Chestertown Transcript.
THURSDAY, SEPT. 30, 1880.

The Cecil County Fair, October the 13th, 14th and 15th.

Fresh Fish are becoming more plentiful in our market, though the supply does not yet equal the demand.

L. K. Stam advertises in this issue his stock of paints, window glass, wall paper, &c., &c. Call and examine his stock.

B. R. Hillman & Co. have a large double-column advertisement in this issue of their clothing house, 166 West Baltimore street.

Hamilton Easter & Sons advertise elsewhere in this issue their large establishment, Nos. 199, 201 and 203 Baltimore street, Baltimore.

Get Registered.—Next Monday and Tuesday, the 4th and 5th days of October, are the last days on which an opportunity will be afforded to register. Don't forget to attend to it.

Don't Forget the Mass Meeting at Chestertown on Saturday next. If you are busy, put in a little extra work to-day and to-morrow, so that you can spare the time on Saturday.

The Steamer Cannon, Capt. Jos. W. Thompson, commences running on a new schedule to-day, and also advertises reduced round-trip tickets to the great sesqui-centennial celebration in Baltimore city.

The Catholic Fair, which has been in progress for the past ten days, will continue this week and close positively on Saturday night. The Fair has been very slimly attended, and all well-wishers are earnestly invited to assist in making it a success.

The Kennedyville Hancock and English Club, we learned from the president, is in a highly flourishing condition, already numbering more than one hundred and fifty members. We suggest that they turn out en masse to the Democratic meeting in Chestertown on Saturday next.

The Chester River Steamboat Line advertise elsewhere that they will issue excursion tickets at reduced rates, to Baltimore, during the continuance of the city's anniversary celebration, thus giving the people of Kent an opportunity of witnessing the gayeties at a lessened cost.

An Oversight in correcting the types last week made us print that the Democratic Mass Meeting at Chestertown would come off on October the 22d, instead of October the 2d. We make the correction in this issue. Next Saturday, the 2d day of October, is the day for the big rally, and don't you forget it.

Thanks.—Mr. John E. Copper will please accept our thanks for a basket each of the largest and finest potatoes and tomatoes we have seen this season. The potatoes are of the Early Rose variety. The tomatoes are of two kinds, one being the well known Trophy; the other is much more perfect, about as large, and, to our notion, decidedly the better variety.

Retained as Counsel.—The Cecil Democrat states that some friend of Wesley Murphy, the man who shot and killed William Daniels, on the night of the 18th of this month, has employed Henry W. Archer, Esq., to defend him on his trial. Murphy himself has employed Richard Hynson, Esq. His case will not suffer from the lack of able counsel.

A Grand Rally Next Saturday.—Beside Hon. George W. Covington, our first district nominee for Congress, the following additional speakers are expected to address the meeting Saturday: Hon. Levin L. Waters, Hon. Wm. H. Welsh, Hon. Isador Raynor, Col. L. Victor Baughman, Hon. James A. Buchanan, Henry Page, Esq., and Charles H. Gibson, Esq. The meeting is to commence at 2 o'clock P. M.

A Hancock and English Pole.—By Saturday the Democracy of the fourth election district of Kent county, expect to have raised, in Chestertown, the tallest Hancock and English pole in the State. The pole is now in process of preparation, and when ready for raising will measure 152 feet in length, or when raised will be 146 feet in height. It will be formed from three tall hickory trees, welded together with bands of iron.

The Kent Guards are to form part of the military parade in Baltimore's anniversary celebration. They will not be likely to feel lonely in the procession. We clip from the Baltimore Sun some of the military organizations that are likely to take part in the programme:

The military display, which is to take place on Wednesday, October 13, promises to be one of the most interesting features of the fêtes. It will be under command of Gen. Jas. R. Herbert, chief marshal. In addition to the militia of Maryland, various military companies outside of the State are expected to participate. It has been decided to invite the Seventh Regiment of New York, the First Virginia Regiment, of Richmond, the State Fencibles, Capt. W. J. Ryan, and the City Troop of Philadelphia, the Norfolk City Guard, Norfolk Light Infantry Blues, Washington Light Infantry, Alexandria Light Infantry, Richmond Blues and Staunton Battery. The veterans of the Mexican war and the Old Defenders have been invited, and as they are old soldiers they will be placed with the military. They will ride in carriages or phaetons, which will be placed in line two abreast, and Gen. Herbert will give them a military escort. For the accommodation of the visiting military, it has been suggested that the large armory in the City Hall be utilized.

