The Chestertown Transcript

Only ONE DOLLAR A YEAR.

LOCAL NEWS.

The New Steamer

B. S. FORD, recently launched at the Harlan & Hollingsworth shipyard, Wilmington, Del., and to run between Chestertown and Baltimore, is now receiving her machinery, and the completion is being rapidly pushed forward.

The Wheat

Of Kent county promise a larger yield than has been done for some time at this season of the year. On the other hand grass seems to have made less growth than usual.

Original Story.

On our title page to-day appears a story entitled "The Enchanted Castle," from the pen of Hope Wickes, the little daughter of Charles H. Wickes, Esq. It will be remembered that some time since we published one of her first efforts, "Rose's Adventures," which attracted general attention. We believe all who read it will be interested.

The Art Exhibition

At the Town Hall Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings, by Mr. H. C. Hopkins, was by far the best entertainment of the kind ever given here; and our opinion is corroborated, as far as we have had opportunity to hear an expression, by all who attended. The organ accompaniment (the exhibitor being a good performer), and also the description of the different views presented, added no little to the interest of the occasion. The Hall was not as well filled as it should have been; and those who did not attend really missed a treat.

Commissioner of Agriculture.

The Washington correspondent of the Baltimore Sun says:—Nothing seems to be known here of the statement emanating from a Cumberland paper that Wilkins was to be tendered the position of commissioner of agriculture. A treasury official who was spoken to on the subject to-day repeated the language used by President Hayes some days since to an anxious applicant for the office of commissioner of agriculture, viz, "Why, has Mr. Watts resigned? If the President waits till Mr. Watts resigns before he makes a new commissioner of agriculture, it will be a long time before Col. Wilkins or any one else will have the opportunity to accept or decline the office.

Orphans' Court.

Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Letters of Administration on the personal estate of T. N. Tayman were granted unto George W. Jacoby, who filed his bond in the penalty of two thousand dollars. E. E. Miller and Thomas H. Horsey were appointed to appraise the said estate. The usual notice to creditors was ordered.

Letters of Administration on the personal estate of Frederick Walla, were granted unto C. H. Baker, who filed his bond, in the penalty of one hundred dollars. S. Shissler and Jas. French were appointed to appraise the said estate. The usual notice to creditors was ordered.

Mary A. Brice, surviving admrx. of William A. Brice, returned her third and final administration account.

James Brice, admr. of Geo. H. Brice, returned his second and final administration account.

Richard C. Johnson, guardian to Joseph T. Maulsberger, returned his final guardian account.

Richard C. Johnson, guardian to Mary E., Catharine E., and Augusta H. Maulsberger, returned his separate guardian accounts for the year 876.

The release of Milor Jones to D. J. Blackiston, admr. of T. A. of Clement F. Jones, was filed.

The sale of the leasehold estate of Kate Plummer, minor, heretofore reported by J. H. Plummer, guardian, was ratified.

Joshua Vansant and William Vansant, admrs. of Fredus Vansant, were authorized to sell the corn on hand at private sale.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma, Difficult Breathing, and all other diseases of the Throat and Lungs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe Botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the facts that it not only entirely exticates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of time and thorough experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists.

Principal Depot, No. 916 Filbert St. Philadelphia.

THE BREADSTUFFS MARKETS.—The advices in regard to the Easter question are not regarded as favorable to higher prices for breadstuffs, and the markets at all the leading points on this side were dull and lower. Corn declined 1a1½ cts. per bushel. Wheat shows a further fall of 5 cents, equal to 25 cents per bushel from the highest price paid during the late excitement. Flour is fully $1 per barrel lower, and the tendency in all the articles is favorable to buyers.—Balto. Sun, May 16.

HAYES AT HOME.

A MAN WHO MAKES IT A RULE TO ANSWER EVERY LETTER.

Boston Herald.

There is a larger force of clerks at the White House, under President Hayes, than ever before. There is the private secretary, Mr. Rogers, and his assistant, Mr. Pinden. Mr. Webb Hayes is confidential secretary, and Colonel Corbin is military secretary. The latter has general charge of the mail, and receives and opens all letters and newspapers. Major Sniffin, who was appointed a paymaster by Grant, remains at the White House, and there are three other clerks and two stenographers. This makes a personal staff of nearly a dozen persons, where there have been less than half the number heretofore. People who have occasion to write to the President will be pleased to hear that it is the desire of Mr. Hayes to send an answer to every letter he receives, no matter what its purport. There is a large amount of mail matter received at the White House every day which does not properly relate to the public business. A thousand people write to the President about their own private concerns and wonder that they do not get an answer, if no answer comes. Heretofore all such letters have been thrown into the waste basket. But President Hayes directs that a respectful reply be sent to every letter, however irrelevant. This requires a good deal of clerical work. Then President Hayes wants the newspapers carefully read, and his secretaries have begun a series of scrap books for preserving such newspaper publications as are of interest at the White House. One or two clerks are kept employed most of the time at this business alone. The new administration takes a great many papers, and seems to keep well informed concerning the feeling of the country.

PRESIDENT HAYES

AT THE ANNUAL DINNER OF THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE, NEW YORK.

Mr. Babcock said the regular toast was one they had never had the pleasure of having responded to by an incumbent of the office; and he took great pleasure in giving them the toast of The President of the United States. [Loud cheers.]

Hon. R. B. Hayes then rose smilingly, and after hearty hurrahs, over and over repeated, and waving of handkerchiefs and a burst of music from the orchestra had subsided, said:

Mr. President: It is a gratification to have the opportunity to meet such an assemblage of the business men of the city of New York. I wish to make my acknowledgment for their invitation to enjoy with them their annual social. I wish to assure them that this hearty greeting is very welcome to me. [Cheers.] At peace with all the nations of the world, with an honest purpose on the part of our people and on the part of the government [loud cheers] to strive for the restoration of the ancient concord within our own limits [hurrahs and great applause], I believe that notwithstanding the unfortunate array of figures which has been disentombed that we may confidently look for early decided encouraging evidences of the reviving of business prosperity throughout our country.

