Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, NOV. 18, 1880.

Extra Services commenced at the M. E. Church South, at Chesterville, last week.

A Protracted Meeting will commence at Salem M. E. Church this (Thursday) evening, services commencing at 7 o'clock.

Judging from reports that come from all parts of the county, the matrimonial harvest will be large, this winter, in Kent.

Mr. Thomas H. Horsey advertises elsewhere, Furniture and Stoves at city prices, to be found in large variety at his store in Galena.

Good Fishing.—Two of our oldest and most successful anglers, caught from Chester River Bridge, last Tuesday, sixty rock fish. Strange to say, they caught just thirty each.

The Turkey, in unsuspicious innocence, continues to roost upon a low limb. It is a great blessing to human kind that he don't know that next Thursday is Thanksgiving day.

C. F. Stam advertises in this issue a new lot of educational books; also, silver-plated wares, fancy articles, perfumeries, and numerous other goods in his line. Read his advertisements.

99 cent Store.—We call attention to the new advertisement of Ford's 99 cent store, Baltimore. It is astonishing in these days of cheapness what a variety of useful things can be bought for a dollar.

A Revival Meeting, has been going on for the past week at the Kennedyville Methodist Protestant church, Rev. J. A. Weigand, pastor. We learn that the meeting is of a very interesting character, and is largely attended.

A New Steamboat.—We learn from good authority that Capt. Joseph W. Thompson designs building an out and out new steamboat, to put on the line between Chestertown and Baltimore, in place of the L. G. Cannon.

Large Dividends.—The Chester Loan Association, of this town, declared its first 6 months dividends on its first series of stock, last Monday night, which was at the rate of $3.46 per share. The new series of stock is now being issued.

Game.—It is no uncommon thing this fall for a sportsman to get up early in the morning, go down the river, and get back by ten o'clock with a half dozen ducks. Partridges and rabbits are also falling victims to the shot-gun in large numbers.

Large Sale of Personal Property.—Elsewhere will be found advertised the large personalty of Captain Wm. I. Rasin. The sale is to come off at Captain Rasin's farm near Tolchester, on Thursday, the 2d day of next December, if fair, if not on the next fair day.

Large Wheat Yield.—We learn that Cornelius J. Scott, Esq., has just threshed the wheat crop, on his farm near Galena, and has secured a yield of 35 bushels to the acre on 41 acres; or a total of over 1400 bushels. The up-county farmers generally manage to turn out big crops.

Large Yield of Corn.—Mr. Alday Clements, residing near Chesterville, has raised this year on sixteen acres of land, the very large yield of 1650 bushels of corn,—being a little over 103 bushels to the acre. This result is ascertained by actual measurement of land and grain, the grain coming fully up to standard weight.

Mr. Arthur W. Emery, foreman of the Centreville Record printing office, has just taken a wife in the person of Miss Mary C. Bowland, for several years past Principal of the Centreville Female Academy. Arthur is a clever fellow and a good printer. We sincerely hope that he has, in printer's parlance, gotten in possession of the best "take" of his life.

Personal.—Mr. William V. Lucas, our County Commissioner for the third district, has been lying dangerously ill of the typhoid fever. His friends however will be glad to learn that his symptoms at last accounts were for the better.

Mr. Garrett Foxwell is rapidly recovering from his illness, being now able to sit up. He is expected to be able to attend to his usual business soon.

Teachers' Association.—The Kent County Teachers' Association meets to-morrow morning, at 10 o'clock, at the school-room in Chestertown.

The following is the programme of exercises: Questions for discussion are—

1.—Does excessive cultivation of the memory tend to dwarf the other faculties of the mind?

2.—How to induce proper methods of thought on the part of the pupils.

Mr. S. E. Foreman, of Queen Anne's county, will deliver the address.

Mrs. Ella G. Whitaker, Essayist.

Thanksgiving Services.—Services will be held in Chestertown next Thursday morning at the following churches: At the Catholic church, mass by Rev. Father Carey, at 8 o'clock A. M.; at the P. E. Church, regular Thanksgiving services will be held, commencing at 11 o'clock A. M., and the Rev. S. C. Roberts will deliver a sermon appropriate to the day; at the M. E. Church services will commence at 10 o'clock A. M., and Rev. E. B. Newnam will deliver a discourse upon "The dangers and safe-guards of a nation."

The School Commissioners Association of this State will hold its annual meeting in Baltimore on Tuesday next, the 23d instant. All School Commissioners, (county and city,) City Superintendents, County Examiners and heads of State Colleges are entitled to membership.—The sessions are open to the public. School trustees, the clergy, representatives of the press, and all who are interested in extending and improving the means of public education are cordially invited to attend. Kent county will be represented by E. F. Perkins, Esq., the Examiner, and it is probable that some of the School Board will also attend the meeting.

