Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, JUNE 9, 1881.

Eggs are eggs. What's the matter with the hens?

The Voshell House opens under new proprietors this week.

The Small Boy has his weather eye turned toward vacation.

Next Sunday is known as children's day in the M. E. Church.

The Ladies of the M. E. congregation, Locust Grove, cleared $130 on their festival.

Don't Forget the festivals yet to come off. Look over the list and see which they are.

The Call by the Democratic State Central Committee for primary meetings, will be found elsewhere.

Whitsuntide holiday was observed, in Chestertown, very enthusiastically by the colored population.

The Town Spring, on the College road, has been improved by the putting in of a hollow earthen cylinder.

T. W. Wickes, druggist, has placed in his store a very handsome new soda fountain. The new fountain runs vichy, rootbeer, and all the choice soda syrups.

Our correspondent from Worton must be careful about personal mention. Of course, he means it all in good part, but sometimes people don't like to be joked in public.

The Excursion to Annapolis.—Don't forget it. Steamer Chester leaves Georgetown at seven o'clock A. M. instead of six-thirty. The Middletown brass band will be aboard. To-morrow's the day.

New Church.—A new M. E. church is soon to be built at Locust Grove. Active measures are now being taken to that end, and it is expected before the winter sets in, that the church will be fitted for worship.

The L. G. Cannon left for Crumpton Tuesday morning, bearing over a hundred colored excursionists. Tuesday after Whitsuntide, brings every year an immense congregation of colored people at Crumpton. They call it "a meeting of friends," and sometimes as many as 3000 are said to turn out.

New Music.—We are in receipt of some new sheet music. The most taking song is entitled "When first I saw my darling's face." The author assures us that on this momentous occasion, "the blossoms burst in spring." We are happy to be able to inform the public, however, that nothing else of a serious nature took place.

Odd Fellows' Hall at Galena.—The contract for building the new Odd Fellows' Hall at Galena has been awarded to Mr. Thomas H. Sallaway of that town. The building is to be 30 by 45 feet and three stories high. The first story will be made into two store-rooms, the second story is to be a public hall, and the third story will be used by the order as a lodge room. The building will be frame.

Mr. W. Register, Chestertown's well known marble-worker, has just received an order from Camden, New Jersey. Mr. Register's workmanship and material are both first-class and his charges very moderate, and we are glad to learn that in addition to his large home patronage, he is receiving numerous orders from the surrounding counties. See his advertisement in another column.

Mr. E. T. Willis received for repair, by express, last week, a costly and complicated independent fifth-second watch, from Mr. Jas. Caffrey, a wealthy carriage builder of Camden, New Jersey. Mr. Caffrey stated that he had placed the watch in the hands of a number of Philadelphia watch men, none of whom had been able to make it work correctly. Mr. Willis was soon successful in making all of the hands mark time accurately.

Sales of Valuable Real Estate.—On next Tuesday, at the Voshell house, Chestertown, a valuable tract of land known as "The Forest Farm," will be sold by Charles H. Baker and Richard Hynson, Esqs., as trustees.

On Thursday of next week, Messrs. Richard Hynson, James A. Pearce and Michael Bannon, as trustees, will sell at Massey's; the valuable and highly improved real estate of Mr. David C. Blackiston. The whole estate contains 500 acres. Full particulars of both these sales will be found advertised elsewhere.

Change in Postmaster.—Great surprise was created in Chestertown on last Saturday by the report that Mr. John W. Collins had been removed from the Chestertown post-office, and Captain William H. Hamilton appointed in his place. Mr. Collins was appointed post-master at Chestertown at the beginning of Lincoln's administration, and has held the office ever since, a period of over twenty years. He has conducted the office efficiently, giving satisfaction to all. He has many friends outside of his party. While no personal objection is felt towards Captain Hamilton, great sympathy is expressed for Mr. Collins.

Grade Examinations to determine the pupil's fitness or unfitness for promotion, are now being held in all the schools of the county. The examination papers are prepared by the county Examiner, and the examinations are therefore the same in all the schools. The questions given each grade—we have seen them—are fair tests. The pupil who passes his grade examination, fairly and squarely, without any hints or help from his teacher, is undoubtedly fitted to go up higher. Those who fail to pass their grade examination however, should understand that it is better for them to stay where they are for awhile longer. Better be thorough in a little, than flimsy in a good deal. It is no evidence of "smartness" to go through many books, or to go through one book rapidly. We have known more than one boy (and girl) who boasted of being so learned as to be engaged in the study of ten or twelve books at one time, who yet could not decently analyze and parse a stanza of English verse. One boy (or girl) who knows what he knows, is worth a half-dozen who don't know what they pretend to know.

