal of the District of Columbia, as paymaster in the United States army, a life position. Those of the President's relatives who have not as yet been appointed to office need not despair. Doubtless between this and the 4th of March they will be provided for if possible.

☞ The Philadelphia Ledger, in a leading editorial, introduces the following extract, taken from Gen. Grant's annual message of December, 1874:

"The whole subject of executive interference with the affairs of a State is repugnant to public opinion, to the feeling of those who, from their official capacity, must be used in such interposition, and to him or those who must direct. Unless most clearly on the side of law, such interposition is a crime; with the law to support it, it is condemned without a hearing. I desire, therefore, that all necessity for executive direction in local affairs shall become unnecessary and obsolete. I invite the attention not only of Congress, but of the people of the United States, to the causes and effects of these unhappy questions."

The Ledger makes a good point when it expresses the fear that "the truths so set forth have been overlooked in the precise juncture when they would have proved to be the wisest guides."

To My Friends and Patrons.

I AM desirous of enlarging and improving my business, and also am owing some bills of already too long standing, which I want to pay, as it is exceedingly unpleasant to be dunned, and consequently I need every dollar due me. This notice, therefore, is to urge prompt payment upon the part of those indebted. If it is not convenient for you to let me have money, give me your note on short time, and that will enable me to be better prepared to accommodate you in the future.

I most positively insist upon an immediate settlement, either by note or cash, of all outstanding accounts, and those indebted will find it to their interest as well as mine to respond to this notice at once.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP AN IRON TONIC

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the system, repairing damages and [illegible] searching out morbid [illegible]tions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
