THE PRESIDENT may yet get well. The latter part of last week, news spread over the country, that the physicians had given up all hope. The whole nation waited with anxiety all through last Sunday, expecting at any moment to hear tidings of his death, but no such tidings came. On Monday he was reported better. The swollen parotid gland was discharging pus freely. His stomach was able to retain liquid food and his mind was free from wandering and hallucination, which was one of the bad symptoms of Saturday. On Tuesday his condition was still hopeful and his stomach was strong enough to retain a piece of milk toast. On Wednesday he still held his own. New hope is entertained for the President's recovery. But after all it is a mere hope. There is no certainty. News of a change for the worse, and even of the President's death may come at any time. A telegram of yesterday morning gives his condition as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., 8.30, A. M.
August 31st, 1881.

The President has passed a tranquil night and his condition is quite as favorable as it was yesterday at the same hour. Pulse 100. Temperature 98. Respiration 18.

BOSTON'S WORLD FAIR has taken the course of the much talked about New York world fair, and has fallen through.

THE BALTIMORE PAPERS are discussing the October celebration, which they have christened the "Oriole," as though they meant to make it a success. Whatever induced them to call it the "Oriole," is somewhat difficult to understand. It would have been about as appropriate to have called it the "mocking bird," or the "cock robin."

PRESIDENT GARFIELD has had a faithful nurse in his wife. When he was shot, she was away, and just recuperating from a severe illness. She hurried to his bedside and has since been a constant watcher. She is and has always been full of hope. Last week, when even the faith of the doctors faded away, she would not give up. She maintains her cheerfulness, and adheres to the belief that the President will get well.

SINCE PRESIDENT GARFIELD has been gravitating between life and death, there has been nothing said about Brady and the Star route ring. Brady must consider Guiteau his best friend. Brady & Co. are the class of Stalwarts whose vituperative utterances against the Administration, inflamed Guiteau's addled brain with the belief that it would be a highly moral act to assassinate the President. It would be no loss and no great grief to the country if Brady & Co. could be strung up with Guiteau.

THE PRICE OF GRAIN still ranges high. Some enthusiastic people believe that by the first of January, wheat will sell for two dollars and corn for one dollar per bushel. Maryland farmers will need to get good prices for their grain to make up for the shortness in all crops. The wheat crop was short, peaches are almost an entire failure, and from reports of the drouth that come from all parts of the State, the corn crop will not average much above one half of what might have been expected in a favorable season.

A NEWSPAPER MAN by name of Pride, down in Georgetown circuit M. E. Church, Sussex county, Del., wanted a camp meeting. The preacher in charge, the Rev. Mr. Colclazer, did not want any camp meeting. Pride started out with the proposition, that the devil himself could not prevent the holding of a camp meeting. Pride threw his proud will into the effort, and succeeded in engineering the camp without the assistance of Mr. Colclazer. He was compelled to ask assistance in conducting the camp, of a preacher of another denomination. The camp is said to have proved a rousing success. At the conclusion a call was made looking to the organization of a church of the same denomination of the preacher who had charge of the meeting. And now the Rev. Mr. Colclazer seems to have become a very mad man. But it is difficult to understand what the Rev. Mr. Colclazer has got to do with the camp meeting or with its results.

Col. Lemuel Showell, of Worcester, has built a steamboat for his own personal use and pleasure.

Peninsula News.

Crisfield is gaining wide repute for rowdyism.

Dover is to have Holly water works at a cost of $19,500.

On Saturday week, one hundred drunken men were counted on the streets in Smyrna.

The Talbot county paper mills have suspended opperations and are putting in more machinery.

The Capitol looks fine in its new dress, and it is said by those who stop there that Voshell knows how to keep a hotel.—Delawarean.

The distillers of Sussex county, Del., are preparing for operations. The mills have started, and cider is being prepared for the still. It is estimated that there will be about fifty stills in operation.

A Harrington, Del., firm has an order from a firm in California to supply 85000 worth of wagon hounds. For the benefit of those who may wonder at this item, we will state that these hounds are not to be made up into sausage meat.

The Middletown Transcript has discharged its bald headed editor, and employed an agricultural editor. If he writes a few more articles like the one in the last issue, on the turnip, it will not be long before somebody will shoot the agricultural editor.

Capt. John Holland, who was unloading coal at the wharf at Crisfield on Saturday, heard the noise of a little row up an alley and as he looked around the corner of a house to see what was going on, received a ball from a pistol in his side. The doctor probed for it but did not succeed in finding and extreating the ball. The wound is a dangerous one and may prove fatal. It is not known who fired the shot.

The sale of the real estate of the late Wm. Wilson, in Cecil county, took place on Thursday last. The sales made were as follows: "The Martin Ginn farm," 250 acres, to J. P. Rothwell at $41 per acre; the "Bland farm," 223 acres, to A. P. Crockett at $50 25 per acre; the "Stanert farm," 266 acres to John T. Wilson at $39 50 per acre; the "Ford farm," 179 acres, to John T. Wilson at $35 50 per acre; the "Pullen's Refuge," 302 acres, to John P. Wilson, price $29 50 per acre.

