Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 1881.

Did You see the eclipse Saturday night?

Stanley is a new Kent county post-office.

A Bad Day for excursions was last Friday.

The Blackiston Property is to be sold to-day.

The Kent Guards cleared $65.00 on their Festival.

Primary Election next Saturday. Don't forget it.

The Strawberry Crop is nearly exhausted. The yield this year was unusually large.

A Mail Route between Chestertown and Tolchester began yesterday. During the summer we will have a Baltimore mid-day mail.

Kennedyville M. P. Sunday School will continue its festival next Saturday evening, the 18th instant. Bad weather ruined the festival last week.

The Programme of the Kent Guards for the 4th of July, is to shoot at a target for a prize at six o'clock A. M. The company will be dismissed at eight.

Personal.—Rev. J. D. Kinzer, of Baltimore, and Revs. George Q. Bacchus and John S. Bowers, of Dorchester county, have been visiting friends in Chestertown this week.

Picnic.—The Methodist Protestant Sunday School has fixed on Wednesday, the 29th inst., as the time and Baker's wood near Chestertown, as the place for holding their annual picnic.

To Fill the Vacancy.—Messrs. Josias Ringgold, jr., and Josiah Massey, have each been recommended to the Governor to fill the vacancy in the Board of County Commissioners caused by the death of Mr. Dixon.

Two Valuable Queen Anne's Farms for sale.—Elsewhere will be found advertised for sale, by A. Randolph Weedon and B. Palmer Keating, Esqs., as Trustees, two very desirable Queen Anne's farms, located on Kent Island. Terms will be found easy.

Harvest will begin next week with many farmers in Kent county, unless the weather in the mean time should prove cloudy and cool. The storm of last week, though it was at one time thought it would seriously injure the crop, will not do very much damage. The prospect is for a fine yield.

Joe Parsons, whom the Middletown Transcript describes as a returned Texan ranger, dropped in on us Tuesday. He says that Middletown people take a power of stock in the Transcript man and his paper. Joe is on a visit to his parents and friends in Chestertown, and is just as genial and jovial as ever.

A Cow in a Well stirred up Chestertown one day last week. Many spectators turned out to see the show. A rope was attached to her horns, and she was hauled out by a block and tackle. Her neck was a little stretched, but she yet lives and posesses the glorious promise of either being made into beefsteak or of dying of respectable old age.

The Price of Wheat becomes an interesting matter to farmers as harvest approaches. The speculators are now making contracts for wheat for July delivery at $1.23 to $1.24, and for August delivery at $1.22 to $1.23. If the speculative buyers know what they are about, Kent county growers may expect to clear from $1.15 to $1.19 per bushel for prime wheat during July and August.

Land Sales.—Charles H. Baker and Richard Hynson, Esqs., as trustees, sold last Tuesday, at the Voshell house, the "Forest" farm, containing 310½ acres, to Mr. Anthony Bell, of Baltimore, for $14,034.60.

H. W. Vickers, Esq., as trustee, sold at the same place, the Vanhorn part of the Clark farm, containing 80 acres and 5 perches, for $2,003.35. J. H. Porter, purchaser.

Tolchester, our Kent county watering-place, is a more attractive resort this summer than ever before. We visited it last Saturday for the first time this season. The new hotel on the bluff is nearly ready for opening, and will afford accommodation to forty or fifty season guests, and table accommodation for several hundred. We understand that if the hotel proves a success this season, the owners of the resort design building ten or twelve cottages for next season.

Washington College.—The final examinations of the senior class have been concluded and the honors awarded to Mr. Harley, Mr. Gardner and Mr. Mace. The Commencement will take place about the 13th of July. The Library room has been greatly improved, a cabinet of minerals supplied, and to the cases will soon be added specimens in Natural History. Thanks are due to those who have kindly sent to the library specimens in mineralogy. With the Library and Museumand, the Campus converted into a Park, our citizens will have one more pleasant place of resort during our delightful summer months.

Baltimore Grain Market.—Tuesday, June 14, 1881.—Receipts to-day 3,000 bushels Southern Wheat; 29,608 bushels Western do.; 13,000 bushels Southern Corn; 30,800 bushels Western do.; 5,800 bushels Oats, and 150 bushels Rye. Stocks in Elevators 975,370 bushels Wheat and 276,634 bushels Corn. The offering of Southern Wheat is uncertain and small,and the trading is irregular; sales of common to fair at 1 15a$1 20, and good to prime at 1 25a$1 30. Southern white Corn is in active demand at a sharp advance, and yellow is steady; sales of white at 62a65 cts, closing at 65 cts, and of yellow at 58 cts. Oats are fairly active and steady; sales of 5000 bushels Western at 40 cts for unsound, 43 cts. for dark mixed, and 45a47 cents for heavy bright do. Rye is firm and rather better; sales of 600 to 700 bushels at 1 06a$1 08 per bushel for good to prime.

CHESTERTOWN, June 14, 1881.

