Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

CAMP MEETINGS—ACTION OF THE WILMINGTON CONFERENCE.

Saturday afternoon at the session of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, held at Milford, Del., Dr. Matlack made a report from the committee appointed to consider the general subject of camp-meetings. The report of the committee embraced reports from thirty-three quarterly conferences in relation to the injury done by the camp meeting system, in substance as follows:

1st—It suspends public worship on the Sabbath at the churches.

2d—Discourages Sunday schools and the administration of the churches.

3d—And in many cases desecration of the Sabbath.

4th—Too much trade and too much dress.

Ten of the quarterly conferences reported in favor of the abolition of the system; six for only holding such meetings on work days, and twenty-two for only holding a few, under stricter laws in relation to traffic, &c.

The committee reported a series of rules not intended to be directory but only advisory:

1st—That if such meetings are held, there should be no suspension of the church or Sunday school services at the churches.

2d—That they should not hold over more than one Sunday, and then only when absolutely unavoidable.

3d—Expenses to be met by voluntary subscriptions, and no permits for any trade except for a boarding tent and a bread tent.

4th—All preachers shall refuse to take part in any camp meeting if these rules are not complied with, and if proper order is not observed they should suspend the camp meeting at once.

The report of the committee was adopted.

☞ The southern men who, in an evil hour, put their faith in Hayes are now beginning to see that they have been shamefully juggled with. It is not much to be wondered at that they permitted themselves to be caught in the usurper's trap, for the prostrate South has so long suffered from "the slings and arrows of outrageous fortune" that grasping at any straw for succor was, perhaps, altogether pardonable. But now that the vail has been removed from the horrid face of the false prophet, and the people only see deformity where they hoped to behold fairness, the South will be slow to trust again the sweet deluder's voice whose promises have all turned out to be as "false as dicers' oaths." The Democrat who accepts a place on Mr. Hayes' new three-by-two commission will do so knowing he is to be cheated and will not be disappointed. He who does so will care more for place than selfrespect, and will receive his true reward.—Balt. Gazette.

THE EXTRA SESSION.—It is expected the extra session of Congress will continue at least six weeks. The first extra session ever called was the longest. It lasted from March 4, 1789, to the 20th of September following. The duration of other extra sessions was as follows: May 15 to July 10, 1797; May 22 to June 28, 1809; May 24 to August 2, 1813; September 4 to October 16, 1837; May 31 to September 13, 1841; August 21 to August 30, 1856; July 4 to July 17, 1861. During the war there were a number of adjourned sessions, and during the administration of President Johnson Congress, instead of adjourning sine die, took several recesses.

A WILLFUL MISSTATEMENT.

The New York Times declares that the talk of the Hampton party taking peaceable possession of the State Government of South Carolina "is a pure sham," and says, "if the troops were taken away there might be no overt violence, but there would be actual and effectual compulsion, and a conflict would be avoided only because the comparatively unarmed majority yielded to the armed minority." This misstatement of the Times cannot but be regarded as wilful, for it is a notorious fact that whilst the white organizations in South Carolina have been disarmed by the order of the Governor, the colored militia organizations have up to the present been petmitted to remain in undisturbed possession of the arms and accoutrements which have been so lavishly distributed to them by the various carpet-bag governments which have misruled South Carolina ever since the war. The Times does respectable journalism discredit in indulging in a statement so transparently untruthful and unfair.

A BLIND GUNNER SHOOTS HIS WIFE AND CHILD.

Wm. Biles, living near Blue Ball, in the fourth district, is afflicted with almost total blindness. His reserved faculties, however, wonderfully compensate for the loss of sight, and he has the power to aid himself to a remarkable degree. He is a farmer, and superintends his own affairs, knows all his horses and cattle, can recognize color by the touch, is a skillful horseback rider, and frequently indulges in the fox chase and other sports for which a pair of good eyes are supposed to be necessary. He even indulges in gunning and can bring down his game day or night guided in his aim by noises inaudible to a person of good sight. On Wednesday evening of last week he detected the presence of a robber about his outbuildings, and seizing his gun went in search of but failed to find the marauder. Returning to the house, his gun fell apart as he attempted to put it away, and the shock fired it off, the load taken effect in the bodies of his wife and child. Both were seriously but not dangerously hurt.—Cecil Democrat.

