to my daughter mary my plantation wherein I live and to her heires for ever, onelij excepted my Sonne to live upon it for the terme of five yeares without any lett or molestation, but to have the full power of it for the terme aboues: I do likewise give my daughter mary one hundred acres of land, more called wolfe neck I give her likewise my gray mare to her heires for ever w.th her increase, a Chest that stands in the I.K milk house, a small trunck being marked as p. margent also I give her my spice Box, I give her one Silver Bodkin w.th the marke as per marg: M.S one Silver tooth picker w.ch was formerly her mothers, and a gold ring, I give her all my wifes wearing Clothes both linnen and wollen, 8.thly I bequeath to Doctor Lewis one mare foale, about two yeares old, and to his Sonne henry and ~~their~~ her increase for ever, the young mare being the foale of the gray mare = 9.thly I bequeath to my daughter Elizabeth a parcell of land, lieing Between Richard morse, and Thomas Turners, called the Square, I give her my Sorrell mare named Nany a feather Bed, that lieth in my lodging Bed and what is thereunto belonging one Chest which I use to Carry in my Boat, and one Silver Bodkin M.S. marked as per margent: 10.thly I bequeath to my daughter anne, one feather Bed w.th lyes in the trundle Bedstid, and what belongeth to it, with a pare of sheets, and a Chest, which stands in the inward Roome and a small white Box, which stands in the inward Roome; 11.thly I do desire that all = my =

my Cattle, that I have at Severn may be Equallij divided between my Sonne William and my daughter Elizabeth, and anne, and my Sonne to Enoij them at my decease: 12.thly: I do dispose of my daughter Elizabeth to be brought up with m.r John Homewood untill she be Sixteen yeares of age, and to be ffree at that age: 13.thly my daughter anne I do dispose to my daughter mary, untill she shall come to be Sixteen yeares, and then to be ffree, 14.thly the Rest of my estate, after my debts is paid to be Equallij divided between my Sonne William, Eliza beth, and anne my daughters, and if my Sonne William, should decease without issue then what is his my desire is shall fall to my daughter anne, and if my daughter mary should decease without Issue, then hers to fall to my daughter Elizabeth: 15.thly I do leave my trustij and loving friends Doctor henry Lewis and John Rix to be my adm.rs over this my will and testament Lord have ~~my~~ merij upon my Soule In witnesse to this my Last will and testam.t I doe Interchangeablij Sett my hand and Seale this 703 15.th of may 1675 William Slade Sealed 76
27
16
43
Sealed Signed in presence of henry Lewis
mary Lewis

I leave my Sonne William to be at the tuition of John Rix untill he comes to the age of Seven teen yeares to be instructed in learning as witnesse my hand this 5.th of June 1675 William Slade Sealed Testis
Hen: Lewis
william Sutton

= and =