The Needy.—If the whole of this winter is to be judged by the first part of it, it will be cold and severe. Those who have warm fires and plenty to eat, should not forget that there are those who may suffer from cold and hunger.

C. F. Stam advertises a large lot of holiday goods. His stock of silver-plated wares is larger than it has ever been before. He has also a large variety of perfumeries and fancy articles. He has books beautifully bound, and surprisingly cheap.

Four Dwellings have recently been erected at Worton Station, making quite an improvement and, in connection with the dwellings previously erected and the Fair Ground buildings, gives Worton Station the appearance of a flourishing and neat little village.

The Observer, of Centreville, says of itself in a head-line, that it is PURE AND CHASED. It is ofttimes thus in this sinful world, Bro. Busteed, it is ofttimes thus,—the pure are ofttimes chased. But bear up in your affliction and remember this,—that though ofttimes chased the pure are rarely cotch.

Hand Cut Off.—A colored man living with Mr. Wm. H. Stewart, while feeding a cornsheller yesterday morning, got his hand caught in the machinery and crushed asunder between the fingers and the wrist. He was brought to Chestertown, and Drs. Meeteer and Perkins rendered surgical aid.

Fair.—The ladies of the Methodist Episcopal church, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, intend holding a Fair in the Town Hall, on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, Dec'r. 21st, 22d and 23d. One of the most attractive and enjoyable features of the occasion will be the elegant suppers to be served every evening.

Sale of Valuable Real Estate.—Next Wednesday, the 22d inst., is the day for the sale of the valuable farm belonging to the estate of the late Judge Chambers. This tract of land, comprising over 600 acres, is one of the most desirable properties on the peninsula. The sale is to take place on the premises. Read the advertisement elsewhere.

Baltimore Grain Market.—From the Sun of Tuesday, we make the following quotations:—Southern Wheat is in good demand, and choice samples readily fetch good prices; sales range from 1 14a$1 20 for fair to prime Fultz, and 1 18a$1 20 for long-berry. The inquiry for Southern Corn is good and the market firm, all dry samples selling freely at 55 cents for both white and yellow.

New Advertisements.—B. R. Hillman advertises a mark-down in clothing at his popular clothing house, 166 W. Baltimore street.

H. A. Sparks advertises a large assortment of fancy wares, toys, fruits, confectioneries and other Christmas goods, at his stand opposite the Court House.

J. K. Aldridge advertises a large assortment of sleigh bells, ladies' gents and boys' skates.

More Hogs.—From around about Chesterville the following porkers are reported: Richard M. Bryan killed nine hogs averaging 296 lbs.; Walter M. Hurlock killed sixteen hogs averaging 300 lbs.; J. G. Edwards had one porker which weighed 420 lbs.; John Schwatka one which weighed 432 lbs.

Mr. C. W. Spry has erected a neat dwelling at Spry's wharf, on Chester river. It is to be occupied by Capt. P. Brinsfield.

Broke Through the Ice and Drowned.—A fisherman and trapper, by name of Applegate, had a fishing shanty on what is known as Woodlin's Island, located in Spencer's creek, in the upper part of this county. On last Thursday he attempted to cross the creek on the ice, from Mr. Benjamin P. Morgan's to his house on the island. Before he got over the ice gave way with him. He cried loudly for help, and Mr. Morgan heard his cries and hastened to his assistance, but before he could reach him he had gone entirely under. The body was found next day. 'Squire Miller, of Galena, was notified of the occurrence, but after hearing the facts he did not consider it necessary to hold an inquest. The body was buried near the creek shore, on Old Field Point.

A Fatal Accident.—On Wednesday of last week Mrs. Sallie Ellis, wife of James Ellis, together with her boy twelve or thirteen years old, was returning with a grist in a dearborn from Sparks' mill. While they were coming down Sandy Hook Hill, the horse took fright and ran. In crossing the stream at the foot of the hill, the dearborn struck the foot-walk, and turned over in the branch, throwing both Mrs. Ellis and her son out. The boy was but slightly hurt, but Mrs. Ellis was thrown over the stream a distance of fifteen feet, sustaining injuries which proved fatal. She was taken to the house of Thomas McIntyre and medical aid summoned, but she died between nine and ten o'clock the same evening. She leaves a family of six or seven children, of whom she was the main support.

