POLITICAL NOTICE.

The Democratic and Conservative voters of Kent county are hereby notified to assemble in their respective Election Districts at the usual places of holding election therein, in primary meetings, on SATURDAY, THE 21ST DAY OF AUG. INSTANT, at 2 o'clock P. M., for the purpose of selecting five delegates from each of said Districts to a County Convention hereby called to convene at Chestertown, on Tuesday, the 24th day of August, at 11 o'clock A. M., for the purpose of choosing three delegates to represent the county in the Democratic Congressional Convention which is called to meet at Salisbury, on Wednesday, the 1st day of September next, for the purpose of nominating a Democratic candidate for Congress in the 1st Congressional District of Maryland. The following gentlemen are requested to act as Judges at said Primary Meetings in their respective Districts, provided, the meeting decides to ballot for delegates, and in the first and third districts the first named Judge will, at the hour specified, call the meeting to order, and preside until the selection of a Chairman. The Judges have power to fill vacancies and appoint their clerks.

ENGLAND is at war with Ayoob Khan and has been getting the worst of it.

ALABAMA has held her State election and has gone Democratic by 50,000 majority.

FREDERIC county has given a majority of 1,434 against local option. The question was submitted to the votes of the people on Tuesday of last week.

THE Baltimore Sun is publishing an interesting series of letters entitled "New England by the back door." The Sun says they are written by a Southerner of some considerable literary note.

McDONALD, one of the old St. Louis Whiskey Ring, has written a history of the ring, in which many of the prominent Republicans including Gen'l. Grant figure. The book has created considerable of a stir in Washington.

YESTERDAY was the day of opening subscription books for the New York international exhibition of 1883. The books will remain open for sixty days, after which it is supposed active preparations for the exhibition will begin. So far it has been very little talked about. If it is to equal or perhaps surpass the Centennial in magnificence, there is not any too much time left for preparation.

THE famous Bender family, the discovery of whose crimes created so much excitement some eight years ago, has turned up again; at least the old man and old woman are in custody and have confessed. Nearly a dozen people were first and last murdered by them. The reason they were never captured before is that they have been for eight years among the Indians. We have not room in this issue for any sketch of their history, which is a most revolting one.

THOUGH a great concession was made to Senator Conkling in the nomination of Authur on the Republican ticket for the Vice Presidency, yet that great man does not seem to take to the ticket with any great enthusiasm. So far he has taken no part in the Republican councils, and on Thursday of last week he and Garfield occupied near appartments in the 5th Avenue hotel, New York city, and yet the lordly Conkling paid his bill and left, without in anywise showing respect to the Republican candidate.

DR. TANNER left off his fast at 12 o'clock M. on last Saturday. As soon as the last minute of his fast expired he attacked a peach which he had been holding in his hand.—He followed the peach up with water melon, milk, apples and beef steak, having got through with, altogether, a peach, two water melons, three apples, a pint of milk, a pound of steak and some wine. Thus it will be seen that he broke his fast not on beef tea or other invalid diet, but by stowing away a square meal from the start. He lost during the fast 36 lbs. in weight.

THE sons of Oakes Ames,—Oakes A. Ames, Oliver Ames and Frank M. Ames,—have published an address to the American people in defense of their father in his Credit Mobilier record. They claim that all of his actions in connection with that scheme were the efforts of a public spirited man, working principally for the public good. The letter is purely a defense of the deceased Senator Ames, and does not touch upon the case of General Garfield except in speaking of the time when suit against the company was instituted by McComb it says,—"Some returned their stock and got back their money with interest; some declined it, and some denied that they had ever agreed to take it." In this latter class Gen'l. Garfield of course stands prominently.

