Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, MARCH 17, 1881.

Herrings are in market; shad are expected soon.

Eggs were eggs about six weeks ago. In those days it seemed that the hens were on a strike. But they have commenced business again, and some industrious hens are believed to lay two eggs a day.

The Churches.—Bishop Lay preached at the P. E. Church, Chestertown, last Sunday morning, to a large audience.

There was a full turnout at the M. E. Church Sunday evening, to hear Rev. E. B. Newnam's farewell sermon.

The Church Conferences.—The Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, which has been in session at Cumberland, adjourned last Tuesday night.

The Wilmington Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church met at Lewes, Delaware, yesterday.

Methodist Protestant Ministers for Kent.—The following ministers of the Methodist Protestant Church, are returned to their appointments in Kent county: Chestertown, Rev. W. J. Neepier; St. James', Rev. F. T. Little; Chesapeake, Rev. D. W. Bates. Rev. J. A. Weigand is not returned to Kennedyville, Rev. W. T. Valliant being sent in his place.

Baltimore Grain Market.—On Tuesday, the inquiry for Southern Wheat was fair, and prices generally steady; sales of Fultz at 1 18a$1 20; mixed at $1 20, and long-berry at $1 25, the latter for choice. Southern Corn was very firm for white and easier for yellow; sales of white at 54½ cents for fly-cut and 57 cents for prime, and of yellow at 55 cents for steamer and 58½ cents for prime.

Fire at the College.—A fire was discovered in a partition between two of the rooms of the West Building of Washington College last Saturday morning. The fire had made some headway when discovered, but by vigorous efforts on the part of some of the students, was put out. This makes the fourth time within the last few years, that fire has broken out at the college in pretty near the same place.

Capt. W. D. Burchinal, special deputy collector of customs, who fell and fractured his thigh January 9, has so far improved as to be at the custom-house on Wednesday. It was feared by the Captain's friends for awhile that the leg would be considerably shortened through the accident, but it has healed perfectly. Captain Burchinal will be obliged to use crutches for awhile.

A Town Coon.—It is said that a raccoon lodges every day under the law office of Wm. M. Slay, Esq., from whence he issues every night in search of provisions. He probably finds luxuries more abundant in town than they are in the backwoods. The town dogs do not seem to cause him uneasiness, nor to interfere in any way with his night excursions. He used to be a tame coon.

Queen Anne's Items.—A drowned horse, with a saddle on him, floated down Tuckahoe creek recently. The ownership of the horse, and the circumstances of his drowning are not known. The rider is believed to have been drowned with the horse in attempting to cross the stream.

The store of George T. Parvis, in Centreville, has been closed by creditors.

A colored man died at the Queen Anne's almshouse last week, aged 92 years.

Patent Corn Planter.—The corn planter invented by Mr. Robert N. Boston, and owned by Mr. Boston and Capt. Joseph W. Thompson, attracted considerable attention from farmers on last Tuesday. The working of one of the machines was shown on the space in front of the market house. It seems to drop the corn and fertilizer very evenly and accurately. The owners propose to take it out to Worton Fair Grounds next Monday, to give the Kent County Agricultural Association a chance to look at it.

Transferred to the Church of the New Jerusalem.—Rev. Thomas A. King, recently of the Maryland M. P. Conference, has been transferred to the "Society of the New Jerusalem" or Swedenborgian church of Baltimore city. He was baptized into the new faith on last Sunday, at the New Jerusalem Temple, Washington city. Mr. King was junior pastor on Kent circuit in 1878. He is a young man, a little over twenty-four years of age. His belief in Swedenborgianism is no new thing. At the time of his ordination as a Methodist Protestant minister these charges were brought up, but he was ordained. Since that time he has been reading the writings of Swedenborg, and recently determined to join the denomination bearing his name. He asked a letter of withdrawal and received it, as follows:

BALTIMORE, March 5, 1881.

This is to certify that Rev. Thomas A. King, a member of the Maryland Annual Conference of the Methodist Protestant Church, desiring to withdraw from the said body, is entitled to this certificate of his good standing, having fulfilled his engagements up to date, and carries with him our best wishes and our prayers.

T. D. VALIANT, President.

The M. E. Sabbath School Missionary Anniversary.—Five minutes after the doors were opened on last Thursday evening, the M. E. Church was crowded. The doors were kept closed up to the hour of opening, and a throng gathered that reached from the church doors, down the stairs on each side, and out to the church yard gates.

