Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, MAY 12, 1881.

The fragrant Onion has arrived in market.

The Growing Wheat in Kent is looking well, and bids fair for a good yield.

An interesting talk, from Senator Bayard, on national topics, will be found on the outside of this issue.

The Voshell House, one of the finest hotel properties on the peninsula, is advertised elsewhere for rent.

Postal Cards must not have anything save the address written on the address side. If there is any writing beside the address on the address side, the card will be returned to the writer. So has ordered the new Postmaster General James.

Death of Professor Baird.—Professor Wm. L. Baird, formerly filling a chair in Washington College, Chestertown, died at Bel Air, Harford county, Md., on Wednesday of last week. At the time of his death he was Principal of the Bel Air academy.

Six Thousand Boxes of peaches is the estimate for the coming season, of one our most successful farmers and fruit-growers, residing near Chestertown. He made the same estimate on his orchard last year, but his crop turned out larger than the estimate.

Chapman & Lambert are again offering their Iron-frame Cultivators and Cultivator Teeth. These implements are superseding all others. They were invented by this enterprising firm, and give great satisfaction to all who use them. See advertisement in another column.

Personal.—Mr. Robert Nicholson, chief judge of the Orphans' Court, has been suffering from a temporary sprain of the knee joint.

Mr. George B. Westcott, president of Kent National Bank, who was recently confined to his bed with bilious, is out again.

A Spring Snow-storm.—Chestertown has enjoyed, or suffered as the case may be, during this week, all the appearances of a snow-storm. The silver poplars have been shedding their cottony seeds so plentifully, that it has been difficult to breathe in the open air without sucking them in.

A Sale of a large lot of wheat machinery took place on the town hall space, Chestertown, on last Tuesday afternoon. There were three wheat threshers, in good order, and three steam engines, and a clover huller, all of which were disposed of on an average of less than half the cost price.

The Kent Guards have accepted the invitation from the Fifth Maryland Regiment to attend their anniversary on the 23d inst. They expect to go by steamer B. S. Ford. The company held a street parade on Tuesday evening, forty men turning out. A plan to entertain the State militia at Chestertown on the 4th of July, is held under consideration.

Taking Fish with haul-seines, nets, pounds, etc., in Chester river, is now illegal, the season for so catching them having expired on Tuesday last. The time for Bay fishing expires on the 20th instant. Some of our river fishermen discontinued operations several weeks ago, in consequence of the very low prices for fish in the city markets.

Tolchester opens for this season next Wednesday. Two steamers will make daily trips between Baltimore and the Beach, the company having purchased a handsome new steamer—the Nellie White. A commodious hotel has been built at the resort, and numerous other improvements have been made. Tolchester will be more attractive this season than ever before. The time schedule of the steamers will be found elsewhere.

To Go to Dover.—Mr. John C. Voshell, who built the Voshell House, Chestertown, has leased, and leaves about the first of July to take charge of the new Capitol Hotel, Dover, Del. Mr. Voshell has long been known as one among the best hotel managers in Maryland. He has succeeded in making the Voshell house the most popular hotel, with the traveling public, to be found on the Eastern Shore. His friends in Kent will be sorry to see him take charge of another hotel.

To Deliver the Address.—The Kent County Agricultural Association have asked George Colton, Esq., to deliver the address at their Annual Fair this Fall. Mr. Colton can tell "what he knows about farming" in as entertaining a manner as the most. If he fails to give Kent county farmers many new points on raising pumpkins or cultivating turnips, he will be likely to make up for the lack in this respect by teaching them how to raise a thoroughbred laugh.

Hymenial.—Mr. John N. Sparks, of the steamer B. S. Ford, was married on Wednesday evening of last week, to Miss Florence J. Newnam, daughter of Rev. E. B. Newnam, recently pastor of the M. E. Church, Chestertown. The ceremony took place at Trinity M. E. Church South, Baltimore, and was performed by the father of the bride, assisted by Rev. W. H. D. Harper, pastor of the church. Messrs. John F. Godwin and William A. Thompson, of Queen Anne's county, and Mr. E. W. F. Simpers and Dr. C. P. Gilpin of Chestertown, served as ushers.

A Nice Little Plan.—Comegys and Sanders, two negro men who were convicted of stealing and sentenced to the penitentiary at the recent session of court, told sheriff Gooding during the trip across the bay, of a plan they had formed after their sentence had been passed by the court. The two negroes were confined in the same room in the jail. Deputy Silcox was in the habit every night before retiring, of visiting the prisoners to see if there was anything they needed. Sanders and Comegys had planned, according to their statement, that on the night after their sentence was pronounced, when deputy Silcox should come to their room, they would knock him in the head, throw him aside and make their escape. The unforeseen circumstance that prevented the carrying out of this nice little arrangement, was that extra irons were put upon them on the afternoon, preceding the night upon which their plan was to have been carried out.

A Good and Cheap Whitewash.—One of our exchanges recommends the following recipe for making a good and durable wash: Take a clean water-tight barrel or other suitable cask, and put into it about half a bushel of lime; slack it by pouring water over it, boiling hot, and put in a sufficient quantity of water to cover it five inches deep and stir it briskly till thoroughly slackened: when the slackening has been thoroughly effected, dissolve it in water, and add two pounds of sulphate of zinc and common salt. These will cause the wash to harden, and prevent the cracking, which gives an unseemly appearance to the work. If desirable, a beautiful cream color may be given to the above wash by adding three pounds of yellow ochre; or a good pearl by lead, lamp, vine or ivory black. For fawn color, add four pounds of umber, Turkish or American—the latter is the cheapest—one pound of Indian red, one pound of common lampblack.

Skipped with $62.—The son of Mr. J. Barkman, who is farming not far from Chestertown, lost sixty-two dollars last week, which he thinks a friend of his must have relieved him of. His friend had been staying with him for some days, and on Friday morning of last week, Mr. Barkman was coming into Chestertown and asked the young man if he did not wish to ride to town. The young man said that he did, and forthwith went into the house to don some clean linen. Mr. Barkman had in his Sunday vest pocket, sixty-two dollars. His Sunday vest was hanging up in the house. His friend came out of the house after awhile, trigged up and looking as fresh as a new penny. He got in with Mr. Barkman and they rode to town together. Mr. Barkman and he parted when they reached Chestertown. When the time for returning home came, Mr. B. looked for his friend for some time without being able to find him. Inquiry finally brought out the fact that he had left on the morning train. Mr. B. thought this a strange proceeding and immediately remembered his sixty-two dollars. He hurried home and examined his Sunday vest pocket, and the sixty-two dollars sure enough, was gone. He has not since had tidings of his friend.

Queen Anne's Items.—The Observer gets a little somewhat mad, because the Rev. J. R. Tharpe, pastor of an M. E. Church near Templeville, told a Baltimore audience that Queen Anne's people were so illiterate, that the women of his (the Rev. Tharp's) congregation sit during service bare-headed, taking off their slip calico bonnets and laying them on the bench beside them.

Dr. W. H. DeCoursey, of Wye Neck, Queen Anne's county, has sold thirty head of yearling Hereford bulls, to cattle breeders in Nebraska. Dr. DeCoursey is noted as a raiser of thoroughbred stock.

Baltimore Grain Market.—Tuesday's Quotations: Grain.—Receipts to-day 6,000 bushels Southern Wheat; 20,000 bushels Southern Corn.

The demand from millers for Southern Wheat is quite active and the market is firm, though quiet for want of stock. Pennsylvania sold at $1.18 for common and $1 26 for good, and Maryland at 1 27a$1 28 for prime Fultz. Long-berry is quoted at 1 30a$1 32 for prime, and No. 1 Maryland red sold at $1 31.

Southern Corn was firm and in good demand, selling at 59 cents for prime white, and 56 cts. for do. yellow.

Oats are in small supply and prices are firm, with a good inquiry; sales of bright Western at 49 cts. and light stained Pennsylvania at 50 cents.

Rye is quiet and easy; a small lot of prime reported sold at $1 14 per bushel.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, May 10, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Garey H. Leaverton, administrator of Chas. S. Leaverton, filed his release from Ann Butler, Wm. Spencer Leaverton and E. H. Leaverton, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Charles H. Baker, guardian to Walter B. Usilton, filed his bond in the sum of $500, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

John G. Miers, administrator of Mary A. Duyer, filed his release from J. Thomas Pennington and Annie M. Pennington, wife of J. Thomas Pennington, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

Marriage in Church—Corn Planting—Fruit—Scarcity of Partridges—New Post Office.

About three hundred persons assembled in Still Pond Methodist Episcopal Church last Thursday at noon, to witness the marriage of Miss Gulie Clark, of Still Pond, to Rev. Adam Stengle, of Wilmington, Del. The pulpit and altar of the church were decorated with the choicest spring flowers and evergreens. Rev. J. B. Merritt tied the knot. Miss Jennie Caldwell presided at the organ. Messrs. Clark and Busick were the ushers. Mrs. Stengle is one of the most estimable women ever raised in Still Pond. The church has lost an earnest worker and society one of its brightest ornaments. While her many friends were loth to part with her, they wish them both all the happiness this world can afford.

The frost last Thursday morning did not injure either fruits or vegetables.

Corn planting will be through this week.

Fruit is setting well, with the exception of Duchess pears. We fear there will be a partial failure of this variety.

We have not seen a partridge this season. The general impression is that they perished during the past winter, and that we will not have any for several years.

The new post-office in Still Pond Neck is to be called Stanley. It will be opened about the first of June.

TECUMSEH.

Lynch's, May 9, 1881.

The Yorktown Celebration.—The Yorktown Centennial Commissioners returned Monday, from a visit to Yorktown. On Friday they inspected the grounds and had a conference with the Virginia committee. A tract of 500 acres has been purchased. The site selected for the memorial shaft commands a view of the river for several miles, both above and below the town. The old Moore House, in which the capitulation was signed by Lord Cornwallis, is not now occupied, but it will be fitted up for President Garfield's headquarters during the centennial ceremonies. The country in the immediate vicinity affords good sites for large encampments of troops and for parades, having plenty of water, shade trees, and extensive fields. On the 18th of October the corner stone will be laid by the Masons of Virginia. It is expected that 4,000 Masons will take part, making an encampment there for two or three days. On the 18th Gov. Holliday of Virginia will deliver an address. On the 19th the President will receive the monument on the part of the nation, and the dedicatory exercises, consisting of an oration, poem, and ode, will take place. Judging from the responses received by the committee, there will be present at least 10,000 troops. It is definitely known that the Thirteenth New York Regiment will be present. All the thirteen original States will be represented by their Governors and citizen soldiery.

In view of the unbroken series of quarrels for precedence, wrangles over spoils, and Senatorial deadlocks since March 4, it is amusing to recall the prophecies made on every hand, after the November election, that a so-called era of good feeling in politics had come, and that the Garfield Administration would move upon a path of harmony as broad and continuous as if modelled upon one of Schuyler Colfax's smiles.

A Georgia man is sued by his niece for breach of promise of marriage. He urges their blood relationship as evidence against the probability that he would offer to make her his wife. She replies that the proposed union was at first repugnant to her, but, as he was rich and persistent, she finally consented. She wants $25,000 damages.

Cut This Out.—It is presumed that barely one-fourth of the purchasers of clothing are fair judges of their purchases; and it is therefore important to know where you can buy with confidence, that you may get your money's worth. C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt St., through to 55 Hanover St., have been in the business in Baltimore for over a quarter of a century; they manufacture every garment sold by them. Their experience enables them to give satisfaction in quality, price, material and workmanship, and no one in want of clothing should neglect to call upon them. It will pay you.

Marriages have increased 40 per cent. since young men have learned of the soothing effect of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound, upon babies. Young men if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

"A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!" when King Richard spoke these words of Bosworth field, he undoubedly meant a horse which had been using Robert's Celebrated Horse Powders, as no other animal would have conveyed him to a safe place in the quickest possible time. Price 25 cts.—sold everywhere.

T. W. Eliason, Jr.

Price $25 per ton, and interest on ten months time.

Discount for CASH.

In offering the above Fertilizer to my customers and the farmers generally, this, the second season of its manufacture, it affords me pleasure to be able to say to them that it did well last season, in some cases much better than fertilizers costing from eight to twelve dollars per ton more.

Last spring it was unammoniated. This season its value will be increased by the addition of materials that will give it a small percentage of ammonia, thus making it a complete manure.

Whilst doing this I have been careful to avoid any combination that will burn the corn.

This article is prepared mainly for high and drained lands.

When land frenches I know of no article that can compete in price or value with Black Residuum advertised elsewhere.

Black Residuum.

IN BULK by the Car Load (Ten Tons,) or in BAGS, in FINE ORDER.

This goods has been extensively and successfully used by the Farmers of Kent having low clay lands. All who have used it on heavy clay lands say—

"It is a sure preventive of frenching," there is a difference of opinion as to its relative value, one saying, "It doubled my crop," another, "I raised three times as much corn by its use as I could have done without it." "Another, "I have never found anything to apply on corn that began to pay me as Black Residuum did." Another, "I would not think of planting corn on my land without using it." Another, "No substitute that I have tried does as well."

The stock on the market this spring is slim: please let me have your order early if you wish the goods.

ALLOW ME to tender my sincere thanks for the past patronage of the public, and hope to receive their approval and patronage this present year. I am prepared to cut and finish every design in the marble business.

I have a very handsome assortment of my own finished

TOMBSTONES.

Some of the Latest Designs,

HANDSOMELY FINISHED,

Copied from the Late Paris Exhibition.

A large assortment for children, different patterns, some as low as $6.00, lettering included. Some fifty different patterns for grown persons, handsomely finished, some of them as low as $15.00, lettering included. Also, a fine line of different patterns, expressly for the very thick and heavy and handsomely finished of the best marble.

Marble Posts, marble Vases with Pedestal, Marble Coping, Tombstones and Monuments, of all sizes and styles.

Marble or Sandstone worked to order. I warrant all my work not to color or blister—time has no effect on it. I set up all of my work, thus relieving the purchaser of all trouble or risk.

Come one, come all, that are in want, and examine my work and learn my prices. I will be thankful. Don't send the money out of your own neighborhood.

Call and see me. I do not like to canvass for work, for I think it too sad a business to barter with relatives or friends.

My work can be seen in all the cemeteries of Kent and the adjoining counties.