At a meeting of the Kent Guards, held this date, at their armory, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the sincere thanks of the officers and members of the Kent Guards be extended to the ladies of Chestertown and vicinity for their liberal contributions and their exemplary kindness and courtesy extended to the Company during its late festival.

Resolved, That the Kent News and Chestertown Transcript be requested to publish the aforegoing resolutions.

By the Company,

GEO. S. VICKERS, Sec.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, June 14, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

William A. Cleaver, executor of William Bowman, returned his first administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Benjamin H. Gardner, guardian to William T. Briscoe, filed his bond in the sum of $500, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

Samuel Taylor, administrator of Rebecca A. Taylor, returned his first and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

William A. Cochran, administrator of Thos. Voshell, returned the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased.

Queen Anne's Items.—A Centreville constable arrested a man for cruelty to a horse, and a Centreville Justice fined the arrested party five dollars. This is a line of action that would be better if more frequent.

The Centreville boys took out a new-comer, last Saturday night, to run him. The young greenhorn, however, spoiled the fun by not running. He drew a pistol to defend himself, and in his haste, fired the pistol off, shooting himself through the thumb.

GOOD LOGIC.—A word to those who neglect to avail themselves of the business opportunities we offer. For nearly thirty days we have largely supplied the retail demand for Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing in this city and State satisfactorily. The class of clothing we make is too fine for dealers in small towns to keep and is much better than is generally found in large cities. If you want a good article at the lowest possible price call upon C. N. OEHM & SON, Pratt and Hanover streets, Baltimore.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special Inducements are offered you by the BALTIMORE ROUTE It will pay you to read their advertisement to be found elsewhere this issue.

Interesting Services at M. E. Church.

[Reported for the Transcript.]

Last Sunday being Children's Day at the M. E. Church, it was celebrated by the Sabbath school in an appropriate manner.

In the morning a sermon was preached by the pastor, Rev. T. H. Haynes, especially to the children.

In the evening the order of service was of an exceedingly interesting character. The decoration consisted of a handsome cross in pure white mounted on steps four feet high; over the cross was thrown an arch in white, upon which was arranged in green letters the words, "A Little Child shall lead them." In the centre of this arch and suspended therefrom right above the top of the cross was a beautiful banner, upon which were the words "The testimony of the". Arising from this same arch was another, nearly as large as the first, being in black and gold, upon which was the word "Emmanuel" in letters in imitation of carved ivory. Suspended from this arch was a tri-scalloped banner, edged with gold fringe, upon which were the words, just under "Emmanuel," "God with us," and this was the theme of the service. Testimonies in attestation of this great fact in history, were given by the school, in seven sections. 1st, Patriarchs—Abraham, Moses—from Adam to David: by three young men. 2d, Poets—Job, David, Solomon: by three young ladies. 3d, Prophets—Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel, and minor prophets: by four young men. 4th, Apostles—Peter, John and Paul: by three young men. 5th, Martyrs—Wickliffe, Cranmer, Latimer and Ridley—and a recitation, "The Martyrs": by four young ladies. 6th, Fathers—Luther, Wesley, Coke and Whitefield: by four young men. These divisions were interspersed with appropriate hymns and anthems, by the choir and school, and as each division came up they brought with them handsome scrolls bearing the name of the division which they brought testimony from, which they handed to two young ladies, who placed them upon the base of the first arch, thus adding very much to the beauty of the decoration.

The second part consisted of recitations by 15 young ladies, bringing out prominently the various invitations of our Savior, and was one of the prettiest parts of the entertainment.

The third part consisted of the 7th division of the testimonies, viz, by the children. During the singing of a hymn, the infant class marched up and took seats at the foot of the cross,and immediately after the singing, proceeded to lead the school in the recitation of the "Creed." At the close of this a solo was sung, "Clinging to the Cross," by Miss Annie Lambert, with one arm around the cross. This was one of the most affecting parts, and was listened to with the most marked attention.

A short recitation, "The Bible," was followed by singing by the infant class.

The Pastor then lead the school in a concert response of praise to God, and after this the doxology was sung and benediction pronounced which closed one of the most artistic, interesting and instructive Sunday School efforts that it has ever been our pleasure to witness.

We understand that the service, together with the plans of its accompanying decorations, is the production of Mrs. M. Burton, and while we have often heard of this lady's tact for such work, yet we must acknowledge that this effort gives telling evidence of her superior ability, and we cannot refrain from congratulating the M. E. Church upon having in its ranks of teachers, ladies of such eminent worth, and we cannot but add to their prayers our earnest wish that their efforts of last Sabbath may result in much good, and that the lesson taught therein may rebound to the honor and glory of our blessed Master.

QUAKER NECK LETTER.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT—Dear Sirs: Aware of the dullness of things in general and the scarceness of news in particular, I will endeavor to communicate to you a few lines from Quaker Neck, that may be of interest to some of the numerous readers of your valuable paper.

The crops generally are looking well. The wheat prospect is quite good, owing to the late cool and damp weather. The storm of the 8th and 9th instants made some fields of wheat look very flat, but think most all of it will gain its former upright position.

Pasture fields generally are very poor.