The exercises of the evening were of an interesting nature. On the front part of the pulpit stood a large light-house, that had the appearance of being built of gray stone. Rev. E. B. Newnam opened the exercises in an interesting address. After the address the church was darkened, and six little girls,—Nettie Moody, Stella Brice, Anna Pippin, Alice Crew, Ida DeFord and Lillie Howard, came to the front and recited verses appropriate to the occasion. The light-house was lighted from within, and during the recitation of the verses, the words To give light and to save life, were made to flash out brilliantly from the sides of the light-house.

Ten young ladies, each representing a Christian grace, next appeared. Dollie Davis represented Faith; Emma Davis, Godliness; Fannie Brice, Joy; Irene Gardner, Hope; Fannie Stuart, Humility; Laura Thomas, Love; Dollie Crew, Temperance; Lillie Baker, Christianity Ella Thomas, Knowledge; Sadie Gardner, Peace. Each young lady bore in her hand a flower as an emblem of the grace she represented. Each recited very effectively, selections appropriate to the character she represented. While they recited Faith, Hope, Love, Godliness, Joy, Christianity, Humility, Temperance, Knowledge, Peace, shone out brightly from the light-house.

The third recitation was by seven young men, —Masters John Todd, Charles Harley, Wilbur Thomas, Walter Perkins, Allie Perkins, Barrett Catlin and Harry Brice.

The fourth recitation was by five young ladies and four young men, as follows: Misses Rosa Crew, Eva Gardner, Ida Vandyke, Emma Lambert and Ida Gardner, and Blackiston Perkins, Snowden Thomas, George Twilley and James Brice, Jr.

After one of the recitations, little Ella Lambert sang a solo—"There's a light upon the shore." She sang very correctly and very prettily.

Between each of the exercises there was entertaining music by the choir led by Mr. R. K. Pippin, Miss Belle Pippin and Mrs. M. A. Toulson at the organ.

A baritone solo,—"Your Mission,"—by Mr. Charles Rockwell, deserves especial mention.

The committee having the exercises in charge was as follows: Thos. G. DeFord, chairman; Mrs. Burton, Miss Annie Leaverton, Mrs. L. J. Davis, Capt. J. E. Taylor.

The report of the Missionary Secretary showed the contributions for the year, and the following to be the highest classes:—The Pastor's $19.71; Captain J. W. Thompson's $20.10; Mrs. C. H. Baker's $7.20; Mrs. James Brice's $5.20; Mrs. M. Slaughter's $11.63; Miss Bella Slingerland's $6.17; infant class, Miss Lolla Newnam's $4.80. Capt. Thompson was awarded the banner for the ensuing year.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, March 15, 1881. Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Richard C. Johnson, guardian to Catharine E. Maulsberger, filed his release from said ward, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Joseph A. Wickes, late guardian to Francis C. Wickes and Mary E. Wickes, filed his releases from said wards, which were received and ordered to be recorded.

John F. Wilson, one of the administrators of Walter J. Griffith, returned account of sales of the personal estate of said deceased, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Francis N. Sheppard, administrator of John M. LaDue, returned his third and final account and distribution of the personal estate of said deceased, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Annie R. Griffith and John F. Wilson, administrators of Walter J. Griffith, returned their first account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

On application, George R. Stephens was appointed guardian to Alice B. Stephens, (his daughter) who filed his bond in the sum of $200, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

LETTER FROM KENNEDYVILLE.

MATRIMONY—WIDOWERS—PRETTY GIRLS—POLITICS—WHITE-WASHING AND OTHER THINGS.

KENNEYVILLE, March 15, 1881.

Messrs. Transcript:—Sometime ago an aspirant for literary honors signing himself Tim Milligan made known to you the existence of our pretty little village. Since then we have heard nothing more of him. Did he freeze to death during the cold spell, or have some of the courting men of the village killed him for slandering them? He said (I believe) our young men were not engaged in that kind of business. In saying this, he handled the truth in a very loose manner. Courting is not only a pastime with them, but has settled down to a steady business. One widower has been known to go to see his heart's dearest treasure, as he calls her, eight times in six days, and they do say the Neck roads were terrible at the time spoken of. Widowers!! There are eight in Kennedyville and one mile from it—all anxious to get married. Ladies contemplating matrimony, and not objecting to second-hand husbands would do well to give us a call.

Rev. Mr. Weigand took the fatal leap into the matrimonial sea recently; may it be a long time before he joins our band of widowers, or the happy bride have to mourn him as one of the dear departed.