Baltimore Grain Market.—From the Sun of Tuesday, we make the following quotations:—

Receipts to-day 17,000 bushels Southern Wheat; 133,600 bushels Western do.; 6,000 bushels Southern Corn; 57,200 bushels Western do. Southern Wheat is in demand and the market is firm, with sales common to prime Fultz at 1 16a$1 17, and fair to prime long-berry at 1 18a$1 23. No. 1 Maryland red sold at $1 20½. The demand for Southern Corn is active and the market firm, with sales at 53a55 cents for new white, and 51a53 cts. for new yellow. The market for Western is dull and easier.

Attempted Incendiarism.—An attempt was made, on Saturday the 6th instant, to burn the public school house near Chestertown, in Quaker Neck. A fire was kindled in the centre of the room. The brooms were burned up, and several books were also burned or stolen, as well as slate pencils, pen holders and other articles. A gentleman passing by saw smoke issuing from cracks in the windows and doors, and succeeded in extinguishing the fire before much damage was done. A similar attempt to burn this building was made some two years ago. It is hoped that the guilty party may be found out and punished to the fullest extent of the law.—News.

Grand Torchlight Procession.—If "Uncle Jim Garfield" had have been in Chestertown last Tuesday night, he would doubtless have felt puffed up. "His cheek would have glowed and his bosom have heaved," to see the immense demonstration made in his honor. Our Republican fellow-citizens held a torchlight procession on that evening in honor of "Uncle Jim's" election. The procession of course was an immense triumph for the Republicans. We heard one young man remark that he timed it, and that it took it nine hours to pass a given point. The local reporter did not time the procession, but he thinks the young man's estimate must have been correct, because by actual count there were nineteen Chinese lanterns, four transparencies and a brass band, and it must of course have taken this immense throng well on to nine hours to pass a given point. One of the transparencies had on its side, "Uncle Jim Garfield" is our next President, and on the end was a highly artistic picture of "Uncle Jim," executed in charcoal. Another transparency had for its motto, "Ours is the victory." This was carried by an enthusiastic colored gentleman, who perhaps expects to be Secretary of State when "Uncle Jim" appoints his Cabinet. The local reporter tried to fix all four of the transparencies in his mind, but he is sorry to say that he has forgotten the mottoes of the other two. If the procession had have been a small affair, carrying only one or two mottoes, he might have been able to remember all of them. But it must be remembered that this was no one transparency turnout. There were four transparencies, nineteen Chinese lanterns, and a brass band. The enthusiasm was very great. Sometimes there were as many as four people hurrahing at one time. The local did not notice any white Republicans in line. Why was this thus?

Put Your Name to It.—Some of our friends occasionally send us locals on postal cards. We are much obliged for these, and had just as leave have them on postal cards, as on the most highly pinked and perfumed paper. But our friends sometimes forget to put their names to the postals. We hope, hereafter, that they will not forget to plank down their names. We promise to keep the aforesaid names locked up in our most inner consciousness. They shall be with us a dark and hidden secret. When we die the secret shall be buried with us, and the world shall never know it. We make this desperate sort of a promise on condition that our friends do not write anything for which we shall be cowhided, put in jail, or hung; and on the further condition that it is their desire that their names shall be kept secret.

Going Away.—Rev. Father Bradford, who has for several years been in charge of the Church of the Sacred Heart, in this town, and under whose auspices the church was built, expects to leave shortly to take charge of the Catholic church of Dover, Del. Father Bradford has done much toward establishing the Catholic Church in Kent county. In addition to building the handsome church in Chestertown, he has built a chapel and collected a congregation at Rock Hall, and also built up a congregation at Church Hill in Queen Anne's county, where the Catholics now own a comfortable chapel. He is much beloved by his church denomination in Kent, and has also made many warm friends outside, by his genial manners. He will still retain charge of St. Dennis' church, in the upper part of this county, near Galena. Rev. Father Carey will take his place at Chestertown.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, Nov. 16, 1880.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

James A. Pearce, administrator of George A. Hanson, filed an account of sales of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

B. F. H. Caulk, executor of Richard A. Frazier, returned his 6th and final administration account which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

B. F. H. Caulk, executor of Hannah E. Frazier, returned his 2d and final administration account which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

E. M. Wilkins and R. S. Emory, administrators of Edward Wilkins, returned their 4th administration account which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

R. Hynson and Geo. W. Jacoby, administrators of Jas. T. Pennington, filed a list of debts due said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

LETTER FROM WORTON.

The election is over and we are defeated again: we must not despair, but nerve ourselves for the next one. We passed one of our Worton schools on election day and saw a flag raised. We could not tell whether it was a Hancock or Garfield flag until we heard the children hurrahing for Hancock: we thought they had the right spirit.

There are a series of meetings being held at Lynch's by our pastor. We heard of two young ladies who carried pickles there to enjoy during the service; by-the-by, those young ladies must be very fond of pickles; we saw them eating some on board the "Chester," the night of the Baltimore illumination.

A young gentleman of Worton was fortunate enough a few days since, to kill a swan, and unfortunate enough to shoot one of the gentlemen whom he had invited to help eat it. We think with one of our neighbors that we will not go with him gunning.

