The Chestertown Transcript

Only ONE DOLLAR A YEAR

LOCAL NEWS.

☞TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

I have arranged with Mr. Perkins to fill all unexpired contracts for subscriptions to the TRANSCRIPT which have been paid to him. He will collect all unpaid subscriptions to and including July 20, 1877. From that date subscriptions are payable to me; and I earnestly request all subscribers to pay their subscriptions before the expiration of September, and thereby avail themselves of the lowest rate which is payable in advance, viz: $1.00. After October the 1st., all subscriptions, not paid for at the time of subscribing, will invariably be $ .50. GEO. A. HANSON.

TO ADVERTISERS.

All persons who advertise in the Transcript to the amount of fifteen dollars and pay cash for the same will receive the Transcript, for one year, free of charge.

State Central Committee.

G. W. T. Perkins, David Jones and John F. Beeks were appointed members of the State Central Committee for Kent County.

Premium.

We are gratified to learn that the "IRON FRAMED CLIMAX CULTIVATOR" of our enterprising fellow townsmen, Messrs. Chapman & Lambert, took the premium, over all competitors at the Middletown Fair. We have as good mechanics, in Chestertown, as are to be found on the Peninsula. It is strange that our people do not appreciate and patronize them to the exclusion of foreign made articles. Patriotism begins at home and always encourages home industry.

Wanted.

A gentleman, with a family of four children, wants a Housekeeper, who understands the use of a sewing-machine. A widow prefered. Inquire at this Office.

Sudden Death.

One of our most esteemed and beloved citizens, Mr. William B. Wilmer, was stricken with apoplexy last Tuesday, the 9th inst., between the hours of 12 and 1 o'clock P. M. He was conversing with an acquaintance at the time of the commencement of the fatal attack and was able to walk as far as Mr. Richard Hynson's office. Thence he was carried home and lingered until about 5.30 P. M., when he expired.

A Dredger Shot.

William Stuart alias Capt. Patrick Kelly of the dredging boat, "The Two Brothers" was brought to Chestertown, last Tuesday, the 9th inst. in almost a dying condition, and lodged in jail by Capt. Mitchell, of the Oyster Police Force and Commander of Sloop "Nannie Merryman." It appears that Capt. Mitchell found the accused dredging in unlawful waters in and near the mouth of Chester river ordered him to desist and fired a shot across the bow, stern and amidships. Kelly disobeyed the legal signals, remained in his cabin and steered his boat attempting to make his escape. At this juncture Capt. Mitchell fired at the boat with his rifle. The ball pierced the cabin door and struck Kelly, taking out his left eye, shattering his skull and passed out a little above and in front of his left ear. It is not expected that Kelly will survive. Doctors Perkins, Hines and Houston administered to the wounded man. The case will be investigated by the grand jury.

Improvements.

Mr. G. E. Lambert is erecting a commodious Carriage Factory, near his old stand, on a part of the John N. Usilton lot, corner of Cannon and Cross streets. Mr. Henry DeFord is also building a large Wheel-wright Shop on Cannon Street. These gentlemen are worthy citizens and deserve the generous patronage of the county.

Whirl-wind.

Last Monday about midnight a terrific whirl-wind passed over the farm of Mr. Mifflin Thomas, two and a half miles South West of Chestertown. It entirely destroyed his dairy and striking a very heavily built and usually strong shed, 91 feet long and 18 feet wide, it lifted it up and completely demolished it. The path of the whirl-wind for a mile or more was marked by the destruction of ences, &c.

Dry-Goods.

Any person needing dry-goods would do well to read carefully the advertisement of W. W. Parks & Sons, and call and examine their well assorted stock. This firm is very enterprising and is determined to show the people of Kent that articles in their line can be sold in Chestertown as good and as cheep as in the cities. Patronize our own merchants and build up our own town is a safe and patriotic rule.

Literary.

The Mount Vernon Literary Society of Washington College is in a flourishing condition. It meets every Friday evening. The officers are as follows: P. G. Wilmer, President, A. O. Twiford, Vice President, H. H Barroll, Secretary, and J. D. Urie, Treasurer. The question which will be debated next Friday evening, is, "Will wars ever cease?" The public are invited to attend. The meetings of this Society are very interesting. Such societies are the life of a College and we wish success to the young gentlemen composing it.

Family Grocery.

Wm. M. Lawrence, High Street, keeps on hand a good supply of the good things which please the palate. Give him a call and get your money's worth.

Ming's.

If any body wants fresh sage, powder and shot, pure cider vinegar, etc., let him call at Ming's, Court Street.

Agricultural.

Hines & Co., keep an excellent assortment of agricultural implements and fertilizers.

Returned.

Maj. B. B. Wroth has returned to town, after a sojourn in the country. He is looking well and is as lively as a cricket—constantly moving.

Political.

The Republicans of Kent will meet in Mass Convention at the Town Hall to-morrow at 2 P. M. o'clock, in Mass Convention, "for the purpose of allowing Republicans of this county a fair and free expresion of their views as to who they will have to represent the county on the State Central Committee." The Convention is called by Levi Fiddis, chairman of county committee.

Bank.

The report of the condition of the Kent National Bank of Chestertown at close of business Oct. 1st. 1877, published elsewhere, makes a very creditable showing. There is no Bank, in the State, better managed. The high credit it enjoys at home is attested by its individual deposits.

Orphans' Court.

Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Letters of Administration on the personal estate of Alexander H. Willson were granted unto Mary T. Willson. Vachel Burgess and B. F. Sappington were appointed to appraise the said estate; and the usual notice to creditors was ordered.

V. Burgess and B. F. Sappington were appointed to appraise the annual value of the real estate of Alex. H. Willson.

R. C. Smyth and G. S. Diehl, executors of Richard Smyth, returned a report of the sale of the leasehold estate of said deceased.

T. J. Lusby, admr. of John M. Hudson, returned an additional administration account and dividend.

B. M. Hazell, admr. of Benj. Hazell, returned an additional list of sales of personal estate of said deceased. Also his fifth anministration account, and final acting guardian accounts.

The indenture of Simon Ringgold to Thomas W. Hynson, was ordered cancelled.

Delays are Dangerous.—If this axiom is true respecting the ordinary affairs of life, still more obviously so as regards the exigencies of approaching disease. Unquestionably! Yet how many neglect to practically recognize this plain truth when health is in the balance. Of the many premonitory symptoms of disease a hacking cough is the most prophetic of peril. Arrest it at the outset with DR WISHART'S PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL and so avoid Consumption. Bronchitis Inflammation of the Lungs, Coughs Colds, and, indeed, all Affections of th Respiratory Organs are entirely cured b this sovereign remedy, which also eradi cates Dyspepsia, Gravel, Piles, Nervou Debility, Torpidity of the Liver, Urinar Difficulties, Constipation, Palpitation of the Heart, Scrofulous Affections, and the infirmities peculiar to the gentler sex. This Cordial derives its virtues from the vegetable kingdom, and is infinitely to be preferred, both on account of its superior efficacy and freedom from nauseous and injurious properties to the officinal drugs so often administered with no other effect than to offend the palate and disorder the stomach. The PINE TREE TAR CORDIAL can always be relied on to do what is claimed for it. Sold by all druggists. Principal Depot No. 916 Filbert st., Philadelphia.

A stitch in the back is caused by a sudden wrenching of the spine and produces violent and acute pains, making it exceedingly difficult for the person to move. It should not be neglected, as curvature of the spine is often brought on by neglect of this apparently trivial complaint. Keller's Roman Liniment will afford immediate relief.

DEATH OF ARCHBISHOP BAYLEY

Archbishop Bayley, of Baltimore, who had been lying at the point of death at Newark, N. J., since Friday last, died at the Episcopal residence, Bleecker street in that city, at ten minutes before eleven o'clock 3d instant. At twelve noon to-day the following special dispatch was received by the bulletin:

NEWARK, N. J., October 3.—Archbishop Bayley died at 10.50 o'clock this morning. He was totally unconscious all day yesterday and all last night. The announcement of his death to-day was not unexpected.

PARTICULARS OF THE ARCHBISHOP'S DEATH.

[By Associated Press.]

NEWARK, N. J., October 3.—Archbishop Bayley died very peaceably to-day at a little before eleven o'clock. Mass will be said in the Cathedral at Newark on Friday morning at 7.30 o'clock, after which the body of the deceased will be carried to the train that leaves Newark at 9.53 A M. and arrives in Baltimore at about 3 P. M. The solemn service will take place there on Tuesday morning, and the remains will be taken to Emmittsburg for interment.

