Item, I give unto my Daughter Jane one Negro Boy named Sipio as also one Feather Bed & Furniture and Fifty Pounds Current money in Chattles.-
Item, I give unto my daughter Anne one Negro Girl named Grace with her increase Viz as also one Feather Bed and Furniture and Fifty Pounds Current money in Chattels.-
And Further I hereby declare it is my Will that in Case any or all of the Negroes here Bequeathed to my three youngest daughters shall happen to die before they are Capable in Law to Receive them my Executor shall not be Burthened with the Loss nor shall be obligd to make them good but if they the said Negroes live they shall be for my said daughters and if they die my daughters shall sustain the Loss, and likewise it is my Will that in Case any of my three youngest daughters shall die before they are Capable in Law of Receiving the Legacys I have here bequeathed to them then my two Surviving daughters shall have her part that shall happen to die equally divided between them and in Case two of my said three youngest daughters shall die before they are Qualified according to Law to Receive their Portions here Bequeathed to them then my Will is that my Surviving daughter of the said three youngest shall have and enjoy the parts and portions of her two Sisters that shall happen to die.-
All the rest and Remaining part of my personal Estate if any shall be after the above Legacys are paid and discharged, I Will that it be equally divided among all my children, and I hereby make constitute and appoint my Son John to be Full and sole Executor of this my Last Will and Testament, hereby Revoking and making void all former Wills & Requests by me made and declaring this only to be my last Will and Testament. In Witness whereof I have here unto set my hand and seal this Eighth day of January & in the year of our Lord God one thousand Seven hundred Forty & Six.

Signed Sealed and published in the presence of us
Hugh Deans
Roderick Cheyne
James Lemay.

Edward Day (Seal)

At the Foot of the Foregoing Will was then Written Viz.

February the 12th 1746 came Hugh Deans, Roderick Cheyne, and James Lemay the three Subscribing Witnesses to the Foregoing Will and made oath on the holy Evangelists of almighty God that they saw the Testator Edward Day sign and seal the same and heard him declare it to be his Last Will and Testament that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehension of sound and disposing mind and memory and that they Subscribed their Respective Names as Witnesses to the said Will in the presence of the Testator and at his Request

Th: White Dep. Comy Batt County

11 p. Sides

In the Name of God Amen. I Isaac Butterworth of Baltimore County in the Province of Maryland Planter being in perfect Sence and Sound of Memory thanks be to the almighty God for the same and knowing the uncertainty of this Transitory world do make and ordain this my Last Will and Testament Viz.-
First I Recommend my soul to god who gave it me to Jesus Christ who Redeemed it and to the Holy Ghost who Sanctified it looking through the meritorious death and passion of Jesus Christ my Saviour to have a free pardon and Forgiveness for all my sins and my Body to be Buried decently after a Christian Burial at the discretion of my Executors hereafter Nominated and as Touching such worldly Estate as it hath pleased God to bless me with after my Just debts and Funeral charges are paid I give & Bequeath as Follows.-
Imprs. I give and Bequeath unto my Loving Wife two Hundred acres of Land called Isaac and Johns Lott with my Plantation I now Live on Containing One hundred and Eighty acres with Twenty acres adjoining being part of a tract of Land called Unkles Good Will to be laid out at the discretion of Thomas Wheeler and Leonard Wheeler and after her decease to fall to my son Benjamin Butterworth his heirs or assigns for ever.-
Item, I give and Bequeath unto my son Isaac Butterworth all that part of Land called Unkles good Will lying between Thomas Run and the main Road that now goes through the plantation with the Improvements & all appertenances thereto to him his heirs or assigns for ever.-