WHO is to be our next Eastern Shore Congressman? A little ways down the Peninsula this question is a raging one. It is astonishing what a number of down Peninsula people have a longing desire to serve their country. The neighboring county of Queen Anne's brings forward J. B. Brown, Caroline is divided between Dr. Goldsborough and Philip Downes, but she wants a Congressman bad because she has'nt had one for forty-seven years; Talbot is centered upon C. H. Gibson, and Dorchester wants Daniel M. Henry over again; Wicomico has given the cold shoulder to the journalistic aspirant Lemuel Malone and goes in for T. F. J. Rider; Somerset wants James U. Dennis and Worcester George W. Covington. The nominating Convention meets in September. If each county should undertake to stick to its man through thick and thin, there promises to be a lively time in the convention which may probably result in centering upon some untalked of dark horse. Let us abide in the hope that the convention in its wisdom, will center upon the man who is best fitted for the station.

REPUBLICANS WHO ENDORSE HANCOCK.

It is announced that Gen. A. T. A. Torbert, of Delaware, is for Hancock

Major Roberts, of Newtown, Pa., has declared for Hancock.

Edward Butler, ex-stalwart editor of the New Haven (Conn.) Palladium has declared for Hancock.

Peter Wilson, a prominent Republican lawyer, heads the call for a Hancock club at Streater, Ill.

The Pittsburg Volksblatt, heretofore strongly Republican, has deserted Garfield and run up the Hancock flag.

Col. John A. Wimpy, heretofore a prominent Republican in Georgia, has announced his intention to vote for Hancock.

Charles T. Nicoll, of Jersey City, an active Republican from the foundation of the party, announces himself for Hancock.

Hilten Rowan Helper, author of the "Impending Crisis," has written a letter in which he announces himself in favor of Hancock and English.

Hon. John Loague, an ex-mayor of Memphis and a Republican member of the Tennessee Legislature, has declared himself for Hancock.

Ex-Councilman William Calhoun, of the First Ward, Philadelphia, has joined the Democrats, and says he will have a hundred followers for Hancock.

Judge Stallo, for many years a leading German Republican of Cincinnati, presided at a Hancock meeting in that city last Saturday.

Col. David W. Magraw, a Republican, who commanded the 116th Pennsylvania regiment in the late war, says he intends to support Hancock.

Gen. S. C. Hamilton, late United States marshal for a Milwaukee district, and long recognized as a prominent Republican has declared for Hancock.

George R. Wendling, of St. Louis, once a leading Republican Congressman, has declared against Garfield and will take the stump for Hancock and English.

Daniel R. Goodloe, a Southern Republican of long standing and personal friend of Abraham Lincoln has written to John W. Forney, announcing himself for Hancock.

Hon. C. N. Towle, a prominent Republican, and for several years, by appointment of President Lincoln, recorder of the district of Columbia, has declared in favor of Hancock for next President.

Twenty-five Republicans and seven greenbackers who are employed in Daniel F. Beatly's piano and organ factory at Washington, N. J., have declared their intention to vote for Hancock and English.

Ralph P. Howe, of Little Valley, N. Y., office-holder, has written to the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, levying an assessment upon him, that his money and his vote shall be given to Hancock.

S. W. Moulton, a former Republican member of Congress from Illinois, and Judge Moeser, Republican County Judge, astonished the Republicans of Shelbyville, Ill., last week, by openly declaring for Hancock and English.

Lewis Loveless, a prominent Republican of Pike county, Indiana, and formerly a candidate of his party for Congress, has renounced his connection with the Republican organization, and is out for Hancock and English.

Ausburn Birdsall, formerly a Democratic member of Congress from New York, but for ten years acting with the Republicans, writes to Col. Forney that he goes with him for Hancock, as "Democrats of the old school find sufficient reason for their course under existing circumstances."

George Wilkes, well known as the able editor of Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, an influential Republican of New York, is out in a letter to Mr. William M. Hall of Connecticut, fully endorsing Gen. W. S. Hancock, and saying, "he shall take great pleasure in casting his vote for him, as a man without stain and equal to the Presidential station."

Col. Leman W. Bradley, of Hudso, N. Y., who commanded the sixty-fourth New York regiment during the late war, and heretofore an active and influential Republican has declared in favor of Hancock. He says: "The party has honored itself by the nomination of Hancock, and I hope, by the help of God, he will be elected. I believe that the many soldiers who served with me under him have no doubt that he will be elected, and will labor for that result. He will honor the country by a bold, able and righteous rule."

