Eodem Die — Maryland — Aprille the 3: anno Domini 1677

Christopher Bridgewater aged about 29 yeares sworne saith that he heard Antony Brispo say being asked to wgome he would geve wgat estate he had, answered all wad too little for thee Betty speaking to his wife.

Franvid Nonsam aged 27 yeares or there: aboutt sworne saith that Antony Brispo being asked to settle his estate answered that he told his wife already it was his minde, shee should have all he had & it wad little enough for her, yet enough if shee wad not cheated of it. further saith not.

George Wells.

Die Saturni 21 Aprilis. In the name of god amen I John Avery of the County of Dorchester in the Province of Maryland Ship: wright now being in perfect memory although somewgat indisposed in bodily health praised be god Almighty doe make ordaine this to be my last Will & testament.

Imp: mo I will & bequeath my soule to god that gave it in perfect hope by Christ Jesus my Redeemer to be saved by his onely merits. & my body to the Earth from wgence shence it came, by decent burriall.

2dly — I will & bequeath all my Reall estate in the County of Dorchester unto my welbeloved wife Anne during her naturall life & after her decease unto my grandson John Granger his heires for Evermore.

3dly I will & bequeath unto my said beloved wife Anne all & every part & parcell of my personall estate wether Chattells moueables bonds bills accompts or wgatsoever may personally belong or appertaine unto me in every respect unto her & her heires for ever after my debts are paid & funerall Charges satisfied.

Lastly — I will & bequeath that my said beloved wife Anne be my full & sole executrix of this my last Will & testament & shee doe take Care of my said grand Child John Granger, hereby making null & void all other wills & testaments & Codicills wgatsoever formerly by me made & publish this to be my last Will & testament.

signum
John + A Avery (sealed)

Published — sealed & delivered in the presence of George Fowry
Tho: Pattison
signum
Mary + Meredith
signum
Mary Jane

And —