Chestertown Transcript.
THURSDAY, DEC. 2, 1880.

Yates & Co., the popular clothiers, have a new double-column advertisement elsewhere on this page. Read it.

Sale of a Farm.—The Biddle farm, situated near Urieville, containing 340 acres, has been sold by M. Bannon, trustee, to Mr. Abraham Hurlock for $14,500.

Hudgins, the well known Cross-street Baker and Confectioner, occupies considerable space in our columns this week, advertising his Christmas stock. Wash. says he gives his patrons a free concert and a ride on the elevated railroad.

Removed.—Kennard & Co., manufacturers of fertilizers, have removed their office from the building nearly opposite the Voshell House, to the Masonic Hall brick building in the corner of the Court House yard, near C. F. Stam's drug store.

Sale of Valuable Real Estate.—Elsewhere will be found advertised the large farm on Chester river, in Queen Anne's county, near Chestertown, belonging to the estate of the late Judge E. F. Chambers, containing in all over 618 acres of land.

Opposite the Post Office.—We call attention to the advertisement of Mrs. Slingerland, fashionable dress-maker and milliner, who announces that after to-morrow, the 3d instant, she will be found in new quarters,—the commodious store-room opposite the post office.

Sales to Come Off.—The sale of the large personalty of Capt. Wm. I. Rasin, takes place to-day on his farm near Tolchester.

W. N. E. Wickes, as administrator, will sell the personal property of John W. Redgrave, deceased, on premises adjoining Black's Station, on next Wednesday, the 8th instant.

Baltimore Grain Market.—From the Sun of Tuesday, we make the following quotations:—

Southern Wheat was in fair demand only, and prices are rather lower, closing dull. Sales range from $1 12 to $1 18 for common to prime Fultz, and 1 20a$1 28 for long-berry. Cargoes of Southern Corn were in demand at full prices, but steamboat lots were dull and heavy; sales of wheat at 50a54 cts. for damp and up-town lots, and 57 cents for dry cargoes, and of yellow at 55 cents for dry.

Death of Commissioner Lucas.—Mr. William V. Lucas, County Commissioner from the third election district, died at his home in Smithville on Thursday evening of last week, after a lingering illness of typhoid-pneumonia. Mr. Lucas was a man of generous impulses, and was highly respected throughout the county. He was first elected County Commissioner in 1875, and was afterward re-elected two successive terms, 1877 and 1879. He was faithful in the discharge of his duties as a Commissioner, and had the entire confidence of the people of the county. He was in the 61st year of his age at the time of his death. He leaves a widow, but no children.

Vennor's Predictions for December.—Vennor has made weather predictions for December, as follows: "December will, in all probability, open with little snow, but the weather will be cloudy, threatening snow falls. There will probably be some snow from about the 4th of the month. With the second quarter of the month colder weather will probably set in with falls of snow, but good sleighing need not be expected until after the middle of the month. There will be a spell of mild weather about the 13th and 14th. After a brief interval of mild weather, during which more snow will fall, the third quarter of the month will probably see blustering and cold weather. The last quarter of the month will bring milder weather, but will terminate probably with heavy snow falls and stormy weather; in fact the heaviest snow falls will be toward the end of the month, and snow blockades may be looked for, the snow falls extending to the southward, possibly as far as Washington, with very stormy weather around New York and Boston."

State School Commissioners.—The annual meeting of the State Board of School Commissioners was held in Baltimore on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week. Kent county was represented by examiner E. F. Perkins, and by school commissioner C. J. Scott. Prof. Newell, from the Committee on Business, submitted a statement showing the condition and progress of the Public Schools. There has been an increase in the number of schools, teachers and pupils. In the expenditures there has been a small decrease in the total expenditures, principally in the items of building, books, stationery, supervision and incidentals. A resolution was adopted asking an expression of opinion from the State Board of Education on the following points: First—Does it require thirty days' notice to discharge an assistant teacher? Second—Is the day of holding general election a legal school holiday? The consideration of the amount due the Free School Fund was postponed until next annual meeting. The report of the Discretionary Committee in regard to over $300,000 due the schools of the State, and for which a judgment was entered against Comptroller Woolford some time ago, was considered and the subject dropped. On Wednesday the State Board of Education answered the above questions, deciding that election day was only a legal holiday in discretion of County Boards, and that permanent or regular assistant teachers must be given the same notice of dismissal as principals, but not when employed by special contract, and that it would be well for Commissioners, when an assistant teacher is only required for a short term, to make a special contract.