Mr. John Anness, a hardware merchant on Newark Avenue, in Jersey City, was a member of the Assembly in 1871, and took a conspicuous part in the legislation of that year by which municipal commissions were created which gave the Republicans a foothold in Jersey City. He will vote for Hancock. Louis Heller, well known in the First District, and who has long been influential among both Americans and Germans in Jersey City as an outspoken Republican, announces that he cannot vote for the General who chiefly distinguished himself under the banner of De Golyer and Credit Mobilier, but that his vote shall be cast for Hancock. Many other Republicans in Jersey City who will stand by the party do not hesitate to express their dissatisfaction with the ticket. Among these are such men as Police Justice Peloubet, who was a brave officer in the army, and has been a fluent Republican orator since.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

BUSTLE AND ACTIVITY AT LYNCH'S—FRUIT SELLING—WOOD'S MEETING—ACCIDENT—THE NEW M. P. CHURCH—SUMMER RESORTS, ETC., ETC.

Time and tide wait for no man. Eternity is before us. If we don't look out some of us may get burned.

Lynch's is alive at present. Two and three car loads of peaches are shipped every day. New York, Newark and Philadelphia are the markets.

Good peaches are selling at from fifty cents to one dollar and twenty-five cents per basket. Indifferent fruit will scarcely pay expenses.

The woods meeting is well attended every Sunday. Mr. Little's sermons are calculated to draw large congregations.

Mr. Woodside leaves in a few weeks for college. He is universally beloved here. We learn that Miss Downes is to take the school.

A telegraph operator has arrived and is ready to go to work. This will be of great advantage to shippers.

Mrs. Simmons (living near here) was thrown from a wagon last week and had her face terribly mashed. She is convalescing.

Old Mixon and Reeves peaches are being shipped. Pears and grapes are selling low on account of the large quantity of peaches.

The M. P. church at this place is about completed and will be dedicated shortly.

The Presbyterian church at Kennedyville has been re-painted and looks better than it ever did. Wm. Willis did the work.

Rev. J. H. Caldwell leaves to-day for his home in Wilmington. He has had several attacks of bilious since he has been here, and is quite feeble. Mr. Caldwell is a model man—it would be a blessing if more of us were like him.

Our summer resorts are well supplied with boarders. Mrs. Price has about forty at her house; Mrs. Spry, Madam Stavely and N. Barnard have a number stopping with them.

White perch, crabs and the chills are plentiful.

Dr. Tanner has proven himself to be a man of remarkable perseverance and will-power. He is no humbug, as some of our wise men hold. What our physiologists will make out of his case remains to be seen.

Excursions to Cape May have become very fashionable in this county. It is a great pity that the sinners cannot go without getting under the influence of liquor. Of course the saints never drink anything, unless the weather is very inclement, like it was last Wednesday.

There are five peach evaporators in Still Pond Neck. There is money in them.

Six thousand baskets peaches left Betterton and Barnard's wharves Friday last.

Somerville, Baltimore Co., July 31st, 1880.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—Leaving Baltimore about 1 o'clock, and riding leisurely along the York road we soon past Greenmount Cemetery, the rival of Laurel Hill, whose white shafts gleamed beautifully through the different shades of green. Truly it is a lovely spot, and interesting to visit, for so many notable persons rest there, and neither pains nor expense have been spared to beautify the spot. Some years ago I travelled over this same route, just about the beginning of the war. I miss many old familiar landmarks, among which is the McKim mansion on the left, where I spent many happy hours in childhood, playing through the old halls and spacious gardens. New buildings have been run up and streets cut through till I can scarcely recognize the place. We passed through Waverly, &c., suburbs that properly belong to the city, but through the narrow-minded obstinacy of the inhabitants, she is deprived of them, and her prosperity injured, as it makes her population so much smaller than it really should be and forces her to take a false place in the rank of cities. We passed through Gowanstown and Towsontown, pretty little thriving towns, but both together do not appear so large as Chestertown. The main roads in this section of country are turnpikes, and are in very good condition, being kept in order by the toll, collected at the gates, which are stationed every few miles along the road; the country roads are wretched, very narrow and stony. By the way, the stones up here seem to be more plentiful than any thing else, even blackberries.

