ADDRESS FROM THE DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

The Democratic State Central Committee of Maryland have issued the following address:

"Baltimore, October 14, 1880.—The Democratic party of the United States expects that those who profess its faith in this State will, from this hour until the polls are closed on the day of the Presidential election, devote themselves to the business of the canvass, and that they will see to it that every Democratic vote in their respective election districts or precincts is cast on that day. In the State of Indiana at the Presidential election of 1876 our party secured a majority of 5,500 out of a total of 421,500. At the late election, the present Republican administration, aided by the managers of the Republican party, reversed this majority, by the fraudulent exercise of official power and by corrupt use of money: The Democrats of Indiana will set right in November the wrongs inflicted upon them in October. It is the duty of the Democrats in this State to take care that our great Democratic majority is duly recorded in November, so that we may have no wrongs to right, but only a well-deserved success to rejoice over. In no former period in the whole political history of this country was there ever occasion for more devoted zeal. The present contest is a struggle against the centralization of national and State power in the hands of the Republican party as a national organization. Let no effort be spared. Your zeal will not only avail in this State. Its contagious example will extend to the North, South and West.—When New York, New Jersey and Connecticut take their place among the Democratic States at the close of the polls on November 2, 1880, when Indiana breaks from the sharp contest of that day to take her place at their side, and victory is won—as it assuredly will be—let the States on which the brunt of battle has fallen see that Maryland has again joined them with an increased Democratic majority and with a solid Democratic delegation in the House of Representatives. Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

A. P. GORMAN,
"Chairman Dem. State Central Committee."

THE Cologne cathedral, which was commenced six hundred years ago, has been recently completed. It is one among the most beautiful structures in the world.

TAMMANY and Irving Hall are in a state of perfect harmony; candidates for the mayoralty of New York, and other officials have been nominated to the entire satisfaction of both wings. The Democracy of New York will pull together in November and New York is assured as a Democratic State. As New York goes, so goes the country.

THE Baltimore Sun with commendable enterprise, gave on last Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 18th and 19th insts. a series of Free Concerts in front of the Sun building. The concerts were by Grafulla's New York Seventh Regiment band, composed of fifty pieces, and led by Wernig. The purpose of the concerts was to supply to some extent the musical feature of the celebration, which was left out. The Sun defrayed the whole expense of the concerts.

THE result of the preliminary election in Indiana, is to be sure, a disappointment, but it by no means presages defeat to the Democrats in November, even in the State of Indiana. In the first place, Landers, the Democratic nominee for governor, was not popular, and could not carry the full strength of the Democratic party. In the second place the Republican managers were able to concentrate money and other means in Indiana in October, which they will not be able to do in November.

THE Republican national committee held a session in New York city on Friday to discuss the situation. Mr. Yost of Virginia assured the committee that Virginia could be carried for Garfield and Arthur, with a little aid from the North.—Judge Lee, of South Carolina informed the committee that that State could also be carried for the Republicans, but not without a little aid from the North. The Republicans of Florida are also relied upon to carry that State, but not without a little aid from the North. There are beyond a doubt numerous hungry Republicans in the South, who have lost their occupation, who would enthusiastically pocket a little aid from the North, no matter how the election goes.

SARA BERNHARDT is now upon the ocean, bound for this country. She left Paris at one o'clock P. M. Friday of last week, bound for Havre, where she was to take steamer for New York. Hundreds of her admirers with big boquets, were at the railroad station to see her off. Mlle. Sara is considered one of the most beautiful women in Europe, and has for a long time been the rage among the London and Paris beaux. The Prince of Wales is one of her devoted admirers.

THE Salisbury Advertiser in its issue of the 16th inst, pounced down upon some of its exchanges for leaving the H. out of the name of Patrick H. Walker, elector for the Second Maryland Congressional district. We quote from the Advertiser as follows:

"Some of the Democratic papers in this State still continue to print the electoral ticket wrong. They spell the middle name of Mr. I. Nevitt Steele as Nevett and print the name of Mr. Patrick H. Walker without the H."

