Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, APRIL 15, 1880.

The Clerk to the Board of County Commissioners of Cecil county (says the St. Michaels Comet) receives an annual salary of fifteen hundred dollars for his services.

Had Not Farmers better strain a point, and prepare to plant orchards this Spring, as N. BARNARD offers in his advertisement in to-day's paper unrivalled inducements.

Fashionable Clothing.—We call attention to two new advertisements in this issue of large and Fashionable Clothing Houses in Baltimore,—Likes, Berwanger & Co., and Rogers, Peet & Co.

Deceased.—The Centreville Observer of Tuesday says, "Mrs. Sallie F. Keating, wife of Hon. Thomas J. Keating, died of conjestive chill yesterday afternoon. She was an excellent lady, and leaves many warm friends to mourn her untimely death.

Trustees of the Poor.—The Board of County Commissioners, on Tuesday last, appointed the following Trustees of the Poor for Kent county: William A. Hyland of the First District; Wm. Ford of the Fourth; S. A. J. Wickes of the Fifth District.

Base Ball.—A match game of base ball will be played on the grounds in Centreville, on Saturday next, between the second nine of Washington College and the Invincible club of that town. This on the authority of the Centreville Observer.

W. W. Busteed, editor of the Observer, is President of the newly-elected Board of Town Commissioners of Centreville. The Bailiff, George B. Chambers, will receive over six hundred dollars for discharging the various duties of his office during the year.

The Steamer George Law has for several months past been undergoing extensive repairs. A new boiler has been put in, the machinery thoroughly overhauled, and the boat has been greatly improved in many respects. If nothing should occur to prevent, the LAW will, on Tuesday next, commence running, temporarily taking the place of the FORD, and will run as far up the river as Crumpton.

The Races advertised to take place at the the Worton cattle show grounds, yesterday and to-day did not come off. Our information is that the parties having the matter in charge came to the conclusion that they had not given notice sufficiently long to insure a good attendance, and made application, last Monday, to the Executive Committee of the Kent County Agricultural Association, to use the grounds on the 10th and 11th of May next; but permission was refused, so the races may be considered to be permanently off.

Special Services.—Next week there will be special services in the church of the Sacred Heart, of this town, commencing on Sunday morning and closing on Thursday morning. The hours of services will be as follows: Sunday 10:30 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, 9 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.; Thursday, 9 A. M. At each of the services sermon and instructions will be delivered by the able and eloquent Father Macgeveney, S. J., who in conducting the mission will be assisted by Father Heicheimer, S. J., and by the Rev. Pastor. All are invited.

Election of Officers.—The Juvenile Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Protestant Sunday School, Chestertown, held its annual meeting last Sunday afternoon, and elected the following officers, to serve the ensuing year:

President—Jeff. D. Bacchus;
Vice Presidents—William Conyer, William R. Aldridge;
Secretaries—Harry L. Dodd, Walter Chapman;
Treasurer—Mary R. Bowers;
Board of Managers—Lizzie Benjamin, Maggie Sappington, Lulie Lambert, Hattie Bacchus, Nettie Russell, Percy T. McFeely, William Malin, Harry V. Kleff, Emory S. Wroth, Richard Usilton.

The April Term of the Circuit Court for Kent county commences on Monday next, the 19th instant, and will probably last two weeks. There are now in jail, awaiting the action of the grand jury, eighteen prisoners, eight white and ten colored, all males, and adults. Seven of the white men are dredgers, committed on the charge of having violated the oyster laws; the remaining white man is charged with threatening to set fire to a building. Nine of the colored men were committed on charges of larceny; the remaining one for forgery. We learn that several important civil suits will be tried this term.

A New Street is to be laid down at the upper end of Chestertown, being an extension of the College road from its present terminus at High street, in a straight line, through the land of John N. Usilton, until it reaches a point opposite the extreme upper end of Cannon street; thence it runs, in a straight course, through the lands of said Usilton and George T. Adkinson, until it strikes the present terminus of Cannon street. It is proposed, we learn, to give the new street, or rather the extension of the old college road, the high-sounding title of "College Avenue." The County Commissioners have apportioned the damages, and we presume the work will soon be commenced.

