LOCAL NEWS.

A Grand Picnic,

Under the auspices of St. Dennis' congregation, will be given in McCauley's woods, near Lambson's station, on Thursday next. See advertisement in another column of this issue.

The Tramp Nuisance,

The tramp nuisance, with which our town and county has for several years past been periodically afflicted, has set in. Householders will, of course, have to exercise constant vigilance against their depredations.

Fell from a Scaffold.

One of the carpenters employed on Mr. George B. Westcott's new building, corner of High and Queen streets, fell from the lower scaffold by incautiously treading on the end of a loose board, which tilted, precipitating him to the ground, a distance of some 10 feet. He was considerably stunned, but resumed work during the afternoon.

An Excursion

From Baltimore, by the steamer Columbia, visited this place last Tuesday. It was under the auspices of an independent Lutheran congregation, the pastor being the Rev. Uriel Graves, a name no doubt familiar to most of our readers from the fact that he figured prominently in several recent Churh trials in Baltimore city. The party was quite large and well behaved.

A Camp in Prospect.

We learn that at the picnic Wednesday an effort was made by those in favor of a camp meeting this summer to ascertain how many heads of families present would be willing to have tents, when it was found that some 20 could be counted on certainly. If the congregations at St. James's and Kennedyville respond in anything like the same ratio the camp is assured, for quite a number of families in the vicinity, belonging to the M. E. Church, would no doubt join in. The 10th of August was spoken of as the time for commencing the meeting.

The Picnic

Of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School of this town, held in Baker's woods last Wednesday was, we learn, a largely attended and very pleasant season of enjoyment. Rev. J. B. Jones and Rev. Mr. King of Kent circuit, Rev. Mr. Weigand of Queen Anne's, Rev. W. R. Graham of Alexandria, and Rev. J. W. Trout of Baltimore county, were in attendance. Several short and appropriate addresses were made by some of the visiting clergymen, and others, during the day. Some of the diversions gotten up by the committee on amusements were of an original character, but proved very successful. The sudden fall of a dead tree, some 10 or 11 inches in diameter and about 25 feet high, to which Mr. Wm. Vannort's horse was hitched, created a sensation for a time. A number of horses were hitched close by, but were untouched by the falling tree; and all stood quietly, including the animal that was hitched to the tree: something remarkable, for a tremendous crash resulted from the fall, the tree coming down without any premonitory warning.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from [illegible] injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

RIOT ON A STEAMER.

FULL PARTICULARS OF THE AFFAIR.

Monday the Rising Sun Commandery Knights Templer, colored, made an excursion to Chestertown on the steamer George Law, and on the way down a riot occurred, which, it is alleged, came near having serious results. Officers Moore and Hellman were detailed from the Middle District to accompany the excursion to preserve order.

According to statements made by the police officers and officers of the boat, the rioting, which originated over some disreputable women, commenced soon after leaving the city. During the row several of the disorderly gang secured the axes belonging to the steamer and threatened to brain each other. One man is reported to have been knocked down by a blow in the back, by an axe, but was not seriously injured.

These murderous weapons were taken from the rioters and locked up, the engineer of the steamer, Joseph Conway, having his arm badly wrenched while wresting an axe from the hands of one of the parties. The colored cook of the steamer was compelled to lock himself in the kitchen in order to escape the fury of a man who expressed a determination to end his existence with a razor.

In the farcas the rioters displayed pistols, knives, razors, billies and other weapons, and it was all the committee (ten stalwart colored men,) the officers of the boat and policemen could do to prevent bloodshed and possible murder. Officer Moore was thrown across a water cask, and about a dozen colored men piled on him, squeezing and stratching him considerably, one man striking him a light blow on the neck.

The colored committee assisted the officers very materially, it is stated, in quelling the disturdance and in subsequently arresting the guilty parties. Upon arriving at Chestertown Samuel Brooks, George Asher, William Marchell, George Berry, Frederick Taylor and John E. Lamsen were arrested and committed to Chestertown jail. Lamsen escaped from custody after the commitment and returned to this city.

He was arrested upon the arrival of the boat in the city last night and confined at the Middle Station. Lamsen was committed by Justice Graff this morning as a fugitive from justice, and was sent to Chestertown this afternoon in charge of officer Moore.

Owing to the efforts of the policemen and officers of the boat there were no serious injuries sustained during the fighting on the steamer.—Bulliten of Tuesday.

☞As Gen. Tcherthemoslemsheadoff was leaving for the wars his sweetheart remarked to him in tears: "Though I no more behold thee, yet is thy name a spell."—Ex.