The members of Mr. W's. church, gave him, just before his departure, a very pleasant surprise; thus showing the esteem and regard in which he was held by the community over which he has so efficiently presided for the last two years.

We have a Ladies Aid Society here which meets every two weeks, and we have a splendid time at them. Lots of pretty girls and lots of fun. You must come out sometime and meet with us—that is if Mrs. Transcript don't object.

There was a gathering of the Clans on Monday night. They stole in quietly from the North, South, East and West. The Boss was on hand with his cigar, and seductive smile, gathering together his forces for a grand rally on the Legislature. Of all the Clans the Highland men seemed to be the most numerous. Thus hath the ball began to move. We may expect to see it whirling before long.

Some of the young men talk of getting up an entertainment similar to the one which was so successful last spring.

Our farmers have commenced operations, though the weather has been such that they have not yet been able to do much. There is more work to be done this spring than for many years before, The early winter which has extended into spring caused a cessation of all kinds of farm work. There is considerable corn yet to be husked, and quite a lot to ship.

Farmers are paying year hands from $10 to $12 per month, and day hands 50 cents per day which is very liberal wages, taking into consideration the low price of grain.

Late seeded wheat is very much injured; in fact, looks as bad as we ever saw it. The freezing and thawing has opened cracks down the drill rows, clear to the roots of the wheat; thus leaving them exposed, and in many instances killing the plant.

A few more sunshiny days, and the whitewash fever will strike our village. It is an amusing sight to see it in full blast. Someone will come out, and white-wash a small piece of fence and go in again. That is sufficient, however. The thing is started, and the next morning buckets and brushes are in demand, and young and old are hard at it. The individual that starts the boom can no more help it than he can hinder the weather, and I have always noticed that who ever is so unfortunate as to start first, is the last to finish.

Smuggler, the fine horse owned by John Hines, Esq., of your town, and under the charge of Wm. T. Long, is in splendid form, and if we are not very much mistaken will prove this year a credit to his owner and trainer.

It was reported that the small pox was in our village. This, however, was not the case. Jas. P. Carothers had a touch of pneumonia but is now sufficiently recovered, he says, to whale the man that called it small pox.

Dr. Jacobs is so far recovered as to take a trip to his native county. He had a terrible spell, and his physicians deserve a great deal of credit for his recovery. They stayed with him night and day for weeks.

The whole amount of the matter is just this—we are all well, all happy, and all agree that ours is the boss village of the county.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

THOUGHTS ABOUT AGRICULTURE—THE WHEAT—SICKNESS—ACCIDENTS—LECTURE, ETC., ETC.

There is more peace and quiet of mind in the pursuit of Agriculture, than among any of the varied vocations of life. The farmer always has enough to do to keep his mind and body employed, with enough leisure time for social enjoyment and mental culture. Not so with the professional man, the merchant, the mechanic; they have but little time to call their own, and that little is constantly harrassed by the cares of business The farmer ought to be the happiest mortal on earth, and should adorn and make his home as attractive as possible. Childreu are attracted by the beautiful, and if homes were made more attractive, the sons and daughters of our farmers would become more attached to home, and there would be less desire to seek the cities and towns for pleasures and amusements that are corrupting and often lead the young to ruin. If a child cares nothing for home, there is not much for it to care for in the world. The carelessness of parents is often the cause of their children being ruined. Cultivate in the young a love for home. Inculcate in them a taste for the beautiful, and you will not only be elevating your profession, but sowing the seed that will ripen into true manhood and womanhood.

The sunshine and showers of the past week have revived the wheat fields. With favorable weather from now till harvest the yield of wheat will be large.

William Hepbron, agent for W. G. Hill, is making large shipments of corn direct to New York. He was the first shipper of wheat to Baltimore market over the Kent County Railroad, and claims to be the first that has shipped direct to New York.

Frank Gooding is very sick at T. J. Willis's, with erysipelas.

Robert J. Lusby is very sick—a complication of diseases.

The oldest son of John Hurlock, near Turner's creek, fractured his collar-bone last Monday.

Howard Meeks will lecture at Still Pond M. E. Church next Monday evening, March 21st. Subject, "Methodism." The lecture will no doubt be interesting. Come and hear it.

John Thompson, of Still Pond, was thrown from his buggy last Tuesday afternoon, and seriously injured about the brain. After being in an unconscious condition for three days, he began to return to consciousness, and will recover if nothing unforeseen transpires.

The political pot is boiling. Rumors of candidates withdrawing, and new ones being brought out, is the order of the day. It is astonishing how men will work for the honors of office, when there is not much money in it.

An effort is being made to get a post-office at Price's Corner in Still Pond Neck. We fear it is a mistake. By having a post-office there the Still Pond office will be so crippled that it will no longer be self-sustaining. However, the people know their own business better than outsiders.

The American Pippin or Grindstone Apple, is about the best keeper in this country. It will pay farmers to plant this variety or graft it on worthless varieties.

Kainit, or some other preparation of Potash, should be applied to peach trees every spring. Successive crops of good fruit cannot be grown without the trees are kept fed. Kainit is the cheapest preparation, and it will pay every grower to apply five hundred pounds per acre every spring, crop or no crop.

LETTER FROM THE HOT SPRINGS.

HOT SPRINGS, ARKANSAS, March 1, 1881.

Dear Transcript:—When I left Chestertown I promised to write you an account of my visit to Hot Springs, the Sanitarium of America. Arkansas (now pronounced Arkansaw) is little different from what I expected to find it. Mountainous, rocky, heavily wooded, and in many sections wild. Quite often I think that I've discovered the identical hut we see in the picture of Kit, the Arkansas traveler. The only thing lacking is the coon-skin hanging by the door. The original Kit lives in Little Rock of this State. Hot Springs is three hundred and ninety-four miles distant from St. Louis, connected with the Iron Mountain Railroad (owned by Jay Gould) by a narrow-guage railroad, twenty-two miles long. The city has grown very rapidly within the last two years, the United States government claiming it until then. The government yet retains the mountain from which the wonderful hot water flows. The elegant bath-houses erected at the base of the Hot Springs Mountain, pay the government an annual license or tax of fifteen dollars per tub. The prices charged per course of twenty-one baths, is from three dollars to six dollars and thirty cents. The principal rate is five dollars per course. The good effects of these waters are not always felt at once, but if properly taken, very good results will soon follow. There are now about seventy-five hot springs discovered, varying in temperature from 110° to 160°, and flowing in a steady stream all the time. The cause of the great heat of these waters is not known. One theory is, that in their flow in the interior of the earth they come in contact with or flow near to volcanic fires. Another theory is that they flow over beds of magnesia and iron, and by their contact with these minerals acquire heat and electricity. It is remarkable what large doses of medicine are daily administered to persons bathing. The waters assist the good effects by their eliminating power, and counteract the dangerous effects. Were the same quantities of medicine given away from here the effect would certainly prove fatal.

The city of Hot Springs is lighted by gas, made of a species of pine known as fat or Georgia pine. It grows here in large quantities upon the mountains. Maryland is well represented both as to visitors and residents. The first day that I spent here, while walking down the street, I saw a sign with the familiar names of Holliday & Feddeman. Stepping in, I recognized Clarence Hollyday of Queen Anne's county. Mr. Feddeman belongs to the same county. They have a very nice establishment, decidedly the most "citified" in appearance here. So much for Maryland.

The Hon. Fernando Wood died here a few weeks ago. He was very feeble when he arrived, and the physicians attending him had little hopes of his recovery.

Gambling houses flourish here in abundance. They are occasionally raided (or called on) by the police, (composed of two colored men and one white man) and upon the payment of a fine of five dollars, are allowed to sin again.

Quite a sharp trick was perpetrated upon a visitor, a short time ago, said to be a wealthy Chicago banker. He met a very pleasant gentleman who told him the story of a fast young man, then on the outskirts of the city. Fearing to come into the city, because he might be recognized by some old friends, he wanted to leave the country and lead a different life. He had no money, but he did have a gold brick weighing thirty-three lbs., which he would sell very cheap. The banker bit, and they met outside the city at night. The brick was bored, and purchased for two thousand dollars. A few days after, the banker discovered the cheat, but one of the men and the money had departed. The other was tried and convicted, but the banker did not get back his two thousand dollars. The brick contained gold only in spots.

We are having magnificent weather. It is warm and pleasant like May is in Maryland. But the months of January and February were very changeable.

I read an account of Mr. Ascher's trip into North Carolina, and his description of the people and their peculiarities; the native Arkansians are just like them I think, and travel in much the same way. Any sort of conveyance suits them, but horseback riding is most popular. The horses used here by the visitors, are the finest under saddle to be found in the United States. They have a gait similar to what we call pacing, but here they call it single-footing.

