Charles Bounty ss Mem. That on the 26th Day of January 1798 beloved Thos Chice & Clark to the aforementioned William Bungerford Senior who being duly & solemnly sworn on the Holy Evangels of almighty God does depose & say that he was with Barton Bungerford Late of said County deceased when he gave all of the Witness whereof he died two Days before he died & that he desired this Deponent to go down to his the deceased's Son John Bungerford & desire him to come up & serve himself that he frequently heard the said Barton Bungerford say that his son John should have his Negroes that Last Night a little before the said Deceased died he said that his son John was to lend him four thousand Pounds of Tobacco & that he would repay it when he was able & that he desired his Son William to write his will who answered that there was no Paper in the House & then the said Deceased then repeated that his Son John was to have his negroes & that if the Deed he had made to his Daughter Betsy was not good it should be made good & he this Deponent verily believes that at the time of his so saying he was to the best of his apprehensions of sound & disposing mind & memory & at the same time came Richard Green who being duly & solemnly sworn as aforesaid does depose & say that he Last Night with William Bungerford Senior & others was with the said Barton Bungerford who declared that his Son John Bungerford was to have his Negroes that the said John was to pay four thousand Pounds of Tobacco for him & that the said Barton Bungerford said he would repay it when he was able & that he further said if the Deed which he had made to his Daughter Betsy was not good it should be made good & that he said his son Barton should have his land & Mill Stones & that he further added that his Sons Barton William & John should hold & be his Executors upon this Last with Regard the Revd William Bungerford Senior that he only remembers that the Deceased said his Son William & John should be his Executors & the said Gross further declares that he verily believes the Deceased at the Time of his so saying was of sound & disposing mind & memory & further saith not