When we left the city, I was not at all attracted by the appearance of the horse we drove, but before long I began to look more favorably on it, and before long I was really lost in admiration; the excellency of the little beast began to show when we came to the hill country. Oh, those hills!! We would go down one at a break neck rate, and some distance up the other before the speed would slacken, and not a misstept; then the way she took those hills never flagging though passengers and baggage were sufficient load for level ground. I could but wonder what a Kent county horse would have done I felt envious and tried to drive a bargain, but the driver would not sell. I can't blame him. On we came, the most magnificient scenes opening to the view. Now on the left the estate of the late Wm. McDonald; farther on to the right we saw Hampton, the family seat of the Ridgely's, some 10,000 acres in the tract. We also passed Gunpowder water works and bridge, from whence the new water supply of Baltimore city is obtained; some 10 or 12 miles from the city. The hills grow higher and higher, the views, more grand, and to add to the effect, a thunder storm approaches, vivid lightnings flash, and thunders roll and echo through the hills. "See that road winding up the hill yonder," said our driver, "we go right there, and behind that belt of trees." "How far," said I. "About 7 miles," he replied. The air was so clear that it looked but a step; I soon found it was an illusion, for it was fully the seven miles before we reached Somerville or Germantown. Au revoir.

Scrofulous swellings, carbuncles and boils, blotches, pimples and eruptions, enlarged glands, internal soreness, torpid liver, and general clogged condition of the system, all yield in due time to nature's sovereign remedy—Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Sold a round the world by druggists and chemists.—Foreign trade supplied from London branch.—World's Dispensary Medical Association, Proprietors, Buffalo, N. Y., R. V Pierce, M. D., President.

WEST BLUE MOUND, Wis., March 8, '79.
Dr. R. V. PIERCE:

Dear Sir—Having suffered many weary months from liver complaints without relief, I was last summer induced to try your Golden Medical Discovery and Pellets. I was at the time scarcely able to walk. Owing to their effect I commenced to improve rapidly and am now as well and strong as ever. I thank you from the depths of my heart for the good they have done me and wish you all success.

Yours truly, MRS. S. STAGNER.

Peninsula News.

The Peninsula Press Association met at Ocean City yesterday.

A colored boy, about 15 years of age was drowned at Denton on Sunday afternoon.

The News says Cambridge will turn out a new crop of lawyers in about two years.

Queen Anne's county commissioners are advertising for proposals to repair the approaches to Kent Island bridge.

The iron works at Rowlandville, Cecil county, are now running to their full capacity. They have been idle all the year.

North East can boast of the 'boss' baby; it has five fingers and a thumb on each hand, and six toes on each foot. Three of the toes are webbed.

A goose, which had reached the advanced age of 32 years, was recently stolen from its owner in Lewes. Query: What camp did it attend?—Sussex Journal.

A Kenton gentleman at the Camden camp let his five months old child fall as he was handing it to his wife who was seated in the carriage. When they got home they found the child's neck was broken.

Rev. Vaughn Smith, of Elkton, in a sermon last Sunday morning, expressed the belief that Mr. Blaine's defeat at Chicago was due to the interposition of Providence to punish him for his course on the Chinese bill.