The Democracy of Kennedyville District turned out last Saturday to the pole-raising and speaking, to the number of about two hundred. The Hancock and English Club of Kennedyville had on hand a tall hickory pole, surmounted by a thoroughbred Democratic rooster. The Club had neglected to have on hand necessary hoisting apparatus, and the pole being very long and very heavy, it was found impossible to plant it on Saturday. The president of the Club informs us, however, that the pole has since been raised, and that the Hancock and English flag now floats proudly above the rooster. On account of efforts to raise the pole, the speaking on Saturday was deferred till late in the afternoon, and quite a number of people had been compelled to leave. The president of the Club, Mr. L. C. Justis, presided, and introduced Mr. James Alfred Pearce, who held the attention of those assembled in an interesting speech. We can only give an outline of Mr. Pearce's speech as we remember it. He contrasted the centralizing tendencies of the Republican party, with the States-rights tenets of the Democratic party; he showed that the Democratic is and has always been the party of the people, while the Republican party represents little more than a dead issue,—having been originated for the purpose of abolishing slavery. He contrasted the records of the two candidates which the two parties have put in nomination, and discussed some of the shady transactions with which General Garfield's name has been prominently connected.

In illustration of General Hancock's popularity in the State of New York, he told an anecdote of an incident that came under his own observation;—he said that while on a visit up in New York the past summer, together with a number of other gentlemen, partly Democratic and partly Republican, he went on a fishing jaunt to some lakes. The lakes were a mile or so apart, and the whole ride extended over a distance of some thirty miles, through a very thickly populated country. The party adopted the custom of hurraking for Hancock or for Garfield at every house they passed, in order to draw out the inmates, and find out the politics of the house. In the whole ride, though a great number of houses were thus polled, they only succeeded in finding one Garfield family. A Republican of the party, disgusted at the one-sided showing of the count, said that he was raised by an old farmer who lived not far distant, and that this old gentleman was a man of such superior judgment, that his political opinion was worth that of all the other people they had interviewed; and that though he had not seen the old gentleman for a long time, yet if the party would accompany him, he would guarantee to show them a simon-pure Garfield man. The party went with him to see the old farmer. The old gentleman recognized him, remembered all about him as a boy, and was glad to learn of his success in life. Finally the Garfield man broached the subject of politics by saying that he had been riding with this party of gentlemen all day, and that they had succeeded in finding but one Garfield man, and that he had assured them that if they would accompany him there, he would show them a man who had a better judgment than all the rest of the people they had talked with, and who was moreover an out-and-out Garfield man. The old gentleman listened to him in silence, and when he had finished, folded his arms and slowly shook his head. The Garfield man was utterly extinguished, and had little more to say during the balance of the trip.

The speaking over, the oysters were attended to by those who remained.

A Serious Charge.—John Edward Ringgold, a young man of this town, now in the employ of Mr. L. K. Stam, was arrested on Tuesday, the 21st instant, by a postoffice detective on the charge of opening a registered letter containing a small sum of money belonging to another party. He was taken to Baltimore, and after a preliminary hearing before Commissioner Rogers was held to bail for his appearance next Tuesday. Young Ringgold states that about eighteen months ago he boarded with a Mrs. Hughes, in Baltimore; the letter in question was delivered there by the carrier, addressed "Edward Ringgold;" he inquired of members of the family if any one boarded there by that name and was answered in the negative, and having received much of his mail thus addressed, he took this letter, supposing it to be intended for himself; it now turns out that at the time stated a colored man named Edward Ringgold was employed at the house, and the letter in question was intended for him. Young Ringgold opened the letter publicly, and has never from that day to this attempted to conceal the fact of its receipt or its contents, never deeming for a moment that the letter was intended for any one but himself until his arrest. The occurrence is of course very annoying and greatly to be regretted, but he has no doubt when all the facts are presented to the Commissioner he will be fully exhonorated.—News.