Rev. W. J. Neepier, the newly appointed minister to Chestertown station of the Methodist Protestant Church, arrived with his family last Thursday. He was cordially received at the parsonage by a large number of his flock, who had previously replenished the larder with an abundant supply of all sorts of provisions needed for the use of the household. This custom of stocking the larder of the new preacher, previous to his arrival, is certainly most commendable. As a general thing, we imagine, preachers changing their fields of labor have but little money remaining after squaring up and paying removal and other inevitable expenses; and it must be very pleasant indeed if, on arriving at his new appointment he meets not only a cordial reception, but finds also a well-stocked larder. And an excellent addition would be to have the first month's salary prepared in advance and paid over to the new minister at his reception. He would then have a good send-off, and be prepared to enter upon his labors with zeal and energy.

A Very Old Paper.—A gentleman of Chestertown left with us a short time ago, a copy of "The Ulster County Gazette," published at Kingston, N. Y., and dated Jan. 4th, 1800. It is printed on good paper, and is in an extraordinarily good state of preservation, though it is yellow with age. The printing is as clear and as readable as any publication of these later days. News traveled slowly in those days, and information of the death of George Washington, which took place on the 14th of Dec. 1799, had only reached the Gazette in time for its issue of Jan. 4th, 1800. The whole of the inside of the paper is draped in the deepest mourning, in shape of broad black column rules and head lines, out of respect to the just deceased father of his country. John Adams was then president of the United States, being the second president of our Republic and the immediate successor of Washington. The proceedings of Congress reported in this number of the Gazette consist almost entirely of speeches of regret and of eulogium of Washington. Even at that early day Washington was known as the father of his country. A letter to the Gazette describing the burial of Washington commences thus: "On Wednesday last the mortal part of WASHINGTON the great,—the father of his country and the friend of man, was consigned to the tomb with solemn honors and funeral pomp." Then follows an account of the military burial. The letter closes with the following tribute: "The sun was now setting, alas! the son of glory was set forever. No—the name of WASHINGTON—the American President and General—will triumph over death. The unclouded brightness of his glory will illuminate the future ages!"

The latest news from Europe was dated Oct. 18th, and was consequently nearly three months old. People were sold up by the sheriff in those days even as now, as among the advertisements of the Gazette are ten sheriff's sales. In another place is advertised for sale, "A stout, healthy, active negro wench," so that it may be seen that negroes were in these days bought and sold in the goodly State of New York.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, April 13, 1880.—Present, Judges Nicholson, and Willson.

Levinus C. Graves, administrator of William Graves, returned his third and final account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

William A. Cleaver filed the last Will and Testament of William Bowman, late of Kent county, deceased, which was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

On application of William A. Cleaver, Letters Testamentary on the personal estate of William Bowman, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted and committed unto William A. Cleaver, who filed his bond in the sum of $800, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

W. N. E. Wickes, administrator of Simon Wickes, returned his third administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Joseph H. Hossinger, administrator of Thos. Wright, (colored) returned account of sales of personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Order of distribution was passed on the estate of Alexander Chaney, colored.

The Leaders of Fashionable Dress and Low Prices.—C. N. OEHM & SON, proprietors of the largest one-price double Clothing House, Baltimore, now occupy two entire three-story buildings with their splendid stock of Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's Clothing. Having bought and manufactured their entire stock before the great advance of woolens, they are selling great bargains in every department for spring and summer wear, which none can afford to overlook. We feel it our duty to call the attention of our readers to this truly famous and reliable establishment, corner of Pratt and Hanover Sts. No one in need of clothing, ready-made or made to order, should fail to call on OEHM & SON and see the low prices at which the most choice and perfect fitting garments are selling.

Who would suffer with frosted feet when they can be cured by Roberts' Celebrated Embrocation? For this alone it is worth ten times the cost of a bottle, which is but 35 cts. It has a reputation of 40 years' standing. Sold everywhere.