Not far from Hot Springs is Silver City, a growing mining camp, where before long will be developed the mining richness of Arkansas. I have some fine specimens from there. Crystal mountain, where the beautiful crystals come from, is about twenty miles from this city. I have also some fine specimens of these to take home.

In conclusion I would say that I am much pleased with the curative properties of Hot Springs; and advise any sufferer with rheumatism, broken down constitution, or any skin disease, resulting from blood troubles, to try the Hot Springs of Arkansas.

Very truly yours, K.

"A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!" when K ng Richard spoke these words of Bosworth field, he undoubedly meant a horse which had been using ROBERT'S CELEBRATED HORSE POWDERS, as no other animal would have conveyed him to a safe place in the quickest possible time. Price 25 cts.—sold everywhere.

Marriages have increased 40 per cent. since young men have learned of the soothing effect of SINES' TAR, WILD CHERRY and HOARHOUND, upon babies. Young men if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

THE INDEPENDENT.

"The foremost religious newspaper of the United States."—JOSEPH COOK.

THE INDEPENDENT seeks the patronage of the public on these grounds, as follows:

1st. It is the largest weekly religious newspaper published in the world.

2d. It employs as contributors more able writers, at home and abroad, than any other weekly newspaper.

3d. It gives its readers a wider range of topics and more and fuller departments than they can find elsewhere in any journal.

THE INDEPENDENT consists of 32 pages, neatly cut and pasted. It is printed from clear type (we stereotype the pages weekly, and hence, every issue is really printed with the new type) and on good paper, and mechanically it is unexcelled.

There is no question of prominence in religion, politics, science, education, finance, or any other department of human knowledge which THE INDEPENDENT does not discuss. It has regular departments devoted to Biblical Research, Missions, Religious intelligence, Book Reviews and Literary News, and Sunday school, Education, Science, Sanitary questions, Fine Arts, the movements of ministers, Personalities, News of the Week, Financial and Commercial matters, including Weekly Prices Current, Market Reports, Cattle Market, Dry Goods Quotations, Flowers and Farming, and Insurance. In its religious department it gives news and statistics of all denominations of Christians, everywhere. In fullness, accuracy, and comprehensiveness this department is unequaled. Several pages of stories and poems adapted to Old and Young are given every week, with a column of Puzzles. From time to time Sermons by eminent ministers are published. The current topics of the day are discussed in our editorial columns freely and vigorously. We are not afraid to state our opinions.

Our New Terms for 1881.

If you wish to get up a club for Golden Days, send us your name, and we will forward you, free of charge, a number of our specimen copies of the paper, so that, with them, you can give your neighborhood a good canvassing.

OUR CLUBRATES.

For $10 we will send four copies for one year to one address, or each copy to a separate address.

For $20 we will send eight copies to one address, or each copy to separate addresses.

The party who sends us $20 for a club of eight copies [all sent at one time] will be entitled to a copy one year FREE.

Getters-up of clubs of eight copies can afterward add single copies at $2.50 each.

Money should be sent to us either by Post Office Order or Registered Letter, so as to provide as far as possible against its loss by mail.

All communications, business or otherwise, must be addressed to

Eclectic Magazine

OF

Foreign Literature, Science and Art,

ENLARGED and IMPROVED.

The ECLECTIC MAGAZINE reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals, and the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted in the articles presented. Its plan includes Science, Essays, Reviews, Sketches, Travels, Poetry, Novels, Short Stories etc., etc.

With the number for January, 1881, the ECLECTIC MAGAZINE will be enlarged to such an extent as will give about

Two Hundred Pages additional reading-matter during the year.

This increase of space will afford the opportunity not merely for an increased quantity but for a much greater variety of reading-matter; and the publisher confidently promises that the ECLECTIC will be more valuable, more readable, and more satisfactory than ever before. The same pains will be taken as hitherto to exclude articles which are trivial in character, or of merely transient interest; but larger space will be assigned to articles of a popular and entertaining cast, and with ample materials of the best quality at command, the ECLECTIC will be made the ideal Family Magazine.

The following list of contributors to the periodicals from which the ECLECTIC is selected will give some idea of the value of its contents: Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Alfred Tennyson, Professor Huxley, Professor Tyndall, Richard A. Proctor, B.A., J. Norman Lockyer, F.R.S., Dr. W. B. Carpenter, E. B. Tylor, Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Owen, Matthew Arnold, E. A. Freeman, D.C.L., James Anthony Froude, Thomas Hughes, Anthony Trollope, Wm. Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, etc.