The peach crop in this section is almost a failure. There were some few that had a good bloom, but the young peaches have most all fallen off. Those that have peaches this year will have a big bonanza.

Among other things we have had a Church Festival, held at Bond Chapel, for the benefit of the parsonage of Pomona Circuit. It was in every way a success, notwithstanding the very inclement weather. It was patronized liberally by the dear candidates who are willing to sacrifice so much to serve the people. What a thing it is to have a generous heart. Music was an attractive feature both evenings, vocal and instrumental, lead by the highly accomplished Prof. Robinson, of Baltimore city, assisted by the members of Bond Chapel. On the last evening we were favored with whistling, reading and singing, by that musical genius, Prof. Atlee, which was highly appreciated by all present. The refreshment and supper tables were marvels of beauty and good arrangement, for which the ladies of Bond Chapel are noted. The supper was up to the high standard they have reached on all former occasions, and embraced all the delicacies of the season. It was served to the hungry, without stint or allowance, for the small sum of fifty cents. The net proceeds amounted to over one hundred and thirty dollars.

The people of Pomona Circuit are justly proud of their church and parsonage. They respond liberally and willingly whenever they are called upon. Yours,truly, D.

"NOTES BY THE WAY."

MALARIA—A PRODUCE EXCHANGE—PRIMARIES—AVERAGE YIELD OF WHEAT AND CORN IN KENT—CROPS—PERSONAL, ETC., ETC.

Dr. Chancellor, in his lecture at Easton a few days ago, reckoned that one out of every fifty persons attacked by malaria died. If this was true, the Eastern Shore would soon become a grave-yard. We have physicians on this peninsula that come in contact with thousands of cases of malarial fever in the course of a year, and never lose a case. No doubt if Baltimore physicians practiced here the death rate would be large, for they know nothing about treating it. There are epidemics of typhoid, typhus and eruptile diseases that play sad havoc everywhere. They are not confined to malarial districts. We have malarial fever here, and I believe it is a god-send. Our people get well dosed, and are better able to stand the attacks of other diseases. Our death rate is very small, which speaks well for the malaria-cursed Eastern Shore.

The proposed Produce Exchange in Baltimore is a move in the right direction. While we would rather see it under State management, we will be thankful to get it as proposed.

It is predicted that the primary elections in the counties will be disposed of as rapidly as the Mayoralty primary has been in Baltimore, and that there will be no fight made, the candidates will be settled upon beforehand. Whenever a party adopts this course it is sure to meet with success. Primary fights cause dissensions and are ruinous to any party. If good men are selected, the party need have no fear of their selection, and vice versa.

The average yield of corn per acre in this county is 26⅔ bushels, and of wheat 15 bushels. We ought to do better than this. Hilly Cecil and Harford are ahead of us.

Most of the wheat blown down by the late storm has come up, and the head is filling well. Ten days of clear, cool weather will mature an average crop in this section.

Clover will be cut this week if the weather is clear. The growth is heavy.

The "Herbert" strawberry, grown by J. R. Beck, is ripe now. It is very firm, and is said to be the best berry grown for canning and preserving.

Peaches are still falling off.

Gooseberries have paid handsomely this season.

The cherry market has been dull, owing to the glut of strawberries.

The eclipse of the moon was worth seeing.

William Meeks had a valuable horse drowned a few days ago, and another died from eating Paris green.

There will be three boarding houses as usual at Betterton this season, Mrs. Spry's, W. F. Stavely's and the Chesapeake house, George E. Owen proprietor.

Next Sabbath is children's day at Still Pond M. E. Church.

We understand that Dr. B. S. Roseberry, of Locust Grove, has accepted a position as physician to an Iron Company in Virginia, at a remunerative salary. June 13, 1881.

Marriages have increased 40 per cent. since young men have learned of the soothing effect of SINES' TAR, WILD CHERRY and HOARHOUND, upon babies. Young men if you keep a bottle on hand for an emergency, you are safe in bringing things to a climax.

"A horse! a horse! my kingdom for a horse!" when King Richard spoke these words of Bosworth field, he undoubedly meant a horse which had been using ROBERT'S CELEBRATED HORSE POWDERS, as no other animal would have conveyed him to a safe place in the quickest possible time. Price 25 cts.—sold ever ywhere.

J. A. PERKINS.
March 17, 1881.

To the Democratic Voters of Kent Co.

AT the earnest solicitation of many friends, I hereby offer myself as a candidate for the House of Delegates at the coming nomination. Thankful for your hearty support and kind co-operation, trusting that I have not been a faithless steward of the people, I hope that I can confidently ask the people for a renomination, pledging myself to a faithful performance of the duties of a Representative, to do the will of the people, and work for the interest of the commonwealth. I also tender the pledge to support the successful nominees.
Respectfully, WM. H. FORD.

WILL YOU TRY!

WE are willing and anxious to have those, who are not convinced by never seeing the Ohio Chilled Plow work, to take one and try it in competition with any chilled plow in the market. You will try the Ohio for good work and lightness of draft.