Speaking of gunning, the young doctor of Worton and several more of our young friends were out on a gunning expedition last week, and remained all night at the house of a young bachelor near Fairlee. We have been told since that the doctor had to sleep on the floor, as the beds were so high he could not reach the top; but it seems that our young friend "Will" was equal to the emergency, as he generally is.

There is to be a wedding in Worton soon. We saw the happy bride-groom not long since. He had a far-away dreamy look in his eyes: we supposed he was looking forward to the near future.

Our friend Will —— informed us, not long since, of a young merchant from the "Heights," whose horse balked going up a hill who had to get out, unharness his horse and lead him up the hill and bring his carriage up afterward. Was that gentleman going to see the girls? If he was we fear he was late.

Now, Messrs. Editors, we will close this letter by saying that, with your permission, you will soon again hear from US.

Every Family, without Exception, in city, village, and country, will find it highly useful to constantly read the American Agriculturist. It abounds in plain, practical, reliable information, most valuable for in-door as well as out-door work and comfort, and its 800 to 1,000 original engravings in every volume are both pleasing and instructive. In this respect it is pre-eminent and stands alone, and it should have a place in every household, no matter how many other journals are taken. Its illustrated department for youth and children contains much information as well as amusement. Its humbug exposures are invaluable to all classes. The cost is very low, only $1.50 from now to the end of 1881, or four copies for $5. Single numbers, 15 cents. One specimen, 6 cts. Take our advice and subscribe now for volume 40 (1881.) Orange Judd Company, Publishers, 245 Broadway, New York.

The Leaders of Fashionable Dress and Low Prices.—C. N. Oehm & Son, proprietors of the largest one-price double Clothing House, Baltimore, now occupy two entire three-story buildings with their splendid stock of Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's Clothing. Having bought and manufactured their entire stock before the great advance of woolens, they are selling great bargains in every department for spring and summer wear, which none can afford to overlook. We feel it our duty to call the attention of our readers to this truly famous and reliable establishment, corner of Pratt and Hanover Sts. No one in need of clothing, ready-made or made to order, should fail to call on Oehm & Son and see the low prices at which the most choice and perfect fitting garments are selling.

RAMBO LIME.

LAST year I purchased from Nathan Rambo the Blue Quarry upon the lands devised to him by his father, the elder Nathan Rambo. It was out of this Quarry that the Limestone came which gave this Lime its high reputation.

This, and this only, is the

GENUINE RAMBO LIME.

I own ALL of the land on which this stone lies. This Quarry was discontinued only because a vein of earth cut off the face. I have cut through this and re-opened these Quarries upon the original stone which old Nathan Rambo quarried as long as he could find it.

WE CHALLENGE ALL TESTS.

Ohio Chilled Plow.

For lightness of draught, durability and superior work, this Plow cannot be equaled and has never been by any yet introduced; this may be considered by some a broad claim, but a trial will soon convince as to the correctness thereof. All who purchased of us last spring were so much pleased that they seem to delight in talking about them to their friends, and this fact alone has made for us a number of sales even this early in the season, hence it can be truly said that the OHIO CHILLED advertises and sells itself.

The following parties can furnish any information:

W. W. Stephens,	D. C. Blackiston,	Isaac Matthews,
Wm. Stewart,	Thos. P. Dixon,	W. G. Skirven,
G. S. Biddle,	Jas. T. Dixon,	Samuel Brown,

Bickford & Huffman's

Farmers' Favorite Grain Drills.

The PIONEER DRILL of AMERICA.

These Drills are so well known and in such universal use that it is not necessary to advertise its many points of superior merit, and we simpiy insert this more as a notice of the change of agents than as an advertisement of the Drill. Call and see us before purchasing.

Perry Spring Tooth Harrow.

Improvements in agricultural implements having finally reached the Harrow, we now present to our friends and patrons, claiming for it the great advantage of being both a time and labor-saving implement. Our neighbors of other States and counties of this State inform us that they are fast taking the place of the old solid tooth and from their representation and our own judgement, we firmly believe that ere long they will have entirely displaced all the old ones ever amongst us. Try one and judge for yourselves.

MANUFACTURED BY

KENNARD & CO.

THE late crops where the above were used are the strongest possible testimonials, and it is with pleasure we can say that our goods have equalled, and in may cases, surpassed any article in the market, and along side the old standard brands they have been proven to be of the most superior quality.

The low price at which we sell is alone attributable to the fact that we pay no commission to agents, and are satisfied with a close margin ourselves.

Our Factory is always open to the farmers, and a cordial invitation is extended them to visit us there and inspect for themselves.

We also carry a full line of chemicals which with any special mixture desired we will furnish at Baltimore prices.

We might insert numerous testimonials, but prefer to hold them at our office subject to the perusal of all, and simply add the names of a few who have used our goods and to whom we respectfully refer as to their merits:
