Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, APRIL 7, 1881.

Last Friday was all fool's day. We have not yet heard of any bad cases.

Winter lingers persistently. Last Tuesday and Wednesday mornings would have proved creditable to January.

The Kent Guards expect to elect a new captain next Tuesday evening, to take the place of Capt. H. W. Vickers, resigned. A full turnout is desired.

The Odd Fellows of Galena expect soon to build a handsome structure, that is to be 25 by 40 feet on the ground plan, and is to be three stories high.

Removed.—Mr. George Fowler, who for several years past has been keeping a small store in Chestertown, removed last week with his family, to Wilmington, Del.

Kennard & Co. advertise elsewhere the Ohio Chilled Plow. Also, their brands of phosphate, them last year with satisfaction.
with references to numerous farmers who used

Galena has a flourishing literary society that is still growing. It holds every alternate week a public meeting, to which outsiders are admitted by ticket. The society meets Friday evenings at Odd Fellows' Hall.

T. W. Eliason, Jr., advertises in this issue his "Home" brand superphosphate, manufactured especially for the corn crop. He also has on hand a supply of Black Residuum, and other fertilizing materials for spring use.

Worton Station gives promise of becoming a village of some importance. The Kent County Agricultural Fair Grounds being located there gives it an annual boom, and there is a prospect that several more houses will be erected during the present year.

Grain Market.—The supply of Southern wheat in Baltimore, last Tuesday, was limited. A few small lots of Fultz sold at 1 20, and long berry is quoted at 1 22a1 26 for fair to prime. The inquiry for Southern corn is good and the market steady and firm: all the offerings were sold at 55 cents for white and 56 for yellow.

The Fishing Season, so far, owing probably to cold weather, high winds and muddy water, has not amounted to much in the vicinity of Chestertown. Herring have been plentiful, but other kinds of fish are scarce. One of our most experienced fishermen says the present season is the worst he has known for some years.

Entertainment.—A number of the public-spirited young men of Kennedyville, as will be seen by advertisement elsewhere, intend giving an entertainment, next Wednesday evening, for the purpose of raising funds to improve the streets of the town. The programme is a good one, and a first-class entertainment, in every respect, may be expected.

John Wanamaker's large advertisement will be found elsewhere. Almost every necessary and every luxury can be found at his mammoth establishment, Thirteenth and Market street. His great success in trade is the result of keeping goods to suit the people, at prices to suit the people, and in persistently calling people's attention to these facts. A whole day's shopping can be done under one roof at the Grand Depot.

Attempted Arson.—An empty dwelling house owned by Mr. Wilbur C. Stephens, in the newly settled village known as Tilghmansville, Worton Point, was attempted to be set on fire some time between Thursday night, the 24th, and Sunday morning, the 27th of March, by some unknown person. The house is used for holding religious meetings by a small band of persons who hold alliance to the A. M. E. Church, under the pastoral care of Rev. Wm. H. Chambers, of this town. The cause is not known.—News.

Josh Billings, the man who has invented more bad spelling, and has been the author of more homespun philosophy, than any other American citizen, living or dead, lectured in Chestertown on last Friday night. There was a full house and an appreciative one. Josh's appearance is almost as humorous as his philosophy; and his philosophy is tenfold more pungent as it comes direct from the original Josh, than it is when seen in print. All of his jokes have traveled the rounds of the newspapers, and to repeat them would be but to give what everybody has seen before.

Of Interest to Tongers.—The time for tonging for oysters, has been extended by the board of public works, to the 15th of this month, which is Friday of next week. By a discrepancy, the oyster law as published, made the time to end with the 1st of April. The attention of the St. Michaels Comet was called to the discrepancy, and it never ceased to hammer away at the matter, until the error was brought to the notice of the board of public works, which has directed that the oyster police force make no arrests for tonging prior to the 15th of this month.