WHISKY RING METHODS.—General McDonald relates the following story about his presentation of a $6,000 pair of horses and a buggy to the President, the conversation taking place in the Executive office of the White House: "Said I, 'General, I have some papers in connection with the team which with my explanation I wish to give you. He asked me to come on the following day at noon, saying he would be at leisure. I told the President I had the papers with me and if he could spare me a few moments I'd give them to him. Then he assented and together with me walked into the Executive Room, where I handed him all the bills, which were in his name, for every article Colonel Joyce and I had purchased in completing the buggy and outfit, each bill being receipted in full. At the same time I asked him to give me a small sum of money, so as to enable me to say if the question were asked, that I had sold the team to him. He handed me a fifty dollar bill, which I declined, assuring him that a much smaller sum would answer my purpose. He next gave me ten dollars and I returned him seven dollars in change, leaving me with the sum of three dollars for a six thousand dollars outfit. One-half of the actual expense of the team, buggy and harness and the cost of the transportation was paid to me by Colonel Joyce, who united with me in the present. On one occasion I told him I had given Babcock five thousand dollars, which I remarked was a part of the proceeds of our campaign funds in St. Louis. He assured me it was all right, as he had intrusted Babcock with the details of Western matters, and whatever we did with him—Babcock—would be quite satisfactory, and added: 'I will see to it, however, that you get all the changes you want.' I then explained to him what an 'uncompromising old hog,' as I used the term, the Globe was, that we were compelled to give the paper from $500 to $1,200 every week in order to pacify it and keep it for us in the coming campaign. His reply was: 'Well, you must do the best you can.' General Grant then requested me to get into his buggy and take a ride with him, which I did out nearly to Bladensburg and return, making a circuit of the city and driving through all the principal streets.—During our ride the conversation recurred to political matters and chiefly on his prospects, for a third term. He mentioned the names of several parties who, he thought, would possibly be candidates. Among these were Governor Morgan, of New York; Conkling, Logan and Blaine. He criticised each of these and appeared satisfied that his chances were much better than those of the parties discussed."

About all of the Chinese shoe makers will be gone from North Adams, Mass., by the end of the present month. Their reason for quitting the place is that they can earn more money at laundry work in the large cities. It is eight years since Mr. Sampson, a wealthy shoe manufacturer, brought them from San Francisco to displace striking Crispins. A correspondent of the Boston Herald says: "Schools were established for the dusty visitors, and the good ladies of the town turned missionaries, and taught them to read and speak the language of the country. Some were apt pupils and quick to learn, while others were stupid, and appeared to take little interest in the work that was being done for their enlightenment. Housed and fed at the shoe shop, taught by the white ladies, encouraged by their employer, brought under the influence of a Christian church and Sunday school, some of the Chinamen became enlightened and to a certain extent educated, uniting in fellowship with the church, and, as a general thing, behaving themselves in a quiet, orderly manner, while others clung to the customs of their fathers, worshipped the pagan idol, and retained the garb of their country."

Fred Hoyt had a dreadful ride of fifty miles from Park City to Echo, Utah. He had murdered a son of Sheriff Turner, and the father had led a party in successful pursuit.—The prisoner was tied securely to the front seat of a wagon, and the Sheriff sat with a gun in his lap in the rear seat, hesitating whether or not to shoot him. Sometimes Turner would cock his gun and take deliberate aim, as though about to fire; but he did not do so, and finally put him alive in jail. The prisoner bore the ordeal calmly, never once begging for his life, nor even showing the slightest fear.

A boy was caught by the leg while bathing at Altoona, Pa., and drawn under the water. The assailant, he says, was a black animal with immense jaws. He struggled frantically and got away, but not until his leg had been so mangled that amputation was necessary. It is thought that an alligator escaped from a car in a railroad accident near the place last spring.

NO FEARS FOR VIRGINIA IN THE ELECTION.—General Fitz Hugh Lee, who is here and who has made a careful canvass of some of the more important counties of Virginia, particularly where the strength of the Readjusters is believed to lie, says that he has reliable information that with or without compromise between the Democratic divisions the Hancock electors will be overwhelmingly chosen. He thinks this would be the case even were the two divisions to oppose each other on the entire ticket, which will be by no means the case, the bulk of the Readjusters having already signified their intention to support the Hancock electors. General Lee is to enter the canvass next week, when he will speak at Alexandria.

The cities of Florence and Naples are deeply in debt, owing to the wretched management of their finances during the last twenty years. The rulers who replaced Bomba and the Grand Duke at once began a series of loans and lavish outlays, which have at last piled up debts that cannot be paid without the help of the national Government, and such help has now been promised. Florence, when the capital, spent money enough regardless of the future.