The Transcript has been leaving the H. out of Mr. Walker's name, and it felt somewhat cut up and considerably cast down by the Advertiser's criticism. We turned over dejectedly to take a look at the Advertiser's Democratic Conservative ticket, in order that by a comparison with some high standard of authority, we might be sure that no other errors had crept into our ticket. In glancing down the ticket as printed in the Advertiser, the first thing that struck our eye was the name of Patrick Walker. There was not the shadow of an H. in Mr. Walker's name. Further down we found that the Advertiser had put the name of John R. McNulty as John C. McNulty; and further on still we found that the Advertiser had printed the name of William M. Price as William R. Price. And then we leaned back in our chair and wondered what kind of a man the Salisbury Advertiser man is any how. We wondered whether he is a man who has got a good deal of check or not.

INDIANA AND OHIO.

The preliminary election in Indiana and Ohio has gone Republican. The count is in, and there is no doubt that the Republicans have won. Whether they won by fair or foul means, is a question for discussion. There seems to be plenty of evidence that Kentuckey negroes and Philadelphia repeaters did the work. Republicans all over the country are jubilant. Before the election of the 12th inst, they were considerably down in the mouth.—Not one in five hundred of them had any hope for Indiana and they felt rather quaky with regard to Ohio. When the news spread over the country that they had carried both of those States, it acted upon them like an elixir. It has fairly set them wild in their calculations. They took an immediate bound from the cellar to the housetop. They believe that on the second day of November, they will sweep through the country like a whirlwind. The Republican press is making claims to a solid North, a solid West, and a split up South. They assert their confidence of carrying in the South—Virginia, South Carolina, and Florida. They expect in 1881 not only to have the President and Vice-President, but to control both the upper and lower Houses of Congress. Of course this is all highly satisfactory and extremely comforting to Republicans. Democrats can very well afford to let them take a turn at the blow. Democrats did quite enough of the brag and bluster business after they heard from Maine, and before they heard from Indiana and Ohio. An energetic still hunt will do more toward turning out good results on the second day of November, than all the hurrahing that can be crowded into the balance of this month.

The Republicans feel good, and we are glad of it. It does one good to see their smiling faces on the street corners. It is refreshing to witness the enthusiasm with which they discuss the news from Ohio and Indiana. At the same time, though the hilarity of our Republican friends is very beautiful to witness, we advise independent voters and timid Democrats not to lose their heads. We have a settled conviction that the Republicans will not feel so humorous on the day after the 2d day of November. The Democrats expect to have a little more fun in their camp on that day.

PROCLAMMATION BY THE PRESIDENT.

Fault-finding is so seldom indulged in by those who use the medicines manufactured by the World's Dispensary Medical Assosation, that the President of that corporation, the Hon. R. V. Pierce, M. D., has issued a special request or proclammation to any and all persons, if there be any such, who may have taken or shall hereafter use any of the family medicines now made and sold by the said Association, in all countries of the world, and who have not derived full benefit from said medicines, and if they write the said Association a description of their maladies the Faculty of the Dispensary will advise them with respect to the successful treatment of their diseases. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is guaranteed to cure, all humors from the common blotch, pimple or eruption, to the worst scrofula or king's evil, and those virulent poisons that lurk in the system as a sequel or secondary affection resulting from badly-treated or neglected primary diseases. It also cures bronchial, throat and lung diseases. Favorite Prescription is guaranteed to cure female weaknesses and kindred affections. Extract of Smart-Weed cures bowel affections, colds, and all painful, rheumatic and neuralgic affections. Dr. Pierce's Pellets (little sugar-coated pills), are the little giant cathartic. Address, World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y., or Great Russell Street Buildings, London, Eng.

The Georgetown Inquirer says that a shingle manipulator in Cypress swamp recently "saw a speck in the sky about as big as a bumble bee and fired at it with a rifle. He then returned to his work and got out a thousand shingles, at the end of which task the bird fell heavily at his feet, stone dead."

ICE CREAM AND CAKE AND FISHES.—Among the many strangers who visited Baltimore last week was a gentleman from the lofty hills and smiling valleys of that garden spot of Maryland, Talbot county, there where, besides the hills and dales, are beauteous water courses, wherein disport them the smiling soft-crab, the tender terrapin, the rollicking rock-fish and the eloquent oyster. Naturally, all the dwellers of this favored spot are by instinct and habit fishermen, professional or amateur, from the days of their early youth, and with some the piscatorial art amounts to an absolute mania. The gentleman in question had seen the procession, and ascended Washington Monument and the City Hall dome and the Shot Tower, and had otherwise enjoyed himself to his heart's content. He was athirst and he imbibed—not too much, you know, but just enough to feel hungry. On North Charles street, some distance above Baltimore, his soul was delighted by the sight of a legend, upon which was imprinted in letters of gold "Ice cream and cake." He entered and soon in front of a huge plate of the delicious former and a huger plate of the delightful latter. In a short while there was only half as much of either exposed to the public view. Then he paused for a rest. His eye was attracted to a gentle trickling, tinkling sound, as of the plash of waters upon the pebbles, and his charmed gaze fell upon a fountain. In it were fish—a dozen or two—whose fins were gold and whose size was most alluring. He struggled with the passion imbibed with the air he breathed in babyhood, but in vain. Breaking the string from about a bundle he had brought with him and bending a pin, he improvised a fishing line, and baiting the hook with cake, caught, one after the other in quick succession, three of the finest of the pets of the confectioner. Just as the last was landed the waiter returned with his check—25 cents. After a conversation of some thirty minutes the check was altered to $15.25 and paid. The night boat carried back to Talbot county a gentleman who uses strong language whenever he sees the glitter of a fish's fins.—Baltimore American.

THE NEXT CONGRESS.

ESTIMATES BY BOTH THE LEADERS IN WASHINGTON—DEMOCRATIC MAJORITY PROBABLE.

The Republicans at Congressional headquarters are so elated by their recent successes that they are claiming both Houses of Congress. The Senate, they say, will be a tie, but practically Republican through Arthur's casting vote. In order to accomplish this, however, they must, in addition to carrying the country, defeat both Randolph in New Jersey, Eaton in Connecticut, and Wallace in Pennsylvania, which they have not yet done. They do not take into account either the probable election of Fair in Nevada, which will give the Senate to the Democrats by one majority if all their claims should be admitted. A liberal estimate of their chances in the House fails also to carry out their claims in respect to that branch of Congress. They have now 132 members, and need fifteen more to make a majority. They estimate for this gain as follows: One from Oregon, six from Ohio, and two from Indiana. They claim also two from Iowa, the two Greenback districts, Weaver's and Gillette's. These they will probably have. In addition, they expect one from Tennessee, Taylor's, and two from Virginia, and they hope for one from Florida and one from Pennsylvania, Wright's, and one from Wisconsin, Deuster's.—They are sure of none of these, however, Taylor has the same problem that he had four years ago, when he had 700 majority, and Congressman Atkins writes here that not only will Taylor be re-elected, but that Hook, the present Republican member, will probably be defeated. Acklen, Senator-elect Gibson says, will not succeed by his bolt in compassing the election of a Republicon. A liberal estimate gives them only a gain of ten, which will leave them five short of a majority. On the other hand they will probably lose the Detroit and Saginaw (Newberry's and Harris's) districts, in Michigan: White's and Fisher's, in Pennsylvania, and Einstein's and Bailey's, in New York, a total of eight, leaving them a net gain of two. This is lower than the estimate made by the Democratic committee.

A recent report shows that the increase in the consumption of horse and ass flesh is large and steady in France.

RIOT IN WILMINGTON, DEL.

A DEMOCRATIC PARADE ATTACKED BY REPUBLICAN NEGROES.