Queen Anne's Items.—George T. Parvis, who was arrested and lodged in Centreville jail on the charge of forging a note for five hundred dollars, on Easton bank, was bailed out last week, the amount of bail being one thousand dollars. Parvis left Centreville on the day he was bailed, and had not returned up to last Monday. He was in Chestertown on Thursday of last week, we understand with the design of taking a Kent county steamer for Baltimore.

An old colored woman, aged seventy five, was found last week dead in a ditch near Sudlersville. It is supposed that she accidentally fell in and was too feeble to get out. Her name was Julia Bordley.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, April 1, 1881.—Present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Charles H. Baker, executor of Wm. T. Baker, returned his tenth and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

J. Walter Skirven, one of the executors of John T. Skirven, returned account of sale of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Charles H. Baker, acting guardian to Stonewall J. Baker, returned his guardian account for said ward, from January 1, 1880, to Oct. 12, 1880, at which time said ward died, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Charles H. Baker, acting guardian to Alfred Lee Baker, returned his guardian account for 1880, which was examined, passed, and ordered to be recorded.

Mrs. Emma P. France and Charles H. Baker, administrators C. T. A. of James P. DeCorse, returned their first administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Harriet M. Usilton and Joseph R. Usilton, administrators of Lewin Usilton, late guardian to Harry C. and Samuel C. Cacy, returned guardian accounts for said wards for the year 1880, which were examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Wm. A. Cleaver, executor of Wm. Bowman, filed his report of sale of part of the real estate of said deceased, which was received, and an Order Nisi passed thereon.

The last Will and Testament of Robert J. Lusby was admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

Chas. H. Baker filed his release from Thomas B. Elliott and Mary V. Elliott, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

The petition of Mrs. Annie T. Spry, to be released from her office as one of the administrators of George T. Spry, was granted, and Wm. F. Spry filed new bond as administrator, in the sum of $500, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Geo. W. T. Perkins, executor of E. F. Chambers, returned his fourth administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Marriages have increased 40 per cent. since young men have learned of the soothing effect of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound, upon babies. Young men if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

The Grange in Kent County—Another New Pear—Talk of Erecting a Large Grain Mill—Fishing—Health—Improvements, &c.

The weather during the past week has been disagreeable, and will put farmers behind with their work. Grass and wheat are growing. After all, we have much to be thankful for. The past four months have been trying on all, yet we are living, and the general health of our people is better than it has been for years. Good health is the greatest blessing that kind Providence can bestow on any people.

In many sections of this country the Grange is in a more flourishing condition than ever; in others it has languished for the want of energy among its members. In this county the Grangers who have kept together are deriving benefits from it, greater than outsiders have any idea of. The object of the Grange is not to cripple home industries, but to protect the farmer against monopolists and extortionists. The Granges are a net-work—what one knows all know—and they are learning to keep their secrets, too. The time will come when farmers will realize their condition and seek the Grange fold for protection.

The "LeConte" is another new pear, and very popular in the South. Like the Kieffer, it is said to be blight-proof. The fruit is large and ripens during July and August. It may prove to be a very valuable variety. The trees can be bought of most nurserymen for 50 cents apiece.

A number of farmers are advocating the erection of a mill in this section, with capacity for grinding two or three hundred thousand bushels of grain annually.

Some of the Betterton fishermen started down the bay last Tuesday to meet the first run of shad. They make their headquarters on Pools' Island, which is a very favorite place of resort.

Mr. William Morris, formerly a resident of Still Pond, died suddenly a few days ago, at his home in Virginia.

Mrs. Dr. Kennard, who has been quite feeble for several months, is slowly recovering.

Mr. John Polk has been offered a fancy price for his farm at Howell's Point.

Still Pond M. E. congregation contemplate repairing their church edifice this year.

A valuable marl pit has been discovered on the farm of John A. Miller near here.

Mr. Seney has combined shoemaking with merchandising at Price's Corner.

A. J. Hackett contemplates building a blacksmith shop, twenty-four by forty feet, in Still Pond.

E. B. Pennington, residing near Chesterville, is preparing to plant ten acres in raspberries and blackberries. He realizes from one to two hundred dollars per acre, from berries, annually.