John P. Erpenbeck carried flowers to his wife's grave, in a Baltimore cemetery, every morning for months after her death. One day the gatekeeper noticed that he came without the usual floral tribute. A pistol shot was soon heard, and the widower's dead body was found on the grave. The following was scrawled on a card: "Dear Katie, I love you so, and I will be with you before night. O my God! if I have offended You I beg your pardon, and I hope You will forgive me.

In Teheran, the Persian capital, a report has been spread that England has proposed to Persia to purchase the coast line of the Persian Gulf, with the havens of Bendir Bushir and Bender Abbas, and the inland country as far as Fort Kutur on the frontier of Beloochistan, for about £560,000. It is at the same time asserted that, however tempting this offer may be to Persia, Russian intrigues will prevent the sale.

There are five thoroughbred studs in England, belonging respectively to the Duke of Westminister, Lords Falmouth and Roseberry, Mr. F. Gretton, and Sterling Crawford, each of which may be safely put down as being worth, including stallions, brood mares, young stock, and horses in training, from fifty to one hundred thousand pounds.

Three little girls had great fun in a neighbor's house at South Bend, Ind., during the absence of the family. They first broke all the window panes. Then they poured several gallons of milk on the parlor carpet. Finally, they emptied six dozen cans of raspberries and huckleberries into a tub, and dyed all the fine dresses they could find in the juice.

The present Pope feels acutely his lack of means, and has done all he can to reduce expenses. The Vatican itself must be a dreadful incubus. To keep 300 staircases and 13,000 rooms merely from going to pieces requires a large revenue.—Imagine what it would be to have to maintain 600 furnished city houses of 20 rooms.

THE KENT CORNET BAND'S EXCURSION
TO CAPE MAY

On Wednesday, August 18,

Over the Kent R. R. to Woodland Beach, thence by the PALACE BAY STEAMER

THOMAS CLYDE
To CAPE MAY.

Special attractions at Cape May on that day. It is supposed that the Grand Ocean Regatta, announced and already arranged to take place at Cape May will be concluded on that day. Also, Gen's. Hancock and Garfield have signified their intention to be present.

TICKETS will be fixed at the lowest possible rates, so that for this Excursion no one will have cause to complain of the price. Our special object is to accommodate all who desire to visit Cape May.

We shall add every new feature possible and spare no effort to render this the most delightful excursion of the whole season.

At this date—August 18—the bathing may be expected to be equal, if it does not surpass any other period, and the special attractions now being arranged for that week will certainly render this the most desirable date for a visit to that celebrated Seaside Resort.

T. W. ELIASON, JR.'S
No. 1 Ammoniated
Superphosphate of Lime and Potash,

COMPOSED OF

Dissolved Animal Bones, Acid Phosphate, and Salts of Potash and Soda.

Guaranteed Not to contain a SINGLE POUND of adulterating Material, but on the contrary Every article used in its manufacture is a FERTILIZER.

PRICE: $32 PER TON CASH. $34 per Ton on Time.

The success this article met with last year was such that I was unable to supply the demand for it; and it is gratifying to be able to say that to-day it is more highly esteemed by those who used it the past season than it was then.

So far, wherever there has been a COMPLETE TEST of the value of this goods, as compared with other manufactured goods on the market, by actual measure and weight of wheat grown that has come to my knowledge, No. 1 has proved itself fully equal to, and in a number of cases better, than other goods costing much more money; in one case giving Eight Bushels of Wheat to the Acre more than ——— ———, costing $5 per ton more than No. 1.

Please read carefully the letters appended:

CHESTERTOWN, MD., July 20, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiries concerning your "No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate," I would say that I am pleased with it. It gave me a much better yield of wheat than ——— ———, and ——— ——— costing me five dollars more per ton than yours. I cheerfully recommend its use, believing it to be equal if not superior to any goods on the market.
(Signed) THOMAS P. DIXON.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., July 16, 1880

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.:—In answer to your inquiry concerning your "No. 1 Ammoniated Superphosphate," I would say, that it has given me entire satisfaction. I used it by the side of a goods costing me $5.00 per ton more, and applied the two goods on the same field, at the same rate per acre, the land being same quality on which both goods were used. I threshed the two parts separately; the part on which your goods was applied gave me EIGHT BUSHELS OF WHEAT MORE TO THE ACRE than the other goods; the wheat having, also, a prettier color. I regard your goods as fully equal, if not better, than any on the market.
(Signed) J. E. NEWCOMB.