On Tuesday last Mr. Ringgold went to Baltimore, and had a hearing in the above case. An explanation of the matter satisfied the authorities of his innocence, and he returned home Tuesday night.

Baltimore Grain Market.—From the Sun of Tuesday, we make the following quotations:—

Proctor were appointed to appraise the personal estate of said deceased.

LITERARY REVIEW.

The October Scribner, the closing number of the Twentieth Volume, opens with an article, in the series on "American Sports," on "Porpoise-shooting," by Charles C. Ward, accompanied by some striking illustrations. The biography of "Jean Francois Millet—Peasant and Painter," which appears here in advance of its publication in France, is continued, with reproductions of ten of the artist's most noted pictures. H. C. Brunner contributes a description of that feature of New York city known as "Shanty town." The history of the early life of "Peter the Great" concludes in this number with an account of the expedition against and the capture of Azof, and in the November number the story of "Peter the Great as Ruler and Reformer" will be commenced. H. C. Hovey gives an account of his trips of "One Hundred Miles in Mammoth Cave." There is also a thoughtful and timely paper on the present condition of affairs, especially in agriculture, in the "New South," by Sidney Lanier.

ECLECTIC MAGAZINE.—The October number of the Eclectic presents the usual substantial fare and variety of attraction. The illustration, instead of being a portrait as usual, is a marine view entitled "Robbins' Reef Light, New York Harbor," carefully engraved on steel. The table of contents, happily combining the instructive with the entertaining, is as follows: Hours in a Library—Sterne," by Leslie Stephen; "Pleasant Life in Bengal," by J. Talboys Wheeler; "Letters to and from Hans Christian Anderson;" "A Scandalson Romance;" "A Reindeer Ride through Lapland;" "Fiction, Fair and Foul," by John Ruskin (containing Ruskin's already famous attack upon Wordsworth); "The Carver and the Caliph," by Austin Dobson; "Jelly Fishes," by Andrew Wilson, F.R.S.S.; "Central Asia; the Meeting-Place of Empires;" "Thoughts in a City Church" (a poem); "White Wings: A Yatching Romance," by William Black, Chapters XLI. to XLIII.; "Minutes;" "Romance of Literary Discovery;" "In Memoriam: Tom Taylor," by Thomas Hughes; "The Blackbird" (a poem), by W. W. Story; "Instances of Longevity;" "Bitter-Sweet" (a poem); Literary Notices; Foreign Literary Notes; Science and Art; and Varieties.

Published by E. R. PELTON, 25 Bond Street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single copy, 45 cents; Trial subscription for three months, one dollar.

LIPPINCOTT'S MAGAZINE.—Lippincott's Magazine for October opens with "A Chapter of American Exploration," by William H. Rideing describing the perilous journey of Major Powell and his party through the wonderful canons of Colorado, with numerous illustrations that add materially to the interest of the text. "Seven Weeks a Missionary," by Louise Coffin Jones, is a narrative of some curious experiences in the island of Hawaii, very different from those of the ordinary traveller and throwing a much stronger light on the character and condition of the native population. A pungent paper on "Americans Abroad," by Alvin Gore, holds up to ridicule the general tendency of our countrymen, and more especially of our country women, whether travelling or resident in Europe, to depreciate the customs and manners of their native land and admire everything foreign. Mrs. Helen Campbell closes her "Studies in the Slums" with a pathetic little story from real life, and L. Lejeune completes, in a second paper, his panoramic survey of the history and characteristics of Horse-racing in France. "Glimpses of Portugal and the Portuguese" is an admirably written and well illustrated article. Mrs. Hooper gives an account of the great French tenor, Roger, with extracts from his diary containing anecdotes of Jenny Lind. The serial, "Adam and Eve," has reached an exciting crisis. There are several short stories, one of them by "Ouida," poems by Philip Bourke Marston and Dora Read Goodale, and the usual variety of short papers in the "Monthly Gossip" and "Literarture of the Day."