POINTS PRACTICALLY SETTLED.

There has been much solicitude in the public mind, and especially in the ever-sensitive circles of business, in regard to the probable action of eminent officials in the event of the death of the President. To all who have intelligently and dispassionately noted the current of events during the present painful suspense at Washington, the following points would seem to be practically settled.

1. Vice President Arthur will not, under any circumstances, claim to assume the powers and duties of the Presidency, however protracted and absolute may be the inability of the President to discharge the Executive functions.

2. The Cabinet will not, under any circumstances, call upon the Vice President to assume the powers and duties of the Executive office. Fortunately there has been no pressing necessity during the present evident inability of the President, but if the inability should continue and the most pressing Executive duties should be presented, the Cabinet will feel unauthorized to summon the Vice President to assume the powers and duties of the Presidency, until the authority shall be clearly defined by act of Congress.

3. Vice President Arthur will not be summoned to Washington by the Cabinet as long as the President lives. It is known that the Vice President is strongly averse to obedience to such a summons, even from the Cabinet, because of the extreme delicacy of the position he would necessarily occupy as one waiting for the honors of a dying President.

4. The Cabinet have not the signature of President Garfield to a proclamation for an extra session of Congress, and none will be called, under any circumstances, in the name of the present Executive. The call of an extra session to meet possible contingencies resulting from the death of the President would be a needless and might prove a most serious, embarrassment to the new administration. If there shall be an extra session of Congress growing out of the assassination of the President, it will be called by President Arthur.

5. An extra session of Congress is most improbable in any event. In case of the accession of Arthur to the Presidency, a call for an extra session of the Senate would be likely to enable the body to choose a President pro tem. and thus quiet the public apprehension about an interregnum in the Presidential office, in the contingency of the death of Arthur.

6. If an extra session of the Senate shall be called, the Democrats will promptly elect the venerable Senator Anthony, president pro tem. of the body, and thus at once allay all popular fears of a partisan wrangle to deepen the gloom of the nation.

7. If Arthur shall become President the present Cabinet will continue in office until the meeting of Congress. There will be no sudden shock to the political policy of the Garfield administration, but there will be a gradual and sure departure to Stalwartism and all that the name implies.—Philadelphia Times.

THE BALTIMORE CELEBRATION.—The programme for the celebration in Baltimore to come off on October the 10th, 11th and 12th, has been fixed upon as follows:

October 10—Parade of police, fire department, militia, societies, &c.; turning on of Gunpowder water works, which will be commemorated by the playing of beautiful fountains, of unique and elaborate designs.

October 11—Reception of the distinguished French guests of the nation at the City Hall; Oriole pageant in the evening.

October 12—Entertainment and grand ball to the French visitors at the Academy of Music.

[St. Louis Western Watchman.]

Music Hath Charms, etc.

One of the great manufacturing interests of Boston, is the Emerson Piano Company, whose pianos are used with high appreciation and satisfaction throughout the world. In a recent conversation with Mr. Jos. Gramer, one of the proprietors, that gentleman remarked: I have used that splendid remedy, St. Jacobs Oil, in my family, and found it to be so very beneficial that I will never be without it. It has cured me of a severe case of rheumatism, after other remedies had failed.

A BIG ELEVATOR.

SAID TO BE THE LARGEST IN THE WORLD—GRAIN FANNED, WEIGHED AND STORED.

The towers of the new elevator built by David Dows & Co. at the foot of Pacific street, Brooklyn, may be seen with a spyglass from Sandy Hook. This monster building, which is said to be the largest elevator in the country, and probably the largest in the world, is now being completed, although it was put in use several months ago. It has 100 feet front upon Columbia street, and extends thence 1,200 feet to the river, 600 feet being occupied by the main building, which is of brick, and 600 feet by a frame extension, which is sheathed with tin. The frame building is 45 feet high, and has a tower in its centre 100 feet high from the wharf level. The brick building is 85 feet high, and has an elevator tower in the north-east portion 120 feet high. Three towers rise from the centre line of the main building about 100 feet from each other. Each tower is 175 feet high.

It required 17,000 piles, twenty-five feet long, to form a foundation for the massive building, as the soil permitted no other foundation. The piles were covered with heavy timber, upon which a stone foundation three feet thick was laid, and above this rises a solid brick wall. The jar of the machinery which is a constant menace to all great buildings, is broken by heavy bracing beams 2½ feet square, extending from floor to floor, starting upon a solid base of stone laid over 16 piles sunk close together.

Solid brick walls divide the main building into nine apartments, closed to each other except where there are openings for the belting to pass through. These walls form a bulwark against fire, as the holes can be closed by dropping a cast-iron door over them, and if the fire should be so fierce as to cut off access to these doors, they are so arranged that the ropes may be burned quickly, thus permitting them to drop of their own weight. An electric fire and burglar alarm is furnished for the building.

The machinery in the elevator can take grain at the rate of 8,000 bushels an hour from the barges or vessels at the pier. The grain is elevated, sifted and fanned, weighed, stored, put in bins, and then transferred to vessels at the pier. There is nearly a mile of wire cable used to transfer the steam power, and about five miles of belting, called conveyers, carry the grain up with railroad speed. These conveyers travel at the rate of 600 feet a minute, and carry to its destination 2½ bushels of grain a minute. No shovelling is necessary.

[Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.]

A Strong Conquerer.

According to an Illinois exchange, our days of Rheumatism are well nigh numbered. St. Jacobs Oil enters a rheumatic territory, and conquers every subject. That's right. We believe in it.

THREE Michigan girls made up a party and eloped with a young man. By going to three different ministers, he married all of his companions; and then they went on a tripartite bridal tour.

FEVER AND AGUE.

Are you troubled with Ague, Chills and Fevers, Bilious Fever, Remittent or Intermitting Fever, Night Sweats or any disease that comes from Malaria or disordered Liver and Hot Suns? If so, procure a bottle of Green's Ague Conqueror, which is an acetic extract of strong tonic roots, combined with Sulphate of Magnesia, etc., and positively contains no Quinine, Arsenic or other poisons. It purifies the blood, cleanses the liver, spleen and other secrative organs so effectually that the chills will not return. We have never found any case of Fever and Ague it will not cure. Price 50 cents and $1.00 per bottle. One large bottle has cured as many as five in one family. Sold by all druggists and dealers every where.

TO WHEAT GROWERS.

The undersigned, PIONEER in the manufacture of FERTILIZERS in this city, and ORIGINATOR in 1858 of the formulas and processes of manufacture of

"Excelsior" and Ammoniated Phosphate

So well and favorably known by the agricultural public, relying upon his experience and personal reputation hitherto acquired in the uniform excellence of these FERTILIZERS, as manufactured by him, continues to offer them to the Farmers and Planters of Maryland and Virginia, with the assurance that the High Standard Quality of each will be maintained as heretofore.

The above are the most concentrated FERTILIZERS ever offered to the farmer, combining all the stimulating qualities of Peruvian Guano and the ever durable fertilizing properties of Bones in fine, dry powder, prepared expressly for drilling.

For growing wheat, it is the universal opinion of the farmers of Maryland and Virginia, after over twenty years' experience in the use of these Fertilizers manufactured by me, that an application of 100 pounds is equal in its effects to 200 pounds of any other Fertilizer or Guano, therefore fully 50 per cent. cheaper.

With my present advantages and superior facilities for manufacturing, I challenge competition with any Fertilizer sold in the United States, in quality, mechanical condition and price.

By strictly adhering to my original formulas, using only the most concentrated materials and superintending in person their manufacture, as for the past twenty-three years,

UNIFORM QUALITY IS GUARANTEED.

☞ Farmers, to secure the ONLY GENUINE EXCELSIOR and PHOSPHATE prepared according to my original formulas established in 1858, should see that every bag is branded as above, with the ANALYSIS and MY NAME IN RED LETTERS.

T. W. WICKES,

AGENT FOR
Maryland Co's. Phosphate

THE MARYLAND
Fertilizing and Manufacturing Co.

ARE PREPARED TO FURNISH THE FOLLOWING WELL-KNOWN BRANDS OF FERTILIZERS:

ALKALINE SUPER PHOSPHATE,
AND LINDEN PHOSPHATE.

The ALKALINE and LINDEN PHOSPHATES have special reference to the growth and development of the Grain, and are intended for lands that produce a sufficient growth of Straw, but small crops of Grain. They have been used for several years by some of the best farmers of Maryland and Virginia, alongside the highest grades Ammoniated Phosphates, and in some sections have almost superceded them.

The Fine Mechanical condition of our FERTILIZERS is such, that they Drill readily, and we recommend the use of the Drill as being the most profitable way of applying Fertilizers.

The steadily increasing demand for above goods in the neighborhoods where it has been used, attests its success as an unexcelled Wheat Fertilizer.

One evidence of the value of our Fertilizers is that all the parties named below who used our goods last year, have increased their orders for this year. These namesare genuine, and we refer farmers to the parties themselves:

Capt. E. B. Woodall,	E. F. C. Perkins,	Richard Smyth,
Charles England,	S. J. Roseberry,	T. J. Vickers,
T. F. Hurlock,	W. O. Shallcross,	J. W. Howard,
E. S. Clothier,	Robert Kimble,	J. T. Kelly,
J. T. Dixon,	F. Rash,	F. D. Lamb,
Wm. H. Whitely,	G. W. Jones,	Amos Lynch.

Many others too numerous to mention.