F. H. Boulden is making great improvements on his farm. Both sides of the Sandy Bottom road have been cleared of wood and brush, which is very gratifying to the traveling public.

Clover hay is selling for eighteen dollars per ton, and it is scarce at that price.

We know of a wife who blacks her husband's boots every few nights; in return the husband has promised to let her whip him when he does not behave himself. Such is life.

We advocate Woman's Rights, because it is time for the ladies to wear the breeches, and let the men stay at home and nurse the babies. Happy thought! Will it ever come to pass?

The County Commissioners have acted wisely in deciding to open a new road to Fishing Valley. Another wise thing would be to put in terra cotta pipes in the place of board bridges, as fast as the latter give way. It will save the county thousands of dollars. Board bridges are all the time getting out of order, while the pipe, properly put in, will last forever.

Jas. A. Toulson expects to commence threshing wheat to-day.

W. F. Wroth is about to build a dwelling house in Still Pond.

E. L. Covington is about to open a drug store here.

Cut This Out.—It is presumed that barely one-fourth of the purchasers of clothing are fair judges of their purchases; and it is therefore important to know where you can buy with confidence, that you may get your money's worth. C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt St., through to 55 Hanover St., have been in the business in Baltimore for over a quarter of a century; they manufacture every garment sold by them. Their experience enables them to give satisfaction in quality, price, material and workmanship, and no one in want of clothing should neglect to call upon them. It will pay you.

"A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!" when King Richard spoke these words of Bosworth field, he undoubtedly meant a horse which had been using Robert's Celebrated Horse Powders, as no other animal would have conveyed him to a safe place in the quickest possible time. Price 25 cts.—sold every where.

Eclectic Magazine

OF

Foreign Literature, Science and Art,

ENLARGED and IMPROVED.

The Eclectic Magazine reproduces from foreign periodicals all those articles which are valuable to American readers. Its field of selection embraces all the Foreign Reviews, Magazines, and Journals, and the tastes of all classes of readers are consulted in the articles presented. Its plan includes Science, Essays, Reviews, Sketches, Travels, Poetry, Novels, Short Stories etc., etc.

With the number for January, 1881, the Eclectic Magazine will be enlarged to such an extent as will give about

Two Hundred Pages additional reading-matter during the year.

This increase of space will afford the opportunity not merely for an increased quantity but for a much greater variety of reading-matter; and the publisher confidently promises that the opportunity shall be so utilized that the Eclectic will be more valuable, more readable, and more satisfactory than ever before. The same pains will be taken as hitherto to exclude articles which are trivial in character, or of merely transient interest; but larger space will be assigned to articles of a popular and entertaining cast, and with ample materials of the best quality at command, the Eclectic will be made the ideal Family Magazine.

The following list of contributors to the periodicals from which the Eclectic is selected will give some idea of the value of its contents: Rt. Hon. W. E. Gladstone, Alfred Tennyson, Professor Huxley, Professor Tyndall, Richard A. Proctor, B.A., J. Norman Lockyer, F.R.S., Dr. W. B. Carpenter, E. B. Tylor, Prof. Max Muller, Prof. Owen, Matthew Arnold, E. A. Freeman, D.C.L., James Anthony Froude, Thomas Hughes, Anthony Trollope, Wm. Black, Mrs. Oliphant, Turgenieff, Miss Thackeray, etc.

The English periodicals are the great storehouse from which are drawn many of the best and most pupular books of the time. The Eclectic reprints this material fresh from the authors' hands, and at a price far lower than its costs in book-form.

Terms: Single copies, 45 cents: one copy, one year, $5; five copies, $20. Trial subscription for three months, 1. The Eclectic and any $4 magazine to one address, 8. Postage free to all subscribers.

Spring Goods at John Wanamaker's.

Our friends in Philadelphia get notice, from the daily papers, of some of the items of interest relating to the next few days, such as the arrival of new things, changes in styles or prices, and any timely information upon topics of interest to shoppers.