James Roosevelt Bayley was a native of New York, and was 63 years of age on the 23d of August last. He was of a distinguished family, his grandfather and father both being noted physicians. His grandfather, Dr. Richard Bayley, was the first health officer of the port of New York, and died of ship fever, while attending to the duties of his office.

The Archbishop was educated at Amherst and Trinity colleges, and studied theology with Dr. Jarvis, of Middletown, Conn. He was ordained a deacon and priest of the Protestant Episcopal Church and became rector of St. Ann's P. E. Church at Harlem, New York.

He became a convert to the Roman Catholic Church during the Oxford movement in England, led by Drs. Pusey and Newman, and entered the priesthood after a visit to Rome and a residence at St. Sulpice in Paris. He was ordained by Bishop Hughes March 2d, 1842, and was appointed a professor in St. John's College, at Fordham, N. Y., and was afterwards its president.

In 1846 he became secretary to Archbishop Hughes, and on the 30th of October, 1853, was consecrated bishop of the new diocese of Newark, New Jersey, which, under his administration, became one of the most important in the country. He was the founder of Seton Hall, Orange, N. J., and numerous schools. He became Archbishop of Baltimore and Primate of the American church upon the death of Archbishop Spadling in 1872, and took charge of the archdiocese October 2d of that year.

As Archbishop of Baltimore he has been held in the highest estimation by all with whom he has had intercourse. He was much beloved by the clergy of his diocese, and popular with many of other denominations. He was alive to all measures for the public good, and watchful of the vast interests of the part of the Church over which he presided.

Archbishop Bayley was the eighth upon whom the dignity was conferred. His successor, as is well known, is Bishop Gibbons, of Richmond, Va., who was appointed Coadjutor Archbishop at the request of Dr. Bayley, on account of his failing health. Archbishop Gibbons had not yet assumed the duties of his Coadjutorship, but expected to take up his residence in Baltimore the 15th of this month.

By the demise of Archbishop Bayley he becomes Archbishop of Baltimore and Primate of America, and needs only to be installed and to receive the pallium of office to complete the form.

THE PEABODY FUND.

HOW MONEY IS DISTRIBUTED FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES IN THE SOUTH.

The trustees of the Peabody Education Fund had their annual meeting at the Fifth Avenue Hotel 3d inst. In attendance were the Hon. Robert C. Winthrop of Massachusetts, President of the board, ex-Secretary Fish, Chief Justice Waite, ex-Gov. William Aiken of South Carolina, the Hon. William M Evarts, George W. Riggs, Esq. of Washington, Samuel Whetmore of New York, A. H. H. Stuart of Virginia, Gen. Henry R. Jackson of Georgia, Theodore Lyman of Massachusetts. Surgeon-General Joseph K. Barnes, and the Rev. Barnes Sears, General Agent. The board have $2,000,000 invested mainly in Government bonds, and have expended for Southern educational purposes during the past ten years nearly $1,000,000. Their policy has been to extend aid only where the local authorities second their efforts. Said Secretary Lyman yesterday: "We help them when they help themselves. If a community or State spends $20,000 of its own money, we give them $2,000, or if $5,000, we give them $500. When they spend nothing, we give them nothing.

The report of General Agent Sears said that $89,400 has been distributed in the past year in twelve States, as follows. Virginia, $18,250; North Carolina, $4,900; South Carolina, $4,300; Georgia, $4,000; Florida, $6,500; Alabama, $3,700; Mississippi, $5,990; Louisiana, $2,000; Texas, $10,800; Arkansas, $6,300; Tennessee, $15,850; West Virginia, $6,810. In Virginia 40 per cent. of the children attended school, in North Carolina not quite 50; in South Carolina about 45; in Georgia 48; in Alabama 25 per cent.; in Mississippi about 50 per cent.; and in Louisiana about 30 per cent. Texas is estimated to have $30,000,000 worth of property set apart for a school fund. North Carolina has established two normal schools—one for colored teachers, the other for white.—West Virginia shows the largest attendance in proportion to her school population, over 60 per cent. of the children in the State being enrolled. In many of the States schools are maintained only during the winter months.