No Big Railroad for Kent.—The Smyrna Times published last week, on seeming authority, the following:

"Col. Bingham, Jay Gould's agent, was in this town some two or three weeks ago, but nothing particular was thought of it as he has been here frequently before. Last week, however, he was here again, his movements indicating that he meant no less a business than the sale and delivery of the Kent Co., Smyrna & Del. Bay Railroad, running between Bombay Hook and Chestertown, Md., and its franchises to the New Jersey Central. The necessary properties for depots, &c., have been purchased and the terms agreed upon for the road, though the terms have not yet, on account of unsettled land damages which he was here to pay in full, been prepared for delivery. The object seems to be to establish a through line from Baltimore to New York, the Jersey Central road having already absorbed the Jersey Southern, which terminates at Bayside opposite Bombay Hook. Crossing the Delaware by powerful steamers to the Bombay Hook termination of the Kent Co., S. & D. B. R. R., it will run to "Herring Pond" ten miles below Chestertown on the Chesapeake Bay, a land-locked harbor of deep water in the shape of a horse-shoe, covering about 20 acres. From this point to Baltimore it is only thirty miles, the spires of the city being visible when there is a clear atmosphere. The railroad from Chestertown down will have to be built, the grading having mainly been done when this route was contemplated some eight or ten years ago and abandoned only because of the general business prostration occasioned by the panic of 1873. The work of construction and general equipment of the road is to be entered on at once we understand.

Senator Bayard, who was down to Clayton on Monday in the interest of the Whortenby estate, through whose land the road passes and for which he is attorney, expressed his faith in the feasibility of the route especially for heavy freight. If established, its benefit to our community will be very apparent, passing as it does just at our side and giving our produce easy access to the New York market as well as an additional line to Philadelphia. This route will be some 25 or 30 miles shorter than the P. W. & B."

Col. Bingham has since been in Kent, however, and he pronounces the whole matter to be without foundation. The Times must have picked up one of the Colonel's jokes, and have published it in innocent earnest.

A Trip to the Town that was Taken In by a Fascinating Jeweler.—Last Thursday morning, on the invitation of a gentleman who had business up that way, we got in and rode to Millington. The day was a little cloudy, and the morning ride was all the pleasanter for that. From Chestertown to Millington is not the most highly improved part of Kent county. There are on the road, however, many fine farms, and the route is quite a picturesque one. Chester river is in sight nearly all the way, and as Millington is approached, the river narrows, until the trees and shrubbery along its banks, droop over and nearly touch. Morgan's creek, too, is more romantic than its name might imply. After crossing the bridge, it may be seen to flow in sharp bends and curves, that would touch the heart of a poet. Its banks are high and shaded. It is said to be a very fine stream for cat-fish. This fact, it is to be hoped, would not disgust the poet.

Millington reached, the gentleman with whom we were riding had to go on further, and left us to spend the day in the village. Millington was so dreadfully quiet, that one might suppose it was asleep. We were assured, however, that this was one of Millington's quiet days. We strolled clear to the end of the village, over the bridge, and into the classic shades of Sandtown. To the best of our recollection we saw, on the trip, only three people, and one of these was a Sandtowner, as we met him on the bridge coming from that direction. Of the other two, one was a young lady who came to the door to sneeze, and the other was a man at the mill, who seemed to be enjoying a quiet snooze. This, however, was in the suburbs of Millington, and it must be remembered, too, that it was one of Millington's "quiet days." Up in the heart of the town, the merchants and business men were buzzing around.

The young ladies of Millington, we understand, repudiate the fascinating jeweler. They say that the jeweler's charms existed only in his own conceit. From what we saw of the Millington young ladies, we should judge them to be too good-looking and too sensible, to be taken in by any such bogus charmer. We have no doubt the fellow libeled them in the testimony which he gave before the court.

