it now stands in my Chamber with the Curtains & Valence thereunto belonging, my Chest of Drawers Spice-Box Glass Case Looking-Glass Warming Pann and Black Trunk all in my Chamber also all her wearing Apparrel of what sort soever to her belonging One Chest Six Leather Chairs, her Choyce one new wooll Bed, one Rugg, one p.r Course Sheets one fine Table Cloath Six Napkins, Two Towells her Choyce w.th the small Table In y.e Porch, all the prayer Books and pictures she calls hers (not mislosting the Altar nor Church Furniture) my Mourning Ring Silver Tumbler four Silver Spoones that came with her, Two puter Dishes, Two puter Basons, Six puter plates, Two pewter Candlesticks, one Chamber pot one brass Candlestick one Spice Morter her Choyce, one Iron pot pot-hooks & pot-Rack that came with her one small bellmettle Skillet and as much Earthen ware as shall be valued at Twenty Shillings in the Appraizement her Choyce my Sorrell Horse her Side-Saddle with the Furniture Four Cows & Two Steers her Choyce of my Cattle, Ten Head of my Hoggs her Choice, Six Ewes and one Ram, Ten Barrills of Indian Corn what of my Dunghill fowles she pleases, Two Cedar piggins Some Bowls & Tray her Choyce, and also the use of my Negro Girle called Jane during the natural Life of my said loving Wife Mary Sanders, and at the Death ~~of my said~~ of my said Wife Mary Sanders my said Negro Girle Jane with all her Increase to go to my Daughter Mary Power during the natural Life of my said Daughter Mary Power, and at the Death of my s.d Daughter Mary Power then the s.d Negro Girle Jane afores.d with all her Increase to go to my Grandson John Power to him and his Heirs for ever ——

4.th I give to my Daughter Mary Power Twenty Shillings

5.th I give to my Daughter Jane Doyne Twenty Shillings

6.th I give & bequeath unto my Son John Sanders to him & his Heirs for ever, part of my Land at Port-tobacco called Canes purchas beginning at the Mouth of a Marsh Branch called deep Branch or Lowes gort running down Port-tobacco

Creek

Creek to a Small Run in the Pasture, thence up the said Run to the Head to a Marked great Poplar that stands at y.e Head of y.e North West Branch of y.e said Run, thence West to a Small Run that comes from my Q.tr Spring thence down the s.d Run into deep Branch Run down the said deep Branch Run to the Mouth Supposed to be one hundred Acres more or Less with my great Iron Kettle at that Quarter & my Brass Stewpan ——

7.th I give and bequeath to my Son Edward Sanders & his Heirs for ever part of my Land at Port-tobacco called Canes purchas beginning at the Mouth of the Run in the pasture running thence up the s.d Run and with y.e North West Branch of the s.d Run, with my Son John Sanders is Line to the Great bounded Poplar afores.d thence West with my Son John to the first Run that comes from the Quarter Spring thence up the said Run towards the Spring Twenty Perches, thence West & by South to the Exterior line of the great Patting called Canes purchas thence South & by East to a Marked Oak by a run Side it being the bound Tree that divides between my Brothers Land & mine, thence East & by South w.th the dividing line afores.d to Port-tobacco Creek thence up the said Port-tobacco Creek to y.e Mouth of the Run in the pasture afores.d supposed to be One hundred & fifty Acres More or less, with my Negro Woman called Lusey with all her Increase both afore and after the Date hereof and my Negro boy Called Edward my hand Mill at that Quarter with what moveable household Goods I have at that Quarter ——

8.th I give and bequeath to my Daughter Ann Sanders to her & her Heirs for ever my Negro Girle called Mary w.th all her Increase my Small Feather Bed and Bolster that belongs to my Porch Chamber my White Silk Rugg one good Blanket one pair of Good Sheets the white Curtains — Vallens tester Cloath bedstead Cord & Matt as it now stands with the Great Trunk and five thousand pounds of Tob.o at My Death ——

9.th