The Clients's Oath.—The Centreville Observer says that the following document was thrown out among old papers when the new Court House was being built in Centreville, and was picked up by the boys and sold to the rag-man; it was taken to the paper mills at Antietam, from whence it found its way into the newspapers. The document dates well back into Colonial days, and was sworn to before the Kent County Court. Its insinuations would seem to be a little rough on Colonial lawyers:

"THE CLIENT'S OATH, AND THE JUSTICE'S CERTIFICATE.—I, Elizabeth Watson, Do Swear that I have not caused to be given or paid, nor will wittingly or designedly give, cause to be given or pay, either directly or indirectly, unto my Attorney or Attorneys, Counsellors or Advisers in the Cause now depending in Queen Anne's County Court, between myself and Edward Colgan or to any other Person whatsoever, for the Use of my said Attorney or Attorneys, Counsellors or Advisers, any other or larger Fee or Fees, Gratuity or Reward, either for Advice in the said Action, or any other Service therefor relating, than they are allowed to take, by an ACT of Assembly, Entitled, An Act to restrain the evil Practices of Attorneys, and to prevent their taking Money Fees, and to ascertain what Fees shall be allowed to Practitioners in the Law, who shall attend the Circuit Courts, according to the best of my Knowledge. So help me God.

Sworn to this 12th day of February, Anno Dom. 1729, before Me, the subscriber, one of His Lordship's Justices of Kent County Court.
C. HYNSON, J. P."

A Great Paper.—We desire to call the attention of our readers to one of the greatest newspapers of the age—one that secures the best writers in this country and Europe, regardless of expense; has the best and fullest book reviews of any paper in the country; has able articles upon financial subjects; has departments devoted to Fine Arts, Biblical Research (something that cannot be found in any other newspaper in the United States), Farm and Garden, Insurance, Weekly Market Reports, Cattle Market, Prices Current, Dry Goods Quotations, etc.—in fact, a newspaper fully suited to the requirements of every family, containing a fund of information which cannot be had in any other shape, and having a wide circulation all over this country and in Europe. We refer to The Independent, of New York. "The largest, the ablest, the best." See advertisement, in another column, and send for specimen copy.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, Dec'r. 14, 1880.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

By request of Mary Powderly, admr'x. of James Powderly, her letters of administration on the estate of said deceased were revoked, and letters on the same were granted unto B. F. H. Caulk, executor appointed by the will of said deceased.

George T. Williams, one of the administrators of William V. Lucas, returned the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

E. M. Wilkins and Robert S. Emory, admrs. of Edward Wilkins, filed their releases from E. M. Wilkins, B. N. S. Wilkins, S. M. Wilkins, James Russell, Olivia Russell and Maria W. Russell; and Wm. N. E. Wickes, guardian to Frank Wilkins, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Thomas J. Vickers, admr. of Francis T. Maslin, returned inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

A SAD DROWNING.—LOUIS C. PERKINS WHILE SKATING ON WHALAND'S MILL POND, GOES THROUGH AN AIR-HOLE.