Millington can boast of a very handsome church building. We are indebted to a young lady for taking us over, and showing us through. It is an attractive building outside, and inside it is bright, fresh and handsome. It is the M. E. church, and was completed at a cost of about $14,000. The ladies of the P. E. chapel were to have held a festival in the evening, but it began to rain about twelve o'clock. Rainy weather is very depressing to festivals. In spite of the rain, we noticed before we left, that the ladies were beginning to flit about, with baskets of evergreen, and other festival appurtenances. If anything is calculated to wake up the ladies it is a church festival. Rainy weather rarely kills out their enthusiasm. Notwithstanding the push of the ladies, there is yet one great drawback to holding a festival in rainy weather. A festival is never a success without the "horrid" men turn out, because it is the "horrid" men that spend the money. Sometimes in rainy weather the "horrid" men won't turn out.

We got a good dinner at the Millington hotel, kept by Mr. Thomas. We left for home about three o'clock in the afternoon, very well pleased with Millington, though we saw it on one of its "quiet days." We liked it so well that we mean to go there again some time.

We intended to take a trip out to Mallalieu's Woolen Mills, but the weather prevented. Our ride home was rather a juicy one.

Personal.—Judge Kennard, of New Orleans, expects to visit his home in Kent this summer.

Rev. Mr. Nice, of Baltimore, preached at the M. P. church Sunday morning, and at the M. E. church Sunday evening, upon the subject of Sabbath desecration.

Baltimore Grain Market.—Receipts, Tuesday, 4,000 bushels Southern Wheat and 5,000 bushels Southern Corn. The inquiry for Southern wheat was rather more active, and the market is firm: sales of damaged and inferior Fultz at 1 10a$1 17, and prime to choice at 1 24 a$1 26; and of long-berry at $1 28. No. 1 Maryland red sold at $1 25½. Southern Corn is in good demand and rather higher; sales of white at 56a59 cents for inferior to fair and 60a 60½ cents for prime, and of yellow at 58 cents.

Orphans' Court, Tuesday, June 7, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

S. Franklin Smith, late guardian to William A. Smith, filed his release from said ward, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Charles L. Pearson, one of the administrators of Robert J. Lusby, filed a list of debts due said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

James W. Ivens, guardian to Martha J., Annie E., Samuel H., Andrew J., Alfred T., Mary E. and Sarah C. Tims, filed his bond in the sum of $1500, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

The sale of real estate made and reported by William A. Cleaver, executor of William Bowman, was ratified and confirmed.

Richard C. Smyth and George S. Diehl, executors of Richard Smyth, returned their fifth administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

George W. T. Perkins, administrator of Sarah Clows, returned his first and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

On application, Letters of Administration on the personal estate of Jacob Carroll, late of Kent county, deceased, were granted and committed unto Marion deK. Smith, (Daniel Carroll, brother of said deceased, first renouncing) who filed his bond in the sum of $600, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

Growing Crops—Army Worm—Chery Shipments—Accident—Personal, etc., etc.

It is feared the late rains have washed the pollen off the wheat to an extent that will shorten the crop considerably. This is mere conjecture.

Oats are looking fine and promise a larger yield than for many years.

The army worm has made its appearance in the upper part of this county. Farmers should help one another ditch their fields if it is necessary.

The fruit should be removed from young pear trees now. If allowed to mature the trees will be seriously injured.

Some growers commenced shipping Early Richmond cherries last Friday—only one week later than last year.

The Kalamazoo spring-tooth harrow works admirably. It is the very thing to work fruit trees with.

Some wise people predict a great deal of sickness this year, owing to the scarcity of flies at the present time.

A gentleman living in the second district, and one of the most zealous lovers we have ever known, is to be married next Thursday evening. We hope their future will be one of eternal sunshine.

The Grangers have contracted for a piece of land in Still Pond, and purpose erecting a hall at an early date.

James T. Greenwood had a horse to die, a few nights ago, from hemorrhage of the nose.

J. W. Howard's little son cut the ends off of two of his fingers yesterday.

Capt. James S. Leary has planted several acres in corn and tomatoes, and purposes canning them himself. This is a move in the right direction. We ought to can our fruits and vegetables, instead of giving them away to city packers.

The "Maryland" is about the largest and most delicious eating strawberry in the country. It originated with J. R. Beck, and is no doubt a seedling of the Wilson. There is a fortune in it for Mr. Beck.

