Jurat Coram me Roger Woolford Dep.ty Com.r

To the Honble Wm. Bladen Esq.r Com.r Gen.ll

May it please your Hon.r

This day to wit the 3.d day of Decemb.r Anno 1752 came before me Wm. Jones one of the w.ch in Ex.rs & demanded to have this w.ch in written Will proved and at the same time & place also came Jn.o Willis the Eldest Son of the deced and opposed the p.bate of the s.d Will and for Reason saith that there is but two Evidences to the s.d will & one being one of the Ex.rs. and therefore no proper Evidence & further offers that their is two more children not mentioned in the s.d Will & the reason thereof he saith is that his deced father at the time of publishing & signing the s.d Will was not of a sound & p.fect memory therefore fording that in case any dispute arise before me as Dep.ty Com.r who has right to adm.n or Ex.torship that in all such cases the question in dispute by act of Assembley should be remitted to your Hon.rs Consideracon w.ch is humbley offered by

Your humble Serv.t