ADMIRAL SEMMES.

SCENES AT HIS DEATH-BED—HIS MIND WANDERING TO SCENES OF BATTLE.

New Orleans Delta.

Grief, heart-rendering grief, was depicted on the faces of that beloved group around his bed, and as the old vetern gazed upon them, and as consciousness gradually faded from his mind, a sob escaped his murmuring lips, and a tear-drop gathered in his parental eyes. Soon his vision became entirely obscured. The agonies of death had taken possession of him—he was delirious. In the awful solemnity of the moment, oblivious of all around him, he looked up and ordered every window closed, that the rain might not be blown in and deluge every thing. Then, after a few moments of silence, still unconscious, he turned to some one near him and said: "You will see the judge about it; the case has not been decided properly. I ask for nothing but justice; should I not have it? Promise me to attend to this matter, since I can not do it myself.' Then his countenance changed from a look of appeal to one of stern command and fixed determination. Another sudden revolution had taken place in his mind. He imagined that he stood upon the deck of his gallant ship on the high seas preparing for battle? His language clearly indicated the great danger and importance of the occasion. His commands were quick, comprehensive and positive. He conversed with his officers near him on the appearance of the enemy, evidently preparing for a decisive conflict, yet confidently awaiting the shock of battle and elated with the conviction of victory. This charrcteristic scene speedily passed away, and a short period of return to consciousness followed, during which the brave admiral, thoroughly conscious that this, indeed, was his last battle, calmly bade farewell to each member of his family. Death did not close his eyes or stop his breath, however, ere he pronounced his confidence in God, and his hope and belief in salvation.

☞So large and thriving a town as Frederick ought certainly to be able to support a daily newspaper devoted to the advancement of its local interests, and we greet the first number of the Frederick Daily Times with the best wishes for its success. It is a neat and attractive folio, published by Messrs. Kaufman & Bouldin, at two cents per copy. The first issue is a very creditable production, and if the paper maintains the standard established in this number it promises to be a bright, newsy sheet.—Gazette.

THE SENATE NEARLY DEMOCRATIC.—The Senate promises to come within one vote of being Democratic at the special session, counting with the Republicans, Messrs. Booth, of California, and Davis, of Illinois. The roll foots up 40 Republicans to 33 Democrats. Messrs. Sharon, of Nevada, and Morton will not be present, and Patterson, or South Carolina, will probably be unavoidably absent, or if present, will not vote, it is said, while under indictment. This would reduce the Republican vote to thirty-seven. If the three Democratic contestants are admitted, as they probably will be, the Democratic vote is increased to thirty-six leaving the Republicans in a majority of one.

HOW TO KILL A TOWN.

This prescription comes from a northern Doctor, yet we think it peculiarly adapted to this section:

1. Put up no more buildings than you can occupy yourself.
2. If you should have an empty building to rent, demand three times its value.
3. Look sorrowful at every newcomer, give the cold shoulder to every mechanic who desires to come among you.
4. Go abroad for everything you want. By no means purchase from your own merchants and manufacturers, even at the same price or less.
5. Don't contribute one cent to the cause of religion or education.

Finally put a thorough finish to your work by killing your local paper, refusing to subscribe for or advertise in it, so that persons at a distance will not know that any business is being done in your town, or they may want to come and settle among you, or buy something from you and that would put you to extra trouble.

HOW THE PATENT OFFICE CAUGHT FIRE.

Special Dispatch to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, October 8.—The committee appointed to ascertain the cause of the late fire at the patent office this afternoon submitted their report to the Secretary of the Interior. The report is short and sets forth that the fire was not the work of an incendiary, but originated from a flue occasioned by the building of a fire in the basement. This portion of the building was occupied by ladies, and closed all day Sunday, and being damp a fire was made to make the rooms comfortable, and in the opinion of the committee the heat from the flue communicated to the wood grating on the roof of the North-street wing, used to prevent rubbish from going down the pipes, and next to the pine sheathing under the copper roof and through the ceiling and thence to the rejected model room, which was not occupied by clerks, thus giving the fire a good start before it was discovered.

MANHOOD: How Lost, How Restored!

Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also Consumption, Epilepsy and Fits, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance, &c.

☞Price, in a sealed envelope, only six cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, post-paid, on receipt of six cents or two postage stamps.