After the execution of Menesclod in Paris the other day for the murder of the little girl, Luise Deu, his remains were conveyed to the anatomical theatre, and subjected to a singular expiriment. Dr. Sappey injected under the cutaneous tissue of the head some fresh-drawn blood from the carotid of a living dog.—The result was startling, for the color returned to the cheeks, there was a perceptible nervous tremor, while the lips slightly moved. The same treatment applied to the body produced no effect.

A REMARABLE WHEAT YIELD.

John N. Endwoods, living on the Oldham Massey farm, one half mile east of Chesterville, realized last harvest the following yield of wheat: On 10 acres he seeded 1 bushel and 1 peck to the acre, used 300 lbs. of the MARYLAND CO'S PHOSPHATE to the acre, and reaped a yield of 33 bushels of wheat to the acre. On 25 acres he seeded 1 bushel of wheat to the acre, used 200 lbs. of the same fertilizer to the acre and reaped 24 bushels of wheat per acre, making in all a crop of 920 bushels from 27½ acres seeding. His fertilizer cost him only $30 per ton on time. Who can beat it? Beside the above named grower we refer also to Albert Medders, Chesterville, and Medford Copper, who threshed the wheat, and others of the neighborhood who will testify to the correctness of the yield.

T. W. WICKES

Agent for the Maryland Co's. Phosphate.

THE MARYLAND

Fertilizing & Manufacturing Co.,

Are prepared to furnish the following well-known Brands of Fertilizers:

"Ammoniated Super Phosphate."

A Complete Manure for ALL CROPS, adapted to Lands

that require a full development of the Crop, both Straw and Grain.

"ALKALINE SUPER PHOSPHATE."

An article very rich in SOLUBLE PHOSPHATE OF LIME and the ALKALINES.

"DISSOLVED PHOSPHATE."

A High Grade SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

The ALKALINE and DISSOLVED PHOSPHATES have special reference to the growth and development of the Grain, and are intended for lands that produce a sufficient growth of Straw, but small crops of Grain. They have been used for several years by some of the best farmers of Maryland and Virginia, alongside the highest grades Ammoniated Phosphates, and in some sections have almost superceded them.

The Fine Mechanical condition of our FERTILIZERS is such, that they Drill readily, and we recommend the use of the Drill as being the most profitable way of applying Fertilizers.

We refer to the following persons who used the above goods last season:

John C. Sutton,	Garrett Foxwell,	W. Hurlock,	J. Hodgson,
S. W. Aldridge,	Noble Pennington,	Richard Smith,	J. Newcomb,

TO WHEAT GROWERS

THE undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of Fertilizers in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1868 of the Formulas and processes of manufacture of

'Excelsior' & Ammoniated Phosphate

So well and favorably known by the Agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these Fertilizers, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the high standard quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer—combining all the stimulating properties of Peruvian Guano, and the ever-durable fertilizing properties of Bones, in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

For growing Wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years experience in the use of these FERTILIZERS manufactured by me, that an application of 160 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.

With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in Quality, Mechanical Condition and Price.

By strictly adhering to my Original Formulas, using only the most concentrated materials, and superintending in person their manufacture—as for the past twenty years—

Uniform Quality is Guaranteed.

☞ Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE, prepared according to my Original Formulas established in 1868, should see that every Bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.

☞ The success this article met with last year was such that I was unable to supply the demand for it; and it is gratifying to be able to say that to-day it is more highly esteemed by those who used it the past season than it was then.

So far, wherever there has been a COMPLETE TEST of the value of this goods, as compared with other manufactured goods on the market, by actual measure and weight of wheat grown that has come to my knowledge, No. 1 has proved itself fully equal to, and in a number of cases better, than other goods costing much more money; in one case giving Eight Bushels of Wheat to the Acre more than ——, costing $5 per ton more than No. 1.