James W. Thompson, of Queen Anne's county, was elected president for the ensuing year.

German Carp Planting.—We notice from our peninsular exchanges that many in the various counties are availing themselves of the offer of forty carp by Fish Commissioner Ferguson, for stocking ponds and lakes with this variety of fish. We received from the Maryland Fish Commission a short time ago a letter in reference to the distribution of the German carp, which we did not publish, because we had published the facts set forth in the letter but a short time before. We, however, call the attention of those of our readers who may have ponds, again to the matter. It is said of the German carp that it will thrive in any sort of a pond, whether large or small, that will hold water all the year around, and that when full grown the fish attains a weight of from five to ten pounds. To those who have never-failing ponds, the experiment of raising carp will at least not prove costly, even though it should prove not practicable. Mr. Ferguson's address is Maryland Fish Commission, 1327 M. street, Washington, D. C. The only cost of the forty fish will be the cost of express charges and other expenses attending their delivery, amounting in all to $2. This $2 will be collected by the express agent on delivery of fish. They will be sent in cans, and are to be transferred to some other vessel at the express office, the cans being returned to the Commission. Fish can be ordered to be delivered by express at the Chestertown express office or at any other express office on the Kent road, and the $2 charged will be collected on delivery.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, Nov. 30, 1880.—Present, Judges Shallcross and Willson.

On application, James M. Vandyke was appointed guardian to his minor children, Olevia W., Walter J., Ida P. and Cora V. Vandyke, who filed his bond in the sum of $100, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

R. Hynson and G. W. Jacoby, administrators of Jas. T. Pennington, deceased, returned their account of sale of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Mrs. S. A. Handy, surviving administratrix of Geo. D. S. Handy, deceased, returned her fourth and final account which was examined, passed as stated and ordered to be recorded.

LITERARY REVIEW.

Scribner's Monthly for December is an admirable number. It opens with the first of a series of papers entitled "Glimpses of Parisian Art," illustrated with original sketches by noted Parisian artists. An article on Sheridan's comedy of "The Rivals," offers an opportunity for a couple of excellent sketches, one being of Mrs. John Drew as Mrs. Malaprop; the other of Joseph Jefferson as Bob Acres. Mr. Eugene Schuyler's "Peter the Great" is continued, and is as profusely illustrated as were the previous numbers. Another finely illustrated article tells of "Hunting the Honey Bee." And still another sketches "Montenegro as We Saw It," and through which we get a fresh glimpse of that indomitable little principality of fierce mountaineers. An ex-conjurer continues his exposure of the most famous conjuring tricks of modern times, letting the reader into the secrets of the "Indian box mystery," "the spiritual bench," "the inexhaustible bottle" and "marabout mocha," and Kate Field contributes a sketch of Mr. Archibald Forbes, the famous English war correspondent, now lecturing in this country.

