Father & mother I doe earnestly desire that Mary ffield now wife of John ffield Will be pleased to see them decently & accordingly as shee doth thinke it fit & Convenient for them to be buried, & for the Chest that is in the Roome that was my deare fatherd, its my full desire that I doe freely give & dispose of it to m: Cary. And I doe freely give my husband Coate & breeches to Edward Peck, & my husbands Wastecoate I doe give to Morrice Welsh, with a white shirt also.
I doe likewise give a white shirt to William Prichard junior, & a pre of ffrench ffalls I doe give to the said William.
3 yards ¼ of blew Linnen I doe give to Thom: Symmotts according to my fathers order & desire. And I doe give a silke sash to m: Ed: Jacke, & I doe give to John ffield 3 barrells of Indian Corne.
& 2 barrells to Morrice Welsh; & what Corne there is more then these Legacies I doe give to Ed: Peck, & the Curtains & Valance I doe give to Ed: Peck, & I doe give to Morrice Welsh a dozen pewter spoons one of the pewter plated & a large pewter dish, & I doe give to Ed: Peck halfe a dozen of the pewter plated & all the rest of the pewter dished, & I doe give to Morrice Welsh the greate Iron Pot, & the other two.

Pots —

Pots to John ffield, & I doe give the Pale to Ed: Peck, & the piggin to Morrice Welsh. And I doe give my mothers Pettycoate & wastecoate to Elinor Welsh, & my mothers serge Wastecoate & Paragon bodies to Mary ffield, & the little kettle to Ed: Peck. And I doe give to Dorothy Latham 2 shifts & to Mary ffield, & I doe give to Wm Prichard junior my mothers Chest. & I doe give a Couple of Tim pans to Elinor Welsh, & the rest to Ed: Peck I doe give to Morrice Welsh one pre of Drawers that was my fathers, & the other pre to Ed: Peck, & a pre of Canvas Drawers I doe give to Stephen Latham & a Couple of shirts likewise, & a pre of silver Clasps to m: Ps Pawney by my fathers order. & I doe give my great Earthen pot to Ed: Peck, & the two little ones to Elinor Welsh, & I doe likewise give to Elinor the little Cate with all that is in it, & I doe give to Ed Peck one earthen Pan & 2 to Morrice Welsh, & I doe give my white face heifer to Stephen Latham junior, & a Red Cow that goeth by the name of Cherry with a black Calfe to Elinor Welsh, & I doe give to the said Elinor the new feather bed with a bolster & a Rugge & a Couple of blankets, the old bed with a Rugge to a Matteroate & what belongs to it I doe give to Dorothy Latham

And —