Trial of Reapers.

The contest in Queen Anne's, between the Champion self-rake and the Buckeye table-rake, will not take place, the agent of the Champion having declined. So says Mr. McKenney, (agent for the Buckeye,) in the last Centreville Observer. A contest, however is advertised to take place between the Buckeye and Wheeler reapers.

Destructive Fire.

Between 12 and 1 o'clock Wednesday night, the overseer on the farm, near Church Hill in Queen Anne's county, (belonging to a Mr. Weatherby, who resides in Baltimore city,) was aroused from his sleep to find the stable, near the dwelling, all in flames and roof about to fall in. It was entirely consumed, and with it three valuable mules and one horse.—Another horse was so badly burned as in all probability to be worthless should it recover. The adjoining buildings, consisting of a large barn, corn house, carriage houses, cattle sheds, &c., were entirely consumed. It was with difficulty that the dwelling could be saved. Most of the farm implements were also destroyed. The buildings were all large, first class, nearly new, and had just been whitewashed and painted. The loss is very heavy. It is said there is an insurance in a Cecil company, but the amount we have not learned. The origin of the fire not known.

Our New Steamboat.

She is (says a writer in the Balto. Bulletin) 175 feet in length, with two decks, the hurricane deck and the first deck. The latter deck is occupied as follows:—Freight room, a gentlemen's smoking apartment, and ladies' saloon. Below will be the dining-room, furnished and painted in an elegant manner.

Upon the upper deck there will be a saloon about one hundred feet in length, the sides of which will be richly panneled with wood of various shades and well lighted by skylights above. On the saloon deck there will be two staterooms, immediately in front of the wheel-house, for the officers of the company and the steamer.

The general style of the interior painting will be green and white. There is also a promenade around the saloon. Her machinery is of the very finest make, a single boiler, with 38 inch cylinder and 9 foot stroke.

The vessel will have capacity for carrying 800 passengers. The total cost when finished will be $75,000. She is now being rapidly completed, only awaiting a few finishing touches. The company expect that she will be completed the 2d of July, and her first trip will be on July 4th from Chestertown, touching at all landings on the river between Baltimore and Chestertown.

She will then return to Chestertown via Annapolis, and take the place of the steamer George Law. Captain McConner, of the George Law, will command her, and all her present officers will be transferred to the new vessel.

Orphans' Court.

Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Letters of administration on the personal estate of William H. Lecompte, were granted unto Samuel C. Lecompte, who filed his bond in the penalty of one thousand dollars. E. S. Clothier and J. C. Wheatley were appointed to appraise the said estate, and the usual notice to creditors was ordered.

Richard C. Smyth was appointed guardian to the minor children of Jefferson L. Smyth, deceased.

☞ Special attention of the reader is invited to adv. of W. T. Hopkins, in this issue. His is an old and reliable house.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Copstantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the facts that it not only entirely exticates the diseases for which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists.

Principal Depot, No. 916 Filbert St. Philadelphia.

☞ We find the following in the St. Michaels Comet:

James Benson vs. the County Commissioners of Talbot county. In the Circuit Court for Talbot county. Petitions, etc. We are of opinion that the shares of the capital stock of the Workingmen's Permanent Building and Loan Association of Talbot county, and of the Workingmen's Building and Loan Association of St. Michael's, owned by the petitioner James Benson, as stated in his petition, are legally and properly valued and assessed to him.

In exhibit C. it appears that the property belonging to the Workingmen's Permanent Building and Loan Association of Talbot county, and to the Workingmen's Building and Loan Association of St. Michaels, consisting of certain real estate and a small amount of personal property, has been assessed to those corporations respectively. Although the Associations have not appeared, yet we deem it proper to say that in our opinion, the property owned by said corporations should not be assessed to them, but that the shares of capital stock held by each stockholder should be assessed to him.

It is therefore ordered, this 4th day of June, 1877, that the shares of the capital stock of the Workingmen's Permanent Building and Loan Association of Talbot county, and of the Workingmen's Building and Loan Association of St. Michaels, owned by the petitioner James Benson, and assessed to him, are rightly and properly valued and assessed to him, and the County Commissioners of Talbot county are hereby ordered and directed to retain the same on the list of property valued and assessed to the said James Benson.

JOSEPH A. WICKES,
FREDERICK STUMP.

THE TAMMANY RING COMPROMISES.—A New York letter says with regard to the current reports about negotiations to compromise the suits against ex-Comptroller Connolly, so as to enable him to return from his enforced exile, it has been ascertained that his tender of restitution is so much more liberal than Peter B. Sweeney's that there is scarcely a doubt that in due time it will be accepted. Connolly's health has been failing him of late, and as pretty much all his relations are in New York he feels that he has nothing worth living for on the other side of the Atlantic, even with ample means at his command to purchase all the luxuries of life, except that greatest luxury of life—a quiet conscience. Therefore he desires to come home. There is a powerful, unseen influence managing his case in New York, (it may be added,) and that it will succeed there is scarcely a doubt. Connolly proposes to restore $1,500,000.

☞ The London Times thinks that the slowness of the Russian operations on the Danube may be ascribed to the fact that the Russian commanders fully understand the nature of the difficulties which lie in their way, and have "a peculiarly keen sense of respect for the Turkish strength." This is probably the true reason, and not, as has been stated, a desire on the part of the Czar to make a demonstration merely in European Turkey while pressing forward in Armenia, and then to conclude an advantageous peace. Russia knows that no peace would be permanent which was not the result of actual successes gained in the field, and it seems probable that, whatever diplomatic negotiations may be now going on, it is the desire of Russia merely to keep England and Austria out of the field by conceding certain guarantees, and meanwhile to proceed with sufficient caution in European Turkey to secure a substantial victory when everything is ready for the assault.

☞ An intelligent correspondent of the New York Tribune writes from Savannah that there is no prospect of "breaking the solid white vote in Georgia, and giving a fragment of it to the Republican party, or to a resurrected Whig party, or to any new organization formed for the purpose of reciprocating the services of President Hayes to the South." There is no reason why the Democrats of Georgia or any other State should flop over to a Hayes' party because the President has done what the constitution required him to do. A strong, healthy, robust opposition, keeping a keen and watchful eye on the President and his party, was never more needed than now. The democracy has the organization, fully equipped, and there is no prospect of it going out of business.

THE NEW FOOD PRESERVATIVE.

From the New Orleans Democrat.

Dr. J. W. Davenport of Dallas, Texas, has obtained a patent for keeping all kinds of fruits, vegetables, and meats fresh and sweet. The aim of the chemist has been to discover the ingredients of a pickle that will arrest the process of decomposition and extinguish the germ of decay of all animal and vegetable substances without impairing their flavor or imparting to them any injurious effect. It is simply a pickle of the most inexpensive sort, costing less than brine or vinegar, in which any meat or vegetable may be kept in open vessels, submerged for months, and when taken out will be found as pure and fresh as when the vegetables came from the garden or the meat from the butcher's stall. This pickle may be furnished and prepared at a cost of four cents per barrel. The pickle is so nearly tasteless and palatable as to demonstrate its innocuousness, and yet from the specimen we saw yesterday, green corn which had been immersed in it for twelve months, when boiled, could not be distinguished from the corn which had been gathered that morning.

THE REACTION IN FRANCE.

The situation in France seems to be becoming every day more and more critical. Within two weeks four republican journalists have been prosecuted for "insulting the President;" (think of such a thing in the United States!) The editors of two Paris papers, the Radical and the Marseillaise, have been fined $1,000 each and sentenced to three months' imprisonment. The president of the city council of Paris, Duverdiere, a man of culture, and means, has been charged with the same terrible offense, and placed under arrest without bail, and several mayors of large cities have been suspended. The chief of the press bureau of the proposed international exhibition has been dismissed because he was a republican. Minister Fourtou enjoins prefects to revise the licenses of all sellers of books and newspapers with a sharp eye to the dismissal of those agents who cannot "offer proper guarantees to social order," and to "prosecute any persons who, in cafes or other public places, spread false reports calculated to disturb public tranquility." All meetings of over twenty persons have been forbidden. The republican party has governed France for five years in peace, but this looks like war. MacMahon has the army on his side, and may be able to maintain "order." At any rate it is gratifying to know that it is not the republicans who have created the disturbance, and the presumption is that France, which has never been free from political discontent, not for many years from revolution, under monarchy, might remain quiet and prosperous under republicanism. There is now a business paralysis in France, as elsewhere, and it arises from the uncertainty respecting the government. It is stated that "capital is growing timid before the menacing aspect of the future, and until it is known whether the President and his advisers mean to accept the republic or to reject it the situation cannot be expected to mend."

Organs! Organs! Organs!

Having been acting as Local Agent for Geo. A. Prince & Co. since 1865, and having had offered to me since Dec. 17, 1876, the control of all unoccupied territory with authority and instruction to appoint agents, I deem it proper to state to my numerous friends and the public that I shall continue in the old track to sell Organs and Pianos without any misrepresentation or subterfuges, fictitious discounts, &c.

Having a mechanical knowledge of the construction of musical instruments, I am able to draw comparisons, and can, therefore, state that Messrs. Prince & Co. furnish a better Organ than any other establishment. The peculiar construction of their organs is protected by 14 patents, and the durability of Prince's Organs and Melodeons is unsurpassed.

I am prepared to sell 2 Carhart & Needham double bank pedal bass organs, one Mason & Hamlin, with 12 stops, (very large case), one Estey, with sub-bass, at very low figures, as the owners wish to make an exchange. Also a good second hand seven octave Stieff Piano, at a bargain. Price lists, &c, may be obtained by mail, directed which can be cured by a timely resort to this standard preparation, as has been proved by the hundreds of testimonials received by the proprietors. It is acknowledged by many prominent physicians to be the most reliable preparation ever introduced for the relief and cure of all Lung complaints, and is offered to the public, sanctioned by the experience of over forty years. When resorted to in season it seldom fails to effect a speedy cure in the most severe cases of Coughs, Bronchitis, Croup, Whooping Cough, Influenza, Asthma, Colds, Sore Throat, Pains or Soreness in the Chest and Side, Liver Complaint, Bleeding at the Lungs, &c. Wistar's Balsam does not dry up a Cough, and leave the cause behind, as is the case with most preparations, but it loosens and cleanses the lungs, and allays irritation, thus removing the cause of the complaint.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR

Iron in the Blood

MAKES THE WEAK STRONG.

The Peruvian Syrup, a Protected Solution of the Protoxide of Iron, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested and assimilated with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "a thousand ills," simply by Toning up, Invigorating and Vitalizing the System. The enriched and vitalized blood permeates every part of the body, repairing damages and waste, searching out morbid secretions, and leaving nothing for disease to feed upon.

This is the secret of the wonderful success of this remedy in curing Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Dropsy, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Nervous Affections, Chills and Fevers, Humors, Loss of Constitutional Vigor, Diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Female Complaints, and all diseases originating in a bad state of the blood, or accompanied by debility or a low state of the system. Being free from Alcohol, in any form, its energizing effects are not followed by corresponding reaction, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor, and new life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution.

Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.

See that each bottle has PERUVIAN SYRUP blown in the glass.