During the Democratic parade in Wilmington, Saturday night, a premeditated attack was made upon it by about 100 armed negroes, resulting in the serious wounding of a large number of the paraders and five or six negroes. The assault was made while the parade was passing National Hall at Ninth and Walnut streets, in which the Higgins Colored Republican Club have their headquarters, and was entirely unprovoked. The negroes first threw a brick through a transparency carried by the Blue Hens' Chickens, and, emboldened by the fact that no response was made to this insult, they next knocked Thos. Kane, the Lieutenant-Colonel of the Young Men's Democratic Club, off his horse with a stone, seriously injuring him. Several of Kane's friends rushed up to avenge this outrage, when they were met by bullets fired from the rooms of the Higgins Club. The Democrats then assembled in force and made an assault on the hall, driving the negroes out and up to Ninth and French streets. National Hall was gutted, the windows and doors smashed, and a number of neighboring houses occupied by negroes were considerably damaged. Six Democrats were seriously wounded. The negroes suffered slightly, and made a determined stand at Ninth and French streets, and being fully provided with shot-guns, pistols, and razors, showed an ugly front to the Democrats, who fought almost entirely with stones, sticks, and brickbats. A fierce fight ensued, and the negroes were again routed, but the Democrats suffered severely, their list of wounded being swelled to fourteen. The blacks, largely reenforced, made another stand at Eleventh and Orange streets, and defied the police, who attempted to disperse them, declaring that they would shoot dead the first officer who dared to approach. After a protracted parley the negroes agreed to go home if the police would withdraw. This the latter did, but the negroes continued in the neighborhood until long after midnight, without, however, doing any damage.

Sunday forenoon another riot occurred, caused by an attempt by special policemen to arrest negroes suspected as leaders in the disturbance of Saturday night. Two policemen and several others, including two women, were wounded. None of the injured have died thus far.—Those hurt are: Wm. Weir of Williams Club, shot in the thigh; Wm. Long, Young Men's Democratic Club, hit in the neck with buckshot; Thos. Jones, Hickory Club, wounded in seven places by buckshot; C. C. Montgomery, Second Lieutenant Young Men's Democratic Club, shot in left arm; Elias Colley, hit in arm with buckshot; Thomas Kane, Lieut.-Col. Young Men's Democratic Club, struck in breast with brick, and seriously hurt; Frank McGinnis, Williams Club, shot in the neck and cheek; George Pike, three cuts on the head, four in the side, and one on the shoulder, with a razor; Isaac Pierce, Ninth Ward Club, shot in the shoulder; Samuel Orr, Ninth Ward, grazed by bullet; William Smith, Terrapin Club, shot in the leg and finger; Wm. McKenney, Bayard Club, shot in the head, probably fatally; Chas. Jeff, shot in the hand; Walter Fountain, shot in the side and temple and struck on the head with a stone, and three unknown negroes injured by bricks.—Two negro women and one child were also slightly hurt. Hugh Shields, special policeman, was shot in the head; Mike Cannon, policeman, hit in the head by a brick and seriously hurt; John O'Donnell, reporter on the Sunday Mirror, hit in the abdomen by a spent bullet.

Three negroes—Horace Coulter, Thomas Durham, and Trusty—have been arrested for complicity in the riot of Saturday night.

A MARYLAND SHOOTING.

A TRAGEDY GROWING OUT OF A REFUSAL TO MARRY.

On Tuesday of last week a shooting affair occurred in the lower part of Carroll county, in which the parties implicated were Milton Pickett, his daughter Martha and a young man named Luther Pickett, a second cousin of the former. Luther had been urged for some time to marry the daughter, but has always refused positively to do so. On the day above mentioned Mr. Pickett and his daughter, armed with a pistol, started out in search of the recent lover. He was found working in a field. He was immediately requested by the old gentleman to accompany him to the house and to marry his daughter. This Luther Pickett refused to do. Thereupon firing began, as is claimed by Luther Pickett, who directed his shot toward Milton Pickett. After he had fired the first shot Martha drew a revolver and commenced to fire rapidly at her seducer, emptying the five chambers of her pistol. At this juncture Milton Pickett started to run from the field when he was again fired upon by Luther, and just as he was climbing the fence was struck in the back, the ball passing entirely through him, from the effects of which he died on Thursday. The murderer is still at large, though a warrant has been issued for his arrest. Great excitement prevails in the community where the parties reside.