Eclectic Magazine.—The December number of the Eclectic is at hand, and is embellished with an excellent steel-engraved portrait of Mr. Thomas Hughes, whose recent visit among us in the interest of his colony has attracted so much attention. The table of contents this month is remarkably varied and interesting, embracing about twenty papers, besides the Editorial departments. They are as follows: "A Century of English Poetry," by Algernon Charles Swinburne; "Wapiti-running on the Plains," by the Earl of Dunraven; "The Roof of the World," a record of travel in Central Asia; "Lois: A Sketch," one of the celebrated Blackwood stories; "Lux in Tenebris," a poem; "The Unity of Nature; II. Man's Place in the Unity of Nature," by the Duke of Argyll; "Literature as a Profession: A Fragment of Autobiography by a successful author;" "Demoniacal Possession in India," by F. Knighton; "The Dilettant," imitated from the Fables of Gellert by Austin Dobson; the concluding chapters of "White Wings: A Yachting Romance," by William Black; "Foreign Orders;" "The Archaic Ages: A Geological Sketch," by Rev. Wm. Downes, M. A.; "Memory," a most suggestive essay; "Inverawe and Ticonderoga," by Dean Stanley; "A Large Crater," by Prof. John Milne, F. G. S.; "Two Beggars A Sketch from Life," by John Dangerfield; "Poetic Parallels;" "Separation," from the German of Ruckert; and a biographical sketch of Thomas Hughes by the Editor. The Editorial Departments are full of interesting matter, and comprise Literary Notices, Foreign Literary Notes, Science and Art, and Varieties.

Published by E. R. Pelton, 25 Bond street, New York. Terms, $5 per year; single copy, 45 cts.; Trial subscription for three months, $1.

The Leaders of Fashionable Dress and Low Prices.—C. N. Oehm & Son, proprietors of the largest one-price double Clothing House, Baltimore, now occupy two entire three-story buildings with their splendid stock of Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's Clothing. Having bought and manufactured their entire stock before the great advance of woolens, they are selling great bargains in every department for spring and summer wear, which none can afford to overlook. We feel it our duty to call the attention of our readers to this truly famous and reliable establishment, corner of Pratt and Hanover Sts. No one in need of clothing, ready-made or made to order, should fail to call on Oehm & Son and see the low prices at which the most choice and perfect fitting garments are selling.

RAMBO LIME.

LAST year I purchased from Nathan Rambo the Blue Quarry upon the lands devised to him by his father, the elder Nathan Rambo. It was out of this Quarry that the Limestone came which gave this Lime its high reputation.

This, and this only, is the GENUINE RAMBO LIME.

I own ALL of the land on which this stone lies. This Quarry was discontinued only because a vein of earth cut off the face. I have cut through this and re-opened these Quarries upon the original stone which old Nathan Rambo quarried as long as he could find it.

WE CHALLENGE ALL TESTS.

R. McCOY & CO.

Robert McCoy bought of me my Blue Quarry—I have seen it since he re-opened it, and am satisfied that he works on the blue stone worked by my father in his lifetime.

This Lime will be shipped by railroad or water to all stations and landings in Maryland and Delaware. For Prices and Terms apply to

THE late crops where the above were used are the strongest possible testimonials, and it is with pleasure we can say that our goods have equalled, and in may cases, surpassed any article in the market, and along side the old standard brands they have been proven to be of the most superior quality.

The low price at which we sell is alone attributable to the fact that we pay no commission to agents, and are satisfied with a close margin ourselves.

Our Factory is always open to the farmers, and a cordial invitation is extended them to visit us there and inspect for themselves.

We also carry a full line of chemicals which with any special mixture desired we will furnish at Baltimore prices.

We might insert numerous testimonials, but prefer to hold them at our office subject to the perusal of all, and simply add the names of a few who have used our goods and to whom we respectfully refer as to their merits:

VOSHELL HOUSE.

THE UNDERSIGNED takes this method of tendering his heartfelt thanks to his old friends and the public generally for the liberal support and sympathy so generously extend to him under the recent adverse circumstances by which he has been surrounded, and takes great pleasure in informing them that the house, in a few days, will be in first-class condition, the repairs and improvements thereto being made under his own supervision.

THE STABLING,

which is commodious and in excellent condition, is now under his control, and those entrusting their horses and carriages to his care may rest assured that they will be faithfully attended to by trusty and experienced hostlers.

THE TABLE,

as heretofore, will always be found supplied with substantials and delicacies of the season, and will be under the experienced management of his wife, who will see that no pains are spared to make it, in every respect, first-class.

With the fixed purpose of leaving nothing undone on my part which will conduce to the comfort of my guests, I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public.