The most direct and useful news of the store we can give to readers of weekly papers is, perhaps, to be found in these very notices, avoiding such as are of only transient interest.

DRESS GOODS.

What art and skill are doing in cotton dress fabrics! Two counters are gorgeons with them. The lowest price is 5½ cents a yard and the highest 62½ cents; but they are made in soft and delicate ways and by texture or print or dye, to rival the stuffs of luxury. Here are their familiar names:

Scotch Zephyrs, Madras ginghams, Seersuckers, Chintzes, Oxford cloths, Toiles d'Alsace, Printed shirtings, Foulards, Sateens, Lawns, Cretonnes, Momies, Cheviots

In almost every name are triumphs. You are not often asked to admire so modest works of art and skill; but see if you can pass these counters without a new estimate of the times in which you live.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Fourth circle, northwest from centre.

DEBEIGES

Everybody knows, are staple goods. One looks at novelties and buys staples. Staple means something that almost everybody buys.

What everybody buys is certain to be a good thing somehow. The way debeiges are good is this: the money goes all for use and none for show: or rather none for that kind of show which limits use.

Why, last spring we bought in one lot of $30,000 worth of debeiges and have been buying in debeiges ever sin[illegible]. And now we have more debeiges than [illegible]u will look at, all browns and grays; [illegible] nearly all new. The prices are all the wa[illegible] from 25 cents for 22 inch to $1.10 for 46-inch. A particularly good quality is 60 cents for 43-inch.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Second circle, south from centre.

BLACK DRESS GOODS.

New things in black dress-goods of almost all sorts are ready.

Silk grenadines came some time ago; now the wool and silk-and-wool grenadines are here; and the variety is greater than we have had before, greater than anybody ever had, so far as we know.

New armures, plain and figured, are notable, especially the latter. Among them are armures, with small figures and plaids, that can be seen only when looked at in certain ways. The draping of a dress of these would appear to be partly plain and partly figured or plaid. The figures and plaids seem to have no existence at all. You can't find them except by accident.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Next outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

MEDIUM WOOLEN DRESS GOODS.

There are three notable Woolen dress fabrics at $1.

Melange pin checks, of five colors. The warp is of a uniform light shade in each: the woof is of alternate clusters of threads, three or four being light, the next three or four having twisted with them a thread of darker shade.

Woolen sateens of eight colors, more or less mixed in carding. The sateen effect is produced by heavy warped threads thrown almost wholly on the surface; they jump three or four of the fine warp threads, and pass under only one. The warp scarcely comes to the surface at all, as you can see by the selvage.

Croise cashmere of fifteen plain colors; differs from ordinary cashmere in the twill. This is probably no better money's worth than the others; but almost exactly the same has just been offered us at wholesale for a little more money than we are selling it at.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Third circle, south of centre.

COTTON-AND-WOOL DRESS GOODS.

Here are three cotton-and-wool dress cloths of single width, in browns and grays.

Balerno cloth, like alpaca, but heavier, at 12½ cents.

Cashmere beige, in appearance somewhat like the $1 melange, described above, plain 15 cents; twilled 18 cents.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Third circle, east from centre.

SILKS.

Heavy rich damasse silks of all colors, $2.75; last season's $5 and $6 goods, are now selling in preference to the latest novelties, of course on account of richness and price. Plain silks of the same colors to combine with them.

The following are just received from our buyer resident in Paris:

Pongees, richly embroidered by hand, with sprays of flowers and with birds. The prices of those ready to-day are $28 to $36 per piece of 4½ yards. More are coming.

New designs in French foulards $2.

Bayadere ombre stripes. Here's one, for example; garnet-ombre-into-gold alternating with gold-ombre-into-bronze; stripes half an inch wide and no interval between.

Chequered damasses. Gorgeous with color; variety of designs, the only feature common to them all being the arrangement in squares, not unlike a chequer board. $2 to $4.75.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Next outer-circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

CLOAKS AND DRESSES.

