Mordecai Price

Has been appointed Register of Wills of Queen Anne's county, vice Jas. P. Dudley, deceased. He has appointed George S. Palmer his deputy.

Easter Offering.

The Sunday School children of the Protestant Episcopal Church in Chestertown on Easter Sunday, headed by a beautiful banner on which was "The Lord is Risen," held by Master Crisfield, marched into the Church two-and-two, singing, and the organ playing. During the offertory they laid their contributions, amounting within a few cents to twenty-five dollars—for the purpose of purchasing a chandelier for the chancel.

The Present

Is a period of unusal depression with the newspaper fraternity all over the country. We see it stated that even the large New York dailies are scarcely paying expenses. The New York Sun notes a decline of twenty thonsand in its daily issue, though its Sunday and weekly editions have increased. The Sun, however, has a daily edition exceeding one hundred thousand.

It will be exceeding gratifying in these hard times to have none of our friends desert the TRANSCRIPT.

Ran Over.

On Tuesday afternoon last, a white man whose name we have not learned, started from Hall's hotel porch slightly demoralized and attempted to walk over old "Tom" Jones's horse and cart, which was going leisurely along the street.—Tom, not dreaming of the attempt to bull-doze him in this manner was not noticing, and in a trice the man had fallen and the wheels passed over him, cutting one of his hands severely and somewhat bruising him. After being assisted up he walked off in a short time, smoking the cigar which he seemed to have retained during the accident,

Kent County Railroad.

The following from the Philadelphia Inquirer of a recent date, looks as though work would be resumed on the Kent county railroad. Jay Gould, it will will be remembered, bought the Kent county road.

REORGANIZED.—Yesterday, at twelve o'clock, a number of influential gentlemen of New Jersey and New York met at the West Jersey Hotel, in Camden, for the purpose of organizing a company to operate the railroad from Vineland to Bay Side, on the Delaware. The following directors were elected: Jay Gould, Thomas Sheridan, John F. Bingham, of New York; William S. Sneden, William G. Miller, Edward P. Miller, John A. Hance, of New Jersey. Jay Gould was subsequently made president. The name adopted by the meeting is the Vineland Railroad Company. It is the intention of those who have the matter now in charge to put the road in working order as soon as possible, making a through connection from Baltimore to New York.

Broad Neck School Exhibition.

Mr. Editor:—In company with a friend we attended an exhibition of Public School No. 6, Fifth Election District, on Tuesday evening last, T. M. Pinkind teacher, held in the Methodist Protestant Church, adjoining the school building.

The room was comfortably filled by the hour of commencement, and the exercises—consisting of singing, recitations, dialogues, declamations and readings—were creditable to the school. Instrumental music interspersed throughout the programme added much to the occasion.

The teacher assisted in the programme, reading several choice selections.

We believe this is the first effort ever made in this direction in Broad Neck, and will doubtless strengthen the already growing interest in educational matters in this section.

Not the least attractive feature of the occasion was the large proportion of pretty young ladies in the audience Many true it is that nature's fairest flowers are often found remote from the busy marts and the crowded thoroughfares of men.

Broad Neck will some day repeat this entertainment. VISITOR.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of DR. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Cronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the facts that it not only entirely exticates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists.

Principal Depot, No. 916 Filbert St. Philadelphia.

☞ Was there, in truth, ever such a man as A. Oakey Hall, lawyer, actor and ex-mayor?

General Ignatieff drinks nothing stronger than lemonade and has opthalmia.

☞ It is beautiful to see how the republican newspapers drift with the tide. Witness this from the New York Tribune: "Mr. Chamberlain's government had shriveled into such an atrophy that neither troops nor any other medicine could have saved it much longer. What it lacked primarily was a nutritious revenue." It has taken the Tribune just about as long to make up its mind as it did Mr. Hayes.

DEATH OF DR. EDWARD WORRELL.

Dr. Edward Worrell, formerly of Delaware City, but recently resident in Philadelphia, died sudddenly in that city last Sunday evening. He was born in Wilmington in 1803, gratuated at the old Pennsylvania College of Surgery, and served in the United States Army as Surgeon from 1823 to 1843, when he returned to Delaware and pursued the practice of his profession. For some years past he has been quite prominent as a Democratic politician, and was presiding officer of the State Convention that nominated the present Governor, in 1874.—Middletown Transcript.

☞ The new assessment in Queen Anne's county amounts to $6,553,603, a falling off of $1,791,588, which is said to be due to the very high assessment of real estate in 1866 rather than to any depreciation of value. Carroll county foots up $17,043,217, a loss of 65,959 as compared with 1875. But to this is to be added $375,762 assessment of railroad property which is now in course of litigation. The new assessment in Dorchester county amounts to $6,043,853. The levy in Prince George's county is 89 cents for county tax and 17½ cents for the State.

☞ Wade Hampton's amiable stubbornness has won at last, and South Carolina will pass from under the thrall of the carpet-baggers who have held her so long in their filthy grasp. The order for the withdrawal of the troops from the State House has been issued by the War Department, and the evacuation will take place on Tuesday next at twelve o'clock. Chamberlain has declared that he will make no further contest of the governorship, but will yield to the inevitable. Let us hope that good Mr. Hayes will give him a foreign mission to some remote and undesirable locality. The people of South Carolina are naturally wild will doubtless be temperate in their triumph. They have extorted the admiration of the world by their sublime patience under humiliation and misrule, and they will hardly fail of dignity and forbearance in this their hour of victory.—Balt. Gazette.

☞ We learn that in the absence of Bob Ingersoll, the regular chaplain of the White House, Zach Chandler officiates. The court journal announces that "on Sunday afternoon the President took a long drive with the Hon. Zach Chandler and Secretary Sherman." It is evident from these pious associations and Sunday afternoon drives, that Hayes is striving to reform his evil courses, and he ought to be encouraged. Stanley Matthews breakfasted with him on Sunday, after traveling by express to Washington, which is another cheerful sign of moral improvement. Still, Brother Newman, conscience keeper to the late Administration, is not happy. He would like that the conversion should be done at the Metropolitan Church, with the chimes attached.—New York Sun.

☞ Newspaper weddings have recently become not only common but popular, and for many excellent reasons. In the first place, unlike other weddings, they are economical. The bride and groom need but a single "dress"—and that not necessarily a new one—between them.—In the second place, they conduce to health, the chances that they will thrive being just double. Furthermore, and from a radical standpoint this is all important, the union greatly promotes the circulation. Among other advantages which naturally suggest themselves may be mentioned the fact that by wedding, the contracting parties avoid the necessity of having more than one "devil." It follows, therefore, from these considerations, that the marriage in Wilmington, Del., Monday, of the Every Evening and Evening Commercial should prove a prosperous union.—Baltimore Gazette.

A CARD.

The general-freighting business conducted for many years by my father, J. F. Taylor, between Chestertown and Baltimore, has now entirely and solely passed into my hands. It shall be my constant effort aided by the long experience in the business, of my agent, Mr. W. H. PALMER, to secure a share of the public patronage.

The business is attempted under adverse circumstances, yet we trust by our constant and personal attention to the trade to regain whatever may have been lost to the late business. The vessel has undergone such repairs as now make her in every respect suitable for the business.

Respectfully,
J. E. TAYLOR.

which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN SYRUP AN IRON TONIC

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