☞ The English periodicals are the great storehouse from which are drawn many of the best and most popular books of the time. The ECLECTIC reprints this material fresh from the authors' hands, and at a price far lower than its costs in book-form.

Terms: Single copies, 45 cents: one copy, one year, $5; five copies, $20. Trial subscription for three months, $1. The ECLECTIC and any $4 magazine to one address, $8. Postage free to all subscribers.

The Sun for 1881.

Everybody reads THE SUN. The editions of this newspaper throughout the year to come everybody will find:

I. All the world's news, so presented that the reader will get the greatest amount of information with the least unprofitable expenditure of time and eyesight. The Sun long ago discovered the golden mean between redundant fulness and unsatisfactory brevity.

II. Much of that sort of news which depends less upon its recognized importance than upon its interest to mankind. From morning to morning The Sun prints a continued story of the lives of real men and women, and of their deeds, plans, loves, hates, and troubles. This story is more varied and more interesting than any romance that was ever devised.

III. Good writing in every column, and freshness, originality, accuracy, and decorum in the treatment of every subject.

IV. Honest comment. The Sun's habit is to speak out fearlessly about men and things.

V. Equal candor in dealing with each political party, and equal readiness to commend what is praiseworthy or to rebuke what is blamable in Democrat or Republican.

VI. Absolute independence of partisan organizations, but unwavering loyalty to true Democratic principles. The Sun believes that the Government which the Constitution gives us is good one to keep. Its notion of duty is to resist to its utmost power the efforts of men in the Republican party to set up another form of government in place of that which exists. The year 1881 and the years immediately following will probably decide this supremely important contest. The Sun believes that the victory will be with the people as against the Rings for monopoly, the Rings for plunder, and the Rings for imperial power.

Our terms are as follows:

For the Daily SUN, a four-page sheet of twenty-eight columns, the price by mail, post paid, is 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year; or, including the Sunday paper, an eight-page sheet of fifty-six columns, the price is 65 cents a month, or $7.70 a year, postage paid.

The Sunday edition of The Sun is also furnished separately at $1.20 a year, postage paid.

The price of the Weekly Sun, eight pages, fifty-six columns, is $1 a year, postage paid. For clubs of ten sending $10 we will send an extra copy free.

LIME PAINT.

It is good for Frame Houses, outside being Water Proof

The attention of Housekeepers, Farmers and others is called to the above Useful and Valuable Preparation for Whitewashing and Sanitary Purposes. It costs less in comparison than Common Whitewash, or the unslacked lime, and its durability and beauty are two-fold greater. It never loses its strength. It can be kept for years. When applied, it forms a surface as smooth as calsomine, without glue or plaster. It can be used conveniently and economically in making Mortar, Finishing Insides, and for all purposes in which sand and lime are employed. We solicit a trial. We refer to the Knickerbocker Ice Co., and others. Sold at wholesale, by the barrel, and in smaller packages, at the Manufactory.

Ohio Chilled Plow.

For lightness of draught, durability and superior work, this Plow cannot be equaled and has never been by any yet introduced; this may be considered by some a broad claim, but a trial will soon convince as to the correctness thereof. All who purchased of us last spring were so much pleased that they seem to delight in talking about them to their friends, and this fact alone has made for us a number of sales even this early in the season, hence it can be truly said that the OHIO CHILLED advertises and sells itself.

Perry Spring Tooth Harrow.

Improvements in agricultural implements having finally reached the Harrow, we now present to our friends and patrons, claiming for it the great advantage of being both a time and labor-saving implement. Our neighbors of other States and counties of this State inform us that they are fast taking the place of the old solid tooth and from their representation and our own judgement, we firmly believe that ere long they will have entirely displaced all the old ones ever amongst us. Try one and judge for yourselves.

:O:

THE late crops where the above were used are the strongest possible testimonials, and it is with pleasure we can say that our goods have equalled, and in may cases, surpassed any article in the market, and along side the old standard brands they have been proven to be of the most superior quality.

The low price at which we sell is alone attributable to the fact that we pay no commission to agents, and are satisfied with a close margin ourselves.

Our Factory is always open to the farmers, and a cordial invitation is extended them to visit us there and inspect for themselves.

We also carry a full line of chemicals which with any special mixture desired we will furnish at Baltimore prices.

We might insert numerous testimonials, but prefer to hold them at our office subject to the perusal of all, and simply add the names of a few who have used our goods and to whom we respectfully refer as to their merits:
