Thomas Stockett, Richard Richardson & Thomas Richardson Junr. Witnesses to the foregoing Instrument being sworn on the Holy Evangelist severally deposes and sweare as follows Viz: the said Thomas deposeth that on the fifteenth of May last past a negro boy of Stephen Warman's decd. who signed the said Instrument came to this Deponts as from the said Stephen and desired this Deponent to go to the House of the said Stephen that this Deponent went thither pretty early in the morning and at his this Deponents his first coming in the said Stephen seemed to him to be in his senses. that the said Stephen told this Deponent that he the said Stephen sent for him to Witness his Will and desired that when the same should be perfected that he this Deponent should deliver the same to the Comty General to be by him kept for which the said Stephen said he would satisfy him. That the said Deponent went to Richard Richardson's and desired him & his son Thomas Richardson to go with him this Deponent to the House of the said Stephen Warman. — That the said Richard & his son Thomas in some hours afterwards went thither & that when they came this Deponent declares that the said Stephen did not then seem to this Deponent to be in his senses, and the said Richard Richardson and Thomas Richardson severally deposeth & say that the said Stephen Warman seemed to them at their first coming into he as much in his senses as he had been for some time before (the said Stephen for several months before his death being very weak & seemingly sleepy in the middle of the day & towards night & unwilling to speak and the said Richard Richardson deposeth & saith that the said Stephen Warman told this deponent that he the said Stephen sent for him this deponent to be a Witness to or to see his the said Stephen's Will finished that when the said Stephen spoke to this deponent the other Witness were not in the room but came in some short time afterwards That the said Thomas Stockett one of the other Witness's reminded the said Stephen Warman of his Will upon which he arose, went into another room and fetched the foregoing Instrument which he signed & sealed in the presence of all the Witness's there but the said Deponents the Witnesses Severally depose and swear that they verily believe when he signed and sealed the same that he was not of sound or disposing mind or Memory and for cause of such their belief depose and say that instead of sealing the foregoing Instrument the said Stephen melted wax and put the same on another piece of paper now produced and turned the same towards the witnesses whereupon the said Thomas Stockett told the said Stephen that that would not do upon which the said Stephen took up the foregoing Instrument and put a seal to it and held the same up without subscribing his name thereto that the said Thomas Stockett told him the said Stephen that he must sign his Will. upon which the said Stephen took the said Instrument and wrote the nine lines underneath the same and then turned the paper towards the said Thomas Stockett as if he the said Stephen thought he had done what was needfull that then the said Thomas Stockett told the said Stephen there was room to sign above the said nine lines upon which the said Stephen writ the words Witness my hand & Seal the 15 day May 1740. and subscribed his name. That before such his subscription the said Thomas Stockett wrote a form of words on a seperate piece of paper as to the acknowledgement and publication of a Will which lay before the said Stephen when he wrote the last words and the said Thomas Stockett farther deposeth & saith that he verily believes the said Instrument to be all of the proper hand writing of the said Stephen Warman & for cause of such his belief saith that he was well acquainted with the said Stephen for many years and has very often seen him write. —