FAIRLEE, July 15, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to the results of your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate, on my Wheat, this last season, it gives me pleasure to be able to say that I am very much pleased with it. I regard it as a No. 1 article.
(Signed) JOHN P. NICHOLSON.

CHESTERTOWN, July 17, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: Your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate of Lime has given me complete satisfaction. With its use my yield of wheat was better than I ever had before. Your goods is, in my estimation, equal to any on the market without regard to price.
(Signed) Yours, J. W. PRICE.

CHESTERTOWN, July 8, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: I used your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate on my wheat last fall with other goods costing me five and seven dollars per ton more. I am satisfied that your No. 1 did as well for me as any of them; and regard it as second to no fertilizer on the market for wheat. (Signed) Yours, respectfully, S. LECATES.

CHESTERTOWN, July 20, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Sir: Your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate has given me entire satisfaction. I used it on my wheat the past two seasons, and am satisfied that it is a first-class article. (Signed) ROBERT NICHOLSON.

CHESTERTOWN, July 24, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: I used your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate two years ago on my wheat, and also ——— ———, costing me five dollars per ton more. The results were such, that I abandoned the ——— ———, your goods doing so much better for me. This last fall I used it by the side of two others, both costing me considerable more than yours. It gave me much more wheat than one of these goods, and was fully equal to the other in yield. I take pleasure in saying that I am very well pleased with it. It drills nicely; and I expect to use it again. (Signed) SAMUEL G. LEE.

CHESTERTOWN, July 24, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—In reply to your inquiries concerning the results of your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate, which I have used upon my wheat the two past seasons, I would say that the first season I used it, it was by the side of ——— ——— ———, costing me seven dollars per ton more than yours. After cutting and threshing my wheat, I was satisfied that your No. 1 gave me a much larger yield, and a finer, plumper grain. So marked was the difference, that I discontinued the use of ——— ———, for your goods. Last fall I used it by the side of ——— ———, costing me five dollars more per ton than your No. 1. I applied it at the same rate per acre. After threshing my wheat, I found that your No. 1 had given me 3½ bushels per acre more, and a fuller, better colored grain. Of course, with these results I am pleased with it, and shall use it again.
(Signed) Yours truly, E. J. WATSON.

CHESTERTOWN, July 13, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiries concerning your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate, I would say, that I am very much pleased with it. I used it by the side of goods costing me, in one instance five dollars per ton more, and in the other six dollars per ton more than yours—the latter being a goods very popular and of long established reputation. Your No. 1 gave me, I am satisfied, the largest yield. I regard it as the best goods on the market.
(Signed) Yours, &c. J. S. TREW.

CHESTERTOWN, July 15, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: I have used your No. 1 Ammo. Super Phosphate, for the two past seasons, with entire satisfaction. Your goods doing for me much better than anything else I tried, I consider it the best goods on the market.
(Signed) Yours, JOHN F. COPPER.

TO WHEAT GROWERS

THE undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of Fertilizers in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the Formulas and processes of manufacture of

'Excelsior' & Ammoniated Phosphate

So well and favorably known by the Agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these Fertilizers, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the high standard quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating properties of Peruvian Guano, and the ever-durable fertilizing properties of Bones, in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

For growing Wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years experience in the use of these FERTILIZERS manufactured by me, that an application of 100 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.

With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in Quality, Mechanical Condition and Price.

By strictly adhering to my Original Formulas, using only the most concentrated materials, and superintending in person their manufacture—as for the past twenty years—

Uniform Quality is Guaranteed.

Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE, prepared according to my Original Formulas established in 1858, should see that every Bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.