Horsemen should always keep a bottle of Roberts' Embrocation in the stable, as it is a certain cure for Swellings, Bruises, Stiffness of the Limbs or Joints, Cuts, Scratches, old or fresh wounds. It acts like a charm, and makes a horse more valuable by its timely application. Do not be humbugged by so-called liniments. Try the one that has stood the test of 40 years. Price 35 cts. per bottle. For sale everywhere.

Why do you cough when you can find speedy relief in Sine's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound? It is the most efficacious remedy known for Coughs, Colds, Croup, Asthma, and all diseases tending to Consumption, and has been sold over 40 years. It is especially adapted to children, as it does not nauseate, and can be used in sufficient quantities to effect a cure. Price, 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Ask your druggist for it.

Do not be deceived into buying so-called Cough Syrups that have been foisted on the market by extravagant advertising. Try the old reliable Sine's Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound. For Coughs, Colds, Bronchial Affections, or any Lung Disease, it is invaluable, and has been in the market over 40 years. Price 25 and 50 cents a bottle. For sale everywhere.

GOOD NEWS TO HORSEMEN AND OWNERS OF STOCK.—The price of M. B. Roberts' justly celebrated Horse Powders has been reduced to 25c. per package, which makes it the cheapest in the market, as it requires but a tablespoonful for a dose; a fact which has been overlooked by many when they purchase large packages of inferior powders, whose bulk is composed of material solely to increase their size. Roberts' Horse Powders have no adulteration, and contain only pure medicines. They are the only powders combining the three principles necessary to the health of horses—namely, Laxative, Tonic and Purifying. For horses that are foundered, overheated, hide-bound, or have lost their appetite, they are indispensable. They have been sold over 40 years. For sale at the druggists.

Black Residuum.

This article has been used by a large number of Farmers in Kent county, on corn, in heavy clay lands with uniform success. The verdict of those who have used it is that

It secures a crop of Corn on such lands;

It is the cheapest goods on the market;

It is the most economical goods used;

No other goods approximates it in the profit derived from its use, giving sometimes three-fold as much corn as could be raised without it;

It prevents the insect from troubling corn.

☞ I invite attention to a few Certificates and to a list of a few gentlemen who have used it:

Chestertown, Md., Jan. 10, 1880.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I used your Black Residuum on my corn last spring. The field on which I used it was a heavy clay soil and generally frenches. I am satisfied its use paid me a clear profit of Five Dollars per acre. Respectfully,
THOS. J. VICKERS.

Chestertown, Nov. 16, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I was very much pleased with the Black Residuum I purchased of you last spring. I used it on heavy clay lands on which I had never before succeeded in getting a crop of corn. It acted like a charm, giving me an excellent crop wherever I put it. I shall want more of it next spring. It paid me a great deal better than any goods I have ever used. Respect'y,
R. C. SMYTH.

Chestertown, Nov. 25, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: You ask me for the result of my experiment with your Black Residuum. In reply, I used the Goods at the rate of about 250 lbs. per acre, costing me per acre $1.70 cts. I left part of my land without applying the goods for the purpose of ascertaining its value to me. After shelling my corn I found that my land where the Black Residuum was used has given me fifteen bushels of corn to the acre more than the land on which I did not use it: estimating corn at 50c. per bushel, I have made, clear of the cost of the goods, five dollars and eighty cents per acre. The land on which the experiment was made is a heavy clay soil and generally frenches. This year, where the Black Residuum was used, I had no frenched corn, while right by the side of it, where I did not use your goods, my crop was very much hurt by the frenching.
Respect'y, EDWARD SLAUGHTER.

Chestertown, Feb. 11, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I used your Black Residuum, mixed with super phosphates, on corn last spring. I was very much pleased with the result; was troubled scarcely at all with insect, and my corn crop was largely increased. I am satisfied that its use paid me handsomely. Respectfully,
J. P. NICHOLSON.

Chestertown, Feb. 25, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry, the "Residuum" obtained of you last season, was applied to corn, to prevent frenching, a handfull to three hills, with results entirely satisfactory. It is the most economical article I have used for that purpose.
JOHN W. COREY.