On last Sunday morning, Hiram Dugan, John R. Grammar and Louis C. Perkins, three of the young men employed by George E. Lambert at his carriage factory, walked out to Whaland's millpond for the purpose of skating. They arrived at the pond at about half-past eight o'clock. When Grammar attempted to put his skates on he found there was something the matter with one of them, so that he could not use it. He remarked to Dugan and Perkins that he should not remain, as he could not skate, and asked them if they would not go back with him. Dugan concluded to return, but Perkins said that he should remain till the crowd came. Grammar and Dugan stayed with him till he had fastened on his skates, and then left him to return to town. After they left there was no one else on the pond beside Perkins. The pond is about one mile from Chestertown. On their way in Grammar and Dugan met others going to the pond. These arrived at the pond at about nine o'clock, and remained there for some time, but saw nothing of Perkins. No uneasiness was felt when the young man did not make his appearance at dinner, but when as late as four o'clock in the afternoon he had not returned, Mr. Lambert began to make some inquiries, and he learned that Perkins had not changed his clothes that day. When he further learned that he had been left alone on the millpond that morning, it flashed into his mind that he may have broken through the ice. On inquiring around the town he learned that Boyer Lusby had found an overcoat on the bank of the millpond. On examination the coat proved to have belonged to Louis C. Perkins. A party was collected and went to the millpond for the purpose of making a search. About one quarter of a mile around the pond they found an air-hole, about fifteen yards long and five yards wide. Messrs. W. C. A. Thompson, John Stratner and Robert Boston procured a boat and dragged it on the ice to the hole. They then got in and began the search with a boat-hook. After searching awhile something dark was noticed on the surface of the water. This was drawn in, and proved to be the hat of Perkins. Almost immediately afterward his body was hooked and drawn to the surface. His head was thrown back and his arms were stiff in an upright position, as though he had been struggling to escape from the water. His skates were still on. The hole was not far from where his overcoat was found, and it is believed that he had not been on his skates ten minutes before he went through. The water where he went in was about seven feet deep. There were many skaters on the pond during the day, some of whom must have arrived very shortly after the young man met with his ill fate. During the afternoon, a dog belonging to one of the skaters got into this same hole and came near being drowned before he could be got out. It is strange that the hat of the drowned man was not noticed at this time. The body when drawn up was taken to the shore of the pond, and coroner Bordley was notified. He summoned a jury and held an inquest. The verdict of the jury was that Louis C. Perkins came to his death by accidental drowning. The jurymen were Samuel L. Rawleigh, William C. A. Thompson, John Stratner, Samuel H. McGee, William S. Pennell, Robert N. Boston, James Gore, James Dugan, Thomas H. Whaland, jr., Benjamin Coleman, George Faulkner, Alonzo Vandyke. The following witnesses were examined: John R. Grammar, Hiram Dugan, Boyer Lusby.

The young man was about nineteen years of age. He had been in the employ of Mr. Lambert as an apprentice, only since last March. Mr. Lambert speaks of him as having been a young man of good character, obliging in his disposition and attentive to his duties. His only near relative is a sister who resides near Chesterville. Before coming with Mr. Lambert, he was in the employ of Mr. William Hurlock, residing in Queen Anne's county, near Church Hill.

Some Big Corn.—Mr. William Ford has left with us three years of corn that challenge competition. The longest ear measured fourteen inches. Two of the ears measured nine and one-half inches in circumference. They bore respectively 960, 1400 and 1596 grains. Of the ear that had 960 grains, the grains were uncommonly large. A mouse had scooped out the cob of one of the ears, and built himself a comfortable home. He evidently expected to spend a luxurious winter, dining at pleasure upon the roof of his house.

LETTER FROM WORTON.

HOG KILLING—GUNNING—HANDSOME DWELLING ERECTED BY A YOUNG BACH—ROUGH VOYAGE TO BALTIMORE—REMOVALS, ETC.

Hog-killing season, so much dreaded, as well it may be, by farmers' wives, is pretty well over, and, though we are not in the South East part of Europe, around us has been "Grease, that is living grease no more."

Our young friend W. R. G. was up the Sassafras a few days ago on a gunning expedition. He did not, I guess, "waste ammunition on dead ducks," or altogether on living, as he returned with some very fine ones.

A young bachelor in this neighborhood has had erected a handsome dwelling, and rumor says he is going to comply with that Scriptural injunction "'tis not good for man to be alone."

Captains Bacon and Biggs started out of Worton creek, bound for Baltimore, last Wednesday, I believe, but soon found themselves bound thirty miles from there with a (n)ice prospect before them.

And now they want to pension Gen. Grant. Let Conkling, Childs & Co. build him a grand almshouse, ready furnished, not forgetting wines and cigars. The slaughtered heap of soldiers that lie from the Rapidan to Appomattox Court House thrust greatness on him, whilst he, like Job's horse, "smelt the battle from afar."