Please read carefully the letters appended:

CHESTERTOWN, MD., July 20, 1880.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: In reply to your inquiries concerning your "No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate," I would say that I am pleased with it. (Signed) THOMAS P. DIXON.

CHESTERTOWN, MD., July 16, 1880

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.:—In answer to your inquiry concerning your "No. 1 Ammoniated Superphosphate," I would say, that it has given me entire satisfaction. I used it by the side of a goods costing me $5.00 per ton more, and applied the two goods on the same field, at the same rate per acre, the land being same quality on which both goods were used. I threshed the two parts separately; the part on which your goods was applied gave me EIGHT BUSHELS OF WHEAT MORE TO THE ACRE than the other goods; the wheat having, also, a prettier color. I regard your goods as fully equal, if not better, than any on the market.

MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—Dear Sir: I used your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate two years ago on my wheat, and also ——, costing me five dollars per ton more. The results were such, that I abandoned the ——, your goods doing so much better for me. This last fall I used it by the side of two others, both costing me considerable more than yours. MR. T. W. ELIASON, JR.—In reply to your inquiries concerning the results of your No. 1 Ammoniated Super Phosphate, which I have used upon my wheat the two past seasons, I would say that the first season I used it, it was by the side of ——, costing me seven dollars per ton more than yours. After cutting and threshing my wheat, I was satisfied that your No. 1 gave me a much larger yield, and a finer, plumper grain. So marked was the difference, that I discontinued the use of ——, for your goods. Last fall I used it by the side of —— costing me five dollars more per ton than your No. 1. I applied it at the same rate per acre. After threshing my wheat, I found that your No. 1 had given me 3½ bushels per acre more, and a fuller, better colored grain. Of course, with these results I am pleased with it, and shall use it again.

Ohio Chilled Plow.

For lightness of draught, durability and superior work, this Plow cannot be equaled and has never been by any yet introduced; this may be considered by some a broad claim, but a trial will soon convince as to the correctness thereof. All who purchased of us last spring were so much pleased that they seem to delight in talking about them to their friends, and this fact alone has made for us a number of sales even this early in the season, hence it can be truly said that the OHIO CHILLED advertises and sells itself.

Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound is very pleasant to the taste, and the oldest and best remedy in the market for coughs and colds. A splendid medicine for the baby. Try it. For sale by all druggists.

Chicken cholera and grapes can be cured with M. B. Roberts' Poultry Powder. Try it and be convinced.

M. B. Roberts' Horse Powders have been used with astonishing results in the stables of Mr. Pierre Lorillard, so much so, that the Englishmen have been ordering it in large quantities since Parole, Wallenstein and other American horses, have won thousands of dollars for their owners.

No more sick Chickens. Save your poultry and cure them of disease, by using Roberts' Poultry Powder. It has never failed to cure Cholera, and all diseases to which fowls are subject. Price 25 cents per package.

How often do we hear the remark: O, he only took a slight cold at first, and he thought it would go as it came! He took nothing for it, and it fastened on his lungs, and now he is in the last stages of consumpsion. Prevention is better than cure. Sines' Syrup of Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound cures Coughs, Colds, Asthma and Lung Affections. It has a reputation of over 40 years. Price 25 and 50 cents per bottle. Your druggist has it.

A life of torture is often endured by the rheumatic; their pangs may, however, be relieved by the use of the old reliable remedy, Roberts' Embrocation. Sold over 50 years. No mushroom growth, its reputation excels all other remedies. Price 35 cents per bottle. Try it just once.

Notyers, before giving your little babe cough or croup medicines, remember that Sines' Syrup of Tar, Hoarhound and Wild Cherry, is the only cough preparation that contains no opium, morphine, nor any other narcotic.

To make a good broil; leave a letter for one of your old sweethearts where your wife can find it: and to avoid any bodily injury have a horse ready saddled that has taken Roberts' Celebrated Horse Powders. Price 25 cents per package.