We have just opened foreign black wraps, dolmans, capes, &c., at $9 to $75; light colored coats, wraps, and ulsters, some foreign and of our own make, at $4 to $12.

Silk dresses in styles not to be found elsewhere, at $15, $17 and $18; and cloth dresses at $10 to $30.

Also, misses' and children's coats, ulsters, and dresses in great variety. A few misses' coats of last spring will be sold at half-price, viz., $3 and $4; and misses' debeige dresses of last spring at less than half-prices, viz., $3 and $4

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Northeast corner of building.

SATEENS, &C.

Toile d' Alsace is a similar fabric to Scotch gingham, but of softer finish, and printed; 30 cents. Sateen is even finer, and the warp is thrown upon the surface so successfully as to leave it as smooth as satin, which indeed it much resembles. This also is printed in exquisite designs, and the printing is the more successful because the surface is so smooth.

The bouquet squares (nobody else has them yet, so far as we know) appear to have been a Parisian afterthought. They are of sateen and are used as garniture of sateen dresses. Nothing in cotton printing, probably, was ever anything like so rich before.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Fourth circle, Thirteenth-street entrance.

UNDERWEAR.

Fine muslin cambric underwear, richly decorated with lace and embroidery, carefully, finely and skillfully made. This we have in greater variety than you will find elsewhere; but there is no difficulty in getting this grade of work.

Underwear of a plainer sort is difficult to get carefully and skillfully made; but we have a really great collection of it. For more than a year past we have been raising the standard of manufacture and cultivating simpler styles. We have work the like of which is in no other house, here or in New York. The ideal of it is the best of homemade underwear at such prices as will cause it to be preferred to home-made and stop home-making as fast as the work becomes known.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Northwest corner of building.

LACES.

Not every day are our lace counters filled with buyers. They would be, if every lady knew two facts, viz., first, that we have the newest and choicest laces of every grade; second, that we sell them below the market.

The difficulty is that every merchant says the same two things; and you don't think it very saucy to doubt just a little, because advertising does paint things too rosy sometimes.

We much desire you to find out how careful we are to say exactly what we mean, neither more or less. For example, see to-day a torchon at 10 cents, which sells everywhere else for 20 cents about. How do we know? Why we sold it ourselves for 15 cents last week. Not one in a hundred of our regular customers knows how we crowd prices down. How can we expect others to believe that our policy is low prices, when almost every merchant studies how to keep them up?

As to assortment, what do you suppose we do with nine lace counters? Why, there is no such stock in Philadelphia. We have thousands of dollars worth of fine laces shut up in boxes. We have very poor facilities for exhibiting them; but we shall surprise you if you ask to see them.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Nine counters, southwest of centre.

HANDKERCHIEFS.

New fancy white handkerchiefs; many.—New initials; new letters, a different letter for each price. New colored borders. Linen centers with colored silk borders (nowhere else, probably) require to be washed with care; but with care they wash perfectly; colors fast.—Woven-color borders, plaids and stripes of course. Not a mixed cotton-and-linen handkerchief in the store.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Third circle, southwest from centre.

LINENS.

We have visited every linen manufactory of note in Europe, and gathered a stock which for variety of fabric and finish is beyond all precedent, comprising:

Sheeting linen.
Pillow-case linen.
Diaper linen.
Star linen.
Ladies' underwear linen.
Butchers' linen.
Towels.
Toweling.
Table cloths.
Table-linen.
Napkins.
Doilies.

We have linens entirely unknown in the American markets; also every favorite here.

No other house in Philadelphia buys abroad. Hence no other house can have either our goods or our prices. This we say without knowing what other houses have, either in goods or prices.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

City hall square entrance.

FLANNELS.

French wrapper-flannels. As you stand before the counters you may see a row of them displayed along the top of the shelves; a large collection of itself, but only a part.

Look at the shelves too. No two pieces alike of all you see. There's no such variety of flannels anywhere.

JOHN WANAMAMER.

Next outer circle, northeast from the centre.

MUSLINS.

Who wants to read about muslins? And yet you had better know how, by a little crookedness in dealing, they are made to bring an extra price, even in houses that ought to be above crookedness of any sort.

Take an example: Wamsutta is branded, part of it Wamsutta, and part of it with the merchant's name. That branded Wamsutta is sold at the current market price, and the other is sold for an extra price, and the salesmen are instructed to sell as little as they can of the genuine, and as much as they can of the other.

The practice, we are sorry to say, prevails in some large houses here in Philadelphia. If you find that a merchant considers such dealing fair, perhaps you will look out for him in other goods as well as muslins.

We have everything in muslins that is wanted here; everything is branded with the name of the mill that made it; and everything is sold at the bottom of the market.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Outer circle, northeast from centre.

DOMESTIC CALICOES.

Chintz of indigo-blue ground with white polka dots of various sizes, and other little figures not unlike the dots of American make, at 10 cents, is a great favorite.

Calicoes in general are 8 cents; but some patterns are 5½, simply because they are not liked so well.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Fourth circle, northeast from centre.

HOSIERY.

These items in hosiery are everywhere: but our prices are lower, probably, every one of them.

LADIES'.

English, fancy, .50.

German, silk, plain colors, .75.
German, silk, plain colors, embroidered, .85.

If you find elsewhere a stocking called by the same name as any one of these, and at a price no higher than ours, look at the quality.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

Outer circle, Chestnut-street entrance.

CARPETS.

We ask you to see our wilton, axminster, moquette, brussels and tapestry carpets. Our carpet-trade is new; our stock is large and nearly all new (what is not new is cheap enough); and many of the patterns are thought to be fine indeed.

Large buyers, for hotels, churches, &c., find here, perhaps, surprising advantages.

JOHN WANAMAKER.

FURNITURE.

such as are in every furniture store; common wood and common work. We keep also a small assortment of "cottage," or painted sets.

of plain style, but proper for some rooms in any house, no matter how rich.

We have very large assortments both below $100, and between $100 and $200. At higher prices there is no higher quality; only more costly decoration.

PARASOLS.

Twenty-five silk parasol-covers embroidered in China with silver and gold in quaint and rather characteristic, but not extreme, Chinese designs, with wide borders and variegated silk linings, have been imported and put on neat frames, with variety of sticks.

Fifteen of the twenty-five have come to us. They are in our collection of novelties at $12. We have about three hundred styles of parasols. There is such a diversity in the styles as to baffle description.

For a mere accessary of the scrupulous lady's toilet perhaps no article is chosen with so much care. We shall not tire of showing you, ladies, every one; and if we may judge by the interest shown yesterday, you'll not tire either.

The opening continues to-day.

SILVER.

A fine collection of minor articles in silver, flat ware, ice-cream service, children's sets, napkin rings, &c., &c.

Silver plate.—A comprehensive stock, everything that you will ask for. In flat ware we have three grades of plate; the lowest grade we do not keep. In hollow ware we have the best grades only.

ZEPHYRS.

Zephyrs, embroidery materials, begun embroideries, fancy boxes and innumerable articles which these suggest; the best of everything provided with rare knowledge and care.

HATS FOR SPRING.

Men's fur-felt stiff derby hats, five spring styles ready, $1.75, $2.00, 2.50, 3.00, 3,50. Our $1.75 style is a new grade not made before this season, just under our $2 hat of last year; the others are of the same grade as we have sold heretofore. All these styles are to be found elsewhere, for 50 cents to $1 more. Imitations of them abound also. You scarcely need the caution to buy where you have confidence that you will get genuine goods.

Children's and boys' hats. A few styles are ready from 60 cents to $1.50.

Men's silk hats for spring are of lower crown, narrower brim, and of less decided bell-shape. A low crown is always popular, unless spoiled by the shape. A few are ready; $4.00, 4.50, 5.00.
