The Chestertown Transcript

Only ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

LOCAL NEWS.

☞ TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

I have arranged with Mr. Perkins to fill all unexpired contracts for subscriptions to the TRANSCRIPT which have been paid to him. He will collect all unpaid subscriptions to and including July 20, 1877. From that date subscriptions are payable to me; and I earnestly request all subscribers to pay their subscriptions before the expiration of September, and thereby avail themselves of the lowest rate which is payable in advance, viz: $1.00. After October the 1st., all subscriptions, not paid for at the time of subscribing, will invariably be $1.50. GEO. A. HANSON.

TO ADVERTISERS.

All persons who advertise in the Transcript to the amount of fifteen dollars and pay cash for the same will receive the Transcript, for one year, free of charge.

Agricultural Fair.

The Seventh Annual Fair of the Kent County Agricultural Association will be held at their Fair Grounds, Worton Station, near Chestertown, next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday. Agriculture is the foundation of our national wealth and happiness, and we are much indebted, for our prosperity, to the efforts of such associations of liberal minded country gentlemen. We hope that our citizens will turn out and liberally patronize this public spirited association, for their own personal credit and the honor of Kent.

Land Sale Next Tuesday.

C. H. Baker, Esq., as Trustee, will sell at public sale, at 3 o'clock, P. M., at the Voshell House porch, a part of the W. T. Baker farm, set in peach trees, and altogether a desirable piece of land. See advertisement on 4th page of this issue.

The Boats

Of the Chester river line, as will be seen by advertisement in another column, have entered upon their fall and winter arrangement, leaving Chestertown every morning at half-past eight o'clock.

Harness.

The wealth of a town is increased by, if not dependent upon, the encouragement of home industry. We invite our readers, in want of such articles, to call and see the splendid harness made by Mr. W. W. Copper, of this town. Leave your coppers at home, instead of wasting them in the cities!

Accident.

We regret to learn that Mr. John Ruth, of this place, accidentally re-broke his arm, which was lately fractured, when thrown from his horse.

Fracas.

Another one of those disgraceful street fights, which occasionally enlivens our town, occurred last Saturday evening. We are not in possession of the facts of the case and therefore forbear to narrate incidents or mention names, upon hearsay testimony. Would it not be well for us to establish a "court of honor" and provide for the settlement of these little unpleasantnesses in the jail yard. Let us have peace.

T. B. Sutton, Esq.

Your interesting letter of the 19th inst., came too late for insertion—crowded out by the necessary publication of the proceedings of the County Convention. Would it not be well for all good Democrats, on the eve of this campaign, to shake hands, forget personal differences, and join heart and soul in the support of our party?

The Republicans

Of Kent county at a Convention, 11th Sept. 1877, held in Chestertown, had the following proceedings:

The Convention was called to order, and Capt. W. H. Hamilton was elected chairman, and Henry Krusen secretary. The call for the convention was read by the chairman.

The convention then went into the nomination and election of delegates to the State Convention, which will assemble in Baltimore on the 20th, and the following were chosen: Isaac Anderson, Thomas E. Norris, John W. Parsons.

Mr. Thos. E. Norris offered preambles and resolution, and they were adopted—Mr. Jos. Turner and Capt. W. H. Hamilton voting in the negative:

Mr. Joseph Turner offered the following, which were adopted:

RESOLVED, That we, the Republicans of Kent county, propose to closely adhere to the Great National Republican party, so long as it continues in well-doing;

That, though the policy of Hayes has been somewhat different towards the Southern States than our convictions would have led us to adopt; yet, we cannot but see that all patriotic men must approve his administration;

That, as Republicans, of and in Kent county, we approve of no policy that is not straightforward; and of no men who are not honest, above suspicion, and capable beyond a doubt.

The Convention adjourned sine die

D. C. BLACKSON, Clerk.

Orphans' Court.

Present, Judges Nicholson, Shall cross and Willson.

C. J. Scott, admr. C. T. A. of Ara. M. Gooding, returned a report of the annual value of the real estate of said dec'd.

Emily A. Hurtt, admr'x. of James H. Hurtt, returned her first administration account; also, a list of debts due said deceased.

S. F. Shallcross, admr. C. T. A. of Jacob Shallcross, returned his first and final administration account.

R. S. Griffith, executor of F. A. Clift, received an order for the sale of the real estate of said deceased.

J. H. Keller and H. T. Jump, executors of John Kelley, received an order for the sale of the personal estate of said deceased.

J. and W. Vansant, admrs. of Fredus Vansant, received an order authorizing them to place head and foot stones at grave of said deceased.

R. C. Smyth, guardian to Carrie B. Smyth, was authorized to expend a portion of the principal of said ward's estate for educational purposes.

C. J. Scott, admr. C. T. A. of A. M. Gooding, was authorized to sell the personal estate of said deceased at private sale.

C. H. Baker, admr. of John T. Bramble, returned an additional list of sales of the personal estate of said deceased.

INVESTIGATION.—It is not essential to believe all that people tell you, neither must your incredulity carry itself to an extreme point, but investigate every matter for yourself and then decide. We encourage this method by suggesting that you obtain a bottle of Keller's Roman Liniment, and it will do all that is promised, as the proprietor guarantees the efficacy of his remedies.

A Time-Honored Specific.—The long and successful career of Dr. WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL, as contrasted with the speedy collapse of nostrums devoid of efficacy which have from time to time been puffed into a brief notoriety during the twenty odd years that this celebrated medicine has been sold, affords a proof that the American public continues to repose its confidence in deserving articles only. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL has long been recognized as the leading specific for Consumption, Cronchitis, Coughs, Colds, Asthma Diptheria, and all other diseases of the breathing organs. It is, moreover, a certain, speedy, and safe botanic remedy for Dyspepsia, Liver Disorders, Scrofulous Affections, Urinary Troubles, Gravel, Dropsy, Debility, Constipation, and Female Complaints. Constantly accumulating evidence of an unimpeachable character establishes the facts that it not only entirely exticates the diseases to which it is adapted, but also that its action is remarkably prompt and thorough. The crucial test of experience has demonstrated its reliability in every particular. Sold by all druggists.

Principal Depot, No. 916 Filbert St. Philadelphia.

[COMMUNICATED.]

Sept. 15th, 1877.

The Fifth District Teachers Association met at Edesville School house. The President called the meeting to order. The Secretary being absent the minutes of the last meeting were not read. A motion was made that instead of the regular discussions by members at the monthly meetings, the teacher at whose school room the meeting is held shall request the attendance of the pupils, and for two hours teach the grades in regular order. Thereby giving his fellow workers the benefit of his mode, and may be profiting by theirs. After some discussion by the members it was unanimously adopted. The Association adjourned to meet at Rock Hall, Oct. 20th.

[Communicated]

MR. EDITOR TRANSCRIPT:—I saw in your paper last week, a communication by an ex-Confederate, calling upon the ladies of Chestertown and the County, to raise funds by having some able Lecturer, as Mr. Jefferson Davis and others, to raise a Monument to the Confederate dead of Kent county. While I was pleased to hear mentioned Blackiston, Spencer, Gemmill and Kelly, I was surprised that he lost sight, though I am satisfied not intentionally, of LEVI PERKINS, who was as brave a soldier, in the language of a fellow-comrade, as ever sat in a saddle; and who was so anxious for the cause of the South, that when he landed in Virginia, he walked one hundred miles, from Richmond to Charlottsville, to join the army.

He was wounded at the battle of Gettysburg, while fighting gallantly with his command, and died a few days after their return to Virginia. His remains lie buried at Great Falls Church Cemetary in Virginia. He graduated at Washington College, Kent County, Md., with the first honors of his class, under the superintendance of the late Doctor Waters. He forsook father and mother, home and friends, even his betrothed, who has remained single to mourn his early but heroic death; for he was just in his manhood's prime. How sad to be so soon snatched away. His name is loved and revered by all who knew him best. At his tomb genius and heroism mingle their tears. May he rest in peace, and on his tomb let it be written, "a fond son, an affectionate brother, who bled and died in his country's cause."