As Mr. A. L. Vannort offers his store for rent I presume Mr. Strong leaves for some other part of our moral vineyard.

Much regret is expressed that those skilled mechanics and useful citizens, Messrs. O'Meara & Henry, will leave the "Heights" at Christmas, for Bakerville. Contradictory as it may seem 'tis nevertheless true, that "nothing is constant but change."

A very able article, Our Common Schools, by Chas. F. Adams, jr., copied from Harper's Magazine in the "Teacher," should be read by teachers and all others connected with public schools.
Yours, ANON.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

THE COLD SNAP—NAVIGATION—ICE HARVEST—FARM WORK—WEDDINGS—RECOVERING FROM HIS WOUND—DEATHS—GOOD SHOOTING—REMOVALS—STILL POND IMPROVEMENTS, ETC., ETC.

Last Saturday morning the mercury was down to 10; this morning it is 32. It is probable we will have another cold snap in a few days. On the dark of this moon it is probable we will have plenty of snow or rain.

It is likely navigation in the upper part of the Chesapeake will be resumed by Wednesday, unless the weather gets colder. One high tide will break the blockade.

A number of farmers were harvesting ice on Saturday. L. C. Justis filled his house with three-inch ice.

There is a great deal of corn to husk and some wheat to thresh yet. Most farmers are behind with their work. Hog-killing is about half through with.

After two rainy Sundays the churches were well attended yesterday.

Weddings are all the go. Two have already come off, and there are to be two more before Christmas. While people are being buried in other parts of the county, they are getting married here. The cold weather has reminded folks that it is not good to dwell alone.

Dr. J. B. Merritt is rapidly recovering, and will be able to resume his professional duties in about four weeks.

James Rambow, a worthy citizen of Kennedyville, died yesterday.

Mrs. Bradly, an estimable lady of Kennedyville, died yesterday of Phthisis.

James Crew, of Betterton, has been killing fifteen to twenty canvas-back ducks (previous to the freeze) per day.

George T. Neale, merchant at Price's Corner, has moved to Cecil. Mr. Seney takes his place. George Cacey takes the store at Betterton.

William Thompson has built himself a house in Still Pond.

N. T. Hynson goes to farming on the Raymond farm.

Our two "John's" say they have matrimony in their heads and it is likely they will splice by the first of the year.

It looks as if the county was going to lose several of its best school-teachers. Somebody had better mind or somebody will get fooled

The Leaders of Fashionable Dress and Low Prices.—C. N. OEHM & SON, proprietors of the largest one-price double Clothing House, Baltimore, now occupy two entire three-story buildings with their splendid stock of Men's, Youth's, Boy's and Children's Clothing. Having bought and manufactured their entire stock before the great advance of woolens, they are selling great bargains in every department for spring and summer wear, which none can afford to overlook. We feel it our duty to call the attention of our readers to this truly famous and reliable establishment, corner of Pratt and Hanover Sts. No one in need of clothing, ready-made or made to order, should fail to call on OEHM & SON and see the low prices at which the most choice and perfect fitting garments are selling.

A little girl was teaching her brother the Lord's Prayer the other night, and when she had said, "Give us this day our daily bread" he suddenly called out, Pray for taffy, sister, pray for taffy too; and she said you forget that I am going to give you some of SINES' TAR, WILD CHERRY AND HOARHOUND for your cold, which is a great deal better than taffy.

Where are your Crutches, Uncle? Here they are—showing John a bottle of M. B. ROBERT'S EMBROCATION. You don't say that three quarters of a bottle of EMBROCATION has relieved you of your Rheumatism, so you can walk without your crutches? I do, and thank a kind Providence for leading me to read that advertisement in the paper last week.

THE INDEPENDENT.

"The foremost religious newspaper of the United States."—JOSEPH COOK.

THE INDEPENDENT seeks the patronage of the public on these grounds, as follows:

1st. It is the largest weekly religious newspaper published in the world.

2d. It employs as contributors more able writers, at home and abroad, than any other weekly newspaper.

3d. It gives its readers a wider range of topics and more and fuller departments than they can find elsewhere in any journal.