Look out for the eclipse of the moon on the morning of the 12th.

Next Sabbath is to be childrens' day at Betterton M. E. Church. J. F. Wilson and others will deliver addresses.

Kennedyville will have a wedding and a festival this week.

Ice cream is sold at Still Pond, Betterton and Stanley. Candidates in this section can keep cool.

TECUMSEH.

Lynch's, June 6, 1881.

LETTER FROM WORTON.

Messrs. Editors:—We have not heard from any of our correspondents lately, so I thought you would like to hear from me.

Wheat is looking finely. We will soon hear the buzz of the reapers in all directions. We understand that some of our farmers are going to use self-binders. That is a good idea, for help will be very scarce this harvest. Corn is looking well. I have not heard that the cut-worm is destroying it. Peaches are looking well, too. I don't think that the frost killed all, as the farmers thought.

We are going to have an exhibition at St. James' church, and we think it will be a grand affair. We would like all our friends to attend it.

We would like to know who that young lady is that had the hysterics about the dogs. Would not I have liked to have been our little Dr.? You bet I would.

What does Mr. ——— go to St. George's for so much. Is he going to change his place of abode, or is he looking at a certain dark-eyed young lady. I rather think it is the latter, don't you?

I understand that there was a Grange festival some time ago. How many of our boys and girls went. Did you take any pain-killer with you? If you did not, you must have suffered.

How does Mr. ——— get along house-keeping, without a wife? Our advice to him is to get one as soon as he can. We see him going round in his carriage. Who does he go to see? We would like to know.

Where has our young Dr. disappeared to, for we have lost all sight of him. Does he still go to ——— ?

We see our friend J—— going to Still Pond a great deal lately. What does it mean? Is he going to take a wife, too.

Has our tin-pan man been to town lately? If I were the young men of that town, I would not like him coming in so often.

Messrs. Editors, can you tell me who our young student goes to see? I mean the one from ——— ———. I have watched him, and found he went in at the same gate that Mr. ——— does: a gate by school No. —. Does he go to see Miss ———? I hope so, for I think she is a nice young lady, and very pretty. I don't mean that for flattery. It is the truth.

Our Worton is a perfect curiosity shop. If you would only come out one day, you would find out more than you could carry in your mind. You will hear from me again soon.

PHRYNE.

Important to Travelers.—Special Inducements are offered you by the Burlington Route. It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere this issue.

Cut This Out.—It is presumed that barely one-fourth of the purchasers of clothing are fair judges of their purchases; and it is therefore important to know where you can buy with confidence, that you may get your money's worth. C. N. Oehm & Son, 230 W. Pratt St., through to 55 Hanover St., have been in the business in Baltimore for over a quarter of a century; they manufacture every garment sold by them. Their experience enables them to give satisfaction in quality, price, material and workmanship, and no one in want of clothing should neglect to call upon them. It will pay you.

Marriages have increased 40 per cent. since young men have learned of the soothing effect of Sines' Tar, Wild Cherry and Hoarhound, upon babies. Young men if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

"A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!" when King Richard spoke these words of Bosworth field, he undoubtedly meant a horse which had been using Robert's Celebrated Horse Powders, as no other animal would have conveyed him to a safe place in the quickest posible time. Price 25 cts.—sold everywhere.

HYLAND & CO'S

CELEBRATED

Iron Frame CULTIVATORS!

THESE celebrated CULTIVATORS, made by HYLAND & CO., are surpassed by no other manufactured in this country. Our CULTIVATOR TEETH are a new style far superior to and other tooth that has ever been introduced in this county. They can be used with either wood or iron frames. They are made of the very best Polished Saw Steel, and are sold for less money than any other make of tooth. The plates are reversable and the shanks stationary.

They can be had at our shop in Galena or Chestertown.

March 17, 1881.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent Co.

AT the earnest solicitation of many friends, I hereby offer myself as a candidate for the House of Delegates at the coming nomination. Thankful for your hearty support and kind co-operation, trusting that I have not been a faithless steward of the people, I hope that I can confidently ask the people for a renomination, pledging myself to a faithful performance of the duties of a Representative, to do the will of the people, and work for the interest of the commonwealth. I also tender the pledge to support the successful nominees.

Respectfully, WM. H. FORD.