The President then sat down, and the assemblage rose and cheered with heartiness and enthusiasm.

CALIFORNIA CROPS.

Our California correspondent writes that the crop prospects are always easy to prognosticate by May 1st, June 15 being harvest time in Central California. To sum up: In one-third part of the wheat districts half a crop is expected, in one-third a fourth of a crop, and in the remaining third nothing worth cutting. Oregon promises a full yield of wheat, and a considerable excess over last year. The quality of Oregon wheat would always equal California grain, but rains always fall in harvest in Oregon, while in California no rain falls from early spring to late autumn. Therefore the only question is the fullness of the ear. In Oregon it is often damaged in the gathering.

Throughout Southern California generally all crops fail this year. That is from the latitude of the bay of San Francisco to the Mexican boundary, 600 miles. But everywhere the grain is going to be light, and the quality for bread making will not be equal to former years. Indeed, all wheat is steadily losing its early reputation from visible exhaustion by overcropping, neglect of fertilizing, and shallow culture.—Balt. Sun.

☞ The public debt of Russia is about $1,750,000,000, a sum very much less than the public debt of England, France or the United States. Yet, under the most severe conditions in regard to security, she is unable to negotiate a loan with the European bankers at a less rate of interest than eleven and three-sevenths per cent. It is not strange that such a circumstance as this draws attention to the morbid financial condition to which the biggest empire of the old world is reduced. If this is the condition of Russia what is to be said of the financial prospects of Turkey, which with a debt of $950,000,000 is able to obtain no loan at all? And if this is the present situation of both these empires at the opening of an expensive war, what will it be when the war ends?

A FOOLHARDY VOYAGE.—It is stated that Thomas Crapo, of New Bedford, Mass., with his wife, will start from that port on the 25th inst. to cross the Atlantic to London in a boat thirteen feet in length. Crapo expects to accomplish the trip in forty days.

DELAWARE PEACH CROP.

PHILADELPHIA, May 13.—The officials of the Delaware division of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore railroad have compiled a report of the peach crop from information gathered by the local station agents throughout the peninsula. The facts have been obtained from the best authorities in the several neighborhoods, and estimates made by the most competent observers.

The final returns were collated on Saturday, and the results are remarkably favorable. The trees are shown to be everywhere in first-rate condition, and the fruit giving every promise of attaining perfect maturity. The estimates state the probable yield at 7,000,000 baskets. If these forecasts are realized the crop will be 25 per cent. greater than ever before. The fruit is believed to be beyond danger of harm.

☞ Tuesday, at Charlestown, S. C., the Ellenton cases were before the United States Circuit Court, Judges Waite and Bond on the bench. The array of the grand jury was challenged on the ground that it had been packed for political purposes. The court adjoined pending argument of the vadlidity of the objection.

Tuesday, at Columbia, S. C., the Senate and House met in joint session to ballot for chief justice A. J. Willard was elected on the first ballot, receiving 86 out of 128 votes cast. This election creates a vacancy in the associate justiceship, which will probably be filled next week.

THE Russian fleet at New York is preparing to leave that port under sealed orders. The Russian fleet at San Francisco is also about to sail. It may perhaps tend to calm the war feeling of the English ministry when they reflect that Russia has a fleet in each ocean, and that these might do immense damage to British commerce before they could be destroyed by the superior naval power of Great Britain. England has not forgotten how much injury to the commerce of the United States was wrought by the two or three Confederate cruisers that were afloat during the war. She doubtless remembers that well; for she had to foot the bill. The Russian fleet is not over here for a picnic. They are within cable communication of St. Petersburg. England knows all this perfectly well, and duly ponders thereon.

☞ Mr. Ross is still hoping against all reasonable hope and pursuing the quest for his son, Charlie Ross, who disappeared nearly two years ago. He is now in consultation with the showman Barnum. The latter will make a personal offer of $10,000 for the recovery of the boy. It is believed, from recent evidence, that he is still alive, and that the reward, with a guarantee of immunity from punishment, will induce the captors to restore him.

CHARLES FRANCIS ADAMS, in a conversation with a New York Herald reporter, says that his letter to ex-Governor Tilden, recently published, was written as a private communication, but that on solicitation he consented that it should be printed. He thinks President Hayes "upright and honest," but that he will find trouble in carrying out his policy.

Organs! Organs! Organs!

Having been acting as Local Agent for Geo. A. Prince & Co. since 1865, and having had offered to me since Dec. 17, 1876, the control of all unoccupied territory with authority and instruction to appoint agents, I deem it proper to state to my numerous friends and the public that I shall continue in the old track to sell Organs and Pianos without any misrepresentation or subterfuges, fictitious discounts, &c.

Having a mechanical knowledge of the construction of musical instruments, I am able to draw comparisons, and can, therefore, state that Messrs. Prince & Co. furnish a better Organ than any other establishment. The peculiar construction of their organs is protected by 14 patents, and the durability of Prince's Organs and Melodeons is unsurpassed.

I am prepared to sell 2 Carhart & Needham double bank pedal bass organs, one Mason & Hamlin, with 12 stops, (very large case), one Estey, with subbass, at very low figures, as the owners wish to make an exchange. Also a good second hand seven octave Stieff Piano, at a bargain. Price lists, &c, may be obtained by mail, directed which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

Iron in the Blood

PERUVIAN AN IRON TONIC SYRUP

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energising effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