SENATOR VOORHEES, of Indiana, arrived in New York Saturday. He is reported as declaring that the Republicans had the use of from $1,000,000 to $5,000,000 in that State, the latter sum, in his opinion, being nearer the figures. In addition he claims that there were at least 5,000 colored men imported into the State and voted. The Democrats lost some voters on the tariff issue, but Mr. Voorhees says he knows Gen. Hancock is stronger in Indiana than the State local tickets, and that after the first few days of depression the Indiana Democrats will rally and give Hancock 10,000 more votes than that party cast last Tuesday.

Some of the boys belonging to the most respectable families of Peru, Ill., fitted up a cave as a club house. For every meeting night two of their number were appointed a burglary committee, and upon them devolved the task of providing refreshments. Cigar stores, saloons, and groceries were so frequently robbed that an investigation was made.

THE INDIAN CENSUS.—The present census law requires the enumeration of our untaxed Indians to be made, the first time any such thing has been officially attempted. The Indian bureau has made a population census, with a view to the proper distribution of supplies, but not beyond that. Gen. Walker, in taking the Indian census at the present time, has availed himself of the bureau of ethnology recently established by Congress, entrusting the whole matter to Major Powell, head of that bureau. Colonel Garrick Mallery, an attache of the bureau, read a paper on the methods to be employed before the recent meeting of the American Scientific Association. The indians usually being wanderers in summer, the 1st of October was set as the time for beginning the census. Such an enumeration is exposed to various attempts at fraud to increase the lists of recipients of rations and annuities. Hostile bands like to exaggerate their strength, and Indians are loth to give their own names or speak of their deceased relatives and friends. Hence the census must be taken by persons familiar with Indian customs, who know what to look for and how to find it. New forms of schedules have been prepared; population is taken by heads of families and "gentile" relationship, the tribal organization among Indians filling the same place of "unit" that the family fills among whites. The various mixtures of blood are to be brought out, with character of dress and character and amount of personal property, the only actual property Indians hold. The vital statistics are to be pushed, as far as practicable, so as not only to obtain a record of the health of the tribes, but also of the Indian theories in regard to disease. The schedules of industry and education are made as full as possible, while a special schedule is proposed with the object of simplifying research into the complicated system of consanguinity and affinity which lies at the root of the Indian social fabric. If it can be successfully taken, the Indian census promises to supply a valuable contribution to ethnology as well as to afford a foundation for intelligent legislation.—Baltimore Sun.

Political Notes.

P. Lorillard & Co. have issued a circular to the workmen employed in their tobacco factory in Jersey City, in which they say: "It having been publicly asserted that we are endeavoring to influence your vote in the approaching general election, we embrace this means of not only giving a positive denial to such assertion, but to say in addition that it is furthest from our intention, either in the present or future, to influence your political predilections. Coercive suffrage is an evidence of moral cowardice, tending to degrade the workingmen, and productive of great danger to that integrity of the republic which can only be maintained by the deposition of such a ballot as individual reason and conscience may dictate."

Rev. Henry Ward Beecher delivered a Republican speech in Cooper's Institute, New York, Wednesday evening. He said the South was the source of all national troubles.

Jacob Yost, of Staunton, Va., junior editor of the Valley Virginian, has been appointed Republican elector for the seventh district, in place of E. W. Early, resigned.

The Philadelphia police have just been assessed $8,697 for Republican campaign purposes.

GERMAN CARP.—Mr. John S. Dallam had on exhibition at our county fair two of the German carp which he placed in his ice pond, near Belair, on the 7th of last May. At that time they were three inches in length and weighed half an ounce each. Now they measure fully fifteen inches and weigh ever two pounds apiece. The young carp were obtained by Mr. Dallam from the Druid Hill fish hatching-house, where they were hatched about the 1st of last March. No food has been supplied to them, nor have they had any attention. The pond from which they were taken is less than an acre in extent, and is supplied with water from a running stream.—*Belair (Md.) Many clergymen in this country have lately received a circular from a London dealer in second-hand sermons. He offers sermons "lithographed in a bold, round hand," so that those who happened to see them would suppose they were manuscript, for 25 cents each, or $20 a hundred. He has a line of cheaper sermons in print, at 10 cents apiece, warranted orthodox; and others—a little more expensive—which have "a pleasantness, yet an awful solemnity, about them."

John Hamilton's wife obtained a divorce from him at Rock Island, Ill., and went back to her parents, while he migrated to Sacramento. They soon began a correspondence, and before a year was over she went to Sacramento, where they were remarried. Mrs. Hamilton was not long in getting jealous, and with good reason; but she shot her rival, and for a while the connubial sky was clear. The wounded woman disappeared, and the wife was not punished for the assault. Again Hamilton gave cause for jealousy.—Mrs. Hamilton was convinced that he could not be permanently reformed. She sat down on his lap, put one arm around his neck, kissed him affectionately, drew a pistol with the disengaged hand, placed it close to his forehead, and fired, killing him instantly.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

JOHN E. MULFORD AND FIRMAN I. MULFORD, vs.

WILLIAM I. MULFORD, EDW'D. B. HANCE, CHARLES C. FORTINER AND REBECCA A. FORTINER HIS WIFE, LESLEY CHESTER AND MILLICENT CHESTER HIS WIFE, LOUIS PARKER, JUNIOR, AND LYDIA A PARKER HIS WIFE, EWING MULFORD AND WILLIAM B. HANCE.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR KENT COUNTY, STATE OF MARYLAND. IN EQUITY.

The object of this suit is to procure a sale for distribution, of certain Real Estate lying near Georgetown, in the First Election District of Kent county, State of Maryland, called "Mount Airy," and containing about one hundred and thirty-two acres.

The bill states that the complainants and their brother William I. Mulford, one of the defendants, are seized as tenants in common with the defendants Edward B. Hance, Rebecca A. Fortiner, Millicent Chester, Lydia A. Parker, Ewing Mulford and William B. Hance: that Rebecca is the wife of Charles C. Fortiner, Millicent the wife of Lesley Chester, and Lydia is the wife of Louis Parker, junior: and that five-eighths of the aforesaid real estate belong to the complainants and their said brother, under the Will of a certain Isaec W. Hance, late of Kent county aforesaid, deceased, and the remaining three-eights to the aforesaid defendants, Edward B. Hance, Rebecca A. Fortiner, Millicent Chester, Lydia A. Parker, Ewing Mulford and William B. Hance, by descent from James B. Hance, also late of said county, deceased: and that the said real estate cannot be divided without loss and injury to the persons therein interested, and that it will be for the mutual benefit and advantage of all to sell the same and distribute the proceeds among the parties entitled according to their respective rights: but because of the infancy of the said William I. Mulford, who is under twenty-one years of age, and residing in the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, a sale of the said real estate cannot be had, without the aid of the aforesaid Court as a Court of Equity: and that all of the defendants reside out of the State of Maryland. It is thereupon adjudged and ordered that the complainants, by causing a copy of this Order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county, State of Maryland, once in each of four successive weeks before the seventeenth day of November next, give notice to the absent defendants, Edward B. Hance, Charles C. Fortiner and Rebecca A. Fortiner his wife, Lesley Chester and Millicent Chester his wife; Louis Parker, junior, and Lydia A. Parker his wife, Ewing Mulford and William B. Hance, of the object and subsance of th[illegible] ill, and warn them to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor, on or before the eighteenth day of February next, to answer the premises and show cause if any they have, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