THE INDEPENDENT consists of 32 pages, neatly cut and pasted. It is printed from clear type (we stereotype the pages weekly, and hence, every issue is really printed with the new type) and on good paper, and mechanically it is unexcelled.

There is no question of prominence in religion, politics, science, education, finance, or any other department of human knowledge which THE INDEPENDENT does not discuss. It has regular departments devoted to Biblical Research, Missions, Religious intelligence, Book Reviews and Literary News, and Sunday school, Education, Science, Sanitary questions, Fine Arts, the movements of ministers, Personalities, News of the Week, Financial and Commercial matters, including Weekly Prices Current, Market Reports, Cattle Market, Dry Goods Quotations, Flowers and Farming, and Insurance. In its religious department it gives news and statistics of all denominations of Christians, everywhere. In fullness, accuracy, and comprehensiveness this department is unequaled. Several pages of stories and poems adapted to Old and Young are given every week, with a column of Puzzles.

From time to time Sermons by eminent ministers are published. The current topics of the day are discussed in our editorial columns freely and vigorously. We are not afraid to state our opinions.

Eclectic Magazine

OF

Foreign Literature, Science and Art,

ENLARGED and IMPROVED.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals, and the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted in the articles presented. Its plan includes Science, Essays, Reviews, Sketches, Travels, Poetry, Novels, Short Stories etc., etc.

With the number for January, 1881, the ECLECTIC MAGAZINE will be enlarged to such an extent as will give about

Two Hundred Pages additional reading-matter during the year.

This increase of space will afford the opportunity not merely for an increased quantity but for a much greater variety of reading-matter; and the publisher confidently promises that the opportunity shall be so utilized that the ECLECTIC will be more valuable, more readable, and more satisfactory than ever before. The same pains will be taken as hitherto to exclude articles which are trivial in character, or of merely transient interest; but larger space will be assigned to articles of a popular and entertaining cast, and with ample materials of the best quality at command, the ECLECTIC will be made the ideal Family Magazine.

The following list of contributors to the periodicals from which the ECLECTIC is selected will give some idea of the value of its contents: Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Alfred Tennyson, Professor Huxley, Professor Tyndall, Richard A. Proctor, B.A., J. Norman Lockyer, F.R.S., Dr. W. B. Carpenter, E. B. Tylor, Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Owen, Matthew Arnold, E. A. Freeman, D.C.L., James Anthony Froude, Thomas Hughes, Anthony Trollope, Wm. Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, etc.

The English periodicals are the great storehouse from which are drawn many of the best and most popular books of the time. The ECLECTIC reprints this material fresh from the authors' hands, and at a price far lower than its costs in book-form.

Terms: Single copies, 45 cents: one copy, one year, $5; five copies, $20. Trial subscription for three months, $1. The ECLECTIC and any $4 magazine to one address, $8. Postage free to all subscribers.

The Sun for 1881.

Everybody reads THE SUN. The editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:

I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The Sun long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.

II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning The Sun prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.

III. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Honest comment. The Sun's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.

VI. Absolute independence of partisan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is a good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power.

Our terms are as follows:

For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

RAMBO LIME.

LAST year I purchased from Nathan Rambo the Blue Quarry upon the lands devised to him by his father, the elder Nathan Rambo. It was out of this Quarry that the Limestone came which gave this Lime its high reputation.

This, and this only, is the GENUINE RAMBO LIME.

I own ALL of the land on which this stone lies. This Quarry was discontinued only because a vein of earth cut off the face. I have cut through this and re-opened these Quarries upon the original stone which old Nathan Rambo quarried as long as he could find it.

WE CHALLENGE ALL TESTS.

R. McCOY & CO.

Robert McCoy bought of me my Blue Quarry—I have seen it since he re-opened it, and am satisfied that he works on the blue stone worked by my father in his lifetime.

NATHAN RAMBO.

This Lime will be shipped by railroad or water to all stations and landings in Maryland and Delaware. For Prices and Terms apply to Schuylkill Lime a Specialty.

