Chestertown Transcript.

THURSDAY, AUG. 18, 1881.

The Kent Guards elsewhere advertise a concert.

Rhinehart is running a large force at his cannery, packing tomatoes.

The Tramp has not put in his appearance very numerously as yet.

Crabs in small numbers have made their appearance in Chester river.

T. W. Wickes has a large advertisement in this issue, of Maryland Company's Phosphates.

John D. W. Vansant elsewhere advertises personal property to be sold at Crumpton on the 27th of August.

A Canoe Regatta is to come off on the river at Chestertown, on Tuesday, August the 20th. There will be prizes awarded three different classes. All canoes are invited to enter.

The New Comet should be shining in all its glory about now, if the astronomers have known what they have been talking about. We have not heard of its discovery as yet by any local star-gazer.

Baltimore Grain Market.—Wednesday's quotations.—The demand for Southern Wheat is good: the market is firm. Fultz 1 33a1 37, 1 34a1 39 for long-berry. Southern white corn 63 cents, yellow 63 and 65 cents.

House and Lot to be Sold.—Jas. A. Pearce, Esq., as trustee, advertises to be sold at the Voshell House, Chestertown, at 12 o'clock M., next Saturday, a desirable house and lot, located in the village of Sassafras.

From Hot to Cold.—Last Saturday was voted the hotest day we have had in this section, this summer. The weather grew cooler on Sunday, and since then we have been having mornings and evenings that would do credit to October.

Real Estate to be sold.—R. Hynson, Esq., as trustee, advertises elsewhere the valuable farm known as Mount Airy, located near Galena, in the first election district. Sale to come off at 11 o'clock A.M., September 10th, at the hotel in Galena.

We are requested, by the pastor, to say that Rev. Dr. Carmichael of Port Deposit, was taken suddenly ill Saturday morning, in Baltimore, on the way to fill appointments for the rector of Shrewsbury parish, last Sunday. The usual services will be held in the parish next Sunday, August 21st, by the rector, morning and night.

Real Estate Sold.—C. H. Baker, Esq., as trustee, sold at the Voshell House, on last Tuesday, the farm known as the residence of the late Thomas Baker, located near Chestertown, to John N. Usilton. The farm contains 193¼ acres and was sold at $55 per acre, or an aggregate of $10,642.50.

Another Trip to Cape May.—The excursion of Amicable Lodge I. O. O. F. of Chestertown, to Cape May next Wednesday, gives another chance to visit the resort and take a roll in the surf. A brass band is advertised to accompany the excursion, and all efforts will be made to make it enjoyable. Even if the weather be a little cool, the water will be warm and the bathing pleasant.

To Cape May and Home Again in a Day.—Cape May has become a sort of necessary evil to Chestertowners, and to Kent county people generally. We might say a necessary luxury, but taking all things into consideration, it is doubtful whether or not it be a luxury to go to Cape May and come home again the same day.

With plenty of enthusiasm, and plenty of endurance, there is plenty of enjoyment to be had, however, even in the push and jam of a crowded excursion.

About one hundred persons boarded the excursion train at Chestertown on the morning of August the 10th, and numbers were taken on at each station along the road. When the train left Massey's it was estimated that the excursion numbered 400, including a car load from the Queen Anne's road. At Clayton the crowd was largely increased, so that when Bombay Hook was reached, quite a throng was sent out to meet the Clyde.

Our friends, the "solemn trio" of last summer, had formed another compact and gone in a body on this excursion. We intend to say very little about this solemn crowd. We are afraid of them. We might tell how the beer supply of the Clyde was exhausted fifteen minutes after they crossed the gang-board. We might tell how the oldest and most hardened of the trio persuaded his wife to stay at home, telling her that he had had a bad dream in which he saw the steamboat go to the bottom. But we won't say anything about these matters, because as we said before, we are afraid of the trio.

The man that runs the sandwich and coffee department aboard the Clyde, will doubtless end the excursion season, being a millionaire. He is a very innocent seeming young man. The only peculiarities that strike you, are that he wears a dirty shirt, curls his moustache, and puts a good deal of oil on his hair. You would never think of his having the spirit of Jim Keene in him, and of his being capable of getting up a corner on anything. But this young man has a corner, and a very tight corner, on sandwiches. Innocent as he looks, and as much hair-oil as he uses, he yet knows how to give as small an amount of sandwich for five cents, as any purveyor we ever met with. We are willing to make a solemn pledge, that to the best of our knowledge and belief, he can make a two dollar ham pan out four hundred dollars worth of sandwiches. We came across the youngest of the solemn trio at the sandwich table. He had opened two hundred and twenty-seven sandwiches, more or less, in a laudable effort to discover a sandwich that contained a piece of ham big enough to be seen without an eyeglass. He searched in vain. He never found it. The coffee was another marvel. We state that two pounds of coffee seasoned to gallons of water, may not seem to be drawing it mild. But the coffee was very mild.

When the Clyde touched Cape Island, there was a jam to get off. People on an excursion, seem to go crazy in an effort to save five minutes of time and get ahead. The crowd that rushes across the gang-plank, is an "assembly" to be dreaded. But once across and once aboard the cars, the pressure is over.

Three fourths of the excursion party of the 10th, on landing at Cape May beach, struck for the bath houses. They were soon tumbling in the waves like a school of grounded porpoises. That is the men looked like porpoises. Of course we would never dare assert that any daughter of eve, ever under any circumstances, looked like a porpoise. Perish the thought. They, of course, looked like sea nymphs, mermaids, syrens,—like anything beautiful and lovely, but never like porpoises.

Nine-tenths of the excursionists seemed to be possessed with the dread of getting left. Thirty minutes before the train left, the crowd at the gate that opened to the train, became packed. When the gate was finally opened, there was a rush and a crush. At the Clyde there was another stampede. The trip across the bay, and the trip on the cars homeward, was pretty much the same as the trip going, save that there was not so much enthusiasm in the air. The excursionists reached their homes fully prepared for a sound sleep.

To Cape May and home again in a day, is an enjoyable trip to those who start out feeling fresh and vigorous. They may come home feeling tired, but it wears off, and they are likely to feel better in the long run. But it is not the sort of a trip for a sick person.

Queen Anne's Items.—Church Hill is to have a new town hall, 36x66 feet on ground plan and two stories in height.

The Queen Anne's primaries come off next Saturday. The clerkship is being desperately fought for by about six aspirants.

A lad, by name Thomas Hopper, residing in Queenstown, was fooling, together with another young man, with an old rifle on last Sunday. They thought the rifle not to be loaded, but it was loaded, and was discharged, the bullet entering Hopper's thigh. The wound is a very painful one, and the bullet at last accounts had not been found.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY CONVENTION.

CHESTERTOWN, August 16, 1881.

The delegates elected at the primaries in the several election districts last Saturday, assembled to-day in the court house. Wm. S. Walker, Esq., chairman of the County Central Committee, called the convention to order, when, on motion, Judge T. J. Shallcross was elected chairman and Wm. B. Usilton, secretary.

A committee on credentials was appointed, consisting of one member from each district, as follows: C. J. Scott, G. W. Davis, R. G. Nicholson, H. M. Stuart, J. C. Wheatly, who reported the following delegates duly elected:

The convention then proceeded to nominate candidates for the Legislature. It was decided that the chairmen of the several delegations should cast the vote of their districts according to the preference expressed through the ballotings of last Saturday, and the vote was as follows:

For Samuel Cacy 20
" T. A. Hulme 20
" W. A. Hyland 5
" John R. Gray 5

The chairman then announced that Messrs. Cacy and Hulme were the nominees of the party for the Legislature.

The districts were then called for nominees for sheriff, when the delegation from the second district announced that Mr. F. H. Boulden was not a candidate. Mr. Jewell also presented the following declination from Mr. Allen:

To the Committee of the Third Election District to the Nominating Convention, to assemble in Chestertown, August 16, 1881:

GENTLEMEN—Returning my sincerest thanks for the very flattering vote cast for me as a candidate for sheriff, in my district, I respectfully request that you will not allow my name to be used before the convention to-day as a candidate for said office.

I am very respectfully,
CALVIN E. ALLEN.

To Daniel E. Jewell and others, committee.
Chestertown, August 16, 1881.

The convention then proceeded to ballot, the members voting separately. The result was as follows:

For James A. Shaw 5
" R. W. Calder 20

Mr. Calder was declared the nominee.

For county surveyor Mr. H. H. Gresham was nominated even vece.

For County Commissioners the following were proposed by the several district delegations, and unanimously chosen: First district—Charles P. Loper: 2d—Tilghman Shafer: 3d—Richard C. Smyth: 4th—Victor Hendrickson: 5th—T. Romie Strong.

On motion, the nominations were all made unanimous. T. J. SHALLCROSS, Chm.

WM. B. USILTON, Sec.

GALENA, Kent Co., Md., Aug. 18, 1881.

To my Democratic friends who desired my nomination for the Legislature:

The result of last Saturday sums up that other gentlemen were preferred for the position. You did well, for which receive my heartfelt thanks. Let us all with zeal rally to the support of the successful nominees, as it is not mere men, but principles, we advocate. Again thanking you for the honor bestowed upon me, I am

Your obedient servant,
WM. A. HYLAND.

Bad for Mosquitos.—Here is a prescription that is said to act very discouragingly upon the mosquito: Take of gum camphor a piece about one-third the size of an egg, and evaporate it by placing it in a tin vessel, holding it over a lamp or candle, taking care that it does not ignite. The smoke will soon fill the room and expel the mosquitos.

Orphans' Court, TUESDAY, Aug. 16, 1881.—present, Judges Nicholson, Shallcross and Willson.

Wm. D. Burchinal, one of the administrators of John C. Burchinal, returned the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said deceased, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

Cornelius J. Scott, administrator of James B. Hance, returned his first administration account which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

Thomas Neal administrator of Frederick Neal, colored, returned his first and final administration account, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

B. F. H. Caulk, guardian to Ida L. Hessey, returned his final guardian account for said ward, which was examined, passed as stated, and ordered to be recorded.

On application, L. C. Deshane was appointed guardian to (his daughter) Emily A. Deshane, who filed his bond in the sum of $200, which was approved and ordered to be recorded.

John Bryan, Jr., administration of John Bryan, Sr., returned the inventory and appraisement of the personal estate of said dec'd, which was received and ordered to be recorded.

EDITORS TRANSCRIPT:—There will be two grand concerts next week, Tuesday night and Thursday night, of vocal and instrumental music, for the benefit of the Kent Guards. These promises to be very fine intertainments, as our best home talent will be assisted by singers and performers from Philadelphia and Baltimore cities. Some of the city talent are professionals, and our community should patronize these concerts, as it will assist our military in visiting Yorktown, Va. Considerable expense attends these concerts, and we can guarantee an interesting programme. OSKY GHAGEN.

IMPORTANT TO TRAVELERS.—Special Inducements are offered you by the BURLINGTON ROUTE. It will pay you to read their advertisemen to be found elsewhere this issue.

ALTHOUGH the Hebrews could not make bricks for the Egyptians without straw, yet in this country we can put up a neat fire-proof chimney without bricks in a few hours. You can examine the drawing in another column.

GOOD LOGIC.—A word to those who neglect to avail themselves of the business opportunities we offer. For nearly thirty days we have largely supplied the retail demand for Men's, Boys' and Children's Clothing in this city and State satisfactorily. The class of clothing we make is too fine for dealers in small towns to keep and is much better than is generally found in large cities. If you want a good article at the lowest possible price call upon C. N. OEHM & SON, Pratt and Hanover streets, Baltimore.

IRVING INSTITUTE.—A pleasant home boarding school. Students prepared for business, teaching, advanced classes in College, or for the study of a profession. He has the advantage of home spring water, which is better than hydrant water; 2d. He has the new improved block tin lined steel fountain, which makes anp metalic contamination of the beverages impossible; the copper fountains, tin washed, are liable to poison; you are taking a great risk in drinking a beverage which when you discover the poison may be too late to remedy.
