such Apostates next Protestant Heir and in the same line (being Protestants) continue to the end of the World anything in this Will be fore mentioned to the contrary Notwithstanding ——

Item Whereas I am sensible of the great Difficulty of penning a Will therefore to avoid all Misconstructions and disputes that may hereafter arise touching my Intent in Devising my Lands I hereby declare that whatever the foregoing or Subsequent words of this my Will does imply an Entail I would have it so construed tho the same be not so fully and Amply worded as the Law may Require of which I leave the Commissary or Commissarys Genl of this Province for the time being to be the Sole Judges Provided they will decide any Controversie of that Nature that may arise in a Summary way and upon their Refusal to decide it without a formal Law Suit which experience teaches too often brings the Contending Parties to Penury and want I order that such Decision as my Trustees