Mr. B. F. Fleming: I used Mogee's Schuylkill Lime on corn last spring. It slacked more to the bushel, acted quicker, and gave me the best satisfaction of any Lime I have ever used.
GEORGE H. SNITCHER.

Mr. B. F. Fleming: We have used Mogee's Lime for three successive seasons. It slacks more, contains less core, acts quicker, and we believe it is the best Lime in the market.

A CARD.

MISS R. W. WATKINS respectfully informs her friends and the public generally, that she is prepared to give Music Lessons on the PIANO or ORGAN, and flatters herself that she will be able to give satisfaction to those who may favor her with their patronage. Pupils instructed at her residence, or, if desired, at their homes. Terms moderate.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21, 1879.

It gives me great pleasure to recommend Miss ROBINA WATKINS to my former pupils as Teacher of Music. I consider her highly qualified to give instruction on Piano and Organ, and am confident that she will give satisfaction to those who may employ her.

Ohio Chilled Plow.

For lightness of draught, durability and superior work, this Plow cannot be equaled and has never been by any yet introduced; this may be considered by some a broad claim, but a trial will soon convince as to the correctness thereof. All who purchased of us last spring were so much pleased that they seem to delight in talking about them to their friends, and this fact alone has made for us a number of sales even this early in the season, hence it can be truly said that the OHIO CHILLED advertises and sells itself.

Farmers' Favorite Grain Drills.

The PIONEER DRILL of AMERICA.

These Drills are so well known and in such universal use that it is not necessary to advertise its many points of superior merit, and we simply insert this more as a notice of the change of agents than as an advertisement of the Drill. Call and see us before purchasing.

Perry Spring Tooth Harrow.

Improvements in agricultural implements having finally reached the Harrow, we now present to our friends and patrons, claiming for it the great advantage of being both a time and labor-saving implement. Our neighbors of other States and counties of this State inform us that they are fast taking the place of the old solid tooth and from their representation and our own judgement, we firmly believe that ere long they will have entirely displaced all the old ones ever amongst us. Try one and judge for yourselves.

—:O:—

THE late crops where the above were used are the strongest possible testimonials, and it is with pleasure we can say that our goods have equalled, and in may cases, surpassed any article in the market, and along side the old standard brands they have been proven to be of the most superior quality.

The low price at which we sell is alone attributable to the fact that we pay no commission to agents, and are satisfied with a close margin ourselves.

Our Factory is always open to the farmers, and a cordial invitation is extended them to visit us there and inspect for themselves.

We also carry a full line of chemicals which with any special mixture desired we will furnish at Baltimore prices.

We might insert numerous testimonials, but prefer to hold them at our office subject to the perusal of all, and simply add the names of a few who have used our goods and to whom we respectfully refer as to their merits:

The Scientific American.

The Scientific American is a large First-class Weekly Newspaper of sixteen pages, printed in the most beautiful style, profusely illustrated with splendid engravings, representing the newest inventions and the most recent advances in the arts and sciences; including new and interesting facts in Agriculture, Horticulture, the Home, Health, Medical Progress, Social Science, Natural History, Geology, Astronomy. The most valuable practical papers, by eminent writers in all departments of science, will be found in the Scientific American.

Terms, $3.20 per year, $1.60 half year, which includes postage. Discount to Agents. Single copies, ten cents. Sold by all Newsdealers. Remit by postal order to MUNN & CO., Publishers, 37 Park Row, New York.

PATENTS. In connection with the Scientific American, Messrs. Munn & Co. are Solicitors of American and Foreign Patents, have had 35 years experience, and now have the largest establishment in the world. Patents are obtained on the best terms. A special notice is made in the Scientific American of all inventions patented through this agency, with the name and residence of the Patentee. By the immense circulation thus given, public attention is directed to the merits of the new patent, and sales or introduction often easily effected.

Any person who has made a new discovery or invention, can ascertain, free of charge, whether a patent can probably be obtained, by writing to Munn & Co. We also send free our Hand Book about the Patent Laws, Patents, Caveats, Trade-Marks, their costs, and how procured, with hints for procuring advances on inventions.
