LOCAL NEWS.

Conference.

The Delaware Conference (colored) of the Methodist Episcopal Church, met at the Church in this town, on Thursday and closed its session last Monday night. Bishop Scott presided. Its deliberations were harmonious. The membership is increasing, and the Conference is said to be in a prosperous condition generally.

Accident to a Stage Driver.

The Middletown correspondent of the Wilmington Every Evening and Commercial, says that a painful accident occurred to the driver of Sassafras stage, John Gary, on Wednesday morning, the 25th ult. He was driving down the hill at Sassafras, on his way to Middletown, when the breech-strap broke and caused the horse to kick Mr. Gary just below the knee and forcing the bone through the skin. It was a painful wound, but on being dressed the patient was relieved.

Camp Meeting.

An extra session (we learn,) of the Quarterly Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church for Kent Circuit was held in Chestertown last Tuesday afternoon, at which it was decided to hold a camp meeting this summer. It will be held in Baker's woods, about the last of August, but the exact date has not yet been fixed. About thirty persons have already signified their intention to have tents on the occasion, and the prospect is that the number will be as large as usual.

Reprehensible.

Tuesday night, between 12 and 1 o'clock, residents in the vicinity of the town hall were suddenly aroused from their slumbers by several loud explosions, apparently of fire-arms, occasioning alarm on the part of some, and sufficiently perplexing others as to the cause, as to render sleep out of the question for hours. It appears that some thoughtless individuals considered that it would be a good practical joke to awaken the tramps who nightly lodge in the market house, by firing off several cannon-crackers among them. The explosion was tremendous and the stampede of frightened sleepers was no doubt ludicrous in the extreme and enjoyed hugely by the getters up of the fun. Not so, however, did the awakened citizens, who as well as the tramps were the victims of the jokers, so regard it; to them it was anything but amusing, and they complained accordingly. The town authorities also were unable to appreciate the joke, and the bailiff made several arrests in consequence.

The Problem of the day

With the people of Chestertown is, "What shall be done with the tramps?" For some two weeks the town has been suffering,—and very patiently, too,—considering the extent of the infliction: under the daily increase of the number and consequent burden and annoyance, the question of relief is becoming a serious one indeed. As yet, they have been very peaceful and orderly; but depredations, we learn, are being made on corn fields and orchards on the suburbs. So large a number of individuals, (probably over a hundred) principally able-bodied men, soon becomes a heavy burden for a town like ours to support, and the demands for food which at first were complied with, now in many instances, meet with refusals, in the hope that they will clear out. But they don't go—on the contrary, the number appears to be increasing. It is not a pleasant reflection for housekeepers to indulge, on retiring at night, that in close proximity are men whose destitute condition may possibly render them desperate and, under the cover of darkness, cause them to commit serious depredations upon property. Should not the town authorities take some immediate action in the matter?

A Crowd of Colored People,

Said to number over three thousand, visited Chestertown on Sunday last, the occasion being the session of the Delaware conference, a body composed exclusively of colored preachers. There were three steamboats from Baltimore—the Matilda, Theodore Weems and Geo. Law—all bringing large numbers, and the Sarah K. Taggart, with about two hundred, from Cambridge. A train of twelve cars, all filled with passengers, came down on the railroad; and in addition wagons, all sorts of vehicles, and pedestrians, poured in from the adjacent country. Notwithstanding the immense crowd, but one disturbance of the peace occurred. A colored man from Baltimore was found, about noon by the bailiff, lying in an intoxicated condition directly across the pavement near the town hall; the officer ordered him to get up and attempted to assist him, when the fellow (a powerful man) assaulted the bailiff and but for the timely aid of two young men who witnessed it and came to his rescue, no doubt would have been seriously injured. He stoutly resisted all attempts to take him before a magistrate, and in consequence was pretty roughly handled. Squire Johnson committed him to jail, where, in consequence of his violence, Sheriff Medders was compelled to put him in irons. Late in the afternoon, having in the meantime become tolerably sober, he was released and allowed to depart on paying his fines and costs, certainly a battered and bruised, and, it is to be hoped, wiser man. It is said he was one of the rowdy party on an excursion here a short time since, and on the boat was heard to express the intention of whipping some of our citizens before he left. With the exception of this solitary instance, as far as we have any knowledge, the behavior of the colored people was excellent. Altogether, it was an occasion long to be remembered by them.

Orphans' Court.

Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Letters Testamentary on the estate of John Kelley, were granted unto J. H. Kelley and H. T. Jump, who filed their bond in the penalty of ten thousand dollars. James S. Harris and Wm. Watts were appointed to appraise the said estate. The usual notice to creditors was ordered.

A. L. and S. Vannort, admrs. of E. A. Vannort, returned their fourth administration account.

William Morris, admr. of James W. Riley, returned his first and final administration account.

C. H. Baker, admr. of John T. Bramble, receiving an order authorizing him to sell a portion of the personal estate of said deceased at private sale.

We would call the attention of our readers to Keller's Vegetable Life Drops, and recommend such as need a really good medicine to try this valuable remedy which always does more than it promises, and effects results unattainable by the use of any other medicine. It is peculiarly adapted to the treatment of so many diseases and their prevention when used in time, that it should be kept in every house. The Drops are for sale by all Druggists.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis, Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs, Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of the Respiratory Organs are entirely cured by this sovereign remedy, which also eradicates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervous Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinary Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

MR. EDITOR:—I have noticed, with satisfaction, the very great improvment recently made in the old frame hotel building, nearly opposite the Transcript printing office. Mr. Hall has owned and occupied this property some twelve years, from time to time adding improvements thereto, until now, the house and stabling are as large again as originally, modernized in appearance, and as good as new. The table is supplied with the best the market can afford, and is superintended by his wife. The proprietor is an honest, accommodating man, and his assistant, Mr. Frank Whitehill, is also agreeable and courteous. I think both man and beast will be well provided for at friend Hall's.

AN OBSERVER FOR EIGHT YEARS.

A STEAMER THROUGH KENT NARROWS.—The steamer Olive made the first successful trip through Kent Narrows, which connects Chester river with Eastern bay, last Saturday, and experienced but little difficulty. A large mud scow was sunk in the new channel, and the steamer used the old one. The new channel will be completed this week, and the Olive will use that route to reach St. Michaels. A wharf will be built at the narrows, and will be used as a point for the shipment of peaches and other products. Colonel Craighill, United States engineer, has charge of the improvement of the narrows.—Sun, of Tuesday.

☞ A vivid idea of the expensiveness of military operations was given in a recent despatch of an English correspondent with the Russian army at Kars. He said that up to the time when the siege of Kars was raised, the Russians had thrown into it 18,000 bombs, the cost of which was about 1,500,000 roubles, or about $1,206,000. It is estimated by a British military writer that the cost to Russia of the double war in Europe and Asia Minor is considerably over one million of dollars per day. This sum does not come out of the pocket of the Czar, nor does the Sultan pay the expenses of the other side.

EASTERN SHORE ITEMS.

Wicomico county is to have a new Court House.

The consumption of lager beer is on the increase in Newtown.

Marsh bird shooting on Chincoteague Island is at its hight.

The annual "pony-penning" on Chincoteague Island will take place this year on the 8th and 9th of August.

Crisfield is a local option town, but one day last week five barrels of whiskey were landed at the wharf, consigned to citizens of that place.

A Baltimorean named Carroll has been arrested at Newtown for passing counterfeit money. It is stated that he circulated over $900 on the Eastern Shore of Virginia.

Monmonier Rowe, son of George T. Rowe, of Wicomico county, has been appointed to the cadetship at West Point made vacant by the dismissal of Thomas F. Chance.

Revs. Enoch Stubbs, J. E. Bryan, Geo. R. Bristor and Vaughan Smith are among the preachers who are expected to be present at Nelson's woods camp meeting, near Crisfield.

A convict named Chase, in the jail at Easton, was discovered Monday in attempt to escape. He had picked a hole in the wall, as far as the outside course of bricks, large enough to admit a man's body.

Rev. John Brinkley, a local preacher of the M. E. Church, residing near Fruitland, Wicomico county, was thrown from a cart Friday morning by his horse becoming frightened at the cars, and received injuries which caused his death a short time afterwards.

☞ The wages that the railroad employees have refused to accept are high compared with the average compensation of the skilled mill workers of New England. In Rhode Island, where the compensation is lowest and the hours longest, the men and women, boys and girls, who work in the mills do not average over $5 a week. Yet many of them toil for fourteen hours a day, six days in the week, and even longer hours have been known. There is, however, but little danger of an outbreak among them. They live, as a rule, in tenements owned by the company employing them; and when they strike they are at once turned out into the street. Then they are clubbed by policemen, arrested as vagrants, and sent to the county jail, to be released to take their choice of going to work again at the old wages or starving. Several experiences of this kind have made order in Rhode Island such as that which once existed in Warsaw,—New York Sun.

Ayer's

Hair Vigor,

For restoring Gray Hair to its natural Vitality and Color.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color with the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a

HAIR DRESSING,

nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts long on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

PRICE $1.00.

This standard article is compounded with the greatest care.

Its effects are as wonderful and as satisfactory as ever.

It restores gray or faded hair to its youthful color.

As a dressing, nothing has been found so effectual or desirable.

A. A. Hayes, M.D., State Assayer of Massachusetts, says, "The constituents are pure, and carefully selected for excellent quality; and I consider it the BEST PREPARATION for its intended purposes."
