A GRAND MASS MEETING
OF THE
Democracy of Kent County,

Will be held at the Court house in Chestertown,
On Saturday, Oct. 22d, 1880,
at 2 o'clock, P. M.

Hon. George W. Covington,
Hon. Levin L. Waters,
Hon. William H. Welsh,

And other prominent speakers, will be present to address you.

MARION deK. SMITH,
DAVID JONES,
JOHN F. BEEKS,
State Cen. Com. for Kent County.

THE Republican convention for the First Congressional District, which met at Ocean City last Thursday, nominated Dr. Washington A. Smith, of Dorchester county. Mr. C. T. Westcott refused to allow his name to go before the convention.

SEVERAL of our Eastern Shore Republican exchanges do not have a word to say about their first district congressional nominee. Wonder what's the matter with them? Are they disgusted with their candidate, or haven't they yet heard who is nominated?

DR. F. T. SHAW, of Carroll county who was nominated at Westminster as the Democratic candidate for Congress from the First Congressional district, has sent a letter of resignation to Senator Gorman, chairman of the State Central Committee. The members of the State Central Committee from the Second District were called to assemble at Barnum's Hotel, Baltimore, on Saturday last, to determine upon the course to be pursued. They passed resolutions in favor of holding new primaries, and a new nominating convention at Harve De Grace on October the 6th. As to the nominee, but one opinion seemed to prevail, which was that the candidate would be Hon. J. F. C. Talbot, of Baltimore county, for re-election.

PLAISTED is elected. Maine has gone Democratic. So say the latest advices at our command. The Republicans sincerely hoped it would be otherwise, but they will have to chew their cud and make the best of it. It is true Plaisted is only conceded one hundred plurality, but even that is a great victory, or rather a great defeat for the other side. If the Republicans had have elected their candidate by five hundred majority, it would still have been a great defeat, considering it was in Maine, the home of Jimmy Blaine, and the land of big Republican majorities. Both sides will now keep a lookout for Indiana and Ohio. The time for the preliminary election in those States is not far distant. The election takes place on Tuesday, the 5th day of October.

THE two States that hold preliminary elections in October, in which the greatest interest will be centured, are Indiana and Ohio. Indiana, the Democrats feel pretty sure of, though the Republicans profess to believe that they will carry both the October and November elections in that State. The Democrats are not by any means depending upon Ohio. Like, as they did Maine, they concede it to the Republicans, though it is believed that Ohio is much more doubtful for the Republicans than ever Maine was considered. Hayes carried it by a very small majority, considering the size of the State, and Hayes was much more of a favorite son than Garfield has ever been. Hayes had been twice elected Governor of the State, and his reputation therefore extended over the whole State. Garfield has been only elected to Congress from a District, and his popularity is therefore to a certain extent limited, not to speak of the tarnish that rests upon him from his Credit Mobilier and DeGolyer negotiations. The fact of the matter is, that though the Republicans claim Ohio as one of their certain States, they have got to fight desperately and to spend barrels of money in order to carry it at all.

MR. RICHARD H. EDMONDS, of the Baltimore Journal of Commerce, in a report of the "oyster interests of the Chesapeake," gives some interesting statistics. The number of packing houses in Maryland are as follows: Baltimore has 45, Crisfield 16, Cambridge 8, Annapolis 8, Oxford 7, St Michaels 4 and sundry small places in Somerset county 10. He neglects to mention the one packing house in Chestertown, though if we are not mistaken, our Chestertown packer, Mr. C. Rhinehart, gave employment to well on to a hundred hands, during last packing season. The four firms of St. Michaels give employment to only 91 hands, and have only $4500, invested in the business. This is an average of only $1125 each, and goes to show that the oyster packing business can be conducted on a small capital. The cost of buildings occupied by the St. Michaels packing firms average only $750 each.—The St. Michaels packing houses, however, seem to be on a smaller scale than the average Eastern Shore establishment. The average amount of capital invested in each Eastern Shore packing house is about $2500, and the average cost of buildings is estimated at about $1000 each. The Eastern Shore houses are not engaged to any great extent in steaming oysters. They depend mainly upon packing raw and shipping to near points.

One of the curious statements made by Mr Edmonds in this report is, that in some of the lower counties of the State, oysters often pass current as money, and in one town there is a weekly paper, (subscription price $1,) about 50 of the subscribers to which annually pay in oysters.

The Ledger says an over-confident Newark mother intended calling her baby James Garfield. Time having wrought its changes the little one now seraphically smiles when they tickle it and call it their darling Hannah.

A man entered the Delawarean office at Dover, Del., the other day to pay his subscription. He found that he was five years in arrears.—He handed over his five years back pay, and paid five years in advance. It almost makes an editor shed tears of joy to know that such a man lives. May he increase and multiply.

George Lockwood, colored, of Milford, was brought before 'Squire Pitman for indulging in the pleasing amusement of shooting John Riggers, and then chasing him with a razor. When an effort was made to handcuff him he raised considerable disturbance and made his escape. He was recaptured after much trouble.

THE AGE OF MIRACLES is past, and Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will not raise the dead, will not cure you if your lungs are half wasted by consumption, or your system sinking under cancerous disease. It is, however, unsurpassed both as a pectoral and alterative, and will cure obstinate and severe disease of the throat and lungs, coughs, and bronchial affections. By virtue of its wonderful alterative properties it cleanses and enriches the blood, thus curing pimples, blotches, and eruptions, and causing even great eating ulcers to heal. Sold by druggists.

TAYLOR.—At his residence in Worton, on the 22d instant, Mr. WM. ALEXANDER TAYLOR.

Mrs. Mary Josephine Bradley, the subject of this brief sketch, was born in Centreville, Md., July 3d, 1852, and died in Chestertown, on September 13th, 1880.

She was a faithful friend, an affectionate sister, a dutiful daughter, and a devoted wife.

Death has cast a deep, dark shadow, over the inmates of her home; but we are glad to know that there is hope in her death.

She professed faith in Christ—when every one should believe in Him—in the days of her youth, and she maintained her integrity until she heard Him say, "It is enough—come up higher!"

She died in the triumphs of faith.

It must have been a struggle for her to die. She wished to live for those she had loved, and for the babe whom she had just brought through the portals of life; and yet declared her readiness and willingness to go. With a mother's kiss on her lips, and breaking hearts about her, she passed up through the gates of pearl to her place in the mansions of Heaven.

May we meet her there, and walk and talk together on the banks of the beautiful river which flows from the throne of God!

"On the margin of the river,
Washing up its silver spray,
We will walk and worship ever,
All the happy, golden day."

Bibb's New Baltimore is acknowledged to be the best Fire-place Heater ever put on the market. Having sold a few here last Fall we respectfully refer parties to them.

Our stock of Farmers' Hardware is full, viz: Plow Traces, (Chain and Rope) Rope Halters, Plow Bolts, Plow Castings, Plow Lines, Assorted Bolts, Forks, Shovels, Spades, Axes, Helves, Cart and Wagon Harness, Bill Hooks, Hooks for clearing Drills, Fodder Yarn, &c., &c.