"A FAILURE IN THE COMMISSION BUSINESS."

The Philadelphia Evening Telegraph, an independent republican paper, declared that it is not a commission that is needed in the Louisiana mattar, but what is wanted "is the courage to go right to the point, to do that which is right to do." The Telegraph adds, with force:

"Suppose that when President Hayes assumed office he had found the capitol of Ohio, or Massachusetts, or Pennsylvania in the hands and under the control of a gang of political adventureres of Southern birth and breeding, ex-Confederate bummers, who had left the South for the South's good, had found them intrenched in office behind federal bayonets, what would he have done after taking the oath? He knows that he would have removed the bayonets and permitted the people of those States to say who should rule them their own citizens or alien adventurers. The boot is not on the other leg, that is all. Ohio, Massachusetts and Pennsylvania have sent their played-out political backs to Louisiana, they hold the capitol and federal bayonets support them in doing so. Remove the bayonets and the carpet-baggers will also remove."

☞ The State of Ohio furnishes now the President, the general of the army, the chief justice of the Supreme Court of the United States and one other Supreme Court judge, the Secretary of the Treasury, the future administration leader in the Senate, Stanley Matthews; the administration leader in the House, Gen. Garfield; the chief henchman in journalism, Mr. Halstead, and is aiming at the speakership of the House in the person of Charles Foster, to be effected through the assumed softness and verdancy of the democracy, and is also putting up claims for the French mission and the Sandwich Islands and the Swiss, to say nothing of Deacon Richard Smith, of the Cincinnati Gazette, Bickham and Private Dalzell. Couldn't Mr. Hayes find room for a few more Buckeyes in the proposed investigating commission? No wonder a contemporary wants to know if this is the United States of America or of Ohio?

THE LOUISIANA SENATORSHIP.—The Washington correspondent of the Philadelphia Times gives currency to the following: "Whatever may become of the Louisiana Governorship, the State is likely to have at least one Democratic Senator. Senator Morton intimates that he will favor the claim of J. B. Eustis to a seat in the Senate, and that Senators Edmonds and McMillan, who are also members of the committee on elections, hold the same view. Eustis was elected two years ago for the short term, but the committee on elections reported against him on the ground that the vacancy had been filled by the election of Pinchback. Subsequently the Senate decided that Pinchback was not elected.

☞ Opium eaters had better take warning from the experience of Mrs. Sarah A. Davis, of Boston, lately arrested for stealing $280 worth of silverware. The defense was that she had been for years addicted to the excessive use of opium; that this produces epilepsy, which often results in a loss of moral sense, a destruction of the ability to discern between right and wrong, and a decrease of will power; that it promotes a tendency to deceive and falsify, and that all these results were apparent in the defendant. Medical evidence was given sustaining the defence, and Mrs. Davis was sent to an insane asylum.

☞ The Election in Rhode Island for State officers will be held on the 4th of April next. The candidates for Governor are J. B. Barnaby, democrat; Charles C. Van Zandt, republican, and prohibition, and William Foster, Jr., greenbacker. Mr. Van Zandt, whose election is certain, is forty-eight years old, a lawyer and graduate at Trinity; he has served as clerk and Speaker of the House six terms, and was Lieutenant Governor (practically Governor) for two years.—He also headed the republican State delegation at Chicago in 1868 and Cincinnati in 1876.

LEGISLATION FOR MARRIED WOMEN.—Connecticut has taken a step in advance of all other States in its legislation for women. The acts of this year's legislation place the wife on an equality with the husband. She is secured the absolute control of her own property during life, and on the death of either party to the marriage contract the survivor inherits one-third of the real and personal estate of the deceased.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women, and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
