Also on the Back of the s.d Will was the following Endorsement fs:

10th Novemb. 1730 — Came Hannah Bodien the Relict & Executrix of the within named Francis Ludolph Bodien and declared that her Election & Approbation of the Legacies bequeathed to her by the within Will which she made the second Day of October last before John Gresham Gent Deputy Commissary of Kent County was unadvisedly and without Thought she being at that Time in great Trouble and Affliction & incapable of Judging how to Choose or Knowing what she did. Therefore upon further Deliberation and due Consideration of the said Will and the Legacies and bequests therein contained and for that the Forty Days from the probat of the said Will allowed by Act of Assembly for Widows to make their Election is not yet Expired, She therefore prays that her former Election Approbation & Consent so ex.d made may be revoked & made Void to all Intents and purposes. Also she declares that she absolutely renounces and Refuses the Legacies & bequests to her given by the within Will and will not be content therewith or Accept thereof but chooses her Thirds of the personal & Real Estate according to Law & Releases her Devisees.