Chestertown, Feb. 11, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I used on my corn the Black Residuum I purchased of you last spring. It gave me entire satisfaction, and have never used any goods that approximates it in the profit derived from its use. I used several other goods costing me considerably more money, but your Black Residuum gave me a much better crop than either of the others.
BARTUS TREW.

Chestertown, Feb. 21, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I have used your Black Residuum for several seasons, on lands that usually french corn. No corn frenched where I applied it. It gave me twice as much corn as I would have raised without its use. I do not know of anything that begins to approach it in value, on such lands, for corn. I mixed it with a super phosphate.
Respectfully yours,
WM. T. NICHOLSON.

Chestertown, Feb. 19, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I was very much pleased with the Black Residuum and super phosphate that I purchased of you last spring. I used them on part of my field which usually had been in the habit of frenching. I could perceive no signs of frenching where I applied it, and regretted very much that I did not use it on my entire field. It paid me handsomely, much better than another goods used, well known in the county, which cost me considerably more money.
Respectfully, JOS. RASIN.

Chestertown, March 15, 1879.
Mr. T. W. Eliason, Jr.—
Dear Sir: I can confidently recommend your Black Residuum for corn on lands that usually French. I have used it for several years and have seen the results of its use in a number of cases, and have never known a hill of corn to french where it was applied. Its low price renders its use very profitable, more so than any goods I have used.
Respect'y yours, SAMUEL BECK.

Millington, Md., Feb. 14, 1879.
T. W. Eliason, Esq.—
Sir: Your letter received. In regard to the relative merits of your phosphate tried by me on corn, I will say to you that I used it on timothy sod, a piece of land that had been mowed for three years. I gave it a fair trial alongside of —— ——; also, —— ——, of your town. My opinion of the action of the three phosphates is in favor of yours: the corn started off faster, made a better growth all the time, and also had a better color, it being a very black green. My son, H. C. Hendrickson, who superintended dropping the three phosphates, was particular in applying it, and he could show me the very row where yours was used without looking for the stake that marked it; also, when the corn was fit to husk, my opinion was that where yours was used it was eared the best. The fact is, it made more corn and more fodder than where the other two were used. In applying, I mixed the Residuum and the phosphate thoroughly together. The quantity used was a handful to three hills, or about 200 lbs. to the acre. I consider it a good article for corn. Respect'y yours,
P. HENDRICKSON.

Literary Revolution and UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE.

An Encyclopædia in 20 vols., over 16,000, pgs. 10 per cent more matter than any Encyclopædia ever before published in this country, and sold, handsomely and well bound, in cloth for $10, in half morocco for $15, and printed on fine heavy paper, wide margins, bound in half Russia, gilt top, for $20—an enterprise so extraordinary that its success, beyond all precedent in book publishing, may be fairly claimed to inaugurate a Literary Revolution.

THE LIBRARY OF UNIVERSAL KNOWLEDGE is a reprint entire of the last (1879) Edinburgh edition of "Chambers's Encyclopædia," with about 40 per cent of new matter added, upon topics of special interest to American readers, thus making it equal in character to any similar work, better than any other suited to the wants of the great majority of those who consult works of reference, and altogether the latest Encyclopædia in the field.

Specimen Volumens in either style will be sent for examination with privilege of return on receipt of proportionate price per volume.

Special Discounts to all early subscribers, and extra discounts to clubs. Full particulars with descriptive catalogue of many other standard works equally low in price, sent free.

Leading principles of the AMERICAN BOOK EXCHANGE:

I. Publish only books of real value.

II. Work upon the basis of present cost of making books, about one half what it was a few years ago.

III. Sell to buyers direct, and save them the 50 to 60 per cent. commission commonly allowed to dealers.

IV. The cost of books when made 10,000 at a time is but a fraction of the cost when made 500 at a time—adopt the low price and sell the large quantity.

V. Use good type, paper, etc., do careful printing, and strong, neat binding, but avoid "padding," fat and heavily-leaded type, spongy paper and gaudy binding, which are so commonly resorted to to make books appear large and fine, and which greatly add to their cost, but do not add to their value.

VI. To make $1 and a friend is better than to make $5 and an enemy.
